Village set to call for bond

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado aldermen directed city manager Jim Reed to prepare for them to call for a November 4 bond election totaling $10,549,825 for the construction of a wastewater treatment plant and delivery system for a service area that would include the downtown business district, the west side of I-35, Salado schools and properties off of Mill Creek Dr. at Salado Plaza.

The board must vote in favor of calling an election no later than Aug. 18 to go on the ballot in November. Because of difficulty in having a quorum at the next regular meeting, aldermen will hold that meeting at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 12 at the Municipal Building, during which they will vote on calling for the November election.

The proposal that aldermen favored in a workshop discussion on July 24 would service Main Street, the west side of I-35, Salado schools and properties off Mill Creek Dr. at Salado Plaza for a cost of $10,549,825. Part of this cost could be shouldered by entities benefiting from the extended sewer lines (commercial property at Salado Plaza and the Salado school district), Reed said, lowering that cost to a potential $9,614,825.

Regardless of whether those other entities invest in the cost of the sewer system, the ballot will carry the sticker price of $10.5 million. "Nothing in the results of the election say that we have to issue and retire all of the bonds," Reed told aldermen in the workshop session. You can choose to only fund the lines of A & H on the map if those entities choose to participate."

Reed was directed to bring additional information to the board to make a decision, including an estimate of the customers to be served and possible operating costs estimates.

At a town hall meeting July 21, Reed presented the maps and alternatives that aldermen would take into consideration in their decision to call for a November bond election.

The $10.5 million bond could require a tax increase of as much as 34.5 cents on the property tax rate if approved by voters.

"That is the worst-case scenario," Reed said when he first unveiled the possible impacts on the tax rate.

The tax impact on those residents in Salado over age 65 who have filed for the homestead exemption and tax freeze? Zero.

Reed affirmed this fact with the audience at the regular board meeting July 24 this after "doing some research on the matter and speaking to authorities at the tax appraisal district and in the Texas Municipal League. If you are over 65 and have filed for the homestead exemptions, the property tax on your homestead is frozen at the level in which you initially filed for the exemption."

Regardless of the fluctuation in tax rates or taxable values in a municipality for the over 65 homestead and disabled homestead tax freezes, the property taxes will remain the same "unless you sell your homestead and move into another homestead in Salado."

Even if you sell and move somewhere else in the state, the tax freeze ratio will follow you, Reed explained.

If you have filed for the over 65 homestead exemption and freeze and sell your home, the new owner will pay the property tax rate at the current rate, regardless of their age.

The homestead exemption does not apply to second homes, undeveloped residential property or commercial property. For example, if a homeowner over age 65 owns the lot next to their home, then that taxpayer would pay the current tax rate on the second lot.

The tax impact to other property owners could be lowered by requiring tap fees for the property owners that will be served by the sewer system. Reed presented the numbers based on the assumption that there would not be tap or hook-up fees to the properties served. "But

A performance by Blue Lapis Light in Salado's Pace Park drew 1,000 people here on July 25. Prior to the show, students from the Silver Spur Arts Academy performed under the pavilion and showed a short film they made during the week-long arts camp in Salado. The performance was a gift to the community from the Public Arts League of Salado, along with support of a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts. More photos can be found on page 10A.

Schools, Village lend support to Vision's goals

Both the Salado ISD Board of Trustees and the Village of Salado Board of Aldermen unanimously voted in favor of writing letters of support of the top goals developed by the Salado Vision Committee.

The Vision Committee sent representatives back to their respective boards (Salado ISD, Village of Salado, Salado Chamber of Commerce, Salado Historical Society, Mill Creek Community Association and Salado Tourism Council) seeking their support in pursuing goals in terms of infrastructure, business climate and quality of life.

The top goals of the Vision Committee have three action items to achieve the top-line goals.

Following are the goals and associated action items:

Infrastructure. Take proactive actions to create a first class infrastructure system.

1. Sewer system: The Vision Committee supports the phased construction of a wastewater treatment system which will initially focus on the business district and I-35 but will be scalable to add existing and proposed residential areas. The first phase will support the expansion and revitalization of the business sector to increase sales tax revenues and reduce dependence upon property taxes.

2. Roads: The committee supports the development of a comprehensive road maintenance program to focus on a five-year rotation to resurface city-maintained streets, accomplishing this in the current tax structure.

