Salado will stay 4A for 2016-18 UIL realignment

Salado High School Eagles will remain in 4A competition for the next two years as the University Interscholastic League (UIL) released its conference cutoff numbers last week.

The cut off for 4A Division II is 480 students enrolled in grades 9-12. Salado High School turned in an enrollment of 492 students in October. The top end of 4A, Div. II is 722 students.

It is unlikely that any of Salado's district football opponents will move up or down in the upcoming February 2016 realignment by UIL.

In 2014, the enrollment figures for District 11-4A Div. II football were as follows: Salado, 465, Caldwell, 511, Smithville, 540.5, La Grange, 610.5 and Giddings, 640.

Without significant growth, the district in which Salado competes for basketball and other sports will likely stay the same, with Salado being the smallest school by far.

Schools in District 25-4A had this enrollment for the 2014-15 alignment:

Salado, 465, Llano, 496, Burnet, 924, Liberty Hill, 954, Taylor, 974 and Lampasas, 1,017.

Salado High has 76 transfer students enrolled this year.

Without those transfer students, Salado would drop to 3A competition, where the Eagles would compete in 3A, Division I in football. Student enrollment for 3A, Div. I is 319-479 students.

If Salado had been below the 480 student cut off, the Eagles would likely compete in District 10-3A Div. I with these opponents who turned in the following enrollment numbers in 2014: Florence, 315, Little River Academy, 369, Cameron Yoe, 390, Troy, 408, Rockdale, 447.

The Eagles would also likely compete in some form of District 20-3A if it had made the cut.

For 2014-16, District 20-3A was comprised of the following teams: Hearne, 233, Lexington, 270, Franklin, 288.5, Rogers, 307, Little River Academy 369, Cameron Yoe, 390, Troy, 408 and Rockdale, 447.

Salado Eagles tipped off the basketball season with a win over Faith Academy last week. University of Interscholastic League (UIL) announced the enrollment cut-off numbers for the upcoming realignment in February. Salado will remain a 4A, Div. II competitor in football as the school had 492 students enrolled in October when UIL took the snapshots for realignment. The cut off was 480 students for 4A. Salado accepts 76 transfer students at the High School campus, which is about 15 percent of the total class enrollment. The school does not charge a transfer fee, a policy adopted about two years ago. (PHOTO BY RON LEQUIN)

BOA approves Sanctuary deal

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

"There's not much to say," King Copeland told the Salado Board of Aldermen after an executive session of more than two hours Nov. 19. "Y'all have made up your minds. We're waiting for the shoe to drop. This is reprehensible... Go ahead, get at it."

The Board of Aldermen did just that, approving four motions relating to The Sanctuary development with no discussion from the board members. Amber Preston-Dankert voted against each of the motions, but they were carried by votes in favor from Fred Brown, Frank Coachman, Michael McDougal and David Williams.

Mayor Skip Blancett and Billy Hanks were set to sign those agreements at the municipal building 6:30 p.m. Nov. 25 aldermen. Those agreements were approved by the aldermen on Nov. 19.

The motions approved by aldermen were these:

- Motion to approve the Donation Agreement between the Village of Salado and Billie Hanks Jr., and Salado Utility Company, Inc. for the donation of 6 acres of land and Water Quality Permit No. WQ0014898001. Motion was made by Brown, second given by McDougal.

- Motion to approve the Wastewater Service Agreement between the Village of Salado and Sanctuary Development Company, LLC for retail wastewater services to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Company. Motion by Brown, second by McDougal.

- Motion to approve the Development Agreement between the Village of Salado and BILLIE HANKS, JR., HANKS-CABINESS TRUST, BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT I, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT II, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT III, LLC; HEIDI HANKS WATERS, HEATHER HANKS MCGREADY, OLD WORLD BBD, INC., and SANCTUARY SALADO INVESTMENT II, LLC for the terms and conditions of economic development incentives and development standards related to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Company with the following agreed upon changes: delete the word "future" from Section 1.30; add a Section 5.04 to read, "Street lights and Security Lights. The Master Association shall pay for all maintenance and electric bills associated with street lighting and guardlighting in the Property; and delete the following language in Section 11.01 "No such maintenance bonds will apply to PID Project Facilities that are funded by Owners and subsequently reimbursed by the PID (either from the proceeds of PID Bonds or by payment of PID assessments to the Owner). Motion by Coachman, second by McDougal.

