

Haire to return to take reins of Eagle football

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

“I am proud of being from Salado,” Alan Haire said. “I am proud of playing Eagle Football and I want the kids to feel the same way.”

Almost 30 years after graduating from Salado, Haire will return to be the Head Football Coach of the Eagles.

Salado ISD Trustees met in special session Jan. 20 to formally offer the position to Haire, who was selected from a pool of more than 100 job applicants. The pool of applicants was narrowed to a round of 12 for interviews. Then there were three. And then two.

And then there was Alan, the choice of the selection committee and the recommendation of Superintendent Michael Novotny to trustees last night.

Haire returns to Salado from Stephenville, where he has been the Athletic Director of a program that has boasted five state championships in football, most recently in 2012 in 3A, Div. I, as well as a 2003 state champ volleyball team.

For a very short stint, he was head football coach and director of football operations at Mabank High School prior to going to Stephenville in March 2015.

Haire was the Head Football Coach and Athletic Director for the Lago Vista Vikings for 13 seasons. He took over a fledgling young football program in a tough central Texas district.

Haire’s Vikings were the Class 2A, Div. State Semifinalists in 2010, with a 13-1 record, Regional Finalists in 2011 with a 10-2 record and again in 2012 with a 9-4 record. The Vikings had three straight district championships in football in 2009-2011.

Haire was named the 2A Coach of the Year by Dave Campbell’s Texas Football magazine for 2010.

He also earned Coach of the Year nods at the District level in 2009-2011.

A 1988 graduate of Salado, he played football at Salado alum Alan Haire will take over the Salado High football program.

Tarleton State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in 1993 and a Master of Education in 1994.

After a year at the tiny Morgan Mill ISD, he came to Salado, coaching for the Eagles from 1994 to 2000. The Eagles went to the playoffs five times and were bi-district champions three times.

Haire was the Offensive Coordinator here in Salado.

He was also the head boys basketball coach, where the Eagles won their first district championship in 15 years.

He was the first coach of the Salado Eagles softball team and won two bi-district championships.

He was an assistant baseball coach of the Regional Finalist Eagles baseball team in 1995.

He and his wife Angie were married in 1995. They are parents to three children.

Bailey will graduate high school this year.

Her younger brother Hayden will be a junior when the Haire’s return to Salado.

“He better,” Alan said of whether his son will play football. “If he wants to live under my roof,” he added with a laugh.

Hutton is the youngest and will be in seventh grade next year.

“We’re not so much in the football business,” Haire says of coaching, “as we are in the kid business.”

“Those playing days will come and go,” he adds, “but the lessons learned by being a part of a team will stick with you for life.”

The change will go into effect ton Jan. 25 because, according to Dr. Novotny, “plans and decisions are already being made for the 2016-2017 school year regarding hiring, staffing, scheduling and budget for both the junior high school and the athletic department.”

In addition to being a principal, Baird has served as an Athletic Director and head coach in football, track, power lifting, softball and swimming.

Rainwater served as a high school principal for more than 20 years in addition to many other administrative positions.

Cabaniss retires as full-time finance director, takes on being full-time Grandma to four

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Former co-workers, bosses, school trustees and friends gathered at the Salado Civic Center to wish Lyndal Cabaniss well as she retires from her full-time duties as Salado ISD Finance Director to take on much more important duties as full-time grandma.

For more than three decades, Cabaniss has overseen the finances for Salado I.S.D. as the district has grown from fewer than 500 students to about 1,500 students and a budget that has grown to more than $13 million.

Cabaniss’ roots run deep in Salado -- generations deep -- as do her husband Dennis’.

Lyndal is a 1969 graduate of Salado High, where she had 25 other classmates. They went to school in the old red schoolhouse where Lyndal would later spend several years working in the school administration.

Her husband Dennis was a year ahead of her, graduating in 1968. He soon went to work driving a bus at the school and coaching junior high beginning in 1971.

He still drives the bus, Lyndal says, some 45 years later and teaches higher level math at the high school.

Lyndal’s mother, the late Johnnie Conder Barrett, also graduated from the old red schoolhouse on Main Street.

