Seniors win 3 golds at State

Salado senior Ryan Simmons added two golds to his silver and bronze medals earned at the UIL State Track Meet during his career in Salado High. Senior Rachel Hildebrand also added a gold medal to her own silver medal from last year's State Track Meet.

Simmons earned gold in both the discus and shot put while Hildebrand earned gold in the 2A girls' shot put.

Simmons won the 2A boys division in the discus with a throw of 170-10 in the finals of the competition. His throw of 170-08 led the pack of nine competitors in the preliminary round. He threw the discus 170-10 on his second attempt in the final round to beat Andrew Perez of Taft's mark of 163-05. Jackson Tyner of Edgewood was third with his first throw of 154-01.

Simmons also won the shot put with a mark of 57-00, which he threw on his third attempt of the day. His mark beat Tavaris Owens of Whitney by 10 inches. Mason Davis of Vanderbilt Industrial was third with a mark of 53-11.25.

Last year, Simmons earned silver in both events. He threw the discus for 174-05 for the silver in 2013. He threw the shot put for 54-05.25 for second place in 2013.

In 2012, as a sophomore, Simmons earned bronze in the 3A boys discus with a throw of 162-09. His mark of 53-11.50 as a sophomore was good enough for fifth place in the state in 3A division.

Hildebrand won the 2A girls shot put with a throw of 39-10 on her third attempt. That mark beat out Julisa Williams of Woodville's effort of 39-05.25.

As a junior, Hildebrand was second last year in the 2A girls shot put with a mark of 40-06.25.

Morgan Hill ran the 110 Meter Hurdles in 15.78 to place ninth overall in the race. Her seed time of 15.07 was third in qualifying for the state meet.

Skip Blancett decisively won the race for Mayor of the Village of Salado with 290 votes, more than 100 votes than the second place contender Rick Ashe. Blancett will be given his oath of office at the 6 p.m. May 15 Board of Aldermen meeting at the Municipal Building, 301 Stagecoach Rd.

Newly-elected aldermen Amber Preston-Dankert and Frank Coachman will also be given their oaths of office at the meeting and the board will elect a new Mayor Pro-Tem.

Preston Dankert led the four person race for two spots on the Board of Aldermen with 357 votes, followed by Coachman with 314 votes.

In the Salado ISD Board of Trustees race, Kim Bird and Rodney W. Bell were returned to the board. Kristi Jarvis will join them.

Early voting was heavy as 448 cast ballots in the Village races during that period. On election day May 10, voted for a total of 691 ballots being cast. In the race for Mayor, Blancett captured 43 percent of the 678 ballots cast with 197 votes in early voting and 93 votes on election day. Ashe followed with 187 votes, 126 in early voting. Incumbent Danney McCort had 104 votes and alderman Hans Fields took in 97 total votes.

Preston-Dankert led the field of four in the race for two two-year terms on the Village of Salado Board of Aldermen. She had 357 votes, 238 in early voting. Coachman had 314 votes, 219 in early voting. Former mayor Merle Stalcup had 212 total votes and incumbent alderman Bryan Fritch had 197 votes. There were Voters also overwhelmingly approved a measure that would allow the off-premise sale of all alcoholic beverages which will allow liquor stores in the Village of Salado voting 441 in favor and 225 against.

In the Village of Salado, 691 ballots were cast, mostly in early voting with 448 ballots cast.

Incumbents Kim Bird and Rodney Bell were re-elected to three-year terms on the Salado ISD Board of Trustees. Kristi Jarvis was also elected to the Board of Trustees. Bird received 716 votes, 416 in early voting; Bell received 534 votes, 360 in early voting. Jarvis received 499 total votes, 337 in early voting. Brian Sunshine received 413 votes.

A total of 985 ballots were cast in the school board race.

Salado voters also overwhelmingly approved a local option elect to allow for "The legal sale of all alcohol beverages for off-premise consumption only." In that election, 441 voted in favor and 225 voted against.

According to the Village of Salado 2013 Zoning Ordinance 2013.08 Zoning Use Chart (page 76), package stores are a permitted use in the Historic District, Local Retail, Regional Retail, Mixed Use, Business Park and Commercial zones of the Village. They are not allowed in Office zones.

