Village, Chamber may partner through proposal

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Both the Village of Salado board of aldermen and the Salado Chamber of Commerce board of directors have unanimously voted to go forward on a proposal that will bring the two entities closer in partnership through a contract in which the Village of Salado would provide management and operation services for the Chamber of Commerce through its Tourism Department.

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors voted unanimously at its July 21 meeting to go into deliberations of the proposal with the Village. The board of aldermen voted 3-0 to deliberate the proposal with the Chamber. Aldermen Frank Coachman (whose wife Kay serves on the Chamber board) and Hans Fields (whose wife Judy serves on the Tourism Council) abstaining from the vote and withdrawing from the discussion.

The idea was first discussed in a closed session of the Chamber executive committee in early July and during an executive session of the Village of Salado aldermen on July 28.

City administrator Jim Reed explained that the closed sessions were necessary for both bodies. "It concerned information of a confidential nature regarding our employees," he said. "Unless it goes forward, there was no reason to put our employees in the public eye."

He said that he wanted to see if there was "any support" from the two entities before "going any further" with the proposal. He added that he did not want to put any of the employees under the scrutiny of community gossip "if there is no real support for the idea."

"If we get to the end of a negotiation phase and the Chamber and Village cannot agree on a final contract," he said, "then we keep on doing what we are doing: no harm, no foul."

The proposal calls for a contract between the Salado Chamber of Commerce and the Village of Salado for the Village to provide operational and management services for the Chamber, including events and promotions and other activities.

In many communities, the Chamber and tourism departments work in partnership, typically with the tourism department contracting with the Chamber for services and employees.

In this case, however, Reed recommended a contract in which the Chamber would pay for the services of the tourism department. "We (the Village) are able to offer a higher salary and benefit package -- including retirement benefits and insurance -- than the Chamber could offer," he explained.

During citizen comment, former alderman Bryan Fritch said that "It would seem that this initiative has sprung to life fully formed." He said that he was concerned about the private discussions between the village administrator, and chamber directors and the board of aldermen. Another concern, he said, was hiring personnel to conduct "Chamber of Commerce business at taxpayer expense."

He encouraged the board to postpone any vote on the issues "until the full membership of the Chamber and the public at-large express their opinions on this."

Reed said he pursued the discussion because, "partnerships and more efficient uses of resources could be realized if they had a shared governance structure. Pots of money will be kept very separate and very distinct from each other. There could be one consolidated structure that can decide what is allowable out of each pot of money and make a unified decision."

The proposal would be for the Village to have three employees: an executive director and two administrative employees, one of which would oversee events and another which would oversee public relations efforts.

Those employees, according to the initial drafts of the contract and proposed scope of work, would be under the management of a three-person committee comprised of the Village city administrator, a representative selected by the Board of Aldermen and the sitting Chairman of the Board of Chamber of Commerce.

The initial executive director would be Debbie Charbonneau, who has served as the Village Tourism Director for 10 years.

If approved by both entities, the Chamber of Commerce would eliminate its own paid position of President.

"You are not being asked to adopt a contract or a final scope of work," Reed said, but to authorize going forward in negotiations.

Disclosure: This writer (Tim Fleischer) serves on the Chamber of Commerce board of directors and as part of its executive committee. Furthermore, I was elected to serve as Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce for the 2015 calendar year.

Village proposes tax hike to 18.1¢

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado aldermen propose a general fund budget that will require more than $100,000 in deficit spending despite a tax increase of 50 percent of the current tax rate of 12¢ per $100 evaluation. Aldermen voted unanimously Aug. 21 to propose the budget and 18.1¢ tax rate.

The board will conduct the first public hearing on the $1.07 million general fund budget at its 6:30 p.m. Sept. 4 meeting. After a second public hearing on Sept. 18, the board will adopt the budget and the tax rate.

The proposed budget increases property taxes from the current 12¢ per $100 evaluation to 18.1¢ per $100 evaluation. This is anticipated to generate more than $100,000 in added revenues to the city, bringing the total revenues from taxes to $698,000. Of that, $375,000 will be from sales tax, $315,000 from property tax and $8,000 from mixed beverage tax. The budget calls for $197,790 in franchise fee income, $11,500 in development fee income and $44,100 in municipal court fine income. Total income is anticipated at $963,860.

With more than $1 million in expenditures, the Village will have to dip into its reserves next year.

The budget sets aside $301,898 for administrative expenses, including $182,000 in administrative personnel costs. It calls for $17,900 in building maintenance, $37,125 for the fire department and $39,596 for the municipal court (including code enforcement).

Other major expenses include $325,446 for the police department, $264,200 for street maintenance (including $50,000 for Main Street beautification), $52,901 for the maintenance department and $6,900 for Pace Park operations and $20,000 for advertising.

Expenses will total $1,075,775, resulting in a deficit budget of $111,915.

A detailed budget is available at the municipal building.