Her children both graduated from Salado High School, when it was located on Thomas Arnold Rd. Her first office was at the old high school building before the old red schoolhouse on Main Street was rescued and renovated in the mid-90s by community volunteers, many of them former students and teachers.

Soon after the red schoolhouse on Main opened as the Salado Civic Center, the Salado ISD administration offices moved to the Civic Center and Cabaniss returned to the building where she started and finished her schoolgirl days.

And it was from that building that she finished a three-decade career in Salado schools.

During that time, she has worked for almost a dozen different superintendents (some of them here on an interim basis) during that time, guiding and advising them on the intricacies of school finance laws and the impact that as little as a penny on the tax rate or a handful of students can have on a tight budget.

“She’s never taught in the classroom,” her most current boss Michael Novotny said, “but she has had a tremendous impact on thousands of Salado children over the years.”

“Well, truth is, she did teach,” former Salado ISD and current Temple ISD Superintendent Robin Battershell said of the women with whom she worked for a decade. “She taught me a lot. I was such a newbie and she really was my mentor and teacher. More importantly, she was a trusted friend.”

Cabaniss worked under Battershell for just over a decade before Dr. Battershell took over the helm of Temple I.S.D.

Cabaniss retires after 32+ years in Salado schools, much of that time sharing an office with Darlene Kirk, who has worked here for three decades as well.

But now Lyndal will concentrate on grandbabies Matthew, 10 years old, Jack, seven years, Susie, six years old and Emily, one year old. They are the children of Jackie and Brent Cabaniss, who graduated from Salado in 1995.

Daughter Angie Cabaniss is also a graduate of Salado High, but lives and works as a registered nurse in Round Rock.

Grand-baby Susie takes her name from her great-grandmother, the matriarch of the Salado Cabaniss clan.

The grandkids are close by, living near the old Griffith homeplace (Susie was a Griffith), near enough for daily contact and hugs.

Something Lyndal looks forward to countless years of giving.

BOA to hold annexation, zoning hearings

Salado aldermen on Jan. 21 will conduct the final public hearings on the annexation and zoning amendments concerning The Sanctuary and the annexation of Hidden Glen development.

The hearings will be at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 21 at the Municipal Building, 301 N. Stagecoach Rd.

They mark the second public hearings on the voluntary annexation requests by The Sanctuary and Hidden Glen developments. Only four individuals spoke during the public hearings on annexation of The Sanctuary on Jan. 14, Sheryl Russell, Maurice Strielger, Nancy Reynolds and Darlene Walsh, all opposed to the Sanctuary development.

No one spoke during the Jan. 14 public hearing on the annexation of Hidden Glen affordable senior living complex.

During a Jan. 12 Planning & Zoning Commission, 18 residents spoke in opposition to zoning changes for The Sanctuary. Ultimately, the P&Z board voted against three of the proposed changes and recommended the zoning change for the 50 acres at the southeast corner of FM 2268 and I-35 only.

Following the Board of Aldermen Public Hearing on PD-MU Zoning Ordinance, the board will recommend to approve or deny the zoning request.

At the Feb. 11 meeting of the Board of Aldermen, the Board will have the first reading of Annexation Ordinance and consider giving final approval on the zoning request by the developer. The final reading and adoption of annexation will be Feb. 18.

Baird moves to A.D., Rainwater to principal

Paul Baird will take over duties as Salado ISD Athletic Director while Marvin Rainwater will take over duties as Salado Junior High Principal, SISD Superintendent Michael Novotny announced last week.

“Although both men are doing an excellent job in their current roles,” Dr. Novotny said, “throughout the course of the school year it became evident that the two men’s strengths and skill sets were even better aligned in the other’s position. After discussing this with both of them we decided to have them change positions.”

Chamber Banquet slated Jan. 28; ticket sales end on Jan. 22

Salado Chamber of Commerce will host its annual Awards Banquet at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 28 at Tenroc Ranch.

Tickets are now available for $40 per person. Tables of eight are available for $300.

Payments may be made in person at the Visitors Center, 831 N. Main St. Salado or via mail at Salado Chamber of Commerce, PO Box 849, Salado, TX 76571 or call 254-947-5040. The deadline for ordering tickets is end-of-business Jan. 22.