The 2010 Zoning Ordinance would allow Conditional Use Permits for Beer and Wine and Mixed Beverage Sales in the Use Chart. No such use was defined for Package Store.

Village accepts Stagecoach sewer plant

Mayor Danney McCort signed a letter May 13 thanking Morris E. Foster, chairman of Stagecoach Properties for the donation of two tracts of real property totaling 4.972 acres and the wastewater plant located at 401 South Stagecoach Road.

The letter marks the culmination of six months of negotiations between the Village of Salado and Foster to accept the sewer treatment plant that treats water for the Stagecoach Inn and more than a dozen other downtown businesses. The plant has a capacity of 50,000 gallons per day and currently utilizes less than 40 percent of that total capacity.

The negotiations seemed to stall in early January when it looked as if the Village would not accept the property, but city administrator Jim Reed recommended going forward with accepting the plant.

For the time being, the plant will continue to be operated by Terry Potts, owner of Stagecoach Inn, on behalf of the Village, Mayor McCort said.

He proposes that his company Stagecoach Properties, Inc. gift the current sewage plant, all gathering lines, discharge permits, 2.2 acres of land including a parking lot and all associated equipment to the Village of Salado.

"This is an excellent opportunity for Salado to own at little to no cost an established sewage operation that would benefit most of Main Street and have the opportunity to expand in the future," Foster said.

The plant, or at the very least, the land that it currently occupies, may play a part in the ultimate construction of a sewer system for the business district of Salado. Reed was authorized to spend up to $10,000 to draft initial proposals for the possible sewer system in hopes of bringing a bond election

The Village has conducted numerous studies of sewer systems with projected price tags. These proposed costs in 2010 ranged from $3 million for 61 current connections to more than $8.7 million for 147 current connections.

Reed said that he wants to have firm cost estimates and proposed design of a sewer system in July to give voters a chance to educate themselves about the cost and benefits of the sewer system.

In addition to accepting the sewer system, the village will enter into a lease for the land to which the effluent is pumped, according to McCort. The annual price in year one will be $500. It will increase annually until year five, when the cost will be $5,000. The Village will likely seek alternatives for the effluent in that time.

The Village is also re-vamping the lease with Stagecoach Properties of the downtown restrooms, lowering the cost to $300 per month for seven years.

Thanks and congratulations

To the Editor,

I feel compelled to write this letter of thanks. On April 23, there was a real emergency at our house. My daughter Mari-cia Magee, after major surgery on April 21, began having trouble breathing and wouldn't wake up. We needed immediate atten-tion.

I called 9-1-1 and within minutes, there was response from the Salado Police Department, Salado Volunteer Fire Department and Scott & White EMS. She was treated and trans-ported to Scott & White ER where she received excel-lent attention. Within a few hours she was awake and much better. The doc-tor on call said if we hadn't brought her in, she would not have lived through the night.

I have nothing but praise for all of these or-ganizations. Salado should be proud of the services we have here and their tender care. Because of them, and God's help, our daughter is alive today and recovering from the surgery. God was with all of us during this episode.

Thanks again, every-one.

A grateful mother

To the Editor,

May 11-May 17 is Food Allergy Awareness Week.

Approximately 15 mil-lion Americans have food allergy. Out of the 15 mil-lion Americans, 6 million are children. That number equals about 1 in 13 kids.

The most common food allergies include peanuts, tree nuts, milk, shellfish, soy, wheat, and eggs.

However, a person can be allergic to any food.

Your Voice

Letters to the Editor

A reaction can be mild to anaphylaxis. Approxi-mately every 3 minutes someone having an aller-gic reaction is sent to the ER.

We became aware of my granddaughter's pea-nut allergy after she had been given a graham cracker cookie with peanut butter. She had an imme-diate reaction and had to be taken to the emergency room. She was 18 months old.

Since that time she has been taught not to accept food from anyone without questioning the ingredi-ents. Responses by adults to her questioning have been anywhere from "how do I know," "why don't you bring your own food to the class party," to shrugs fol-lowed by dismissal. She is now eleven years old.

Peanut allergy is the most common allergy but it can be the most deadly.

Do you know what some baked goods at Brookshire Brothers, all M&M's, and Snyder's Pretzels have in common? They are all manufactured in a plant with peanuts or tree nuts. These are prod-ucts children who have a nut allergy must avoid.

