Village sets deadlines for Sanctuary deal

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado aldermen directed staff to “negotiate and prepare an engineer’s contract for consideration at the next meeting for services to establish the Village’s Certificate of Convenience and Necessity Service Area for a wastewater system.”

The board voted unanimously Sept. 3 for the first of three motions concerning the wastewater treatment plant and the agreements between the Village and The Sanctuary, LLC.

They also voted unanimously for the second motion made by Frank Coachman to direct the Village Administrator to “contact a professional to pursue a contract for property within the specifications by the Village’s wastewater engineering firm for the purpose of acquiring a wastewater treatment plant site, such recommendations for acquisition of a specific site to be brought forth to the BOA as soon as practically possible. The property should be no less than 8 acres.”

The board voted 4-1 for to amend the Wastewater Services Agreement and Donation Agreement that were signed by Billie Hanks, Jr. Sept. 2 in several ways, both minor and major in nature. Coachman gave the motion, which had 13 parts to it, including strict deadlines and which received a second from Michael McDougal. Coachman, McDougal, Fred Brown and David Williams made the motion. Amber Preston-Dankert voted against.

The amendment includes a deadline of 4 p.m.

Sept. 8 for the Sanctuary to “provide the amended Wastewater Agreement, amended Donation Agreement, the Public Improvement District agreement and an Economic Development Agreement, along with all supporting exhibits” to the Village.

The Village Board of Aldermen will meet in workshop session on Sept. 10 to discuss those documents, if they are received. The amended agreement requires that the workshop session “will be held with Sanctuary officials present or in attendance via video conference to negotiate the final version of all documents.”

Following that meeting, the Board of Aldermen will hold a public hearing regarding all of the agreements with Sanctuary, LLC on Sept. 17. The amended agreement from the Village required “All signatories from Sanctuary, LLC must be present to finalize the agreements with the Village of Salado.”

Other points of change and clarification within the amendment by the Village include these:

- “The land donation location and bounds for the purpose of building the Salado Wastewater Treatment Plant must meet the required stipulations of the current and non-amended TPDES Permit No. WQ0014898001 which states “north of the intersection of Shepard Drive and Farm-to-Market Road 2268, approximately 2,000 feet north from the end of Shepard Drive in Bell County Texas 76571.”

- “The discharge point must meet the required stipulations of the current and non-amended TPDES Permit No. WQ0014898001 which states “north of the intersection of Shepard Drive and Farm-to-Market Road 2268, approximately 2,000 feet north from the end of Shepard Drive in Bell County Texas 76571.”

- “Sanctuary, LLC shall make notification to the Commission and apply for permit transfer to the Application Review and Processing Team of the Water Quality Division of TCEQ within 48 hours of the execution of all related documents to these agreement.”

- “Sanctuary, LLC will bear all expense related to extending or connecting to the Wastewater treatment plant and/or the discharge line.”

- “All references to eminent domain requirements of the Village are to be removed from the documents.”

- “Section 4.8 Wastewater Effluent Matters; Subsection (a) shall be amended to at no cost, for a period no longer than the length of the Public Improvement District taxing period.”

- The service availability date will be two years from the execution date of all documents.

- “The Village reserves the right to choose the design and engineering firms for the construction of the Village System, including the wastewater plant and system funded by the bonds secured for this purpose.”

Finally, references to Sanctuary LP must correctly reflect Sanctuary, LLC and all documents must be edited to be sure that section numbers and letters flow correctly.3

Salado will participate in prescription take-back

Salado Police Department will participate in the 10th National Prescription Drug Take-Back initiative 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Sept. 26.

According to Salado Police Chief Jack Hensley, local residents can return their unwanted, unneeded, or expired prescription drugs for safe disposal.

Police will accept the prescription drugs at the Salado Police Department located just north of the Village Municipal Building.

DEA Acting Administrator Chuck Rosenberg announced that the 10th National Prescription Drug Take-Back will take place Sept. 26 in every state but Pennsylvania and Delaware, where the event will take place on Sept. 12.

The National Prescription Drug Take-Back addresses a vital public safety and public health issue.

Many Americans are not aware that medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse, and abuse.

Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are at alarming rates, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs.

Studies show that many abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet.

In addition, many Americans do not know how to properly dispose of their unused medicine, often flushing them down the toilet or throwing them away – both potential safety and health hazards.

“Prescription drug abuse is a huge problem and this is a great opportunity for folks around the country to help reduce the threat,” Rosenberg said. “Please clean out your medicine cabinet and make your home safe from drug theft and abuse.”

In the previous nine Take-Back events nationwide from 2010-2014, 4,823,251 pounds, or 2,411 tons of drugs were collected.

Village budget hearings set Sept. 10, 24

Salado aldermen will conduct a public hearing Sept. 10 at 6:30 p.m. on the proposed 2015-16 general operating budget and proposed tax rate of $0.3395 per $100 valuation.

The board will adopt the budget and tax rate on Sept. 24, following the second public hearing on the matter.