The Range at the Barton House will cater the meal.

Save the Date notices were sent out via email recently to Chamber members and official invitations will be mailed soon.

Each year, the Chamber recognizes the work of volunteers and business owners through its annual awards and is now seeking nominees for the following awards: Business of the Year, Person of the Year, Hall of Fame and Chairman’s Award of Excellence.

Directors going off of the board will be recognized, including Dave Hermann and Claire Hartman. Incoming directors will also be recognized: Gail Allard II, Allie Guenther and Jim Ruesch and alternate Ronnie Tynes. Outgoing Chairman Tim Fleischer will hand the gavel over to 2016 Chairman Melanie Kirchmeier.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

Ted Cruz Is Nixon, not Goldwater

The lazy conventional wisdom is that Ted Cruz is the new Barry Goldwater, doomed to suffer an electoral landslide defeat should he win the Republican nomination.

Not only is this wrong about Cruz’s general-election chances, it may compare Cruz to the wrong 20th-century Republican forebear. The better analogue for Cruz might be Richard Nixon, not in the crudely pejorative sense, but as another surpassingly shrewd and ambitious politician who lacked a personal touch but found a way to win nonetheless.

First, all the caveats. Obviously and most importantly, Cruz is not a paranoiac. He’s more ideological than Nixon. And he has none of Nixon’s insecurity, in fact the opposite. Nixon went to tiny Whittier College and resented the Northeastern elite; Cruz went to Princeton and Harvard, and could be a member of the Northeastern elite in good standing if he wanted to be.

But Cruz is cut from roughly similar cloth. He wears his ambition on his sleeve and isn’t highly charismatic or relatable. If Cruz wins the nomination, it’ll be on the strength of intelligence and willpower. He’ll have outworked, outsmarted and outmaneuvered everyone else.

Rich Lowry

Certainly, Cruz isn’t ascending on the basis of warm feelings from his colleagues. Cruz portrays his unpopularity within the Senate as establishment distaste for him as a lonely man of principle. But it’s a genuine personal dislike.

Not that Cruz cares. In fact, a key to what he has been able to achieve is his apparent immunity to the reflexive desire to be liked by people around you, a weakness to which almost all of us fall prey. Cruz is free of the peer pressure that typically makes all senators, at some level, team players.

Cruz is a Reagan Republican, although with considerable flexibility. When Rand Paul seemed to be on the ascendancy a couple of years ago, Cruz was a Reagan Republican with Paulite accents. When Donald Trump began to dominate, Cruz became a Reagan Republican with Trumpian tendencies.

Cruz penned an op-ed with Paul Ryan last April that was a ringingly stalwart argument for trade-promotion authority.

Two months later, when a brush fire erupted on the right over “Obamatrade,” Cruz abruptly reversed course and came out against trade-promotion authority -- he cited procedural reasons -- and then opposed the underlying trade agreement as well.

Is all the effort on Cruz’s part only in the cause of a 1964-style ideological blowout? No. The country’s too evenly divided for another Goldwater-style landslide loss, and Hillary Clinton is a deeply flawed candidate.

But Cruz has major vulnerabilities. He’s more ideologically defined than George W. Bush in 2000 or Barack Obama in 2008, and his current theory of the general election -- that he need turn out only conservatives -- is a comforting fable.

Marco Rubio and Chris Christie are both, in their own ways, more winsome, and it’s easier to see how each of them could pick off Obama states. But Cruz has always understood that you have to win the primary to win the general. Whoever is going to beat him better know what he’s doing -- because Cruz certainly does.

Creek crossing is not a bridge

The low water crossing across Salado Creek by Sherrill Park is not a bridge according to their Chief Engineer, Bobby Littlefield, in a January 8, 2016 email:

“Mayor Blancett, I found out that the low water bridge in Salado that you and I discussed yesterday is not in our bridge inventory. This means it does not meet the federal definition of a bridge and is therefore not included in the federal bridge replacement/rehabilitation program. TxDOT does not own this structure nor do we have any jurisdiction here since this road is off of the state system.”