If the board of aldermen adopt the 18.1¢ tax rate, it will exceed the limit that will allow local voters to petition for a rollback election.

If the Village exceeds the effective tax rate by more than 8 percent, voters will have 90 days to acquire the number of signatures to force a rollback election. Because the amount of maintenance and operations taxes is below $5 million, it will require a petition with signatures exceeding 10 percent of the total number of registered voters living within the Village of Salado in order for a rollback election to be called. If a petition is submitted, the Village has 20 days in which to verify the signatures and then to call for the special rollback election.

In other business, aldermen unanimously approved authorizing city administrator Jim Reed to bring a scope of work back to them from Keep Salado Beautiful that the organization would accomplish in the 2014-15 fiscal year utilizing the Village's $5,000 payment from waste disposal franchise fees.

The board also transferred the responsibilities of the Zoning Board of Adjustment to the Village Board of Aldermen until such time that a functioning ZBA could be appointed and manned. Currently, in order to conduct any business, the ZBA must have four of the five appointees attend a meeting. This has resulted in delays on decisions of variance requests by property owners. Now those requests may be brought directly to the Board of Aldermen.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

Free Rick Perry

It tells you much about the laughable indictment of Texas Gov. Rick Perry that it has made him a figure of bipartisan sympathy.

Perry was indicted for the offense of vetoing an appropriations bill. Not vetoing an appropriations bill in exchange for a bribe. Not vetoing an appropriations bill as a favor to a donor. Not vetoing an appropriations bill in excess of his lawful authority. But simply vetoing an appropriations bill.

That Perry could, in theory, face more than 100 years in prison stemming from this veto is so mind-bogglingly stupid that even Democrats and mainstream journalists have been taken aback.

The whole matter has its roots in the drunken-driving arrest last year of Travis County District Attorney Rosemary Lehmborg, a Democrat. Police pulled her over for driving erratically. Video of the stop shows Lehmborg failing all manner of roadside tests. By the time she's at the jail, she's a parody of an entitled public figure. Her behavior is so outrageous that she has to be restrained like Hannibal Lecter in "The Silence of the Lambs."

Her blood alcohol level

was about three times the legal limit, and she ended up pleading guilty and serving jail time. Gov. Perry thought, not unreasonably, that because her office houses the state's Public Integrity Unit, she should resign.

Lehmborg disagreed. She exercised her power to stay in her position, and Perry exercised his power to veto funding for her Public Integrity Office as long as she did. You can disagree with one or both of them, but no one was committing a crime.

It was left to a special prosecutor of the very same Travis County District Attorney's Office to concoct one, and manage to get a grand jury to fall for it. The indictment -- running barely two pages long -- is as substantive as a fifth-grader's book report, and about as legally sophisticated.

The two counts against Perry are that he "misused government property" and engaged in the "coercion" of a public servant. This makes it sound like he used the $7.5 million of vetoed funds to buy a vacation house, and blackmailed Lehmborg into indicting people on his whim.

He, of course, did nothing of the kind. The indictment collapses under the slightest scrutiny. As legal blogger Eugene Volokh points out of the first count, Texas laws requires that the official be in possession of the misused funds. Perry never controlled the funds he vetoed. As for the second count, Volokh points to an appeals-court decision that held that "coercion of a lawful act by a threat of lawful action is protected free expression."

It's hard to believe that anyone thinks that these charges will stand up in court. But that's not the point. The indictment is an undisguised attempt to wound Perry, to create bad headlines, to distract him. On cue, Texas Democrats absurdly called on Perry to resign. The indictment itself is, in short, a naked abuse of power. The Travis County District Attorney's Office is infamous for this kind of thing.

Forget vetoing funding for this office. If there were any justice, it would be shuttered and razed to the ground.

Gossip: a cancer that kills

Once a turkey was given. It was frozen, properly packaged, and, when cooked, expected to be Thanksgiving's best.

The management also gave 4-hours off. Time to accomplish errands. The day was a warm November day with a trace of October's bright, blue skies.

Four hours later, the turkey was in the freezer a-waiting Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving eve, it was removed, thawed, made ready for cooking, and placed in the oven. Appetites increased as the turkey browned.

Thanksgiving Day, it was the attraction-of-the-table. Everyone praised and ate it with gusto!

Then came 6 p.m.. The stomach began to complain and before long -- well, you know . . . The good-looking turkey was spoiled from the heat 2-weeks earlier.

Such it is with uninformed gossip. Looks great, sounds correct, and makes the reporting person as the One-In-The-Know. However, when the truth is known, well you know . . .

Rick Sherman, historian, George Mason University and author of "Just How Stupid Are We?" writes:

"I hate to sound like a 19th century school marm, but it's not asking citizens too much to spend fifteen minutes a day examining an issue from reliable, trustworthy sources. Everyone should care enough to be an informed citizen and voter."