The total proposed tax rate is just below the roll-back rate of $0.3396.

The general operating budget will have total revenues of $1,057,300. There will be $231,704.67 paid in debt service. The proposed general operating budget has $29 in revenue more than expenses. The current budget is at a $427,000 deficit as adopted.

The hotel/motel budget will have revenues of $229,860, plus a budgeted $97,400 in revenues from the Salado Chamber of Commerce. The hotel/motel budget calls for a deficit of some $26,000 for next year. The current year hotel/motel budget had a deficit of more than $50,000.

The General Operating budget comparison can be found on 3D. The Hotel/Motel budget can be found on page 4D.

Residents sound off on deer

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

“I will not stop chopping apples to feed to the deer on my back porch, because it is my right to do what I want on my property,” said one Salado resident who admitted that she has an “addiction to feeding apples to the deer.”

“We think we are helping them, but we are not,” said another Salado resident who confessed to being what she called a “reformed deer feeder.” She added that feeding deer corn was akin to “giving your child a Snickers bar” every day for every meal when it can lead to serious health problems.

Salado aldermen heard from several residents Sept. 3 who are on opposite sides of the fence of the issue of the population of white tail deer in Salado. Residents took to the public comment portion of the meeting to talk about the agenda item: “Discuss the Intentional Feeding and Management of Deer proposed ordinance.”

While aldermen took no action on the item, they heard from residents about the feeding of deer and the hunting of deer in the city limits.

Joyce Pennington, the admitted feeder of apples to deer, told aldermen that the white tail deer in Salado are an attraction to residents of larger cities. “They love to come to Salado and enjoy what it is to be in the country,” she said. “We have to figure out a way to manage the deer, but not endanger people through bow hunting.”

Pennington said that she has 30 to 40 deer on her property that she feeds regularly, adding that “there is plenty of ground cover and plenty of plants on my property. I will volunteer to teach people what plants they can plant that the deer won’t touch.”

She said that if the Village is going to prohibit the feeding of deer with feeders or fruit, “then you better tell people not to water their yards because the deer will eat their grass and to dig up the flower beds because the deer love flowers and to trim their trees up at least six to eight feet because the deer will eat that high.”

Charles Vickers said that when he moved to his house on Arrowhead three years ago, “there were two does that meandered down the street. Since then the population has bloomed.” On a recent walk around the neighborhood, he said he counted 52 deer in an area of less than 70 houses. “To me, that is an unsustainable situation. Our neighborhood exhibits a deer habitat that is totally exhausted,” he said. “The ground covers are all gone, the smaller shrubs’ foliage has disappeared and the foliage on the trees has been eaten as high as the deer can reach.”

Kate Darnell, the admitted reformed feeder of deer, told aldermen that feeding deer corn is nutritionally a mistake. “The deer suffer from acidosis. They end up with deformed hooves and antlers and a host of other issues because the corn is nutritionally lacking, she said. “We are creating a dependency of the deer on man-made food,” rather than the deer browsing for their food.

“There comes a time when it becomes a public health issue and safety issue,” Darnell said about the overpopulation of deer.

Bill Griffin, a resident on Willow Creek for the past 17 years, agrees that it is “time to recognize that this is a problem Salado has.” He added that Salado should follow what other communities have done that have been successful in controlling their suburban deer population.

Bill Doss referred aldermen and residents to a Texas Agrilife publication entitled “Managing Overabundant White-Tailed Deer.”

The 18-page reference from the Texas Aparks & Wildlife and Texas A&M Agrilife Extension service calculates that 10 does and 10 bucks can grow to a population of 769 in 10 years, assuming 50% fawn recruitment and 50% fawn mortality. This would degrade and exhaust habitat resources, according to the booklet.

Doss said that the deer population in Salado is estimated by Texas Parks and Wildlife biologists at 400 to 500 deer. “Each deer eats five to seven pounds per day. This will require at least 730,000 pounds of forage in one year.

“There is a tipping point,” Doss said. He told aldermen about the habits of deer in his neighborhood. “They start the day by feeding in my backyard and then make their way down what we on Arrow-SEE WHITE TAIL, PAGE 6D

Correction:

I incorrectly reported in the Sept. 3 edition that this item was placed on the agenda by aldermen Amber Preston-Dankert and David Williams. This was wrong. The “Rules of Procedure for Board of Aldermen Meetings” ordinance requires that agenda items be requested by two aldermen: “The Mayor shall include any item requested by at least two (2) Board members. Board members shall submit request to the Mayor and/or the Village Secretary at least seven (7) business days in advance of the day of the meeting.” I assumed the item was added by the two aldermen who voted in favor of the original proposed ordinance. I contacted the city for confirmation of this via text and call and when it was not confirmed either way, I struck the sentence from the story file. However, the edit did not make the page 1A story. I apologize to both Dr. Preston-Dankert and Williams for this incorrect statement. Alderman Fred Brown asked for the topic of the deer to be put on the agenda for discussion and information.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

The GOP Field That Failed

The rise of Donald Trump is, in part, a function of a vacuum.