- Motion to approve the Chapter 380 Economic Development Agreement between the Village of Salado and BILLIE HANKS, JR., HANKS-CABINESS TRUST, BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT I, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT II, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT III, LLC; HEIDI HANKS WATERS, HEATHER HANKS MCGREADY, , OLD WORLD BBD, INC., and SANCTUARY SALADO INVESTMENT II, LLC for the terms and conditions of economic development incentives related to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Company.

- Motion to approve the Tourism Marketing Agreement between the Village of Salado and BILLIE HANKS, JR., HANKS-CABINESS TRUST, BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT I, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT II, LLC; BHHC CHRISTIAN DEVELOPMENT III, LLC; HEIDI HANKS WATERS, , HEATHER HANKS MCGREADY, , OLD WORLD BBD, INC., and SANCTUARY SALADO INVESTMENT II, LLC for the terms and conditions of economic development incentives related to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Company. Motion by Coachman, second by Brown.

The Agreement documents, once signed, will be made available to the public, according to City Manager Kim Foutz.

Prior to convening into executive session, aldermen heard from two citizens speaking under public comment on the topic:

Copeland said that the Board of Aldermen and Mayor had "repeatedly disparaged constituents as negative naysayers and doom and gloomers."

"This is a matter of the first amendment and freedom of speech," he added. "We all realize Salado must progress," but added that citizens in Salado define progress in different terms than the Board of Aldermen.

"These viewpoints must be protected," he said, "unless you wish to rule with an iron fist where other views are not tolerated."

Copeland called the board's executive sessions "vaguely described" and "out of hand."

"The exceptions that allow executive sessions are to be used sparingly," he said. "Case law is clear on the real estate exception. It allows closed session when open discussion would be detrimental in negotiating with a third party."

Negotiations were suspended with The Sanctuary on Oct. 8, but Copeland pointed to recent negotiations by one or two aldermen as "suggesting a walking quorum."

He referred to statements by the Mayor in September that the board would work in an open and transparent manner. "We were told that no major decisions would be made without citizens having had ample opportunity to weigh in."

Mayor Skip Blancett interrupted Copeland's comments, which had gone longer than the three minutes that are allowed under Public Input.

Copeland said that he wanted to make a "point of order" at that point.

Leah Hayes, attorney for the Village of Salado, said that points of order may only come for the members of the body, not from the public.

Darlene Walsh also talked about the need for more public discussions of these important decisions. "Lots of good things can occur."

She referred to a study by Kasberg Patrick Associates of the possibility of tying in to the Temple Belton Regional Wastewater Treatment Plant. "For the most part, that study has not been made available to the public," she said. "There has been very little discussion of the findings of KPA on regionalizations versus the costs of constructing and maintaining a new plant."

"There has been no discussion ever about saving dollars to buy or amend a permit, no discuss of maintenance people, no talk of saving testing and chemical moneys, or facing lawsuits from individuals who do not want to join or land taken by eminent domain," she said.

The Board of Aldermen will meet again at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 10. The board will meet only once in December, according to Mayor Blancett. Blancett told the audience that the usual first Thursday meeting is canceled to allow the community to take part in the Dec. 1 Salado Christmas Parade. The parade starts at 5 p.m. on Dec. 1 and goes from Royal Street to the Salado Civic Center.

After Paris, Empty Symbolism

The instant online symbol of global support for Paris after last week's attacks was a roughly rendered peace symbol with an Eiffel Tower in the middle of it. The French designer Jean Jullien sketched it as soon as he heard the news of the atrocity. He called it "Peace for Paris," and it immediately became a sensation on social media. Its success is a sign of the times. We have become experts at treacly online mourning. We take grotesque atrocities and launder them into trite symbols and slogans that are usually self-congratulatory and, of course, wholly ineffectual. The 19th-century author William Dean Howells once said, "Yes, what the American public wants is a tragedy with a happy ending." On social media, the happy ending is the widely shared and tweeted image or hashtag.

After the slaughter at the offices of the satirical French magazine Charlie Hebdo earlier this year, it was "Je suis Charlie," or "I am Charlie." It was a well-intentioned expression of solidarity, so long as you overlooked the absurd presumption of it.

You are Charlie? Oh, OK. Then draw a sketch of Muhammad and post it online. Better yet, do it over and over again, until you get constant threats and your office is fire-bombed, just as a warmup. No, you aren't Charlie (for that matter, Charlie isn't even Charlie anymore -- it's given up on mocking Islam for understandable safety reasons).