3. Sidewalks and Paths: The committee supports the development of a sidewalk and pathway program that includes requirements for sidewalks in new developments; pursuing grants to retrofit school zones and pedestrian areas with pleasant walk and path facilities; development of a downtown sidewalk plan and enhancement of bicycle lanes.

Top Business Goal: To provide a most laudable Business Environment:

1. Communication, promotion and education: the Committee supports the development of a streamlined communication strategy integrating city, Chamber, community and school efforts.

2. Streamline/reduce regulations: The committee supports the overhaul of the current set of regulations which guide development in the Village. The Committee supports consideration of surveying regional entities to determine if a shift away from both the 2009 International Building Code and the agreement with Bureau Veritas is appropriate.

3. Economic Development: The Committee supports the establishment of a joint Village/Community Economic Development entity to develop and provide guidance to entities wishing to do business in the Village.

Top Quality-of-Life Goal: Build up our community to work in unity.

1. Events, entertainment and activities: The Community supports this effort in conjunction with the top business goal.

2. Parks and recreation: The committee supports the development of a formal parks plan for the village that includes a complete inventory of existing parks, plans for connectivity to infrastructure, plans for maintenance and integration of entities such as Keep Salado Beautiful, Public Arts League of Salado and other entities.

3. Beautification: The Committee understands the importance of supporting beautification efforts. The Committee supports the development of a community beautification plan that integrates the efforts of volunteer and community groups to assure a comprehensive pocket park, planting and guide way plan.

Cong. Carter to speak to Republican Women Aug. 28

Congressman John Carter (R-31) will speak to the Salado Area Republican Women 6 p.m. Aug. 28 at Tenroc Ranch event center.

The Range at the Barton House will cater the meal, which begins at 6 p.m. followed by Cong. Carter's remarks to the audience.

As always the public is invited. Reservations may be made by mailing a $25 check to SARW, Pac; P.O. Box, 373; Salado, TX 76571 to be received by Aug. 20.

More information may be obtained by contacting Deborah Roberson at dkroberson115@gmail.com or at 281-787-1073.

Carter was re-elected in November 2012 to his sixth term in the U.S. House of Representatives, representing Bell and Williamson Counties.

Cong. John Carter

Victor and Modene Marek, longtime Bell County residents, announced a $1,000 initial contribution and additional $500 annual contributions during a five-year program proposed by Village aldermen Fred Brown for the beautification of Salado's downtown business area. The program will include lighting of downtown buildings, period street lights, sidewalks and seating areas. When commercial property owner Jim Lassiter heard about it, he said he would match the contributions. They were applauded at the meeting on July 24. Anyone interested in supporting the plan can contact Fred Brown about how to do so. (PHOTO BY TIM FLEISCHER)

Union Drama at the Met

The fat lady will sing -- but only in strict keeping with the work rules set out by the American Guild of Musical Artists.

The Metropolitan Opera has a labor problem. Personnel expenses account for $200 million of the financially struggling Met's $327 million budget.

In the interest of survival in an era more attuned to "Keeping Up With the Kardashians" than "Le Nozze di Figaro," the Met wants to reduce its labor costs by 16 percent by getting the unions to accept common-sensical work rules and less-generous pension and health benefits. The unions say no and accuse the Met of waging war on their families.

The storied but precarious institution could see its next season disrupted in the labor discord. The Met's general manager, Peter Gelb, warns that without union flexibility, the very existence of the world-famous, 130-year-old opera is at risk.

Well, if worst came to worst, at least the Met's singers and musicians could make a go of it at the New York City Opera. No, wait, it shut its doors last year.

It doesn't take an opera

Rich Lowry

aficionado to realize that the 21st century isn't the 19th, and opera is an embattled art form. Unfortunately, the Met is locking horns with a force, the unions, that has proven adept at helping to drive struggling industries into the ground.

A New York Times editorial recently noted that orchestra members, who on average make $200,000 a year, get 16 weeks off with pay. The American Federation of Musicians Local 802 shot back that it is really only 10 weeks of guaranteed time off with pay. Touche'.

Under the current rules, the base pay for chorus members, who also make on average $200,000 a year, covers four performances a week. The members get paid extra for rehearsals -- even if they haven't sung in four performances that week.

They also earn overtime for singing in any opera over four hours, which makes Richard Wagner the best thing that ever happened to a Met singer's paycheck. His "Parsifal" clocks in at five hours, and wasn't performed last season, in part because of labor costs.