He is thriving in a Republican field that is large, talented and, so far, underwhelming. To paraphrase Bruce Springsteen, there's 17 candidates and nothing on. Except Donald Trump. Now, this has much to do with the media, and with Trump's unique qualities as a showman. He has the advantage of not caring about anything, apparently -- the facts, his reputation or, ultimately, winning the presidency. In consequence, he is a free man.

Yet no speech, no policy proposal, no argument, nothing from the other candidates has come close to capturing the imagination of voters, giving Trump the space to loom all the larger.

The weakness starts at the top, or what was supposed to be the top. Jeb Bush's "shock and awe" has turned into getting sand kicked on him at the beach by a loudmouth and bully. It's not just that Bush is trailing Trump badly in the polls; he has acceded to the terms of the debate being set by the mogul.

In the argument with Trump over mass deportation, clearly Bush is right. But the split screen with Trump doesn't necessarily do him any favors. Trump is such a forceful communicator that he comes off as some sort of throwback alpha male, whereas Bush is such an earnest wonk, he looks and sounds like a sensitive dad from a contemporary sitcom. It's like watching a WWE wrestler get a stern talking to from Ned Flanders.

Rich Lowry

Scott Walker, in contrast, had a surge early in the campaign. It dissipated over time when his limited preparation on national issues didn't match his outsized early press exposure. A so-so debate performance and the rise of Trump have continued his long fade to middle of the pack in the latest early state polling. Who could have predicted that the Midwestern candidate who tells stories about buying shirts for $1 at Kohl's would have to play populist catch-up with the New York billionaire who travels by eponymous helicopter?

As for Marco Rubio, for whom expectations have been so high, he has been the least reactive to Trump. His campaign is still betting on the long game. It believes his talent will tell over time, but he doesn't have a natural geographic or ideological base.

Ted Cruz may be benefiting most from the Trump surge in his strategic positioning. He has a cogent theory of the case, which is that if he is nice to Trump -- and the other outsider candidates -- he eventually can inherit his supporters. This makes intuitive sense, although Cruz -- exceedingly careful in crafting his words and in calculating his interest -- is hardly a natural anti-politician.

It is still early, of course. The rules of gravity say Trump will come back down to earth. The media interest that is so intense now could burn out. His lack of seriousness should be a drag over time.

Even if he fades, though, someone else will have to fill the screen. To this point, no one else has been big or vivid enough to do it.

Tourism dying in Salado

To the Editor:

Looking at the proposed chamber/tourism budget for 2015/2016, it is very evident that tourism is dying in Salado. In 2014/15, the advertising budget for tourism was $65,000. The 2015/16 budget shows only $23,000 for advertising. This means very little effort is being done to let people know what businesses and events are available in Salado. This budget includes raising franchise fees which will result in raising the cost of waste disposal, water and etc. for the Salado citizens. Very few dollars are included in road maintenance the proposed budget also cuts monies to the Main Street Project. The car clubs which have held annual meetings in Salado for many years are researching moving these events to new locales.

Businesses that have finally given up are closing weekly. The free snow cone effort isn't bringing in tourists. Just getting I-35 finished is not going to automatically bring tourists back to Salado. The sewer system MAY bring businesses here but without the tourist trade they won't last long. It is so obvious that the goal of this village is strictly business. Maybe our new bike and hiking trails will do the trick.

The Village is trying to grow into a Belton or Temple. To me the Village has a champagne taste and beer budget. Growth is inevitable but change is by choice. (Example: chang-

Shops offer input

This weekend, visiting the shops, came questions and suggestions such as:

1. Main street plans from Monday and Tuesday evening
2. Advertising -- need for Highway Bill Boards
3. Construction
4. Stagecoach
5. Sanctuary

Regardless of location, people stop and ask "How are things going? What is the latest on certain issues?"

It is difficult to answer questions in the grocery store, church, restaurant, or wherever. Emails are easier. Write one answer; send to all. However, many of the issues evolve in a matter of hours. The 9 a.m. answer may change by 1 p.m. Also, there are five Aldermen/Lady who may change their positions, and nothing happens without their approval.

Good example is the editorial by Hans Fields. Being an Alderman until May this year, he knows the issues, how difficult they can be, voted on them, and understands how quickly they can change.

The best way to answer questions is frequently, in person. Beginning 22 September, 6:30 p.m., a quarterly Town Hall will be held. It will not be scripted and you will learn the background of every decision made. As former President Truman said, "the Buck stops here." Likewise, It stops with me.

You will get "Up-to-the-minute" answers to such issues as:

- Water Treatment Plant
- Sanctuary
- Construction
- Roads
- Annexation
- Deer and environment
- Naming buildings and bridges and any other topics.

Where: The Municipal Building.

When: Monday, Sept. 22 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Who: Salado citizens and the Mayor. The Aldermen/Lady are welcome. It will be posted.

Purpose: Information. Straight talk. No tap dancing, no excuses.