Our village will make big decisions in the next 4-months. Please get the facts right. Aldermen, who make policy, will answer your questions and receive your comments. They are informed and care deeply about you. There are no secrets; it is getting correct information before releasing it. That is essential for you to make good decisions.

Uninformed gossip is a cancer that kills a village's enthusiasm, spirit, and progress. If it is not fair, right, or honest; it is probably not true. Like the turkey, -- interesting on the outside; rotten on the inside.

Legendary season for Tablerock

Dear Editor:

In offering Salado Legends for the 22nd season, we have just put our community on display and invited interested and curious Texans to come, see, and enjoy our Village as it is today and glimpse the way it was in times past.

Eight hundred sixty-nine people took advantage of our offering and in so doing created a sizeable boost to the Village economy. The leveraged economic impact of the three performances is estimated to be $240,022.00. As part of that equation, forms filled out by 30% of our guests indicated that 38 rooms were rented, resulting in a tidy sum being contributed to the hotel occupancy tax (HOT). The HOT provides revenue to support Salado Tourism. We can only wonder at the real number of heads we put in beds if 100% of the audience had filled out the questionnaire.

The season just concluded was perhaps the most agreeable weather wise that we have experienced. Not one performance was carried out in 90 degree weather. It seemed that a cooling front was sent to us and was conveniently at hand each Saturday night placing our guests in dry, cool conditions, just right for watching outdoor theater under the stars.

Of course, our overriding measure of satisfaction each year is handing out scholarships to Legends' college bound cast and crew. Eighteen students were granted scholarships on August 2nd amounting to a total of $12,000.00. Adding that amount to the previous years totals brings us to $128,770.00 given to support education. All this becomes possible through the generosity of sponsors, donors, program ads, memorials and the hard work of many volunteers.

The Tablerock Board and the many, many volunteers are humbled by the terrific reception the community has given Tablerock. You are all to be congratulated for supporting the arts and local thespians in Central Texas. In that way, you bring honor on yourselves and your community!

Thanks for a glorious and productive year. Remember we have Fright Trail and A Christmas Carol upcoming. Let's do this again next year, but even better.

Respectfully,
Denver Mills, Tablerock Board of Directors

Ferguson Exposes the Creeping Militarization of Police Forces

Your town and mine are being militarized, just like Ferguson.

The tragedies unfolding in Ferguson, Missouri, are doubly infuriating.

First, there is the obvious outrage of yet another unarmed black teenager being stopped by one of the town's white police officers as he was walking to his grandmother's home.

A scuffle ensued, and officer Darren Wilson fatally shot Michael Brown (six times, including twice in the head, according to an autopsy report). The young man's corpse was then left lying in the street for hours, during which time the police didn't even bother to notify his family. Understandably, furious citizens have erupted in protest.

Outrage No. 2 is that Ferguson's police, practically all of whom are white in a town that's two-thirds black, responded to the public outcry like an occupying army.

Instead of the calm, professional, and empathetic approach required, the police confronted Ferguson with full military force, rolling out in armored "Bearcat" vehicles, hovering helicopters, riot gear, camouflage outfits, and body armor.

They approached the unarmed citizens with assault rifles, grenades, tear gas, night sticks, and a macho attitude. It was a tactical, commando assault on civilians, the vast majority of whom were doing what they should be doing: calling autocrats to account.

But wait: Where did this tiny town's police force -- supposedly made up of peace officers -- get such weaponry and a military attitude? From the Pentagon.

The Defense Department has quietly been militarizing America's police departments for the last two decades, sending billions of dollars worth of Bearcats, helicopters, machine guns, etc. to any Mayberry police chief with Rambo fantasies.

Your town and mine are being militarized too. We must halt this perversion of policing, or we'll be the next Ferguson. For starters, tell your governor: "Don't militarize my block." You can do it at change.org/petitions.

No appetite for fixing school lunch

Making healthy food taste good will require spending increase

By JILL RICHARDSON

You can lead a kid to vegetables, but you can't make her eat. Especially if the food doesn't taste good.

That's what the government found out in the wake of the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010.

I was active in advocating for school lunch reform at the time. The bill became law shortly after I published a book on U.S. food policy. It seemed like such a perfect solution: Fix school lunch and you improve the diets of millions of kids instantly. You also help the next generation develop healthy habits for life.

Kids who eat breakfast and lunch at school eat nearly half their week's meals in the cafeteria. Kids who just eat school lunch consume nearly one quarter of their meals at school. Swapping out French fries for sautéed kale and sugary foods for fresh fruit would go a long way to improve our nation's diets and health.

If only the kids would eat them, that is.

Here's the thing. Back when the law was debated, school lunch and nutrition experts agreed on a number of things that schools needed, like tougher nutrition standards — but nothing will improve if Congress doesn't give schools more money. As best as I could tell, it would take about an extra 50 cents to a dollar per meal to really get school lunch where it ought to be. Instead, Congress gave schools a mere six cents more.