The union case against its nemesis Gelb is that he's a spendthrift, and there's something to it. Gelb dropped almost $20 million a few years ago on a production of Wagner's "Ring" cycle that included a 45-ton set. If the production underperformed at the box office, it was on

Citigroup's $7 B wrist slap Penalty is too light to deter future finagling by mega-bank

When Citigroup accepted what the media hailed as a whopping $7 billion penalty for defrauding its own investors and wrecking our economy, the bank just shrugged.

"We believe that this settlement is in the best interest of our shareholders and allows us to move forward and to focus on the future," Citi CEO Michael Corbat said.

Note the lack of any regret, apology, or shame. And the total absence of any pledge that the bankers won't do it again.

So much for a $7 billion penalty being a deterrent to Wall Street finagling.

One reason Corbat could be so blasé is that our Justice Department's prosecutors filed no criminal charges against Citigroup for its transgressions -- not against the bank itself, nor against any of the bankers who plotted, executed, and profited from doing their share to create the mortgage and financial crises.

There's certainly plenty of evidence of criminal fraud: In one internal email, a Citigroup trader essentially admitted that the packaged loans the bank sold investors as solid, were crap: "We should start praying," he wrote to his higher ups. "I would not be surprised if half of these loans went down."

While more than a slap on the wrist, $7 billion doesn't compensate for the horrendous damage done by the bankers. While announcing the settlement, Attorney General Eric Holder himself pointed out that Citigroup's fraudulent acts "shattered lives."

Yet this Wall Street colossus rakes in enough profit in six months to more than cover this "punishment."

Also, the bank will get to deduct 40 percent of the penalty from its income tax. Then there's this little number that the prosecutors failed to mention when they announced the settlement: Citigroup's taxpayer bailout in 2008 totaled $45 billion -- more than six times greater than this settlement.

Do you need more evidence that this "punishment" is way too light? Citigroup's stock gained 3.6 percent the day Holder announced the penalty.

a scale worthy of the Met and was funded by a gift. Only unions would complain that an opera manager is spending too much on opera and not enough on overtime pay and pension benefits.

Given the head winds in the culture, what the Met accomplishes is extraordinary -- more than 200 performances a season, in front of 800,000 people in the house and another couple of million in broadcasts in movie theaters. It is working to preserve a demanding art form that represents one of the high points of Western civilization. It would be a shame for the ages if it were brought low, not just by indifference without, but by shortsighted union grubbiness within.

Double dog dare ya

Saying "impossible" to some folks is like saying "I double-dog dare you to try." Their response is quick, "I take your dare." And, with calculated ease, they do it.

People in Salado are responding to "impossible" with a determination that says "to you, maybe, but not to me." And, they do it.

Thursday at Village Council, Victor Marek said to a full house: "We believe in Salado. My family buys everything in this town and we go nowhere else. Here's a check for $1000 for the downtown project and we annually pledge $500 until completion."

Within minutes, Mr. Jim Lassiter said, "Here is another check for $1000 and we pledge $500 a year until completion."

Better not say, "impossible" to these families. They will stare you down and say, "Watch me. I double-dog-dare-you to do the same."

Friday night, Pace Park. Some said: "dance artists hanging from ancient oaks on fabric -- impossible." PALS, said: "maybe to you, but not to us;" and over 300-people experienced unbelievable beauty and culture.

Better not say "impossible" to PALS unless you like eating your words.

Better not say "impossible" to this person who writes friends; "I just stop and think about all that has happened with all of our efforts, worries, and wonders. Awesome! Wonderful! It takes a Village to make a Haven. I am so proud of Salado."

Better not say "impossible" to the Aldermen and Alderwoman. It is not in their vocabulary. "Where there 's a will, there's a way" is in bold letters.

Salado majors in the "impossible." We are a "make-it-happen-people" which makes us the best village in Texas. No bragging, just fact. Don't believe it? "We double dog dare you" to join us in making the impossible -- possible.