The "Peace for Paris" image is simple and emotive, if inapt. Paris doesn't need to give peace a chance. It doesn't need to make love, not war. It doesn't need to be more understanding or more hopeful. It needs to be better protected by all those unsentimental means that have been neglected in recent years, or overwhelmed by the growing threat of ISIS.

Paris -- and more broadly France and the West -- needs more surveillance of suspected terrorists and police raids; a more restrictive immigration policy that doesn't create large, unassimilated Muslim populations, or welcome terrorists as refugees; and a serious, multilayered campaign to destroy ISIS and deny it the safe havens from which it recruits and trains, and plots against the West.

If someone can come up with a catchy symbol for that, I'll embrace it (although "La Marseillaise" isn't so bad: "To arms citizens/Form your battalions/March, march"). Meanwhile, spare me the #PrayforParis hashtag. Forgive me if I'm unmoved by lighting up world landmarks in red, white and blue, or your putting a tricolor filter on your Facebook profile picture. And please don't tell me, in the words of the designer Jean Jullien, that "in all this horror there's something positive that people are coming together in a sense of unity and peace."

Nothing positive comes from innocents getting shot down in cold blood for the offense of going to a concert on a Friday night. If there aren't going to be more -- and worse -- attacks in our cities, the path ahead won't be one of unity and peace. It will be the hard, thankless work of protecting civilization from its enemies.

Remembering the first Thanksgiving Feast

Richard Roger and Oscar Hammerstein wrote in The King and I, "Sometimes, I am not sure what I absolutely know is so."

By the time you read this Thanksgiving will be in full celebration. Families will gather, eat, watch the parades and sports, and impatiently wait for stores to open. Hopefully, they will shop Salado first.

Thanksgiving was a little different in 1620. The Pilgrims, spending a month exploring Cape Cod and stealing corn from the Indians, finally decided to settle at Plymouth Christmas Day. The winter was harsh and by Spring half the colonists were dead. The Indian's initiatives probably saved the other half of the Pilgrims.

One Indian stands out

above all. Named Squanto, he learned English from fishermen who ventured into New England waters each summer. He had also been kidnapped by English traders and brought to England. Allowed to return to America, he found his entire Village decimated by an epidemic.

Squanto became friends with William Bradford who gave him permission to teach Pilgrims how and where to fish, plant corn, pumpkins, and squash.

By 1621, the harvest was so bountiful, the Pilgrims invited Massasoit, Chief, Wampanoag Confederacy, and 90 of his braves to a lavish 3-day feast with deer meat and fowl as their main dishes. Most of the food was provided by or with the aid of the Indians. This was the first Thanksgiving. One year later, 1622, Squanto died. To his credit belongs the fact that he was instrumental in saving the Pilgrims.

As this weekend unfolds, we humbly offer our "Thanks" to each of you. We celebrate your spirit, experience, and tenacity in making Salado a special place to live. Like Squanto, you taught us the importance of self-sacrifice, leadership, and commitment. And, that makes a Village! Happy Thanksgiving.

Stop Shopping, Start Living

REI IS DOING ITS PART TO PRESERVE THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING.

Jim Hightower

Imagine if retailers held a nationwide super-spectacular sales day -- and no one came.

I don't mean customers. Picture sales staff, cashiers, and even managers not showing up to open the doors for the usual frenzy of mass, crass, crazy consumerism.

Maybe it's silly -- some would say even un-American -- to think that stores wouldn't open to cash in on a hugely promoted retail bonanza.

Yet here it is: REI, the national purveyor of outdoor gear and sporting goods, says it will no longer participate in the shopping spectacle known as "Black Friday." This ritual of non-stop door-buster sales now overwhelms Thanksgiving.

This holiday is meant to be a calm, family-oriented time to get away from all the hubbub of life and reflect on our blessings. Yet in recent years, such national chains as Macy's and Wal-Mart have led a corporate assault on Thanksgiving with a buy-buy-buy blitz of consumer come-ons.

Rush to the mall," shout the barrage of Black Friday ads -- enticing us to reduce our values to shallow monetary value -- i.e., discounted stuff. They've turned this contemplative day of thanks into a weekend of worshipping mammon.