Cooking real food — the healthy kind — takes more than just fresh ingredients, which already often costs more than frozen or canned junk. It requires a knowledgeable school lunch staff that can prepare the food. It requires refrigerators, cutting boards, and knives.

Junk food, on the other hand, requires freezers, microwaves, and very few skills to heat and serve.

Another sticky point: Making healthy food taste good for cheap is not easy. As Michael Moss pointed out in his book Salt Sugar Fat, Campbell's soup could drastically reduce the sodium in its soups if it replaced it with fresh herbs like rosemary. But rosemary is expensive, salt is cheap, and if you simply cut the salt without adding herbs to the soup, it tastes terrible.

Switching up kids' food also requires outreach. Kids can resist trying new foods, but — with some effort by caring grown-ups — they can even enjoy healthy foods.

Take the time I had fifth-grade Girl Scouts over to learn about children's lives in Kenya. The girls took a pretend trip to Kenya in which they planted seeds, harvested kale, and cooked the Kenyan corn dish, ugali, which is similar to polenta.

I expected full-scale rebellion when the girls ate their meal of beans, kale, and corn. Instead, they fought over the kale and begged for more. They didn't just earn a badge for their vests, they discovered that beans and green veggies can taste good.

Without increasing the $11 billion federal budget for school lunches, you get in the pickle we're in now. Schools can't afford to meet tighter nutrition standards, and kids are throwing out the increased fruits, veggies, and whole grains schools now serve instead of eating them. This shouldn't be a surprise.

And yet, the political debate doesn't revolve around giving schools the increased funding they need to make healthier lunches work. Instead, Rep. Robert Aderholt (R-AL) proposed giving struggling schools a break from the tighter nutrition standards for the next school year.

Washington treats school lunch spending as an expenditure. It's actually an investment.

Increased spending on better lunches could create new jobs for lunch staff while improving the health of America's youth — and that would continue to pay us back for decades to come as today's kids grow up with healthier habits.

Phillip Smith portrays the Apostle Paul at Presbyterian service Aug. 31

SUBMITTED BY PETE STEBBINS

The Presbyterian Church of Salado will celebrate August's Fifth Sunday (31st) with a unique Apostle Paul presentation.

Have you ever wanted to actually see Jesus, Peter or Paul in person? Well, at 10 a.m. August 31, during our Fifth Sunday Celebration, we have invited the Apostle Paul to be with us during our church hour. We asked him to review one of his famous letters with us. It is the letter he wrote from prison to his dear friends in Philippi. (You might want to review Philippians prior to 8/31).

Actually, Paul can't be with us so we've invited Philip Smith on his behalf. As Apostle Paul, Philip Smith brings the inspired and timeless message of compassion and love to the stage. "He portrays Paul while he is chained in a Roman prison remembering and writing to his dear friends in Philippi." This performance scripture is approximately half an hour and consists of the entire text of the book of Philippians from the New International version of the Bible. This is Paul's message to members of the first church he established in his ministry over two thousand years ago and is known as the Letter of Joy, it is as pertinent now as it was then.

Trained as a thespian and working in the theatre for decades, this project grew out of Smith's decades of experiences and passionate interests.

Four years ago Smith had the time and felt drawn to memorize Philippians, a longtime favorite for him. At first he would recite it to small church groups and the response was positive. Eventually props were showing up. People were coming forth with many creative talents and skills to share and Smith realized this small project was turning into a presentation that was taking on a life of its own! Now Smith arrives complete with a set design, lighting and music as the words of the Apostle Paul come to heartfelt life.

The Presbyterian Church of Salado is located at 105 Salado Plaza Drive.

Contemporaries of the CAC host a Star Spangled Fashion Show

Contemporaries' President Sharon Douglas and The Contemporaries invite you to celebrate the bicentennial of the Star Spangled Banner with them 9:30 a.m. Sept. 13 in Strasburger Hall at The Cultural Activities Center, 3011 North Third in Temple.

Expect All-American music, flag-waving and a whole lot of red, white and blue celebration. For your ticket, call The CAC office at 773-9926 or see any member of The Contemporaries. There are two tiers of tickets: $40 and $60.

In Baltimore, 200 years ago this month, after an anxious night of bombardment by British forces on American Fort McHenry, Francis Scott Key was rewarded by dawn's early light with a view of the stars and stripes still waving. He was so moved, he began to write the poem which became the American Star Spangled Banner. The anthem expresses much about American resilience, courage and survival against huge odds. These characteristics have been honored and celebrated through the years.

Event Chair, Beverly Kermode and committee promise a flag-waving, star-spangled morning complete with brunch items to enjoy. Fashionista Betty Thrasher, a Bell County treasure, will work with Dillard's, Temple Mall, to entertain and educate with fun fashions for all ages and occasions.

St. Stephen Catholic Church celebrated 25th anniversary

SUBMITTED BY BOBBIE REIHSEN

A warm morning with a cool breeze welcomed the nearly 400 guests who came to thank God for his blessing on St. Stephen Catholic Church as the parish celebrated their 25th Anniversary.