Because life activities are at risk, food allergies are covered under the Americans with Disabili-ties Act. They are classi-fied as a hidden disability.

Section 504 of the Re-habilitation Act of 1973 is a plan which is available for children with food al-lergies. Parents can insist a 504 plan be put in place for their child in any pub-lic school in America.

This 504 plan must be followed. If not followed, federal funds can be in jeopardy and lawsuits may occur.

There is no cure for food allergies. Avoidance of the food is absolutely necessary.

A great informational web site is www.foodal-lergy.org (FARE).

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the citizens of Salado on your new leadership, that you the citizens chose. It is my sincere prayer they can lead this village to what it should be: a true Jewel in the Crown.

Wayne Rutherford

To the Editor:

Congratulations to all three elected SISD Trust-ees. While I didn't expect to make the cut against the "machine" and its fermented beverage bene-factors, I'm nevertheless thankful to have had the opportunity to raise issues that wouldn't have sur-faced without an election. Mission accomplished!

Thanks also to Tim & Marilyn Fleischer (Salado Village Voice) for their provision of an objective platform for questions and answers - and for continu-ally supporting the district through their compre-hensive academic/sports sto-ries and Honor Roll every six weeks.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

A Hero for the Ages

Jeremiah Denton, the Vietnam War POW who died in March at age 89, uttered one of the great statements of defiance in American history.

In 1965, he was shot down in his A-6 during a bombing run over North Vietnam. He became a captive for more than sev-en years and endured an unimaginable regime of torture, humiliation and isolation, managing to re-tain his dignity and spirit even as his captors went to hideous lengths to snuff them out.

Soon after his capture, Denton was taken to Hoa Lo Prison, or the Hanoi Hilton, where he led the resistance to the North Vietnamese efforts to ex-tract propaganda confes-sions from their prisoners. As Denton related in his book, "When Hell Was in Session," they tried to starve one out of him. He began to hallucinate, but he still refused. They took him to the "Meathook Room" and beat him. Then, they twisted his arms with ropes and relented just enough to keep him from passing out. They rolled an iron bar on his legs and jumped up and down on it. For hours.

Denton agreed finally to give them a little of what they wanted, and he hadn't recovered from this ordeal when the Vietnamese told him he would appear at a press conference.

Denton told a fellow POW that his plan was to "blow it wide open." He famously blinked T-O-R-T-U-R-E in Morse code during the interview, a message picked up by na-val intelligence and the first definitive word of what prisoners were being subjected to. When asked what he thought of his government's war, Denton replied, "Whatever the position of my government is, I believe in it, yes sir. I'm a member of that gov-ernment, and it's my job to support it, and I will as long as I live."

The legend is that under the pressure of the In-quisition, Galileo said of the Earth, "Yet, it moves." That Martin Luther said, "Here I stand, I can do no other." Denton's words aren't an embellishment. They were seen by mil-lions when they were broadcast in the United States, and he almost im-mediately paid for them in torment so horrifying that he desperately prayed that he wouldn't go insane.

When the American involvement in the war ended and the POWs final-ly were released, Denton made a brief statement on the tarmac upon his return, no less powerful for its simplicity and understatement: "We are honored to have had the opportunity to serve our country under difficult circumstances. We are profoundly grate-ful to our commander in chief and to our nation for this day. God bless Ameri-ca."

A Roman Catholic, Denton told his family that he had forgiven his cap-tors and, after recounting to them what he had gone through, that he didn't want to speak to them of it again. His son James says he often heard him say -- with typical modesty -- "That's over. I don't want to be a professional jail-bird."

He certainly wasn't that. Denton went on to become a U.S. senator from Alabama. With his passing, we've lost a hero whose example of faith-fulness and duty should be for the ages.

Occupying the Koch Brothers' Lobby

IT'S TIME TO TOSS THESE CORPORATE OLIGARCHS OUT OF THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

The gabillionaire Koch brothers feel entitled to occupy the people's elec-tions, barging in with sacks full of corporate cash. So, how would the brothers feel if the people barged into their political affairs?

To find out, a few citi-zens recently paid a visit to Koch Companies Public Sector. That's the grandi-ose name the brothers give to their Washington, DC, lobbying headquarters.

