55th Scottish Gathering, Highland Games on grounds of Salado Civic Center in Nov.

The 55th Scottish Gathering and Highland Games (www.saladoscottishfestival.com) will be held on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center, November 11-13. Heralding all things Scottish, this landmark event is the oldest Scottish festival in Texas and has been sponsored continuously by the Central Texas Area Museum since 1961.

“The Scottish Gathering is a vital part of Salado and its ancestral history,” says Melanie Kirchmeier, President of the Salado Chamber of Commerce. “The importance of this event serves to reinforce and celebrate those roots each time it returns. Its value is immeasurable to this community.”

The three-day event includes the skirl of the bagpipes, the wearing of the tartan, tossing the caber, Highland dancing, Celtic entertainers, shopping, food and fun. One of the event’s main features is the Clan Village, the largest gathering of Scottish Clan tents in Texas where Clan members share information about Scottish history and genealogy.

The weekend begins on Friday evening with the Calling of the Clans at 6:00 pm on the Salado Creekside just north of the Museum building on south Main Street. This is a solemn torchlight ceremony that recreates the coming together of the ancient Scottish clans to fight with Robert the Bruce for Scotland’s freedom in 1314 at Bannockburn.

The Civic Center grounds open Saturday at 9:00 a.m. The official opening ceremonies begin at noon with the Bands and Clans Parade on Main Street followed by presentations and massed bagpipe bands on the grounds. The day’s activities include Scottish athletics, dancing and bagpiping competitions, live music, a Celtic marketplace and more.

Sunday events begin at 9:00 a.m. with the Kirkin’ o’ the Tartan, a traditional devotional service in which family groups carry banners of their family tartans and ask blessings on the families. The day’s activities include bagpipe band competition, Clan tents, dog parade and contest, music, food, and shopping.

For more information, visit www.saladoscottishfestival.com.

Get in the holiday spirit during the annual Salado Christmas Stroll weekends

Get in the holiday spirit in picturesque historic Salado with a holiday parade, home tours, a live nativity scene and theatrical performances. The two weekends of Dec. 2-4 and Dec. 9-11 are filled with entertainment, activities and Christmas shopping experiences for the whole family.

Festivities start with the annual Christmas Parade at 5 p.m. December 1. The Parade will begin on Royal St. and make its way up Main Street to the Salado Civic Center. Arrive early (4:30 p.m.) to get the best spots along the parade route.

The parade will have more than 40 entries and will include the SHS marching band, floats, walking groups, bicycle riders and vintage cars.

At the end of the parade, there will be hot chocolate and cookies and a visit from jolly old St. Nick at the Civic Center.

Strolling holiday carolers will serenade the late evening shoppers along Main Street each Friday and Saturday. Stop by the Visitors Center to pick up your Salado Adventure game card for a chance to win $500 gift card.

Many of the shops will host a variety of live entertainment at their shops all day and evening during the Stroll. For a complete listing of the entertainment available, visit salado.com or saladovillagevoice.com in the days leading up to the event.

Children will be enchanted with the live nativity scene, sponsored by the First Baptist Church, in the evenings on both weekends of the Stroll.

Beautifully decorated historic and contemporary homes open their doors to visitors during Christmas Stroll. The Salado Historical Society Homes Tour will be throughout the Village. Tour hours will be 5-8 p.m. Dec. 2, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Dec. 3 and 1-4 p.m. Dec. 4. See related story in this edition.

You may enjoy taking a carriage ride through the village to see the Salado shops, restaurants, inns and galleries twinkling with white lights for the season.

To get in the holiday spirit, take in Tablerock Amphitheater's production of Dickens's "A Christmas Carol" at Goodnight Amphitheater on Royal Street Dec. 2-3 and Dec. 9-10 with the curtain opening at 7 p.m. See related story this edition.