When people were settled about 9:30, Kendella Baker (in English) and Mary Riley (in Spanish) led the prayers of the Rosary followed by Holy Mass co-celebrated by the Most Reverend Joe Vasquez, Bishop of Austin, with our Pastor, Father Aloy Nzekwe. The opening Hymn, "On Holy Ground" was sung with verses in both English and Spanish with accompaniment of our Mariachi band.

A joyful song that was sung originally 25 years ago as a small group stood in the ditch along the side of Holland Road at the dedication of this land for a place of worship: the founding of Stephen Catholic Church.

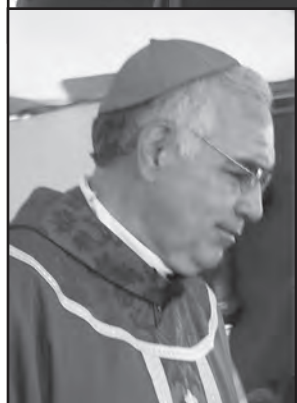

The First and Second Readings, from the Old Testament were read in both English and Spanish were followed by the reading of the Gospel of Matthew 16:13-20. read by Father Aloy.

Our Most Reverend Bishop Joe Vasquez gave a beautiful homily welcoming us and thanking God for the many blessings on St. Stephen Parish for the last 25 years and congratulating us on plans for a new church to last for another 25 years on the same grounds as our present facility.

After praying the Profession of Faith, "Apostles Creed", a special prayer for the success of a new church building was offered. The Eucharistic Liturgy with the Consecration of the Body and Blood of Christ was followed by the receiving of Holy Communion by those present.

As we looked up into the blue sky, we were amazed to see a beautiful cloud in the shape of a cross above the St. Stephen Bell Tower. We hope that surely God is pleased with the honor we offer Him.

When the services were completed several speakers each presented a short program.

Helen Simonette presented an overview of the history that she remembered as a parishioner from 1989. Mr. and Mrs. Nino and Alberta Martinez presented a talk about our present times and how we work together as a parish. Glenn Pritchett presented an exciting vision of the new church being planned and showed us the architect's video of what we are to expect. We hope to have the church built by this time next year.

Special honored guests who were members of that original little group of founding parishioners were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Michna, Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Buckley, Mr. Luis Sierra, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Roessler from Blanco, TX.

Father Aloy introduced another special guest, Salado Mayor, Rev. Skip Blancett with his wife, Gayle. Rev. Blancett stood up and encouraged us with his vision for us and represented the Village Council in congratulating us. He talked to those honored guests who were early church founders and told them to look around at the huge crowd to see the results of their work so long ago.. We all appreciated our Salado Mayor for taking the time to spend with us and share his vision and support our new church building fund.

Before going to the second tent set up for dining and the catered BBQ dinner from Johnny's Steak House, a ceremony to dedicate and plant a tree in honor of the newest member of our parish to be baptized. The tree named for Lila Marie Bratton, daughter of Josh and Stacie Bratton, baptized on Sunday, August 16, 2014.

This is the second year in a row for Salado High School to win the Lone Star Cup.

The UIL Lone Star Cup is awarded annually to five high schools, one in each of the five UIL classifications (1A, 2A, 3A, 4A and

"The UIL Lone Star Cup honors the best overall academic and athletic programs in the state of Texas," said UIL Executive Director Dr. Charles Breithaupt.

With state championships in academics and boys golf and state runner-up finishes in girls golf and one-act play, Salado earned 82 total Lone Star Cup points for the 2013-14 school year. The Eagles also earned Lone Star Cup points in boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, softball and baseball.

Eagles kick off football Aug. 29

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

With new offensive and defensive coordinators and new schemes at both, the Salado Eagles kick off the football season at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 29 at UMHB's football stadium against annual rival Troy Trojans.

Salado has moved up and will play in Div. II, District 9-4A with every district game a deciding factor on which teams make the playoffs. Only five teams compete in 9-4A and Salado is the smallest school in the district. The Eagles will travel many miles in the next two years as the football district stretches from Salado all the way to Lagrange. Lagrange are the returning state finalists in 3A football last year.

Salado returns the following lettermen: Seniors Tanner Montgomery, McLane Matthews, Jacob Quick, Jacob Little, Kyle King, Ivan Torres, Ryan Bradley, Zachary Marsh, Keaton Phillip and Jace Habiger. Juniors Tyler Armstrong and Preston Payne are also returning lettermen from last year's 1-9 team.

Jacob Little moves from receiver to take the helm of the offense in his senior year. He takes over from one of the most prolific passers in Salado history. McLane Carter, who threw for 2,476 yards and 28 touchdowns as a junior last year, left Salado schools shortly after the football season to return to Gilmer, where he has been picked as the starting quarterback there.

Also missing are some of the best receivers in last year's district, lost to graduation. Ryan Simmons, who rushed for more than 950 yards last year is competing this year in track at Angelo State University.