From there, a covey of high-dollar Koch-headed sapsucker lobbyists flits all around town trying to get lawmakers to take away our Social Security, Medicare, minimum wage, etc. — while also making sure that the two, "free-enterprise" proselytizers keep getting their billion-dollar-a-year package of government subsidies.

So, some "commoners" came calling on the Kochs. OK, it was more than some — more like 600. They're affiliated with National People's Action (NPA), a scrappy, grassroots net-work of farmers, workers, clergy, retirees, environ-mentalists, students, and just plain folks.

The visitors occupied the grand lobby of the lob-bysts' building — form-ing a picture-perfect con-tract between the powers that be and the powers that

Jim Hightower

Patricia Fuller, for ex-ample, told of struggling to make it on Michigan's $7.40-an-hour minimum wage. She asked why the billionaires would spend millions to try to knock it lower — or, as Charles Koch advocates, scrapping America's wage floor en-tirely.

Occupy the Koch Brothers Lobby Free Press Pics/Flickr ought to be.

First, a couple of min-isters in the NPA group called on the Kochs to "repent" from their nar-cissistic political push to pervert our democracy into their privatized plu-tocracy. Then, several of the out-of-towners gave personal testimony about the real-life impacts that the Kochs' extremist ideo-logical agenda is having.

Of course, the visitors were tossed out, but they made their point: It's time to get these corporate oli-garchs out of the people's business.

The Temple-Belton Board of Realtors however is a different story. The association endorsed Salado candidates without ever reaching out to any. In their own words, they "recently held local candidate interviews and made recommendations". However, no candidate (endorsed or not) was EVER interviewed, including me.

That said, on behalf of the 413 (42%) voters who voted Sunshine and the 80% of eligible voters in the district who didn't cast their ballot, I'll continue to create awareness in the absence of transparency, just as I have in the past – and promise to be a parent and taxpayer advocate for a meaningful, measurable long-range plan, transfer policies that make sense, student safety and engagement, a better balance between academic and athletic achievement (with an improved emphasis on STEM), and equal opportunity not just for the connected and privileged, but for all students and teachers regardless of their background.

I've actively engaged as a citizen and parent well before this election and I'll continue to do so afterward. I encourage everyone to get involved in both our village and school district. There's so much at stake.

I am honored by the opportunity to have campaigned. In spite of the outcome, I truly enjoyed making the case and met scores of outstanding people along the way.

With gratitude,
Brian Sunshine

Time to check your mailbox

Salado Postmaster Matt Klunk reminds customers that it is time for them to check their mailboxes. Each year, the third week of May is designated by the U.S. Postal Service as Mailbox Improvement Week to encourage customers to examine and, if necessary, improve their mailboxes.

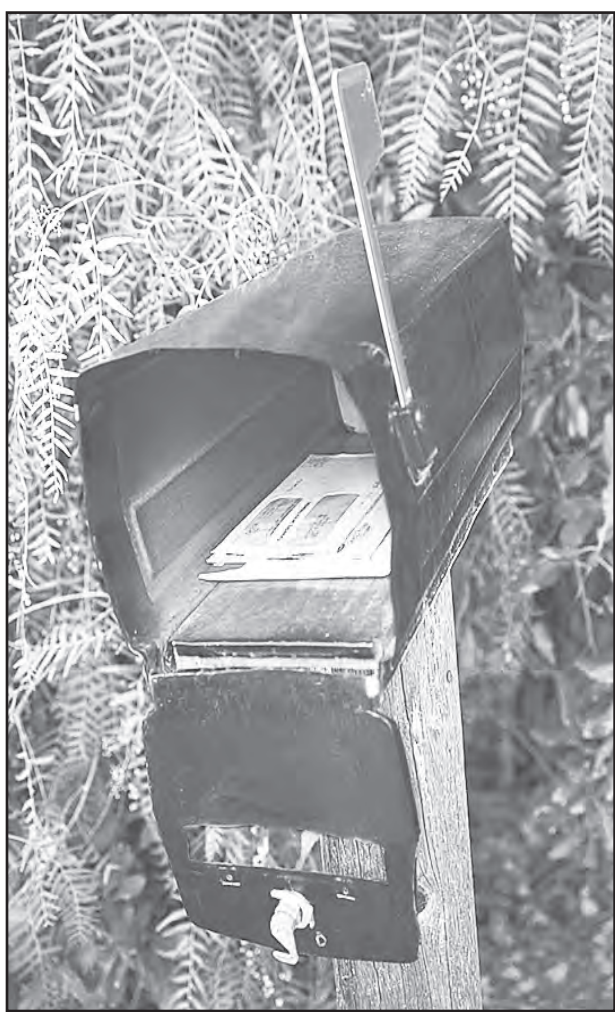

Mailboxes should be approved by the postmaster general, safe to use, conveniently located and neat in appearance.