New Robert's rules & kindness

To the Editor:

I attended the Village Board of Aldermen meeting this evening (July 24) for the first time as an observer and found it quite interesting. One thing that stuck me was the application of Robert's Rules of Order to the Board meeting. There were four action items on the agenda. On three of these items, an amendment was offered to the original motion; the amendment was approved; but the amended motion was never voted on. Maybe there's a special version of Robert's Rules of Order for Boards of Aldermen that I'm not aware of which doesn't require a vote on

To the Editor:

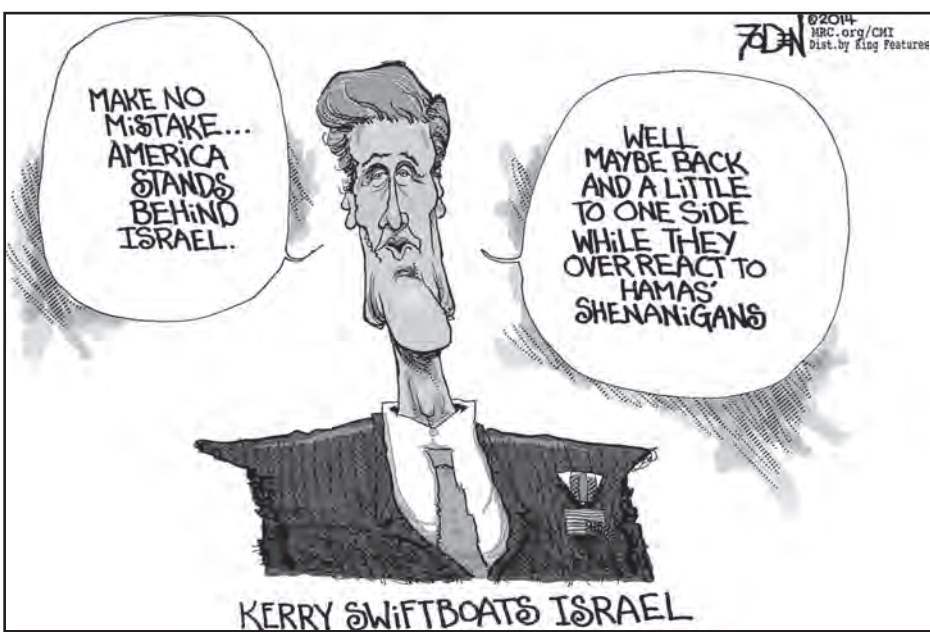

Just a note to say "thank you" to some very kind people who helped me after I fell at the local Ace Hardware store. They were so very helpful in getting me home -- a lady drove my car and a fireman followed her to take her back to her car.

Thank goodness I had no broken bones but lots of black and blue marks.

Salado has been my home for four years -- I find it a very friendly, loving town. It is nice to see a smiling face when you go to town.

Thanks again to those who helped me and may God bless each of you.

Erwins lead Cedar Valley Revival

Cedar Valley Baptist Church invites you to an old fashioned revival with Dennis Erwin preaching Aug. 1-3.

Nightly services will begin 7 p.m. Aug. 1-2 and Sunday morning service will be 10:45 a.m. Aug. 3 at the church located eight miles west of Salado on FM 2843.

There will be lunch served at the church following the Sunday morning service. After lunch, gospel singing will continue into the afternoon.

Evangelist Dennis Erwin will be joined by his family in singing gospel music.

The Erwins started singing as soon as they were each able to talk. Appearing in over 270 dates a year with their mother and father (Bro. Dennis Erwin has been in full-time evangelism for 40 years), they have been traveling full-time their entire life singing in concerts, revivals, and conferences all across the country. Three of the four siblings, Keith (born in 1992), Kody (born in 1994) and Kris (born in 1996) performed as a trio until 2013, when the group announced that their little sister, Katie (born in 2000), would be joining the group full-time on stage, officially making them a Southern Gospel Mixed Group. Their brand new CD, "Back To The Basics" was released right on the heels of this announcement, and features the current sound of The Erwins today.

Keith says, "Singing is all we know and all we want to do. It's our life and our joy to serve the Lord with the voices He has given us. We will gladly go through any door He chooses to open, no matter how big or small."

Keith Erwin the eldest in the group, sings the lead. Upon graduating High School, he was offered several basketball scholarships and a music scholarship, but turned them all down to continue singing and serving with his family.

Kody Erwin, the second born, is the quiet one. Kody sings bass for The Erwins. He loves playing golf, bass fishing and hunting. He was All-State in Basketball for two years, and named, Honorable Mention All-American. Kody says that he is now enjoying "life after high school!"

Kris Erwin is the youngest brother, and is fulfilling his life-long desire to sing Gospel music. He sings baritone for the group. Kris is responsible for finding new songs for the group to sing, and is in charge of the product table.