The Eagles have moved to a slot T offense under the leadership of Buddy McBryde as offensive coordinator.

"We have adapted our offense to fit the skills and talents of the players on our team," Athletic Director and Head Coach Brent Graham said. "We are a run/play action pass offense."

Talent positions will be filled by Little at quarterback with Ivan Torres and Hayden Ebeling at running back and receivers Jacob Quick and Jake Elliott.

Ryan Marriott will be tight end and offensive linemen will include Jason Flynn, Nik Lowrance, Ryan Bradley, Zachary Marsh and Keaton Phillip.

Josh Dillard will coordinate the odd stack defense. It will be have these starters: Cody Chambliss, back, McLane Matthews, linebacker, Jacob Quick, back, Justin McBryde, line, Kyle King, back, Tyler Armstrong, linebacker, Ivan Torres, linebacker, Preston Payne, back, Jeremiah Combs, linebacker, Jace Habiger, line, and Keaton Combs, back.

Lady Eagles start off like whirlwind at 11-2

Under new head coach Heather Poeske, the Salado Lady Eagles volleyball team has started its volleyball team like a whirlwind by jumping out to an 11-2 records. Both losses were to 6A schools, one of which has already been avenged by the Lady Eagles.

The Lady Eagles won the Clifton Tournament and lost in the first round of the China Spring tournament to 6A Belton. They later avenged that loss in a non-tourney game.

Clifton Tournament

Salado Lady Eagles handed the Jarrell Lady Cougars losses in two rounds of the Clifton Tournament beating their rival in an early match and in the finals of the tournament.

In the final match, they beat the Lady Cougars in straight sets, 25-22 and 25-16 on Aug. 16.

Cheyenne Vaca led the Lady Eagles in attacks with seven kills. Taylor Valeriano led the girls in serving with three aces. Vaca led the team in blocks with three. Tori Laughland led the team in digs with four and Meagan Hill had 18 assists.

Earlier in the day, the girls easily handled Penelope, winning in straight sets, 25-11 and 25-12.

In the first day of the tournament, the ladies beat Jarrell, Meyer and China Spring, each in two sets.

Salado beat Jarrell in the first round 25-21 and 25-11, led by Vaca's five kills. Vaca and Malory Schattle had five aces each. Schattle also had four blocks. Averi Fischer led the team with six digs. Hill had eight assists.

Salado swept Meyer 25-12 and 25-14. Vaca and Schattle both had five kills and Schattle had 3 aces.

The girls beat Valley Mills 25-18 and 25-16 to end the day Aug. 14. Vaca had seven kills while Averi Fischer had five aces to lead the team.

In a non-tourney game. Salado suffered its first loss of the year, calling in four sets to the 6A Ellison Lady Eagles, losing the first set 19-25, winning the second 25-23, losing the third 15-25 and the fourth set 13-25.

In another non-tourney game, Salado set right an earlier loss to the Lady Tigers of Belton. Salado won in four sets by winning the first two closely; 27-25 and 25-23. They girls gave up the third set 14-25 but pulled out the fourth set 25-22 for the win.

In the Gatesville tournament, Salado lost to Belton in the first round 23-25 and 14-25. The girls beat China Spring 25-21 and 25-24 to end the first day.

They won both games on Aug. 23 to end the tournament 3-1. Salado beat Hamilton 25-12 and 25-11 in the early game and China Spring 25-21 and 25-19 in the afternoon game.

Both cross country teams win at Temple Early Bird meet

Salado Eagles cross country teams, both of which competed at the State Cross Country Meet last year, started the 2014 season by winning the small school divisions of the Temple Early Bird Meet on Aug. 22.

The boys won the meet with a team score of 41, Bruceville-Eddy with three runners in the top 5 gave Salado a run for the money with a total of 45 points.

Salado's strength across the board was evident as the fifth man for the Eagles came across in 12th place overall.

Bruceville-Eddy had the top two runners with Kyle Doty at 15:46.8 and Darin Allen at 16:06.0.

Preston Kimbrough placed third overall as the first Salado Eagle to cross the finish line of the three-mile course. He had a time of 17:11.6. Bruceville-Eddy's Javier Victorino was fourth followed by Salado's #2 runner Daniel Thoreson in fifth place overall with his time of 18:01.5

Salado then had three runners cross the finish line in successive order: Austyn Giacomozzi was 10th overall at 19:01.3, Luke Markham was 11th at 19:13.6 followed closely by Manual Magadan at 19:15.2 to secure the team win for the Eagles.

Also running for the Eagles were Peyton Kyburz, 16th, 19:33.7; Brandon Rodriguez, 17th, 19:53.1 and Wade Woods, 20:04.9.

The boys 1A-4A division had competitors from 12 schools.