How Not to Give Employees a Raise

One former executive says he wants to hike worker pay -- but only if he gets a tax break first.

Some days, I get an irresistible compulsion to tear out my hair.

My latest outbreak was triggered by a New York Times opinion piece by Peter Georgescu, the former chairman of the giant PR outfit Young & Rubicam.

He issued a clarion call for his corporate peers to reverse the dangerous widening of income inequality in our country by increasing the paychecks of America's workaday majority. "We business leaders know what to do," he wrote, "but do we have the will to do it?"

Apparently, no. But Georgescu says he knows just the thing that'll jar the CEOs into action: corporate subsidies.

Yes, he actually wants us taxpayers to give money to bloated, uber-rich corporations so they can pay a dab more to their employees. As Lily Tomlin says, "No matter how cynical you get, it's hard to keep up."

First of all, paying to get good behavior would reward bad behavior, completely absolving CEOs and wealthy shareholders of their guilt in creating today's gross inequality.

They're the ones who've pushed relentlessly to disempower labor unions, downsize and privatize the workforce, send jobs offshore, defund education and social programs, and otherwise dismantle the framework that once sustained America's healthy middle class.

Secondly, Georgescu's proposing that working families be reduced to charity cases, lucky to be given a dollop of aid by generous bosses. He's obviously clueless about the deep democratic yearning that's sparked a rising worker rebellion across our country. People aren't seeking handouts, but the economic and political power to lift themselves up.

As Larry Hanley, president of the Amalgamated Transit Union, said in response to Gerogescu's offer of charity: "Strengthen labor laws, and we can have democracy and equality again."

First DWI now requires ignition interlock to drive

A new law aimed at reducing repeat drunk driving offenses and saving lives on Texas roadways officially went into effect this month.

The law, signed by Governor Greg Abbott on June 19, requires all drunk driving offenders to install an ignition interlock on their vehicles to have their driving privileges restored following an arrest.

"MADD celebrates a much-needed improvement to Texas' drunk driving law as we head into the busy Labor Day weekend," said MADD National President Colleen Sheehey-Church. "As we remind everyone to Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over, we are relieved to add Texas to the growing list of states that have taken action to protect residents and visitors from the 100 percent preventable crime of drunk driving."

"Ensuring the safety of those on Texas' roadways is of utmost importance, which is why I was proud to sign this bill into law," said Governor Abbott. "The implementation of this law is an important step in creating a safer driving experience for all residents and visitors to the Lone Star State."

The new law requires the installation of an interlock for first-time offenders with a BAC of .08 or greater if they choose to drive following a DWI arrest during a license suspension. The previous law allowed arrested DWI offenders to obtain a non-interlock restricted license following arrest.

ing village ordinances to make building and living here as difficult as possible) Other than a few special interest groups in the Village, many feel the Village is just fine as it is. At the September 3rd BOA meeting, the Mayor quoted the Ft. Hood commander as saying how quaint and beautiful Salado is. Yet the BOA and the Chamber of Commerce are intent on changing the Village and its charm into just another big city.

At this point if the Sanctuary backs out on it's agreement regarding the sewer system, the Village BOA is left with a lot of egg on it's face. No land, no backup plan, no permit, etc. and lots of closed businesses. Citizens are tired of empty promises and no deadlines on the multiple issues now facing this BOA. Realize that the sewer bond issue was passed 10 months ago and at the public fact presentation meetings it was promised that in 18 months after the passage of the bond the Village would have a sewer system. When will we stop spinning our wheels and get down to business.

Indications are the search for a new executive director for the Chamber/Tourism partnership will result in a person who has strong talents in business and economic development with the Chamber of Commerce board handling the tourism effort. My research indicates that this is a recipe for failure. The Chamber of Commerce board does Not have the expertise to deal with tourism and administration of hotel/motel tax money expenditures. Tourism is a very specialized field in which experience is a must as strict regulations of expenditures are mandated by Texas law.

A critical real issue is that events that in the past have come here are going elsewhere. And proposed events are barely making expenses and not attracting customers. What good are more businesses without clerks, waiters, waitresses and most important customers?

To the Editor :

Please encourage your friends, family, and neighbors to offer words of support to our high school football teams and their coaches. These boys have been working all summer to improve their skills and develop a team spirit. If you have a son in the program or are part of a coach's family, then you already know the countless hours these boys and their coaches have spent in the heat working to improve their program. They need to hear from us that we respect their hard work and determination to keep striving for excellence. It is too easy in today's world of social media to poke fun and criticize how any team performs, whether it be a high school team or a NFL team. Our boys are not getting paid to bounce back to their feet and run back for another play, and yet the entire team shows energy and enthusiasm despite the score board. If you attend a home game, keep cheering until the end and clap for the hard work of the team and coaches. Feeling defeated is contagious, please don't spread that germ. Instead reward their hard work with positive comments, smiles, and pats on the back. Our boys will thank us for supporting them.