Check your mailbox to see if you need to replace loose hinges on the mailbox door, repaint a fading or rusted mailbox, remount a loose mailbox or replace or add house numbers.

A mailbox should display the street number, box number and/or any other address information in a contrast color with letters and numerals not less than one inch in height.

It is generally in the customers' best interest to display the address information on both sides of the mailbox since police, fire and rescue personnel often depend on mailbox information to locate people and may be approaching from either direction.

Customers should install mailboxes with the bottom of the box at a height of between 3-1/2 and 4 feet. Curbside mailboxes must be on the right-hand side of the road in the carrier's travel direction in all cases where traffic condition make it dangerous to drive to the left to reach the mailboxes or where doing so would constitute a violation of any traffic laws. Mailboxes should be placed so the carrier can safely and conveniently serve them without leaving the vehicle.

Except when a mailbox is temporarily blocked, carriers must have access to the mailbox without leaving the vehicle.

Eve spoke of her hunts for special gemstones in several states. They have their jewelry for sale in various venues, as well as Salado Village Artists building. The Fritches donated a pendant, which was won by Mary Catherine Ervin, as a door prize.

Bible Study registering for study of Luke

The Temple-Belton Community Bible Study (CBS) adult evening class is registering members for a 30-week in-depth inter-denominational study of Luke.

Beginning Sept. 8, the class will meet weekly from 7:30-9 p.m. on Monday in the small sanctuary of First Baptist Church of Belton, Sixth and Main streets in Belton

The class is open to all adults. Individuals may choose to participate in core groups for young adults, men, women, or married couples.

Each week, participants receive a reading commentary on the previous week's topic and a set of questions to work on each day covering the next week's reading. These questions are discussed in small groups of about fifteen. Following the small groups there is a short teaching over the same section of Scripture.

The class will break for Christmas and spring vacations and finish at the end of April 2015.

To register or to obtain additional information contact the class coordinator at (254) 773-1842 in Temple or the class associate teaching director at (254) 526-9128 in Killeen.

The Salado High School Speech and Debate Team competed at the 2014 Tournament of Champions in Extemporaneous Speaking at Northwestern University in Chicago on May 9-11. The TOC is considered the most prestigious national extemporaneous speaking tournament in the country. Sixty students competed at the meet, many state champions or finalist from last year's national tournaments.

"This is the most impressive field of speakers we have fielded in the twelve years of the tournament," Tournament Director Hanchen Wang said, "making it the most competitive TOC ever."

Salado High School was privileged to have two students qualify, Senior Sydney Walter and Junior Rachel Evans.

Sydney Walter placed sixth at the meet. She was the only speaker from Texas to reach the final round of competition.

"It is amazing a small 2A school reached this level of competition," SHS Speech and Debate Coach Tim Cook said. "It is not amazing Sydney Walter reached this level. She is a remarkable speaker. I was awestruck by her speech in semifinals, a round packed with the #1 ranked speaker in the nation and the defending NSDA national US extemp champion. I walked out of the round thinking she may have just made the final round at the TOC. She did, incredible."

Sydney will represent Salado High School this summer at the National Speech and Debate National Tournament in US Extemporaneous Speaking June 15-20 in Overland

Rachel Evans and Sydney Walter traveled to Chicago May 9 - 11 to compete in the Tournament of Champions in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Park, Kansas. The Salado High School Speech and Debate Team will compete next at the UIL State Academic Meet on May 19-21. The team is coached by Tim Cook and Travis Cook.

John Conlee performs at Johnny's Outback May 17

John Conlee brings signature sound to Johnny's

John Conlee returns to Johnny's Outback on May 17 for a concert that begins at 7 p.m. Ticket can be purchased in advance online for $15 or at the gate the night of the show for $20.