Katie Erwin is the youngest of the group, and sings alto. She is affectionately referred to, by her brothers, as the "rose among the thorns."

The Beulah Land Singers may also appear on Aug. 3 for gospel singing.

Longtime Salado Mike Tubbs.

Benefit set for Mike Tubbs

Longtime Saladoan Mike Tubbs recently had hip surgery, causing him to miss work for an extended period and to accumulate medical and other bills. His friends in the Salado community are banding together to raise money to help the family that has helped so many others over the years.

There will be a benefit barbecue dinner with live music, a live auction and raffle, 6-10 p.m. Aug. 9 at Wildfire Ranch Arena in Salado.

Tickets for dinner, which will feature brisket, sausage, cole slaw and beans are $10.

There will be two raffles: one for a shot gun and the other is for a $500 gift card. Tickets are available from several of his friends or by calling Ann Lindsey at 512-818-7884 or Dana Britt at 254-760-7565.

You can also call those numbers to make arrangements if you have any items to donate to the live auction that evening.

Methodist Women's Ministry Project Backpack benefits Salado Family Relief

Women's Ministry at Salado United Methodist Church is raising funds to support the Salado Family Relief "Back to School" program, specifically the purchase of backpacks for school-age kids. The goal for this year's fundraiser is to collect donations for 60 backpacks for the 2014-2015 school year. A tax-deductible donation of $25 will provide a high-quality backpack for a Salado student. Shown above are (front row, from left) Karin Berg, Judy Hodgkin, Ann Gardner and Kathy Keller; (back row, from left) Amy Stearns, Sandy Schneider and Marilyn Griffin. Founded in January, 1999, the Salado Family Relief organization provides assistance to Salado families and individuals in need and is completely funded by donations from the community. The "Back to School" program on August 12 & 14 provides gift cards to qualified families to help with the purchase of school supplies. "Project Backpack" is an important part of the program and has been sponsored for the past four years by Women's Ministry at SUMC. To make a donation to "Project Backpack", please call 254-947-5482 or send an email to marilyn.griffin@medtronic.com.

SFRF provides gift cards for back to school

Salado Family Relief Fund will provide gift cards to qualified families to buy supplies for their children.

The gift cards will be available at the Salado

Presbyterian Church 4-6 p.m. Aug. 12 and 5-7 p.m. Aug. 14.

Thank You Salado

What an amazing turn out Friday night at Blue Lapis Light. I have not seen such a wonderful show of support for any event in Salado.

A huge thank you to the Board of the Public Arts League of Salado. You were all amazing and worked so hard to make this an event to remember.

The aerial performance was incredible, the children's booths were a real hit and the food sold out twice.

Thanks to all the other friends of PALS that helped in so many ways.

Sales tax holiday Aug. 8-10

This year's Sales Tax Holiday in Texas is Aug. 8-10.

As in previous years, the law exempts most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks priced under $100 from sales and use taxes, which could save shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend.

Subject to certain criteria, all sales of qualifying items made during the holiday period qualify for the exemption, including items sold online, or by telephone or mail. Lay-away plans can be used again this year to take advantage of the sales tax holiday.

The dates for the sales tax holiday are set by the Legislature.

Families can save money by not paying sales tax on most clothing, footwear and school supplies priced under $100. Lists of tax-free items can be found at www.TexasTaxHoliday.org.

The sales tax holiday weekend in Texas has been an annual event since 1999.

Shoppers are expected to save an estimated $78.9 million in state and local sales taxes during the sales tax holiday.

The following school supplies will be tax-free during the holiday as long as the item is under $100: Binders, Book bags, Calculators, Cellphone tape, Blackboard chalk, Compasses, Composition books, Crayons, Erasers, Folders; expandable, pocket, plastic, and manila; Glue, paste and paste sticks, Highlighters, Index cards, Index card boxes, Legal pads, Lunch boxes, Markers (including dry erase markers); Notebooks, Paper; loose leaf ruled notebook paper, copy paper, graph paper, tracing paper, manila paper, colored paper, poster board, and construction paper; Pencil boxes and other school supply boxes, Pencil sharpeners, Pencils, Pens, Protractors, Rulers, Scissors, Writing tablets.

Sewer bond

that is a decision you will have to make," he said.

The potential tax rate is also based upon zero growth in the property values in the city. However, Reed said that it is very likely that a sewer system would increase the values of properties in the business district and especially in the undeveloped areas along the west side of the interstate and northwest of the Village proper.