Thank you,

Bake for the Annual Christmas in October

Attention! Bakers needed! Get your favorite recipes ready and start baking for the annual Christmas in October Bake Sale. The bake sale is always a popular part of Christmas in October, an event sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Ladies Auxiliary. The Village ladies (and sometimes men) bake pies, cakes, cookies, fudge, brownies and other delectable treats for the bake sale. Gluten free and sugar free items are increasingly popular. Each year the bake sale is successful by selling out of goods before the end of the Christmas in October event. Profits from the bake sale are dedicated to community grants and high school scholarships.

Christmas in October Bake Sale Co-Chairs, Pat Broecker and Dorothy Dentry, want "Village Bakers" to know that containers for baked goods will be available starting September 15 at the Visitor Center.

So gather your favorite recipes, assemble the ingredients and let the baking begin!

THE ENTREPRENEUR

In his rendering of The Entrepreneur, sculptor Dean Kermit Allison gives us a revealing look at the self-made man in his relentless struggle to chisel himself from common stone. Blindfolded, The Entrepreneur must trust his instincts. He has no way of knowing how all this will turn out.

His face bears the marks of those who would stop him while he is in this most vulnerable stage. His hand is battered from misplaced strokes of the hammer, constant reminder of his own mistakes.

The exact position of the right leg has yet to be determined. The stone reveals two distinct possibilities. To carve the leg forward and unbent at the knee would allow him to make use of a natural outcropping in the rock, perfectly positioned to accommodate the front half of the foot. To bend the knee would allow him to make use of another natural rock formation that seems to offer a finished calf. The choice is the future, but it must be made. Whether or not to bend the knee is a choice that faces every entrepreneur.

As we continue to study this figure of bronze, it becomes obvious that the blindfold has been no impediment to his progress. His instinct has been remarkable. His enemies have not been able to stop him. He has overcome his mistakes.

The greatest danger is in his own hands. The angle of this chisel is far too aggressive. It seems the rapid removal of such a volume of stone requires a chisel judged by many to be much too direct. Spectators continue to gather and watch with mounting interest . . . will his next stroke be the one that cuts him off at the knees?

Explanatory Statements for the November 3, 2015 Constitutional Amendment Election

Proposition Number 1 (SJR 1)
SJR 1 - Current law provides an exemption of $15,000 from the ad valorem taxation for public school purposes of a residence homestead. The proposed amendment would increase this exemption to $25,000, starting in the tax year beginning January 1, 2015. In order to reflect the increased exemption on the homestead of a person 65 years of age or older or a disabled person, the proposed amendment would provide a reduction to the current limitation on the total amount of ad valorem taxes. The proposed amendment would protect school districts from all or part of the revenue loss by authorizing an appropriation of funds according to formulas set by the legislature. In addition, the proposed amendment would authorize the legislature to prohibit a political subdivision from reducing or repealing a homestead exemption adopted by the political subdivision. Finally, the proposed amendment would prohibit the imposition of a tax on the conveyance of real property, but would not prohibit the imposition of a business tax measured by business activity, a tax on the production of minerals, a tax on the issuance of title insurance, or a change in the rate of a tax in existence on January 1, 2016.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment increasing the amount of the residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation for public school purposes from $15,000 to $25,000, providing for a reduction of the limitation on the total amount of ad valorem taxes that may be imposed for those purposes on the homestead of an elderly or disabled person to reflect the increased exemption amount, authorizing the legislature to prohibit the political subdivision that has adopted an optional residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation from reducing the amount of or repealing the exemption, and prohibiting the enactment of a law that imposes a transfer tax on a transaction that conveys fee simple title to real property."

Proposition Number 2 (HJR 75)
HJR 75 - In 2011, voters approved a constitutional amendment to allow a surviving spouse of a 100 percent or totally disabled veteran an exemption from ad valorem taxation from all or part of the market value on the disabled veteran's residence homestead, as long as the surviving spouse had not remarried. The amendment did not apply to surviving spouses of veterans who died before 2011. This amendment would extend the exemption in such cases. The proposed amendment would apply only to ad valorem taxes imposed for a tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

The proposed amendment would appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for an exemption from ad valorem taxation of all or part of the market value of the residence homestead of the surviving spouse of a 100 percent or totally disabled veteran who died before the law authorizing a residence homestead exemption for such a veteran took effect."

Proposition Number 3 (SJR 52)
SJR 52 proposes a constitutional amendment to repeal the requirement for the Comptroller of Public Accounts, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Attorney General, and any other officers elected statewide to reside in Austin, Texas, the state capital. Under current law, these statewide elected officers are required to reside in the capital of the State of Texas while in office. This amendment would not apply to the residency requirement for the Governor.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment repealing the requirement that state officers elected by voters statewide reside in the state capital."