Simply put, the State will not maintain, repair, or replace it. Likewise, they will not remove the gravel, dirt, grass, and weeds choking it. I have gone so far as to write Governor Abbott for assistance with “no reply.”

For years, this low water crossing has been collecting gravel, and growing grass and weeds. As a result, water is restricted from flowing through its main arteries and gravel, by summer, will begin covering the bridge and adding structure pressure. Additionally, animals drown from getting caught in the grass and weeds, and insects and snakes find it a breeding habitat. Cleaning the waterway and removing the gravel now will keep the creek healthy, safe, and will prevent some flooding.

Mayor Skip Blancett

To meet environmental restrictions, Mill Creek Association acquired a permit. Removing the gravel and weeds requires special, large wheeled equipment that does not leak oil or gas. Likewise, debris cannot touch the ground, must go directly into a dump truck, and dumped away from the creek. The expense is significant -- between $10,000-$18,000.

Will you help with this project? Your contribution, whatever it may be, will keep Salado beautiful, and a place of enjoyment for our friends and neighbors to visit. For a tax deduction, please send it to Keep Salado Beautiful, P.O. Box 895, Salado, Texas with checks made to Salado Community Foundation. A “thank you” will be placed in the Salado Village Voice, the Village Website, and the Salado Mayor Blog.

Thank you to those who have contributed. You are assured that every donation received will go toward the low water crossing.

Headline needs clarification

To the Editor:

In an earlier edition of the Salado Village Voice a letter was published as a “Thank You” to Josh Kubiak of the Kubota tractor dealership in Temple, Texas, for the loan to “The Salado Village Volunteers,” of a 60 inch, zero turn, commercial lawn mower. The letter was submitted with the title “A Gesture of Goodwill.” The title was changed by the editor to “Keep Salado Beautiful”. We, the Salado Volunteers, want it clearly understood that although we work to keep Salado beautiful, we are not in any regard associated with or regulated by the organization in the Village titled “Keep Salado Beautiful.” We (The Volunteers), are a totally independent organization supported primarily by donations from caring Salado citizens.

Thank You,

Border Boondoggle GOP’s “just build a wall” fans don’t know what they’re talking about

Good fences, wrote Robert Frost, make good neighbors.

But an 18-foot high, 2,000-mile wall? That’s another story. It just antagonizes your neighbor — and shows your own fear and weakness. Yet this is what self-described conservatives running for president propose to build to stop migrants from coming across our country’s southern border. Simple, right? Just fence ’em out!

Haven’t we already tried this?

In 2006, Congress mandated the construction of a wall along the 1,954 miles of our border with Mexico. A decade later, guess how many miles have been completed? About 650. It turns out that erecting a monstrous wall isn’t so simple after all.

First, it’s ridiculously expensive — about $10 billion just for the materials to build from the tip of Texas to the Pacific, not counting labor costs and maintenance.

Second, there’s the prickly problem of land acquisition: To erect the first 650 miles of fence, the federal government had to sue hundreds of property owners to take their land. Odd, isn’t it, that right-wing politicians who loudly rail against government overreach now favor using government muscle to grab private property?

Third, it’s impossible to fence the whole border. Hundreds of miles of it lie along the Rio Grande’s flood plain, and more miles cross the steep mountainous terrain of southern Arizona.

Donald Trump, Ted Cruz, and the other “just build a wall” simpletons either don’t know what they’re talking about or are deliberately trying to dupe voters.

Before you buy a 2,000-mile wall from them, take a peek at the small part already built. Because of the poor terrain and legal prohibitions, it’s not one long fence, but a fragment here and another there, with miles of gaps. Anyone wanting to cross into the United States can just go to one of the gaps and walk through.

But when they’re just trying to stir up fear of foreigners, what’s honesty have to do with it?

Salado Community Chorus sets annual spring membership drive on Jan. 26

Do you like music or like to sing? If so, then you may be interested in the Salado Community Chorus.

The chorus invites you to attend their spring membership drive, informational meeting and dinner 6 p.m. on Jan. 26 at the First Baptist Church of Salado, 210 S. Main St. Chorus members provide the food and welcome guests to join them. For additional information on the chorus, visit www.saladochorus.com.