The Salado Community Chorus will have its annual Christmas Concert at the First Baptist Church Worship Center on Main Street. The concert will feature traditional and contemporary Christmas carols at 7 p.m. on Dec. 8.

For the latest schedule of events visit salado.com and the Salado Village Voice website, saladovillagevoice.com.

Dickens' tale brought to life on Tablerock stage in Dec.

Tablerock's 24th annual performances of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol at the Goodnight Amphitheater on Royal Street in Salado will be Dec. 2-3 and Dec. 9-10 at 7 p.m.

A Christmas Carol has a cast and crew of 60, some new-comers to the play and a handful who have been associated with the play since its inception, 24 years ago.

A Christmas Carol was adapted to the stage by Harry Sweet. Sweet, director of Carol for 15 years and a retired Ethics Professor at Mary Hardin Baylor said, "No one can improve on Dickens's works," so the show remains pure Dickens, to the delight of all who come back year after year to enjoy the production.

Shannon Burr Ashe will direct this year's production. She agrees with Sweet's theory about Dicken's and plans to "Keep the play true to Dickens."

Amphitheater located on Royal Street. Tickets are available at the gate: $10.00 for Adults, $5.00 for students and $3.00 for children 12 and under. Tickets may be purchased on line at www.tablerock.org or at the gate the night of each performance.

Robertson Plantation Gala, Spotlight on Salado sponsored by Museum during Stroll weekend

The Central Texas Area Museum hosts the first annual Spotlight on Salado Weekend, Dec. 9-10 during the second weekend of the popular Salado Christmas Stroll.

Events include an Auction and Social on Dec. 9, an Historic Salado Christmas on Dec. 10, and the second annual Robertson Plantation Gala Dec. 10.

The Spotlight on Salado Auction and Social begins at 6 p.m. Dec. 9 at the Museum with a social hour where visitors can enjoy light refreshments, preview Live auction items and place bids on Silent auction items. At 7 p.m. the Silent auction ends and the Live auction begins. Auction items include one-of-a-kind collectibles, fine jewelry, antiques, weekend getaways, winery and brewery tours and tastings, fine dining, sporting goods, handcrafted items and more. The event is open to the public and all proceeds support the Salado Museum and College Park.

The Spotlight on Salado Weekend continues on Dec. 10 with the Historic Salado Christmas at the Museum from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Family activities throughout the day include live music, light refreshments, visits with Santa and Christmas shopping in the museum gift shop.

The Robertson Plantation Gala, an evening of fine food and drink, begins at 6 p.m. Dec. 10. This event is the only time the Robertson Plantation House is open to the public and offers a unique opportunity to tour one of the most historic homes in Texas. Information on the Gala

The 150-year-old Robertson Plantation will open for a Gala to benefit the Central Texas Area Museum on Dec. 10.

The theme of the Salado Community Chorus's 2016 Christmas concert is "Christmas Sensations." The Chorus will present songs that arouse our physical and emotional senses with colors, sounds, tastes, comedy and a hint of romance. To refresh your spiritual sense, the Chorus will sing some "not-your-usual" Christmas songs during the last part of the concert. So if you, like Charlie Brown, want to get in touch with your feelings this Christmas make like shepherds and "flock" to Salado First Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Dec. 8. The Salado Community Chorus is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization dedicated to the promotion of music enjoyment in the Village of Salado. Chorus members and instrumentalists are volunteers from Salado and several other Central Texas communities. Chorus practice is each Tuesday from 6-7:30 p.m. in the Salado Civic Center.

Our Heritage Speaks cemetery tour on Oct. 1

In the dusky evening of Saturday, October 1, the Salado pioneers who are buried in the historic Old Salado Graveyard will come to life to tell their stories. They will tell how they came to Texas, when they came to Salado, and how they served their community and their country. Some will tell of other relatives who are buried next to them. Some will tell all; others will keep their secrets buried.