Proposition Number 4 (HJR 73)
HJR 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the legislature the authority to pass statutes to allow a professional sports team charitable foundation to conduct charitable raffles under the terms and conditions imposed by general law. The laws passed under this authority may provide that the professional sports team charitable foundation may use proceeds from such charitable raffles to pay reasonable advertising, promotional, and administrative expenses. Any law enacted by this provision only applies to entities defined as professional sports team charitable foundations on January 1, 2016. Additionally, any law enacted by this provision may only allow charitable raffles to be conducted at games hosted at the home venue of the professional sports team associated with a professional sports team charitable foundation.

The proposed amendment would appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit professional sports team charitable foundations to conduct charitable raffles."

Proposition Number 5 (SJR 17)
SJR 17 proposes a constitutional amendment which would increase from 5,000 to 7,500 the maximum total population threshold of a county that is allowed to construct and maintain private roads as long as the county imposes a reasonable charge for the work.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize counties with a population of 7,500 or less to perform private road construction and maintenance."

Proposition Number 6 (SJR 22)
SJR 22 proposes a constitutional amendment that would add the right to hunt, fish and harvest wildlife, including by use of traditional methods, in the Bill of Rights of the Texas Constitution. This right would be subject to laws and regulations intended to conserve and manage wildlife and to preserve the future of hunting and fishing. The proposed amendment would establish hunting and fishing as the preferred method of managing and controlling wildlife in Texas. The proposed amendment is not intended to affect any law or provision related to trespass, property rights or eminent domain, and would not prevent the legislature from authorizing a municipality to regulate the discharge of a firearm in a populated area in the interest of safety.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment recognizing the right of the people to hunt, fish, and harvest wildlife subject to laws that promote wildlife conservation."

Proposition Number 7 (SJR 5)
SJR 5 proposes a constitutional amendment to dedicate a portion of revenues from (1) the state sales and use tax, and (2) the tax imposed on the sale, use, or rental of a motor vehicle, to the State Highway Fund (SHF). Under current law, these funds would be deposited to the General Revenue Fund. Money deposited to the SHF is intended to be used only to construct, maintain, or acquire rights-of-way for public roadways other than toll roads; or to repay certain transportation-related debt.

The proposed amendment would appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment dedicating certain sales and use tax revenue and motor vehicle sales, use, and rental tax revenue to the state highway fund to provide funding for nontolled roads and the reduction of certain transportation-related debt."

College Hill clean up volunteers

Foundation to rebuild trail with funds from Foster Family Foundation and Texas Parks and Wildlife Trails grant

Two dozen volunteers from Aggies for Christ and Longhorns for Christ met at Salado College Park Sept. 4 to trim trees, mow the grounds, weed the flower beds, and create a new planting bed as part of their weekend visit to Salado.

The group did similar work at Salado College Park last year. The trustees of the park are very appreciative of the work performed since it will prepare the park for visitors coming during the fall and winter months. Salado College ruin has been carefully trimmed and mowed to provide visitors with a pleasing view of this historic site. "The trustees would like to acknowledge the hard work the volunteers performed while at the park. Their dedication to the tasks at hand are testaments of their character and willingness to help beautify Salado," said trustee Bill Kinnison.

Salado College Foundation, Inc., plans to seed the area again this year as was done last year. "Last year's seeding had good results and produced a variety of wildflowers. This year we will fill in with a heavier concentration of bluebonnets," said Kinnison. Mid-October is when the seeding will be done.

Donations toward this project are appreciated and can be made to: Salado College Foundation, Inc., P.O. Box 143, Salado, TX 76571.

Also, Salado College Foundation is looking forward to beginning work to rebuild the trail around the ruins this winter due to a Texas Parks and Wildlife Trails grant.

The foundations portion to the matching grant has been met thanks to the donation by the Foster Family Foundation.

Ladies netters sweep Jarrell to improve to 18-5

Salado Lady Eagles are 18-5 following a three-set win over the Jarrell Lady Cougars last week.

The girls beat Jarrell 25-16, 25-12 and 25-19.

The Lady Eagles had six aces at the service line, led by Kierstan Osborn and Meagan Hill, who each had two aces. Malory Schattle and Amy Coleman both had an ace.

Cheyenne Vaca attacked the net relentlessly for the Lady Eagles with 11 kills. The Lady Eagles had 33 kills, including nine from Tori Dekay and five from Schattle. Payton Dreitz had four and Brianna Washington and Hill each had two kills.

Vaca also led the girls defensively at the net with 3.5 blocks. The team had 8.5 blocks overall. Schattle had 2 blocks, Washington had 1.5 blocks, Dekay had 1 block and Dreitz had 0.5 blocks.

Schattle led the girls with 18 digs on defense followed by Hill with 10 digs. Also recording digs for Salado were Osborn, nine, Kerrigan Hearne, eight, Vaca, seven, Lindy Martin, four, Washington and Dekay, two and Coleman, one.

Hill set the ball 27 times, while Hearne and Osborn had two sets each and Schattle had one set.

The girls have an open date on Sept. 11.

Trey Sheppard had almost half of the yards for Salado's offense, running for 83 yards, including a 61 yard run. (PHOTO BY RON LEQUIN)

Eagles struggle in 49-6 loss to visiting Trojans

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado Eagles struggled in every aspect of the game in their Homecoming loss to the West Trojans, who had 502 yards offense tonight at Eagle Field in their 49-6 win.