The Salado Community Chorus is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization dedicated to the promotion of music enjoyment in the Village of Salado. The chorus provides free public concerts and performances for various civic organizations. Chorus members and instrumentalists are volunteers from Salado and several other Central Texas communities.

Chorus practice is Tuesday 6-7:30 p.m. beginning Feb. 2 on the second floor of the Salado Civic Center. In addition, the chorus takes two breaks during the year, Christmas and the summer months.

Members of the chorus enjoy singing with others, learning new songs and providing choral entertainment. Requirements for the chorus are simply that you enjoy music and singing, and are ready to meet a great group of similar-minded people. Auditions are not required. The chorus actively recruits new members and welcomes anyone who might be interested to attend the January 26 Kick-Off dinner and fellowship. You will be their guest.

CAC offers watercolor class

The Cultural Activities Center is enrolling for January watercolor classes. Pre-registration is required to allow teachers the numbers for their supplies in advance of the class start date.

Watercolor II begins on Sat., Jan. 23, and will be taught by Carolyn Todd. The class will last from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., and is for students 17 and older. Students with a prior watercolor painting background are encouraged to participate and build their experience with this transparent water medium. Students will investigate specific techniques to enhance their individual skill levels. Color studies will be introduced to understand and use the power of color and the limitations and strengths of specific color groups. Class members will discuss composition methods and complete one or more paintings from still life and unique compositional challenges. Class will close with a positive critique of the selected student's painting(s).

Painting materials will be provided and targeted for the color studies. Students may bring their own watercolor paint/materials, etc., if desired. Students are encouraged to dress casual in clothing that might be stained and bring or wear an apron, painting jacket or smock. Hair dryers will be provided for students to share and speed the drying process of the paint; however, students are encouraged to bring their own small hair dryer if preferred.

Instructor Carolyn Todd has a BFA and MA in the Fine Arts. She has taught painting in all mediums in Temple, Austin, Georgetown, Houston, and Del Rio. She was selected to be the Artist in Residence for the National Park Service, Amistad National Recreation Area. Her paintings are in private collections across the United States and South America. To view more of her work, visit bluestemarts.net.

The Cultural Activities Center, located at 3011 North Third Street in Temple, offers many classes throughout the year. For more information or to register, email Kristen Reichert at visualarts@cacarts.org, or go online to www.cacarts.org, or call 254-773-9926.

3C Cowboy Fellowship opens new sanctuary building

3C Cowboy Fellowship opened the doors on its new sanctuary on Jan. 10. The church has grown quite a bit since its first weekend service in April of 2006. Pastor Robert Whitefield remarked “It was a great success, we had 550 in attendance and the church worked hard to make this a success and as their Pastor I am grateful to all that God does through this great church.” The church is located at 16258 Gooseneck Road in Salado. Visitors are always welcome at the 10 a.m. Sunday service. A self described 21st Century Western Heritage Church, a typical 3C service features the singing of a few inspirational country or blue grass songs, followed by preaching.

Marlon Sharp and the Cowboys at the Cross provided inspirational music for the Grand Opening of the new 3C Cowboy Fellowship Sanctuary on January 10.

Special guests for the service included (left) Charles Oliver from the American Fellowship of Cowboy Churches and (right) Dr. Gary Patterson from the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Salado High School Speech and Debate Team competed at the UIL State Congress Meet on Jan. 12-13. Trenton Niedert, Kamrie Rhoads, finalist in eighth place and Tim Lane, finalist in 11th place at the State Congress.

SHS competes at UIL State Congress

The Salado High School Speech and Debate Team competed at the UIL State Congress Meet on Jan. 12-13. Fifty-four students qualified for the state meet in the 4A conference division.

Salado High School was represented by Tim Lane, Kamrie Rhoads and Trenton Niedert. Both Lane and Rhoads broke the final round where Rhoads finished 8th and Lane 11th.