Salado Historical Society and Tablerock are sponsoring this second annual walking tour of the Old Salado Graveyard on October 1, from 5-6:30 p.m. The historic Old Salado Graveyard is on Baines Street.

The program is titled "Our Salado Heritage Speaks" referring to the lives of Salado settlers buried in the Old Graveyard who will have their biographies presented by historical reenactors.

Sixteen early pioneers designated historically significant to the founding and early settlement of Salado are the focus of the walking tour.

The early pioneers on the tour are: Col. Hermon Aiken, Dr. Welborn and Louisa Barton, Captain Milton Damron, Rev. James and Fannie Ferguson, Capt. Robert Bonner Halley, Dr. Samuel Jones, Professor James Lowry Smith, James Anderson, Rev. George Washington Baines, Dr. Benjamin McKie, Archibald J. Rose, Leroy A. Griffith, John Paine, John Wesley Ray, Charley Schoepf, and Emily Bumpass Stockton.

Besides being noted Salado pioneers, these individuals made significant contributions to the educational, religious, political, and civic lives of people in the county and the State of Texas.

Tickets will cost $5 for adults and $3 for children 12 and under. Tickets can be purchased at the cemetery on the night of the program. Parking will be on site. Cars will not be permitted in the cemetery during the program.

Get lost in tales of treasure during Salado Ghost Walk

This autumn, take a lantern-lit stroll down Salado's Main Street and get lost in tales of cowboys, Indians, buried treasure and, of course, ghosts.

Local author, Jonathan Hal Reynolds, will be your guide for the evening as you visit historic sites such as the Stagecoach Inn, the Salado College Grounds, Pace Park and more.

Hear spooky legends and macabre folklore as twilight falls upon the village. The ghostwalk begins at 8 p.m., and lasts for approximately an hour and a half.

Salado Ghost Walk dates for 2016 are Oct. 7, 8, 22, 28 and 29, Nov. 4, 5, 19 and Dec. 1. Tours begin at 8 p.m.

Public tour tickets are on sale now for $20 per person.

Private group tours are available seven nights a week year around for groups of 10 or more. To check availability, purchase tickets, or request a private group tour, visit www.saladoghostwalk.com

Don't forget your outdoor shoes, walking stick, and canteen. Recommended for ages 13 and older.

To submit your local ghost stories, please contact the Historic Salado Ghostwalk at info@saladoghostwalk.com

Private homes open for Christmas Tour

You are invited to tour four beautiful homes, the Salado Methodist Church Chapel and two completely restored log cabins during the Salado Historical Society annual Christmas Tour of Homes Dec. 2-4 as part of the Christmas Stroll.

Tickets are $18 per person when purchased from the Salado Visitors Center at 831 N. Main St. before Nov. 24 and $20 per person when purchased after Nov. 24. Tickets will be sold at each of the tour locations during the tour hours.

The Christmas Tour of Homes will be 5-8 p.m. Dec. 2, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Dec. 3 and 1-4 p.m. Dec. 4.

The tour will feature a Colonial Williamsburg revival two-story home on the golf course, located at 2221 Chisholm Trail, the first home built by famed-builder the late Darwin Britt, located at 615 DeGrummond, a woodland contemporary home on a forested lot in the heart of Mill Creek at 609 Willow Creek, a classic American Colonial overlooking the Mill Creek golf course at 2101 Bluff Way.

The historic Salado Methodist Church Chapel, located at 650 Royal Street, will also be decorated for the holidays and open for the tour. The chapel is a beautifully restored Carpenter Gothic church. The Methodist Chapel is located at The Boles-Aiken cabin, thought by many to be an early Salado school and stagestop, and the Denman cabin will also be open for the tour. The cabins are on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center and were restored by the Salado Historical Society.

This Darwin Britt-built home is at 615 DeGrummond Way and is the home of Knox and Betsy Tyson.

A beautiful Williamsburg Colonial that backs up to Mill Creek Golf Course is located at 2221 Chisholm Trail.