"Enough!" says REI. The national retail cop with 143 stores and $2.2 billion a year in sales is raising the ethical bar by boycotting Black Friday. Instead of shopping on the Thursday and Friday of Thanksgiving weekend, REI is urging its workers and customers to break out -- literally.

Take a walk with family and friends, enjoy a bike ride, visit a public park, and otherwise get outside the soul-suffocating syndrome of constant consumerism.

What a concept: Don't shop -- live. Connect with people, nature, the spirits...and yourself. For more information, go to REI's special website: www.OptOutside.REI.com.

Salado gets Scrooged

To the Editor:

If true, as media reported, it is indeed a rare occurrence when art reflects reality in such a perfect fashion! Salado's infamous 'reverend-mayor' is portraying 'Scrooge' in a local rendition of 'A Christmas Carol.' Scrooge has contempt for elements of Christmas in the story. In a like manner, the 'reverend-mayor', has contempt for many of his local electorate and taxpayer citizens...who knows, as did Scrooge, the 'reverend-mayor' may find 'redemption' in his political prostitution at the altar known as "Thee Sanctuary"...his hands sure seem to be out for "Thee Stinckuary"... 'under the table', of course.

One difference from the Dickens' story is Scrooge acted solo.... in the reverend-mayor's possible, financial 'redemption', he is aided and abetted by a merry band of posterior-kissing, mercenaries, also known as the Salado Board of Aldermen (SBOA). " Now, all hands under the table please...we're voting!"

Art and prostitution politics-sometimes, one and the same story...Thanks, for giving US, the citizen/voter/ taxpayers of Salado, the royal 'Scrooge job', Mayor Scrooge & the merry band of SBOA henchmen...

T. R. (Tom) Pappas
Salado

To the Editor:

At the Nov. 19 Village Workshop, our elected officials and Village attorney left the large meeting area and moved into the far North room with shut doors to meet in Executive Session for more than two hours. The large audience had waited all evening for the Sanctuary discussion, but by the Mayor's orders were ushered by police outside into the cold night air to wait. If an individual needed to use bathroom facilities, they were denied, per instructions by our Mayor, or so we were told. Obviously, our elected officials didn't want anyone to stick around to hear the final vote on Sanctuary agreements. One by one folks who had patiently waited hours to participate in a historic Village moment, finally left for home to care for children or elderly.

Villagers who could wait it out, without freezing, watched our Board of Aldermen walk back into the meeting room, hear our Mayor open the Regular Session back up, read each agreement, and then watch as each Alderman voted.

Results are as follows:

- Donation Agreement between Salado and Billy Hanks, and Salado Utility Company, Inc. for the donation of 6 acres and a Wastewater Quality Permit they possess. Vote was 4-1 (Preston-Dankert voted NO)

- Wastewater Service Agreement between Salado and Sanctuary for the funding and constructing of improvements to the Village's wastewater collection, pumping, treatment and disposal system, and the terms and conditions for retail wastewater services

Your Voice

Letters to the Editor

to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Co. Vote was 4-1 (Preston-Dankert voted NO)

- Development Agreement between the Village of Salado and Sanctuary Development Company, LLC, for the terms and conditions of economic development incentives related to the proposed 297 acre development to be constructed by Sanctuary Development Co. Vote was 4-1 (Preston-Dankert voted NO)

The Mayor and Billy Hanks and the partners in the Sanctuary are scheduled to sign the agreements at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 25 at the Municipal Building.

It's my understanding that Dankert voted NO to each Sanctuary Agreement because she could NOT agree to providing eminent domain rights to Billy Hanks, Jr. and Robert Sulaski the developer. For those of you who do not know what Eminent Domain means....in my opinion, the developer would have the right to take real estate property for development means. Payment would be required, of course, but if there is a dispute over the value of property the seller would be obligated to prove value. After going through this same procedure with the State of Texas, I can tell you that proving worth can cost an owner unnecessary thousands of dollars in surveying, attorney, and appraiser fees. So, eminent domain can be akin to a declaration of property "war" on individual property rights. Thank you Alderman Amber Dankert for your bravery in voting NO in an effort to protect individual property rights.

Also, I believe that Alderman Amber Dankert felt the public should have the right to know what's in agreements prior to signing with Mr. Hanks/Sanctuary. Thank you AGAIN Alderman Amber Dankert for your leadership and for your consideration of all Salado taxpayers.