A sewer system would also help bring in sales tax revenues by contributing to the revitalization of the businesses in Salado. "The more restaurants and businesses, the more sales tax we can generate," Reed said, which would offset general fund costs that are currently paid for by sales tax, franchise fees, court fees and property taxes.

Providing sewer would allow the Village to annex property owners that are in the extra-territorial jurisdiction (ETJ) and contiguous to the existing city limits. Since it was incorporated in 2000, the Village of Salado has not been able to annex property except through the request of property owners.

Even at the highest possible increase in property taxes, Reed explained to residents at a town hall meeting last week that the total tax rate for the Village of Salado would still be lower than any Bell County city except two: Troy and Little River Academy.

If the board of aldermen call for a November bond election, the following dates will apply:

Last day to register to vote: Oct. 6.

Early voting Oct. 20-31.

Last day to apply for ballot by mail: Oct. 24. Last day for ballot by mail to be received: Nov. 4.

Community bible study group looks at Book of Luke this fall

The Temple-Belton Community Bible Study (CBS) adult evening class is currently registering for next year's 30-week interdenominational study of Luke.

Beginning Sept. 8, the class will meet weekly from 7:30-9 p.m. on Monday in the small sanctuary of First Baptist Church of Belton, Sixth and Main streets in Belton.

The class is open to all adults interested in an in-depth Bible study. Individuals may choose to participate in core groups for young adults, men, women, or married couples.

Each week, participants receive a reading commentary on the previous week's topic and a set of questions to work on each day covering the next week's reading. These questions are discussed in small groups of about fifteen. Following the small groups there is a short teaching over the same section of Scripture.

The class will break for Christmas and spring vacations and finish at the end of April 2015.

To register or to obtain additional information contact the class coordinator at (254) 773-1842 in Temple or the class associate teaching director at (254) 526-9128 in Killeen.

Cortes earns Leadership scholarships

Robert Cortes, 18, of Salado, placed second in the Four Star Leadership program's Student Congress Competition and the Op-Ed Writing Contest for his superb public speaking, critical thinking, persuasive writing, and research abilities.

Cortes, a 2014 graduate of Salado High School, was one of 50 participants in the Four Star Leadership program, a week-long program in Oklahoma City which offers leadership training, speech and debate competitions, and scholarships, as well as the opportunity to engage with national and global leaders. He took second place and was awarded a $1,200 scholarship in the Student Congress Competition, a debate format which mimics the style of the U.S. Congress. Cortes also took second place in the Op-Ed Writing Contest, earning an additional $1,000 scholarship.

The students debated and researched three topics throughout the week – the Affordable Care Act, greenhouse gas emissions vs. economic growth, and the minimum wage – and received policy briefings from National Center for Policy Analysis Senior Fellows Devon Herrick, Michael Stroup, and Pamela Villarreal. All students participated in the persuasive speech or op-ed contests in addition to the Student Congress competition.

Former Commander-in-Chief of American and coalition forces in Iraq and Afghanistan, General Tommy Franks hosted the camp.

Salado alum Westerberg is Football Coach of Year

Salado alum Tom Westerberg was recently named the 2014 National High School Coaches Association's National High School Football Coach of the Year. He is the son of Tom and Jean Westerberg of Salado.

Westerberg led the Allen Eagles to back-to-back state championships in 5A-D1 football and is riding a 27-game winning streak into the upcoming football season. Maxpreps.com ranked the Allen Eagles as the #2 team in the nation in its pre-season poll.

"All of the coaches we honor are outstanding examples for successful high school coaches in their sport," said NHSCA Executive Director Bob Ferraro, Jr. "They place a high value on the teamwork skills their players learn for success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud to be honoring all of them."

Under Westerberg, the Allen Eagles have three state titles, including his first as a head football coach in 2007. Westerberg's record at Allen is 118-16. The Eagles are expected to challenge for a third straight state title.

"It is definitely an honor for our football program at Allen for me to be named as the National Coach of the year," said Westerberg.

PALS brings community together

Salado Silver Spur Arts Academy students perform.

Balloon sculptor Adam Trujillo creates a mermaid.

The PALS Fishing Booth was a favorite of two year old Sarah Trujillo. Attendees were encouraged to dress in their favorite mermaid attire.

The Public Arts League of Salado presented a performance of Austin based aerialists Blue Lapis Light in Pace Park on July 25. Artists and performers from across the village of Salado worked together to create an unforgettable experience for the community.