The entrance to Jack Husung and Randy Eakin's home at 609 Willow Creek is tucked away among a grove of Live Oak trees.

Mark your calendars for Christmas in October

It's never too early to think about Christmas! One of the best places to view "the latest" Christmas decorations and styles all on display in a charming setting is at the Salado Chamber of Commerce Ladies Auxiliary Christmas in October.

The event is scheduled for 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Oct. 7-8 at The Venue on College Street (near the corner of Royal Street and College Street) in Salado. Admission is $3 per adult.

This annual event is a preview to the Christmas season and will feature the wares of local and area merchants on display inside a beautiful setting at The Venue on College Street.

The Christmas in October Bake Sale is a tradition many look forward to each year.

Customers will enjoy wandering through the booth area and the bake sale area all in the same facility. Most importantly, participants will have the opportunity to purchase delicious homemade pies, cakes, cookies and a wide variety of desserts.

A Style Show will be provided again this year. Models will feature fall fashions from local boutiques as well as out of town merchants. The "strolling time" for the models will be late morning and early afternoon on both days of the Friday and Saturday event. In addition, vendors will display their special and unique Christmas decorations, jewelry, clothing, gifts, food, and home décor specialty items.

"This year, we look forward to utilizing the expanded booth area with the addition of The Venue covered porch area. Once again, we anticipate customers will enjoy the booths and the bake sale being in the same building. Usually we sell our booth space quickly because vendors know Salado's Christmas in October attracts a large crowd each year of early Christmas shoppers," states Christmas in October co-chair Tommye Prater. "Of course, we are delighted to offer more booth space to attract additional vendors and the style show is always a fun event," said Deborah Roberson, Christmas in October co-chair.

The Village trolley will be available to transport visitors from several Village parking areas to the entrance of The Venue on College Street. For more information, visit us online at www.salado.com or contact the Salado Chamber of Commerce at 254-947-5040 or contact the Village of Salado Tourism Department at 254-947-8634.

The Salado Ladies Auxiliary strives to promote events and activities which enhance, improve and promote the community of Salado. Christmas in October is one of these events in which the money earned is given back to community organizations such as the Salado Volunteer Fire Department, Salado Family Relief, Salado Community Chorus, and the Body of Christ Dental Clinic. Funds also are used to provide annual scholarships for local high school students to attend college or technical school.

Salado Masonic Lodge #296 will share its history during Open House

Much of the history of Salado is linked to Salado Masonic Lodge #296. Many of the men who founded Salado were Masons.

The Masonic Lodge will mark its 150th anniversary in June 2017.

On Oct. 23, it will join the more than 1,000 lodges under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Texas Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons in hosting an Open House for the community.

Salado Masonic Lodge #296 will open its doors to the community 2-4 p.m. on Oct. 23. There will be representatives of the Appendant Bodies, including the Shrine, the Scottish Rite, the York Rite and the Knights Templar.

The following history of the lodge is taken from the lodge's program during its Century Celebration in 1967.

by Charlton E. Johnson
Past Master-Historian

The petitioners for Dispensation and Charter were: E. Sterling C. Robertson, Harvey Smith, W.A. Davis, O.T. Tyler, A. Rowland, Robert B. Halley, Jno. A. Tyler, F. A. Bigelow, N.R. Land, H.J. Chamberlain, W.R. Karnes, G.W. Wade, M.W. Adams, Jno T. Flint, Geo. W. McWhirter, Welborn Barton, Jas. Tinnin, A. Tinnin, and Jesse Raborn.

The Minutes of Salado Lodge were destroyed in a fire about 1883 and we are deprived of that source of information as to the early activities of the Lodge, after Dispensation.

We may safely assume, however, that education was one of the principal objectives of the Lodge and a matter stressed in its discussions and proceedings.