Following are some questions, in my opinion, the public might want answers to before our elected officials obligate taxpayers financially, and otherwise, for decades.

- What are the final agreement details with Billy Hanks?

- What bills are taxpayers responsible for, and what is Billy Hanks responsible for?

- Must taxpayers, and the Village, support a Public Investment District (PID) so Billy Hanks's developer can pay for infrastructure?

- How many years, and at what percentage, does Billy Hanks gets tax abatement for houses or retail/commercial properties?

- Does Billy Hanks have a required schedule of development so we can plan for additional property & sales tax revenues?

- What financial obligations must Village taxpayers pay to Billy Hanks / Sanctuary ?

- What, if any, penalties must Billy Hanks pay if no development occurs?

- What type businesses/housing can be built on Billy Hanks property and will there be opportunity for public input i.e., low income housing, or gas stations/drive thru's in the Historic District?

- Is there ANY prohibition against Billy Hanks/Sanctuary building an open air music venue for thousands on the 8 Lakes Property (next to a Village neighborhood of hundreds) ?

- Must Billy Hanks/Sanctuary adhere to the same procedures for zoning and planning required of every other developer in town?

- When does Billy Hanks/Sanctuary annex ANY of their property?

- When does Billy Hanks provide title to the six or eight acres and for the wastewater plant (WWTP) permit?

- Must the Village WWTP permit be amended? If yes, what is the cost and how long will it take?

- Is it true that the Village must pay for hauling sewage if treatment is not available for Billy Hanks's property?

- How long before the user income pays for the operation and maintenance of the WWTP?

- Are engineering and drainage studies by Billy Hanks/Sanctuary required to insure storm water, and/or wastewater doesn't flood Village neighborhoods or streets?

- Can Billy Hanks continue to claim Agricultural Exemption for land? For how long?

- How long does the Village provide free wastewater to Billy Hanks/Sanctuary?

NOTE: Salado, I believe, is on the verge of changing from primarily a tourist destination. The only question is will the residents, business owners, and Village government demand to be part of that change, or will they sit back and sign over our Village's future and its planning to outside developers? I have tried to inform the Village taxpayers/businesses what's now taking place with Sanctuary, but it's ultimately up to all of you to come to meetings and to speak out. I have tried to encourage the Mayor, and our Alderman, to focus on improving OUR CURRENT Village business districts BEFORE making deals with outside developers. However, in my opinion, they seem intent on reconfiguring our town so that "Town Center" is South and East of our current business districts.

I fear our citizens will wake up too late, however. In my opinion it may take wastewater flowing down Smith Branch Creek flooding Mill Creek homes, or a leak of sewage and/or water runoff down Royal Street, or ever increasing property taxes to pay for the operation and maintenance of our wastewater treatment plant, or maybe our businesses will finally figure out that Sanctuary never did want to become part of our Village.....they want to become our Village. Therefore, It's my opinion that hard times are just around the corner for our Village because of our current debt, and the contractual promises I believe our Village is about to make with Mr. Hanks. The focus on our special Village has been lost but I still have faith in the people of Salado. Even if the Sanctuary deal is signed between our BOA and Mr. Hanks this week, there will still be plenty of opportunity for our citizens, and businesses, to speak out.

I would like to thank the Salado community for supporting me and for your words of encouragement over the past six months.

Sincerely,
Darlene Walsh

Col Dame delegates elected to attend state conference

The Gov. Samuel Mathews Chapter Colonial Dames XVII Century recently met at the Bell County Museum.

Delegates elected to attend the 2016 State Conference in Temple, February 25-26, are: Marilyn Covington, Ellen Truesdale, Jane Debenport, Stephanie Durham, Wanda Weinblatt, Doris Stadler and alternate Donnie Yeilding.

A gift of $305 was given to the VA Hospital

Christmas.

Welba Dorsey presented the program, "Colonial Etiquette." Initially the Church controlled colonial etiquette with harsh punishment in the 17th Century. True colonial etiquette did not come about until George Washington, sometime before the age of 16, transcribed Rules of Civility & Decent Behaviour in Company and Conversation in 1747.

Salado Jewel goes into production still time to get your ad in, but hurry

With work weeks and print schedules truncated by the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, the Salado: A Jewel in the Crown of Texas magazine has gone into pre-press production.

Managing Editor Marilyn Fleischer said that there is still time for last minutes ads, but customers should hurry or they will miss the opportunity. "We are a small staff and work efficiently to keep prices as low as possible," she said.