The Trojans drew blood early and often, scoring three first quarter touchdowns on drives of 58 and 60 yards and a short drive of just nine yards after Bailey Horn returned an Eagle punt 71 yards.

West took eight plays and less than two minutes to score on a 10 yard run by Kory Webre less than three minutes into the game. The Trojans scored again on a four yard run by Steven Stoermer and Horn kicked the extra point for a 14-0 lead with 7:05 left in the first.

Salado turned the ball over on downs and the Trojans drove 60 yards in 11 plays, scoring on a quarterback keeper by Mason Tobola. Tobola led West past Salado by throwing for 169 yards on six of 11 passes. He also led the Trojans in rushing with 84 yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

West scored on each of their first five drives and did not punt until late in the second half as they pounded Salado for 502 yards total offense.

The Trojans were called 19 times by officials for 178 yards in penalties and fumbled three times. But a team can get away with such play when the defense holds the opponents to just 174 yards total offense.

Sophomore quarterback Ryan Kyburz, in his first start, threw for 47 yards on four of 24 passing for Salado. His long pass was 25 yards to Drew Dobbins.

Dobbins scored Salado's only touchdown on a 52 yard blast through the Trojans defense with 4:19 left in the game.

However, the Eagles had a chance to score at the end of the second quarter, but clock management let it disappear.

West was threatening to score for the sixth time in the first half when Nico Lowrance scooped up a Tristan Gonzales fumble at Salado's five and rambled all the way to the Troy 7 yard line before being tackled from behind. A penalty on the play moved the ball to the 2 with second left in the half. Salado had an opportunity to punch the ball in, but had no more timeouts to stop the clock and get a scoring play in the books.

Salado went to the lockers trailing 35-0.

The second half, with the exception of the touchdown run by Dobbins, was much like the first for the Eagles.

Trey Sheppard had almost half of the yards for Salado, running for 83 yards on 14 carries including a 61 yard run.

WEST OUTSCORES JV

Salado JV Eagles lost on the road to the West Trojans 30-6 on Sept. 3.

Mac Miller threw a 40 yard pass to Quade Brown for the Eagles' only score.

Quade Brown was named the offensive player of the game. Wyatt Bagley was named the defensive player of the game.

West scored a touchdown in the first quarter, a safety in the second, two TDs in the third and a TD in the fourth.

The 0-2 Eagles will face Rockdale Sept. 10.

 a 4-0 club division, he would have gotten home safely. As soon as dummy came down, he should have realized that the only real threat to his contract was a 4-0 club division and then adapted his play to deal with that possibility.

There was a simple way to do this. After winning the third spade and learning that the suit was divided 4-3, South should have led a low club from his hand! The worst that could happen would be that West would score a club and a spade to hold him to nine tricks. The safety play was thus sure to succeed against any lie of the cards at that point.

It is true that in the great majority of deals the recommended play would cost declarer an overtrick or two, since nine times out of 10 the clubs would be divided 2-2 or 3-1. However, deliberately conceding a trick that might not have been lost in order to make certain of scoring hundreds of points is well worth the price.

The Robertson Plantation will open its doors for a Gala on Dec. 3.

Christmas Gala will benefit local historical groups

The Ambrose and Cowan families, sixth generation owners of the Robertson Plantation and descendants of E.S.C. Robertson, are hosting a gala to benefit historic preservation 7 - 10 p.m. Dec. 3.

The Gala will benefit three Salado non-profit organizations: the Central Texas Area Museum, the Robertson Colony-Salado College Foundation, and the Salado Historical Society.

Tickets to the Robertson Plantation Gala are $100 each and will include a home tour, hors d'oeuvres catered by the Range, and live music by Pam Bland and Drs. Matt Rogers and Guy Okeson.

The host families are opening the entire Robertson home for the Gala event, including the private residence upstairs. Although the Robertson home is on the Salado Christmas Stroll home tour on December 3-4, only the downstairs rooms will be open for viewing at that time.

Colonel Elijah Sterling Clack (E.S.C.) Robertson was a Texas pioneer, patriot, soldier and jurist and was one of the founders of Salado College. E.S.C. and his wife Mary Elizabeth Robertson began building their Greek Revival style plantation home in 1856 and completed it in 1860. In addition to the twenty-two-room mansion, there are slave quarters and a family cemetery on the plantation grounds.

The Gala will be a unique opportunity to not only benefit historic preservation in Salado, but to tour an historic home that has rarely been open to the public.

Tickets may be purchased by check mailed to P.O. Box 36 in Salado, Texas 76571. For credit card charges or other information, call 254-947-5232.

Tour the spookier side of Salado this fall

This autumn, take a lantern-lit stroll down Salado's Main Street and get lost in tales of cowboys, Indians, buried treasure and, of course, ghosts.