Thirty-three percent of the teachers and seventy-seven percent of the Trustees of the College were Masons. The founders (of the College), most of whom have been found to be Masons, also made provision in the Deeds of purchase of lots to prohibit the sale of intoxicating beverages by the drink in Salado.

"It seems," writes Mrs. Felda Shanklin, Salado historian, "that most all of those early Salado men were Masons."

The Charter for Salado Masonic Lodge was granted by the Grand Lodge of Texas on June 13, A.D. 1867, and was signed by Grand Master John R. Freitwell.

The first Grand Lodge Report of Salado Lodge after the granting of a Charter shows the following officers: E.S.C. Robertson, W.M.; Harvey Smith, S.W.; W.A. Davis, J.W.; O.T. Tyler, Treas.; W. Barton, Sec.; J.W. Tinnin, S.D.; I. Raborn, J.D.; R.B. Halley, Tiler. This report also shows a membership of twenty-two M.M. by affiliation, one Fellowcraft, five Enter Apprentices, and one Past Master.

On the back of a Grand Lodge, Report U. D., there is this notation: "The Lodge Room of Salado Lodge is the second story of a stone building twenty by forty feet." These figures are the same dimensions as those of one wing of the Salado College building and there seems to be no doubt that the College and the Lodge were using the same building in those early days - an arrangement that is not surprising, since both had similar objectives and both had the same man, E. Sterling Robertson, as their highest official.

Later, Salado Lodge secured an interest in the title to the upper story of the Baptist Church in Salado, and for many years met in a Lodge room on the second floor of the church building. In a church rebuilding and enlargement program, the question came up as to how to dispose of the interest of the Lodge in the old building. This problem was solved by literally sawing off the upper half of the building and moving it to, and setting it up as a Lodge room a short distance away on some land donated to the Lodge by Bro. Charlton E. Johnson, Past Master of Salado Masonic Lodge.

There are four Masons who have been shown to be most influential and effective in the founding and maintaining of Salado College and Thomas Arnold High School. It is a most remarkable fact that all of these leaders in the educational field were contemporaries, and it is also a remarkable fact that a town so small as Salado and a Lodge so limited in membership that Salado Masonic Lodge could have nurtured four men whose great work in life was the advancement of education. It would be difficult to find a parallel in Texas.

Col. E. Sterling C. Robertson, leader and pioneer, who had a vision of a great school in the midst of a wilderness and who gave unreservedly of his time, his splendid talents and his money to make that vision a reality, and without whom there might never have been any Salado College, Masonic Lodge or town of Salado Springs; Major A. J. Rose, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, champion of education in general, with special emphasis upon the practical phase of education; Geo. W. Tyler, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, advocate of, and tireless worker in, all fields of education, general and Masonic; and Dr. S. J. Jones, Ph.D., M.A., who brought to Thomas Arnold High School a polish, a luster and fame not surpassed in its day by any educational institution in Texas.

Past Grand Master Rose and Past Grand Master Tyler were both members of the Salado Lodge No. 296 at the time they were elevated to the high office, Bro. Rose in 1886 and Bro. Tyler in 1891. Bro. Tyler and Bro. Jones were each raised a Master Mason in Salado Lodge No. 296.

Mills on Salado Creek

(excerpts from History of Bell County, Third Edition George W. Tyler)

...mention should be made of the numerous small flour and grist mills which were to be found along the streams from the late sixties to the early eighties. They were nearly all run by water power. The Salado Creek was especially well adapted to milling, and more mills than any other stream in the county. The oldest one on this creek was Ferguson's Mill. It had first been built by Ira E. and Whitefield Chalk in 1849 or 1850 and after some years had been owned and operated by Jr. James P. Reed. The Reverend James E. Ferguson bought it in 1867 and ran it until his death in 1876. It was then carried on for many years by his family. In 1866 Mr. W.A. Davis formerly of Round Rock built a mill and dam on this creek a little way below the big springs at the town of Salado. At first it was a wool carding establishment but was later converted into a flour and grist mill. In the same year John Meyers erected a mill several miles further down on Salado Creek, which later passed through the hands of several owners but is best remembered as the Summer's Mill. Other mills built on this stream were Dulaney's (1867), T.J. Jones' (1869), Stinnett and Orgain's (1874) later known as Stinnett's and finally as the Highland Mill and "Ike" (Isaac V) Jones' Mill (1880). On the Lampasas, after the little pioneer Children's Mill, built in 1848, came Guthrie's (1870) and W.K. Hamblen's (1871).