Conlee will perform his signature song "Rose Colored Glasses," which launched his career in 1976. Expect to hear his other country classics from the 70s, 80s and 90s, including Lady Lay Down, Backside of Thirty, Before My Time, Friday Night Blues, Miss Emily's Picture, I Don't Remember Loving You, Common Man, In My Eyes, Rockin' With You, Way Back and many others that found their way to the Country charts during his four decade career.

Conlee has released 19 albums, including a live concert recorded at Billy Bob's, during his career. His latest release was a gospel album in 2006.

Overall, there have been 29 single releases throughout the years with 26 of them charting in the top 20 or better. Eight of those 26 have reached the coveted No. 1 spot on the national country charts.

"Tunes like Friday Night Blues and Miss Emily's Picture helped to establish Conlee as one of the best stylists of the day. One of my favorite tunes of his was She Can't Say That Anymore," wrote Chuck Dauphin in the New Music Weekly..

He may even sing some of the gospel tunes from his 2006 album "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus," including The Old Rugged Cross, This Old House, Take My Hand, His Eye is on the Sparrow and I'll Fly Away.

If you're a traditional country fan Conlee's classics will bring back memories. For younger audiences, his crooning deep voice will shed light on the resonance of the old Nashville sound. Whatever the case, Conlee takes the listener on a journey through the ups and downs of life.

There will be plenty of food and cold drinks. Bring folding chairs.

Ruby Creek will open the show May 17.

Uncanny approach

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

There are plays in bridge that on the surface seem to make no sense, but that are nevertheless entirely logical when analyzed more closely. For example, consider this deal taken from "Test Your Finessing" by Scottish expert Hugh Kelsey.

Assume you're in three notrump and West leads a low heart. You win East's jack with the king, and the question is how to give yourself the best chance for the contract. Of course, you see only the North-South hands while you try to figure this out.

You have seven sure tricks, and it is obvious that the best source for the two additional tricks you need lies in diamonds. It might therefore seem automatic to lead the jack of diamonds at trick two, planning to follow low from dummy and hoping to find West with the queen. If West has the queen (a 50-50 chance), you're certain to make the contract.

But alas, this method of play fails when East wins the jack with the queen and returns a heart. Eventually, you lose three heart tricks and two diamonds and so finish down one.

Kelsey points out that there's a much better approach that is far more likely to succeed: cross to the king of clubs at trick two and lead the three of diamonds toward your hand at trick three! If East has the Q-x or Q-x-x of diamonds, he is virtually certain to follow low, and if he does, you're sure to get home safely.

Furthermore, even if West has the queen of diamonds, you are also in great shape. He wins with the queen but cannot make an effective return. Whatever he does next, you make three notrump.

To tackle diamonds by leading low from dummy's K-10-x-x toward your J-9-8-x certainly goes against the grain, but in this deal it is surely your best bet.

The opportunity for Texans to save money on energy efficient appliances is fast approaching. The state's annual ENERGY STAR® Sales Tax Holiday May 24-26.

"This is a great opportunity for Texans looking for ways to stretch their family budgets," Texas Comptroller Susan Combs said. "Shoppers can save money up front by not having to pay sales tax when buying appliances during the holiday weekend and the energy efficient products can help reduce utility bill costs."

Shoppers are expected to save an estimated $3.8 million in state and local sales tax during the Memorial Day sales tax holiday.

During Memorial Day weekend, Texas shoppers get a break from state and local sales and use taxes on purchases of certain energy efficient products.

The 2014 ENERGY STAR sales tax holiday

There is no limit on the number of qualifying items one can purchase during this sales tax holiday, and an exemption certificate is not required.

The tax-free holiday also applies to Internet and catalog sales of eligible products, provided that (1) the item is paid for and delivered to the purchaser during the exemption period; or (2) the purchaser orders and pays for the item and the retailer accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.

Layaway plans can be used to take advantage of the sales tax holiday. Layaway sales of eligible products qualify for the exemption when either the final payment on a layaway order is made and the merchandise is given to the customer during the exemption period, or the item is selected by the customer and the order is accepted into layaway by the retailer during the exemption period for immediate delivery upon full payment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.