On the girls side, Kaye Ewton led Salado to a team championship with 65 points to beat China Spring, which had 71 points. Ewton ran the two-mile course in 13:32.4. She was followed by Katie Kendall in 10th place with a time of 14:10.5. Ariana Rangel finished the race in 15th place with a time of 14:49.7. Rebecca Gonzales was 17th place with a time of 15:01.9 and China Saxton was 20th place with a time of 15:14.2.

Also running for the Salado Lady Eagles were Annie Ewton, 21st, 15:14.3; Ellie Phelps, 32nd, 15:43.7 and Cassidy Brown, 16:22.5.

Salado JV boys finished in second place with 36 points behind China Spring with 20 points.

Chase Harwell led the squad with a time of 21:07.1 in third place overall. Seth Neil was sixth place overall with a 21:46.9; Camden Lacanne, seventh overall, 22:43.2; Dalton Menix, 9th overall, 23:44.1 and Ryan Trenholm, 11th place, 23:59.6.

Salado Lady Eagles JV only had four runners, not enough to compete in the team competition, but all four placed in the top 12 overall, led by Jessica Ringstaff in seventh place with a time of 16:34.1. Emily Ritch followed in eighth place with a run of 16:35.2; Daniella Gantenbein was 10th overall with a 16:54.9 and Julie Craig was 12th with a 17:03.4.

Salado will compete on Aug. 30 at the Thorndale Meet at Apache Pass and then the Midway Meet on Sept. 5. Coaches are Michael Goos and Cindy McWhinney

Thank you for making
Meet the Eagles a success

The Salado Athletic Booster Club would like to say Thank You to all those who participated in Meet the Eagle this past Saturday. It was a success in more ways than one. The evening began with many local community organization representing their group within the community. We want to thank Mayor Skip Blancett, Salado Police Department, Salado Volunteer Fire Dept, Bell County Sherriff, Keep Salado Beautiful, Salado Library, Rotary Club, Mill Creek Golf Course, Freedom Urgent Care, Salado Chamber of Commerce and the Republican Woman - Voter Registration for taking time to join the Salado ISD in this fun event to kick off the new year. Brian Krustchinsky helped organize these groups through Salado Leadership. The Salado Athletic Booster Club, Band Boosters, Salado Cheer Squad, SABC Reverse Raffle, Junior High PTO, TAE-SIS PTO, and the Classes of 2015, 2016 and 2018 also were represented at the event.

The Booster Club thanks Brookshire Brothers and Blue Bell Ice Cream for their support and providing everyone with Big Red Floats. The floats were refreshing after a long hot day. A special thanks to Nikole Hill for organizing the raffle for the SABC and to all the parents who donated items to make the raffle a success. All the money raised will go to the Salado athletes this year.

Finally, the pep rally was a huge success. We had a record number of fans, parents and students. The gym was energized with the Salado Eagle Band, Salado cheerleaders, twirlers, flag corp., student athletes and coaches. Once again, Dr. Michael Novotny and Mr. Burt Smith received the Lone Star Cup award for the 3rd time. SISD won this award in 2008, 2013 and 2014. Congratulations to all those who participated in the events to accomplish such a high honor. Thank you students, facility and parents for working so hard on winning this award. We would also like to thank our special guest speakers Tom Maynard (State Board of Education) and Mayor Skip Blancett who sent out a great message to the parents and student athletes.

The Salado Athletic booster club appreciated all the support we get from the community, local businesses and parents. Athletic Director Brent Graham said it best, "It truly takes a Village to raise our kids". Thank you again for supporting our Eagles.

Historic Salado College Park ready for fall visitors

While many in Salado were preparing to go back to school on Monday, volunteers were rolling up their sleeves to spruce up the grounds of Salado's oldest educational facility. The Historic Salado College Park protects what remains of Salado College. The building of the school is considered the beginning of the Village of Salado as lots were donated and sold to fund the creation of Salado College. The site, listed on the National Register of Historic places is maintained by the Salado College Foundation.

On Aug. 23 a group of volunteers weeded, raked, mowed and gathered to get Historic Salado College Park ready for fall. The volunteers included Bill Kinnison, Vic Means, Pat Suggs, Miriam Jordan, Beverly Turnbo, Laurie and Tom Goldsmith and Doug Willingham. "We accomplished a lot and our visitors to the hill will appreciate it," says Kinnison, president of the Salado College Foundation. The Salado College Foundation plans to hold a Community Wildflower Planting on Sept. 28. The community will be invited to purchase and sow the flowers this fall and then return to enjoy the magnificent color in the spring. More information on the family friendly event will be announced soon. The Historic Salado College Park is located at the corner of Main Street and College Hill Drive.

The Merrimac Coup

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

The Merrimac Coup is featured in many books on the play of the cards, but it seldom occurs in real life. However, the opportunity to use it arose on this deal from the 1979 world championship. The hand was played at six tables, and at four of them East proved equal to the task.