In order to be out for the beginning of the year, pages will be sent to the printer in mid-December to work around the holiday schedules of print production.

The Robertson Plantation will open its doors for a special Gala Night on Dec. 3.

Robertson Plantation opens doors for special Gala Night on Dec. 3

The Ambrose and Cowan families, sixth generation owners of the Robertson Plantation and descendants of E.S.C. Robertson, are hosting a gala to benefit historic preservation in Salado on 7-10 p.m. Dec. 3.

The Gala affair will feature heavy hors d'oeuvres catered by The Range at the Barton House and live music by Pam Bland and Drs. Matt Rogers and Guy Okeson.

Tickets to the Robertson Plantation Gala are $100 each and will benefit three Salado non-profit organizations: the Central Texas Area Museum, the Robertson Colony-Salado College Foundation, and the Salado Historical Society equally.

The host families are opening the entire Robertson home for the Gala event, including the private residence upstairs. Although the Robertson home is on the Salado Christmas Stroll home tour on December 3-4, only the downstairs rooms will be open for viewing at that time.

Colonel Elijah Sterling Clack (E.S.C.) Robertson was a Texas pioneer, patriot, soldier and jurist and was one of the founders of Salado College. E.S.C. and his wife Mary Elizabeth Robertson began building their Greek Revival style plantation home in 1856 and completed it in 1860.

In addition to the 22-room mansion, there are slave quarters and a family cemetery on the plantation grounds.

The Gala Evening will raise funds for three local historical philanthropies: the Central Texas Area Museum, the Salado Historical Society and the Robertson Colony-Salado College Foundation.

The purpose of the Central Texas Area Museum is to tell the history and development of Central Texas, to provide a safe and accessible place to preserve and exhibit these items which tell its history.

Founded in 1973, Robertson Colony-Salado College Foundation is responsible for "carrying on and supporting a public park, public education, charitable, literary, scientific or religious activities; and to convert the property (College Hill) into a historical shrine, and will beautify and maintain same, continuously and permanently, through the years, in memory of the gallant pioneer and worthy men and women of Texas."

The Museum is open for visiting free of charge Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Museum features an exhibit room in which exhibits are on permanent display. It also has a reception and meeting hall containing more artifacts and suitable for special events or traveling displays.

As the only entity specifically created to preserve the rich heritage the Village of Salado, the Salado Historical Society is guided by two basic purposes.

- To collect information and exhibits which can help to establish or illustrate the exploration, settlement, and development of the area. To accomplish this, the Historical Society works to preserve and make available to any interested party those records, archives, and other documents that may help to illustrate the history of Salado and the immediate area.

- To work cooperatively with national, state, area, and village officials to preserve the historical integrity of the Village. To accomplish this, the Society seeks to identify and preserve the Village's historic buildings, monuments, and markers and to ensure that any new construction or renovations within the Village's historic district conforms to the guidelines established for this district.

Receipt of donations will ensure reservations. Make checks payable to Robertson Plantation Gala, P.O. Box 36, Salado, TX 76571.

For credit card charges or other information, call 254-947-5232.

Because of the construction of I-35 and the access road, entrance to the Robertson Plantation is via the FM 2268 Holland road bridge. Cross the bridge to the west-side access road and turn left (south). Make a quick right turn at the lighted entrance to the Robertson ranch and follow the temporary road to the Robertson Home.

Swarthout home on Tour

The David and Barbara Swarthout home is nestled on 3.5 acres of park-like landscape. The circular driveway passes under large live oak trees in the front of the house.

The double eight-foot high front doors with half round windows above welcome you inside the house. The front porch area is perfect for early morning coffee as the sun rises and provides a shady place to view the sunset with a glass of wine.

The house was built in 1997 by custom home builder, Gary Davis. Davis is a builder from San Francisco who lived in Salado for a time with his wife who had a wedding planning business in the village. In addition to the Swarthout home, Davis built three other homes in this subdivision.

Davis' trademark is his unique treatment of cove molding in all of the rooms. Once you see the cove molding, you will recognize any home he has built. They returned to California to their extended family after a short time and Davis continued his home-building there.

Walls of floor to ceiling windows in each room frame the guesthouse and the 3.5 wooded acreage. There are many built-in custom cabinets and book shelves. The kitchen has an abundance of granite counter tops and walls of beautifully crafted cabinets. The family room has a stunning natural fireplace with built-in cabinets on each side.