Salado Grange was first in Texas

Back in the seventies the farmers had a great national organization, styled the "Patrons of Husbandry." It was commonly called, "The Grange," and its members were referred to as "Grangers." The organization covered the farming district of the whole United States, and at one time its membership numbered hundreds of thousands. It comprised a National Grange, a state Grange in each state, a County Grange in each county, and local Granges in the communities.

Bell County pioneered the movement in this state. Salado Grange, No. 1, opened in the summer of 1873, was the first Grange organized in Texas. Among its charter members were A.J. Rose, O.T. Tyler, William P. Hancock, J.F. Fuller, John S. Rogers, L.A. Griffith, N.L. Norton, Wm. J. Caskey, Joe W. Love and many others.

The order soon spread rapidly over Bell County and throughout the state. County Granges were set up and then the State Grange, all in 1873. Wm. W. Lange of Marlin became the first Grand Worthy patron of the State Grange. By 1878 the membership had become so large and its political power so great that Mr. Lange became a candidate for governor before the Democratic State Convention, on the Grange or farmers' ticket. Lange resigned the leadership of the State Grange about 1882 and was succeeded by A.J. Rose, as Grand Worthy Patron. The order prospered for some ten or twelve years before it was largely superseded by a radical and active organization, the "Farmers Alliance."

The leading objects of the grange organization were cooperation among farmers in the marketing of produce and in the purchase of farm supplies, implements, building materials, etc.; the bringing with the "middleman;" better provisions for education - especially agricultural education; the social uplift of the farmer and his family; a strong code of morals; law and order; lower taxes; and greater participation by farmers in making the laws. And during those days it was the usual stunt for politicians to cater to the Grange vote and to identify themselves with the political demands of the farmers.

The first incorporated Grange store in the State was started in Salado, whence others, too, spread all over Texas. They flourished for a time, but at last with droughts and hard times, they went upon the financial rocks.

The Texas Cooperative Association, a rather ambitious enterprise, also organized and incorporated at Salado, set up its office in Galveston with Mr. John S. Rogers, of Salado, as manager. Its mission was to receive by consignment, cotton and other farm products from the farmers (through their local Grange stores) all over the state; to sell these products direct to spinners' agents and exporters; to purchase, at wholesale prices, the supplies of all kinds required by the farmers, consigning such purchase, in carload lots, to the Grange stores, where they were to be distributed among the members and customers. To pay its overhead expenses, the Association charged a small fixed commission upon all transactions. It was well planned, and for many years was a decided success. Even after the Grange was superseded by the "Alliance," the latter organization used the facilities of the Grange Agency at Galveston.

The local Grange stores and the Texas Cooperative Association were all based theoretically upon spot cash transactions, for they had but little capital and could not extend credit. When droughts and other calamities visited the farmer they were forced back to the credit accommodations offered by the regular merchants and these cooperative enterprises, handling only cash transactions, lost a large percent of the business of even their own membership. In a one-crop country the cash or "pay as you go" system seem to be impracticable, however well managed.

The Texas Farmer was launched by William P. Hancock and J.F. Fuller, of Salado, about 1880. It was devoted to the interests of the farmers generally and of the Patrons of Husbandry in particular. At first it was printed at the office of the Belton Courier in Belton, but later equipped its own print shop in Belton, where it was edited and managed by J.F. Fuller. The paper became the official organ of the State Grange, and enjoyed as a statewide circulation. Later it was moved to Dallas and there it was edited and managed by Wm. A. Shaw, generally known as "Farmer Shaw," who made it an influential factor with the press and farmers of Texas.