According to the University Scholastic League, "Congress is an individual contest in a large group setting. It models the legislative process of democracy, specifically, the United States Congress....At the tournament, students caucus in committees, deliver formal discourse on the merits and disadvantages of each piece of legislation, and vote to pass or defeat the measures they have examined. Parliamentary procedure forms structure for the discourse, and students extemporaneously respond to others' arguments over the course of a session."

The Salado Speech and Debate Team competed at the Burnet UIL Meet on Jan. 16 (see results on page 2B). The team will compete at the Lampasas UIL Meet on Jan. 23.

Salado High Eaglebots are gearing up for the spring robotics season.

Eaglebots begin robotics season, seek donations

It's that time of year again when the Salado High School Eaglebots, coming off an amazing fourth seed qualifying round in 2015, is now working every day - planning, designing and building this year's project for the FIRST Robotics competition. This year, the Eaglebots (Team #3743) will be building their robot to compete in one of the exciting themed games, called "Stronghold" April 6-9 at the George Brown Convention Center in Houston.

While some funding for the competition comes from Salado ISD, the bulk of financing for supplies, tools, required entry fees and travel comes from grants, individual/corporate sponsorships and the financial generosity from the Salado community. To meet that end, the Salado Robotics team has established a Go Fund me site at www.gofundme.com under Salado Eagle Bots 3743. Contributions small and large are appreciated.

In addition, The Eaglebots will be conducting their fourth annual electronics recycling drive with receptacles placed at the high school and Ace Hardware in Salado. All electronics are welcome. However, this year the Eaglebots are focusing on doing what it can to help close the local technological divide by repurposing functioning desktops, monitors, laptops, and tablets for students in need right here in Salado. The Eaglebots have partnered with the Central Texas College Computer Science Department to ensure all systems to be repurposed are cleaned up, hard drives wiped, and operating systems/open office software applications are loaded/reloaded.

For more information on this year's competition, go to <http://www.firstinspires.org/robotics/frc>, contact Salado High School sponsor Catherine Parker at catherine.parker@saladoisd.org or visit the Salado Eaglebots page on Facebook.

Sarah Colley (left) and Matthew Ritch (right) both from Salado participate in last years production of Salado Legends at Tablerock Amphitheater.

Tablerock sets Feb. 6 - 7 for Salado Legends auditions

Auditions for the 2016 season of the outdoor musical drama, Salado Legends, will be held with Director Donnie Williams 3 p.m. on Feb. 6-7. You may attend either session at Tablerock Amphitheater's indoor stage located at 409 Royal Street in Salado. Salado Legends requires singers, actors of all ages, dancers, and stage/tech crew.

Last year's cast, crew and workers consisted of over 100 people ranging in age from 3 years to 85 years of age. Thirty-five families used Salado Legends' rehearsals and performances as a family project. The old saying, "The families that play together stay together," still holds true.

Singers should bring tape and tape player for their accompaniment, CD player will be available. Actors will give cold readings from a Salado Legend script.

Dancers need only list their experience. Rehearsals, by scene, begin 7 - 9:30 p.m. on June 6 - weekday evenings.

Performances on July 23, 30 and August 6.

Scholarships are available for college students, and high school students graduating in May of 2016, or high school students taking college courses. The 2016 scholarship funds available are over $10,000 and are distributed by the Director according to need and service.

Tablerock is a volunteer theater, no compensation for cast or crew. Call Tablerock Amphitheater at 947-9205 with audition questions.

ITALIAN WEDDING SOUP WITH VEGAN MEATBALLS

Serves 6

Ready-to-eat vegan meatballs make this filling soup a snap to pull together.

- 1 (15-ounce) can Italian-style diced tomatoes with garlic, oregano and basil
- 6 cups organic vegetable broth
- 4 ounces elbow pasta
- 1 (16-ounce) package vegan meatballs
- 3 cups fresh organic spinach, roughly chopped
- 2 teaspoons dried Italian seasoning
- Sea salt and ground black pepper
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese (optional)

Bring the tomatoes and broth to a boil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Simmer 10 minutes. Add pasta, meatballs, spinach and Italian seasoning and cook until the pasta is tender and meatballs are cooked through, about 8 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Ladle into bowls and serve. Sprinkle with Parmesan if desired.