A 1920 baby grand piano graces the living room. One of the bedrooms contains a 100+ year old brass bed. There are antique musical instruments on display throughout the house. Of special interest is a harpsichord once owned by the Marx Brothers.

The guest house is to the rear of the main house. Large stepping stones lead a visitor from the main house to the front porch of the guest house. Two wicker wing back chairs and a wicker table invite a visitor to sit and be comfortable. This house contains a kitchen and a sitting area on the first floor. The bedroom, a sitting area, and bathroom are located on the second floor. There are two decks overlooking the wooded acreage, the lower deck off the kitchen and the upper off the bedroom.

This beautiful home and guest house with a wooded back yard is bathed in sunlight, a private paradise for the owners.

The Salado Historical Society 2015 Home Tour, will be 5-8 p.m. Dec. 4, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Dec. 5 and 1-4 p.m. Dec. 6.

Tickets are now for sale at the Salado Visitor's Center and Chamber of Commerce, 881 North Main Street (phone 254 947 8634) Ticket price before Nov. 26 is $18, after Nov. 26 is $20.

CRANBERRY BAKEWELL TART

Serves 12

Studded with tart cranberries and baked in a whole wheat and almond crust, this spin on a traditional English confection is perfect for filling your kitchen with holiday fragrance. A crust that doesn't require chilling or rolling out makes for quick work.

- 1/2 cup (1 stick) unsalted butter, softened, plus more for the pan
- 2 1/2 cup fresh or frozen cranberries, divided
- 3/4 cup sugar, divided
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 1 1/2 cup plus 3 tablespoons whole wheat pastry flour, divided
- 1 1/3 cup almond meal, divided
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon fine sea salt, divided
- 1/4 cup expeller-pressed canola oil
- 1/4 cup ice-cold water
- 2 teaspoons finely grated orange zest
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 1 egg plus 1 egg white

Preheat the oven to 350°F. Butter a 9-inch round tart pan with a removable bottom. Combine 2 cups of the cranberries, 1/4 cup of the sugar and orange juice in a medium saucepan. Place over medium heat, cover and cook for 5 minutes. Uncover, stir well and cook, stirring often, until cranberries have popped, 4 to 5 minutes more. Remove from heat and stir vigorously until jammy.

Meanwhile, in a large bowl, whisk together 1 1/2 cups of the flour, 1/3 cup of the almond meal, baking powder, cinnamon and 1/4 teaspoon of the salt. Add oil and ice-cold water; stir with a fork until a dough forms. Press into bottom and sides of the prepared pan. Spread warm cranberry jam evenly over the bottom.

Combine remaining 1 cup almond meal, 1/2 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt and orange zest in a food processor and pulse until blended. Add butter, vanilla, egg and egg white and purée until smooth. Spread evenly over jam and tuck remaining 1/2 cup cranberries into batter. Place on a baking sheet. Bake until tart is golden brown and just springs back when touched, about 40 minutes. Cool on a wire rack until warm. Gently press on the pan bottom to remove tart. Transfer to a plate and slice.

serves 10 - 12

Abundant fresh herbs brighten up this savory mushroom side. To make a vegan version of this stuffing, simply substitute a nondairy option for the butter.

- 1 large loaf seeded hearth bread (about 1 1/3 pounds), cut into 3/4-inch cubes (about 12 cups)
- 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 1 pound assorted mushrooms, such as oyster, shiitake or chanterelle, chopped
- 4 large shallots, chopped
- 3 stalks celery, chopped
- 1/3 cup chopped fresh parsley
- 1/3 cup chopped mixed fresh herbs such as sage, thyme, marjoram and oregano
- 1 1/4 teaspoon fine sea salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 3 cups low-sodium vegetable broth

Spread bread cubes on 2 large baking sheets; let sit on the counter overnight, or bake in a preheated 300°F oven until just dried, about 15 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl.

In a large skillet, heat oil and butter over medium heat. Add mushrooms and cook, stirring frequently, until very tender, about 10 minutes. Stir in shallots and celery and cook for 3 minutes more. Stir in parsley, mixed herbs, salt and pepper and transfer mixture to the bowl with bread. Stir in broth and let sit for a few minutes until liquid is absorbed.