Local author, Jonathan Hal Reynolds, will be your guide for the evening as you visit historic sites such as the Stagecoach Inn, the Salado College Grounds, Pace Park and more.

Hear spooky legends and macabre folklore as twilight falls upon the village. The ghostwalk begins at dusk, and lasts for approximately an hour and a half.

Salado Ghost Walk dates are Oct. 3, 10 and 24 and Nov. 7, 14 and 21 and Dec. 19.

Public tour tickets are on sale now for $20 per person.

Private group tours are available seven nights a week year around for groups of 10 or more. To check availability, purchase tickets, or request a private group tour, visit www.saladoghostwalk.com head Drive call 'restaurant row.'"

White Tail Deer

Restaurant row are stops in the yards of local residents who feed the deer daily.

Doss said that there is no evident support for hunting of the deer in the Village. "I don't think it is a workable solution. It is going to take something else."

He added that the "poster child for deer management is the Lakeway community on Lake Travis. They have been at it for 15 years and are having success."

Dr. Paul Cromwell told aldermen that "culling the herd by hunting is an egregious approach to getting the deer population down." He added that since he lives a block outside the city limits, "I will continue to feed them."

Almost every speaker said that they wanted some solution to the problem, most wanting to stop short of hunting the deer in the Village limits.

"You have one aldermen that has been telling everybody that they can kill the deer in their back yard," Hans Fields said. "That is true as long as it is in season, they have a license and they harvest the meat."

He added that "a lot of people feed the deer and love the deer and are certainly against bow hunting." The Managed Lands Deer Program is cited in the ordinance.

Jon McDurmitt said that the Village should carefully "manage the deer," and not "eliminate the deer." He said that many people come to visit Salado for the golf course and the creek and are happy to "see the deer."

Texas Parks & Wildlife works with communities to help them establish programs for managing deer populations through both lethal and non-lethal means.

Among the non-lethal approaches are making the landscape less "palatable" to deer through planting of deer-resistant plants and local regulations prohibiting the supplemental feeding of deer.

Supplemental feeding cannot increase the carrying capacity of an area," according to the TP&W and Agrilife document. "It can however, artificially sustain populations above the acceptable limits of the natural habitat. In supplementally fed habitats, populations are vulnerable to volatile and unstable population growth and crashes."

The deer population has an impact on the ecology of an area, according to the document: "The impact of deer on a plant community has a cascading effect on deer and other animal populations. Invertebrates, reptiles, amphibians, birds, small and large mammals rely on diverse plant communities for food and cover, especially within those zones easily reached by foraging deer. Recovery of habitat affected by deer is impacted not just by short-term deer numbers, but also by the history and severity of over-browsing, soil conditions, and climate. Some studies indicate that drastic reductions in deer numbers have little effect on increasing plant diversity over the short-term and vegetation recovery may only occur through extended periods of low deer densities."

The booklet suggests these non-lethal approaches:

- Fencing of at least 8 feet and electric fences to keep deer off of properties.
- Unpalatable Landscape Plants that will cause deer to go to other areas for forage. Forrest W. Appleton in his article "Coping with the deer by the use of deer resistant plants" on the Aggie horticulture website lists these plants as being not so favored by deer.

 Other deterrents could include visual, auditory or olfactory. Visual deterrents such as shiny pans, scarecrows, and other items can deter deer from an area, but the deer "quickly habituate to visual deterrent techniques and become less scared of them," according to the Agrilife document.

Noise making devices can do the same, but may be troublesome to neighbors. Deer acclimate to noise as well in the long term.

Odors can be used to repel deer, according to Agrilife service. "Several commercial repellents are available, but their efficacy is questionable." Carnivore urines can help keep deer out and there are lists of commercial products to keep the deer away. Some suggest that spreading human hair on the ground near a garden will keep the deer out of it.

Agrilife service states in the resource document that Dogs are an effective deterrent for keeping deer out of your yard.

While these approaches may work in your own backyard, how does this affect the rest of the community when some neighbors may be throwing deer corn on the ground and others are throwing human hair on the ground to keep the deer away?

Community programs that are non-lethal could include Trap and Transport. However, these are expensive and are not always effective. The cost of Trap, Transport and Translocation of deer is estimated by Agrilife extension at $150 to $750 per deer. And not all the deer survive that are transported. According to "Survival and Movements of Translocated White-tailed Deer in South Texas" the "annual survival of all translocated deer was lower in the partially fenced property (64 percent) compared to the unfenced property (80 percent), but overall survival was similar to survival rates of adult native south Texas deer reported in previous studies (68-74 percent)."

Lakeway uses Trap and Transport as part of its deer management plan outlined in the Comprehensive Plan for the city. Since 1999, 1,613 deer have been removed through trap and relocation permits.

Fertility programs are even more expensive, estimated at between $350 to $1,100 per female.

Lethal approaches could include trap, transport and harvest approaches, which cost $175 to $350 per deer; individual hunting programs through Land Management plans that cost $85 to $300 per deer and sharpshooter programs that cost $250 or more per deer.