SEEDED WHOLE GRAIN BEER KNOTS

makes 12 rolls

These crusty and chewy seeded rolls are the perfect addition to any cozy meal.
Plan in advance because you'll need to make the sponge the night before you serve the rolls.

- 1 (12-ounce) bottle brown ale, at room temperature
- 1/2 teaspoon active dry yeast
- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- Dough
- 1/2 teaspoon active dry yeast
- 1/4 cup warm water (105° to 110°F)
- 1 cup whole spelt flour
- 2 cups whole wheat flour, plus more for dusting
- 1 tablespoon coarse sea salt
- 1/2 cup cool water
- 2 tablespoons sunflower seeds
- 2 tablespoons sesame seeds
- 1 tablespoon fennel seeds
- 1 tablespoon coarse sea salt
- Seed Topping
- 2 tablespoons poppy seeds

To make sponge, in a medium bowl, combine beer and yeast and stir a few times. Let stand until yeast has dissolved, 3 to 4 minutes. Mix in all-purpose flour by hand or with a wooden spoon until evenly incorporated. Cover loosely and let sit at room temperature for 10 to 12 hours.

To make dough, transfer sponge to the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the dough hook. Add yeast, warm water, spelt flour, whole wheat flour and salt. Begin mixing on low speed. When dough starts to come together, add cool water to make a dough of medium consistency (not dry but not too wet). Continue to mix on the lowest or second-lowest speed until a smooth dough forms, 5 to 7 minutes. Turn dough out onto a lightly floured surface and form into a ball. Return to the bowl, cover loosely and let sit in a warm spot until dough is almost doubled in size, about 1 hour.

Turn dough out onto a lightly floured surface and divide into 12 equal rectangles. Roll a piece into a 12 inch-rope and tie into a knot. Repeat with remaining dough pieces.

Line 2 rimmed baking sheets with parchment paper. To make topping, combine poppy seeds, sesame seeds, sunflower seeds, fennel seeds and salt in a wide pie plate. Quickly dip the top of each roll into a small bowl of water, and then press the roll gently into seed mixture. Place 6 rolls on each prepared baking sheet. Cover with plastic wrap and let sit in a warm spot until rolls are almost doubled in size, 45 minutes to 1 hour.

Meanwhile, position 1 rack on the bottom and 1 rack in the middle of the oven. Pre-heat the oven to 500°F. Place a metal baking pan on the lower rack to use for creating steam.

When rolls are ready to bake, carefully pour about 1/2 cup water into the hot pan in the oven and immediately close the door. Wait about 2 minutes for the steam to settle, then quickly place 1 baking sheet on the middle rack (you can bake both pans if your oven is large enough). Lower the oven temperature to 450°F and bake until rolls are golden brown, 15 to 20 minutes.

- 1/2 cup Engine 2 Plant-Strong Unsweetened Original Almondmilk
- 3 tablespoons unsweetened almond butter
- 1 1/3 cup diced pineapple, kiwi, sliced kumquats, or other fruit
- 1/2 cup Engine 2 Plant-Strong Plain Jane Granola or other granola flavor

Put banana slices in a single layer on a parchment-lined baking sheet. Place in the freezer until frozen, 1 to 2 hours. (Frozen slices can be transferred to a freezer-safe resealable plastic bag and stored frozen for up to 3 months.)

Meanwhile, combine dates and boiling water in a small bowl and soak for 30 min-utes. Transfer to a blender or food processor; add ginger and blend until smooth. Set aside. (Make up to 3 days ahead and refrigerate until ready to serve.)

Combine frozen banana slices, almondmilk and almond butter in a food processor and process until smooth and creamy. Divide among 6 bowls, or transfer to an airtight container and freeze until firm, at least 4 hours or up to 5 days. Surround banana “ice cream” with fruit and granola and drizzle with date sauce.

Should I try to avoid being at home when the house is shown?

You should definitely plan to be out of the house during any open house your REALTOR® has scheduled; the same goes for first showings to prospective buyers. People often feel uncomfortable speaking candidly and asking questions in front of the current owner. You want them to feel as free as possible to picture your house as their "dream home."