Such an organization, with an overwhelming farmer vote throughout the State, was, of course, catered to and preyed upon by politicians, within and without the membership; and what with the financial straits of the individual farmers and the arrival of a new organization, the Farmer's Alliance, the Grange gradually disappeared as an active body.

The Order still exists in other parts of the United States and still holds well attended National Grange meetings; but it no longer exists in Texas, so far as is known to this writer. (After this article first appeared in this magazine, we have had reports that the Grange continues in parts of the country).

The membership included all members of the farmer's family - men, women, and children (above a certain age) and all of them participated in the Grange meetings held in halls or rooms prepared for the purpose. The meetings were secret and were conducted on the lodge plan, with a ritual for the initiation of new members and installation of officers. While women as well as men held office in the Grange, the more responsible active duties in that body were performed by the men of the Order.

The Grange did much to promote social intercourse among farmers and their families, brought about a more general habit of reading and investigation, especially along economic lines, and included broader thinking and a more liberal attitude in the minds of a great body of citizens whose outlook had been too much limited by the hard routine of life on the farm. The Grange left its imprint, virile and lasting upon the period.

The annual Empty Bowl project will take place 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Nov. 12 at the Salado Intermediate School Cafeteria. Select a beautiful ceramic bowl and enjoy delicious soups from the many restaurants and inns of Salado. There will be a wide variety of bowls available. Take out is available. Best of all, you are helping the Salado Family Relief Fund to raise money for its annual Christmas drive. Tickets are $25 for all-you-can-eat soup and a keepsake bowl or $10 for just the all-you-can eat soup lunch. Mud Pies Pottery will be having classes in October during which you can make your own bowl for the event. Call Mud Pies at 254-947-0281 for dates and times of the classes. Shown above is a selection of bowls purchased at the Empty Bowl over the years.

Clan Wallace marks 50th anniversary at Salado Gathering

Clan Wallace Society (CWS) has over 1,400 members in the United States, Canada, Scotland, England, France and as far away as Hong Kong, New Zealand, and Australia.

CWS was founded and chartered in 1966 at one of the early Gathering of the Clans in Salado. The purpose of the Society is educational with particular reference to the history of Scotland, and its public figures, such as Sir William Wallace, the national hero of Scotland, its Clan and the heritage and achievements of those claiming Scottish descent.

The Clan Wallace Motto is Pro Liberate which means "For Freedom". In the late 1200's and early 1300's a Scottish Patriot named William Wallace stirred his nation to rebel against the harsh rule of England's King Edward I Plantagenet also known as "Longshanks". William Wallace became High Protector of Scotland and was knighted for his patriotism and leadership in the rebellion. He was eventually defeated in battle and was imprisoned and tortured to death by the English. It was not until the year 2000 that Sir William Wallace's dream of freedom for Scotland became a reality. Scotland instituted its first Parliament in 2000, with Queen Elizabeth II of England in attendance to support the event.

To celebrate and learn more about your Wallace heritage, visit the Clan Wallace website at www.ClanWallace.org.

The current Chief of Clan Wallace is Ian Francis Wallace of the Ilk, 35th Chief of the Clan and Name of Wallace and Honorary president of the Society. He will be in attendance at the 55th Annual Highland Games and Gathering of the Clans on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center on Nov. 12-13. To learn more about the Salado Gathering, visit www.saladoscottishfestival.com.

The Clan Wallace Society has many conveners who set up Clan tents at Celtic Festivals and Highland Games throughout the United States and Canada. Clan Wallace Society conveners are volunteers who work individually toward the educational goals of the CWS Charter.

Assisting the local conveners, Frank and Lynne Leslie, here at the Salado Highland