If using to stuff a turkey, cool completely and follow stuffing directions for your recipe. If baking separately, preheat the oven to 350°F. Spoon stuffing into a large buttered baking dish. Smooth the top and bake until browned and crisp, about 50 minutes.

HOT APPLE CIDER

Serves 16

Look to this beloved fall drink to warm you up. Fragrant with allspice, nutmeg, cinnamon and cloves, you'll want to drink it as soon as the weather turns cool.

- 1 gallon Gravenstein apple juice
- 1 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 2 cinnamon sticks, more for garnish
- 1 tablespoon whole cloves

Combine all ingredients and simmer over low heat for 15 to 20 minutes. Remove cinnamon sticks. Ladle into mugs and garnish with fresh cinnamon sticks for each serving, if desired.

YOUR PROPERTY TAXES JUST WENT UP. OR HADN'T YOU HEARD?

When local governments want to increase tax revenues, they are required to publish notices in the newspaper so that you will know. But that right to know could disappear.

Local governmental entities across the state want to hide their public notices on little seen, rarely visited government websites.

What you don't know will affect you personally!

If it is not in the newspaper, you won't know about it.

DPS urges Texans to drive responsibly, sober during Thanksgiving holiday

The Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) is urging Texans to always celebrate responsibly and to make safe driving habits a priority during the heavily travelled Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

“As Texans travel to be with family and friends this Thanksgiving season, we urge all drivers to use extra caution on roadways and always drive sober,” said DPS Director Steven McCraw. “The increased traffic and potential for inclement weather and impaired driving can make holiday travel especially challenging, and DPS troopers will be working nonstop to keep the roads safe for everyone.”

DPS troopers will be patrolling Texas roadways throughout the holiday weekend looking for drunk drivers, speeders, seat belt violators and other drivers who are endangering themselves and others.

During the Thanksgiving weekend in 2014, DPS troopers arrested 242 individuals for driving while intoxicated, issued 5,223 speeding citations, 682 citations for no insurance and 599 seat belt/child safety seat citations. DPS patrols also resulted in 135 fugitive arrests and 97 felony arrests during the same time period.

DPS offers the following tips for safe travel during the Thanksgiving holiday:

Don't drink and drive. Designate a driver or take a cab.

Slow down – especially in bad weather, construction areas and heavy traffic.

Eliminate distractions, including the use of mobile devices.

Buckle up everyone in the vehicle – it's the law. Slow down or move over for police, fire, EMS and Texas Department of Transportation vehicles and tow trucks that are stopped on the side of the road with emergency lights activated – it's the law.

Don't drive fatigued – get plenty of rest before trips or take breaks as needed.

Drive defensively, as holiday travel may present additional challenges. Make sure your vehicle is properly maintained before your trip begins.

Expert offers tips for healthy Thanksgiving dinner

By ERIC GALATAS
TEXAS NEWS SERVICE

AUSTIN, Texas - On Thanksgiving Day, cooks in homes across the nation are faced with the challenge of setting a table with food that's not just delicious but also safe to eat.

And Amy Simonne, a professor with the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences, has a few tips.

She stresses a healthy dinner begins with good preparation, and even though it may seem counter intuitive, she says don't wash your turkey before putting it in the oven.

“It's better for you to minimize handling of the raw poultry,” she points out. “Just put (it) in the pan. Cooking can destroy the germs, but washing raw poultry is not going to remove the germs.”

Turkey should be cooked to at least 165 degrees to be considered safe.

Simonne explains that washing your bird can help scatter potentially harmful bacteria across kitchen surfaces, which can end up in side dishes.

She also reminds cooks and all guests to practice good personal hygiene. Wash your hands, and make sure you use serving spoons with long handles for dishes, just in case someone forgets.

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, turkeys should be cooked at a temperature no lower than 325 degrees.

Simonne says don't rely on those plastic indicators - use a food thermometer to make sure the internal temperature reaches at least 165 degrees.

Simonne says after dinner, cooked foods need to be eaten within two hours. After that, it should be refrigerated or thrown away.

“If you want to save the turkey, when the turkey is cooled down to, let's say, room temperature, then you need to put that away pretty quickly, let's say within an hour,” she advises. “That would be really an ideal time.”

Simonne says you can divide leftovers into small portions and keep them in the refrigerator for three to four days or in the freezer for two to six months.

According to the USDA, food-borne illnesses can lead to long-term health conditions, and are linked to 3,000 American deaths each year.