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

A fine declarer plans his line of play at the start of a hand, but remains ready to revise that plan at any time if there is an unexpected development. As a case in point, consider this deal where West leads a spade against six hearts.

When dummy appears, South should expect to make the slam. He plans to win the spade, draw two rounds of trumps (assuming a normal 2-1 division), cash the A-K of diamonds, discarding a club from dummy, and sooner or later concede a club trick. The three remaining trumps in dummy will then be sufficient to ruff his club and diamond losers.

But when he wins the first spade and leads a heart to the ace, he discovers that East has all three missing trumps. This means he cannot afford to draw the outstanding trumps (even with the aid of a finesse), since he would then have only two trumps left in dummy to ruff his three minor-suit losers. South must therefore revise his original plan of play.

He should cash the A-K of diamonds, discarding a club, and ruff a diamond, then play a club to the ace and lead the nine of diamonds. When West covers with the ten, South does not ruff, but discards dummy's last club instead. In so doing, he allows for the possibility that East started with three diamonds rather than four.

As it happens, this one cautious play averts defeat. South is eventually able to ruff two clubs in dummy and take the marked trump finesse to round out his 12 tricks. In effect, South winds up ruffing two clubs and a diamond in dummy instead of two diamonds and a club, as originally planned.

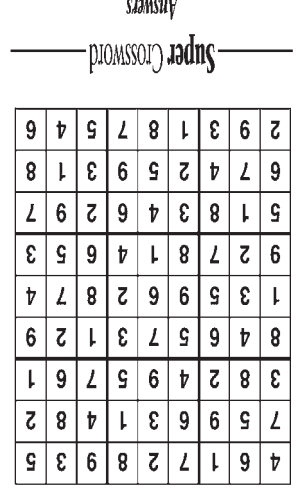

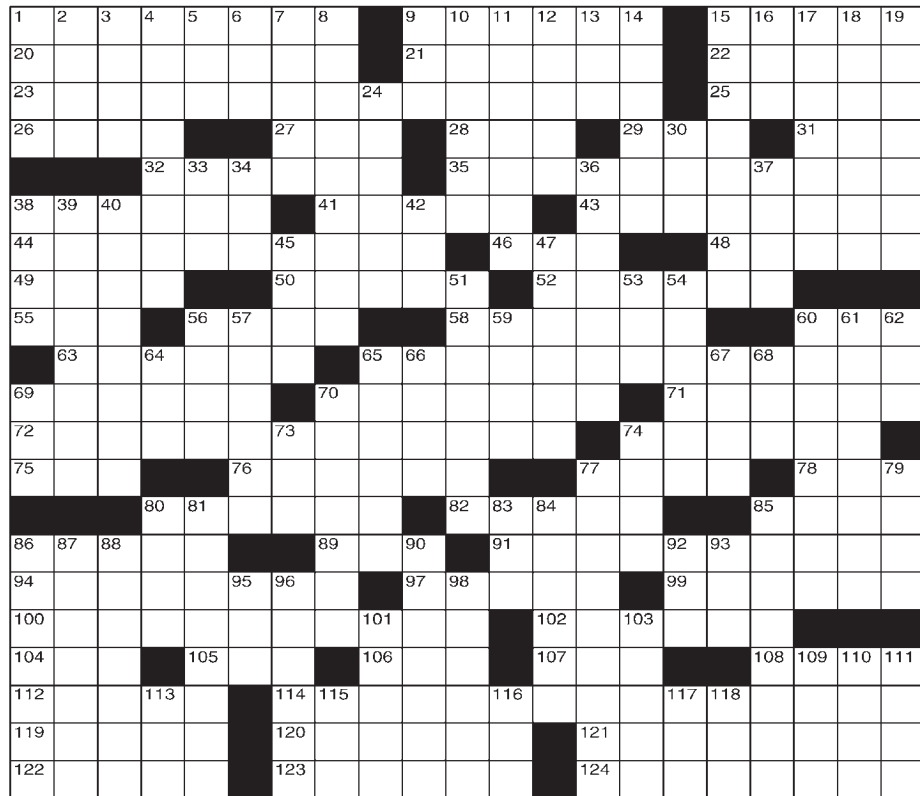

Observe that if declarer tries to ruff his fourth diamond in dummy, East over-ruffs to defeat the slam.