South was declarer in three notrump at all six tables. In the Brazil-United States match, the opening lead at the first table was a heart. After taking the ace, East returned the king of spades! This was the Merrimac Coup, a defensive play aimed at killing a vital entry to dummy. In the actual case, South went down one after the king-of-spades play.

At the other table, West's lead was the queen of diamonds. Here, too, East won with the ace and returned the king of spades, and declarer also finished down one.

In the match between the Far East and Australia, the opening lead at both tables was a heart. At one table, the Far East declarer made four notrump after the Australian East won the lead with the ace and mechanically returned the nine of hearts. At the other table, East took the heart lead with the ace and returned the king of spades to sink the contract.

In the match between Italy and a Caribbean team, both Souths made the contract. At the first table, West led the diamond queen, and instead of playing the ace, East signaled with the nine. This allowed the Italian declarer to score 10 tricks.

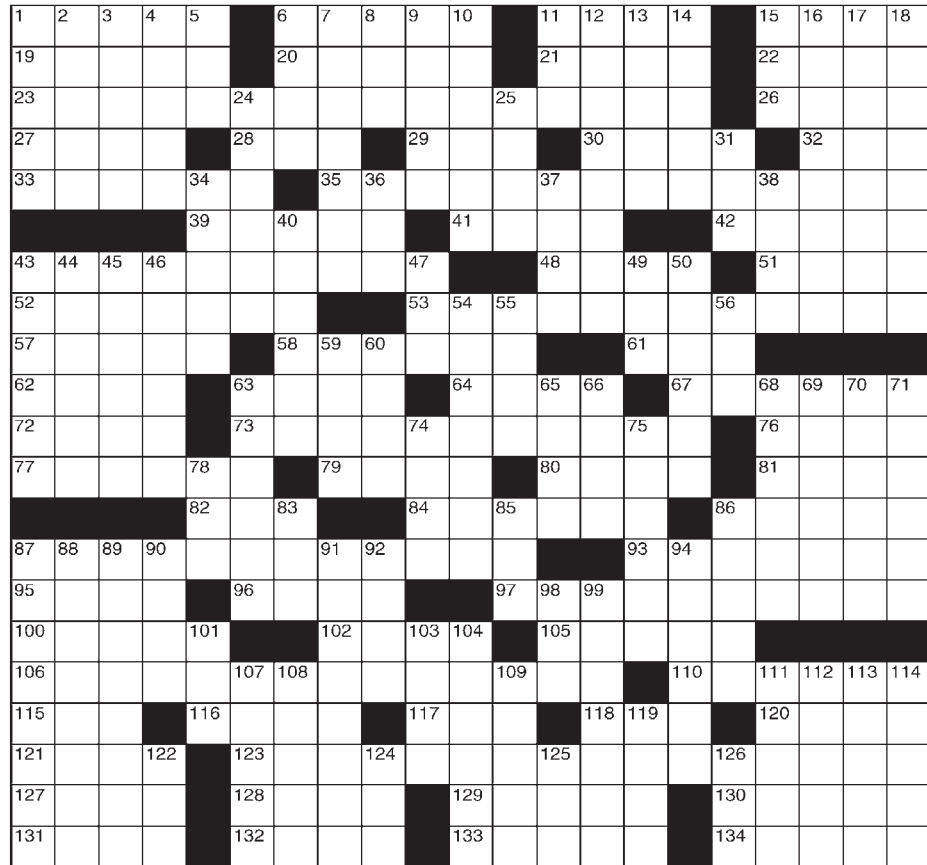

At the second table, West led a heart to his partner's ace, and East found the killing king-of-spades lead. However, West, for reasons unknown, later discarded two hearts when the A-K-J of clubs were played, and declarer wound up with nine tricks.

Central Texas Railroad

The Central Texas Chapter of the National Railroad Historical Society invites you to join us for a discussion of modern day railroading Sept. 6 at 2 p.m. on the 3rd Floor of the Temple Public Library, 100 West Adams Avenue. The program will discuss a popular Texas railroad landmark-Tower 55- known to railroad enthusiasts from throughout the world.

Towers across Texas such as Tower 55 were constructed by the railroads shortly after the Texas Railroad Commission required the installation of towers with operators to control intersecting railroad mainlines to prevent collisions of trains. The railroad commission approved tower construction by number, for example, Tower 55 was the 55th tower constructed since the 1901 law was passed. Tower 55 operations began on September 26, 1904 under the ownership of the Texas and Pacific Railroad and ceased operations in 1996 under ownership of the Union Pacific Railroad. The structure still remains in Ft. Worth but all train operations are remotely dispatched from a distant dispatching center.

roads who often is called upon by the railroad to produce public relations photos. He will be sharing his documentary photography of the various phases of the multi-million dollar construction project to reconfigure the Tower 55 railroad crossing to better handle the increased railroad traffic through Ft. Worth and to keep the historic tower in place.

Guest, Mr. Ken Fitzgerald, of Ft. Worth is a contract photographer for both the Union Pacific and BNSF Rail-
