Salado Golf Club continues effort to purchase Mill Creek

BY TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado Golf Club will continue its efforts to raise additional funds after the resignation of Terry Dill as its head and withdrawal of his $10,000 commitment check.

The interim board met May 21 following a May 16 meeting with members who have pledged and given checks of $10,000 or more to raise the capital to purchase the Mill Creek golf course property.

At the May 16 meeting, Professional Golf Association (PGA) member Terry Dill, attorney Michael Cooper and certified public accountant Bruce Bolick informed the standing room only audience at the Salado municipal building that negotiations had reached another impasse on the purchase of the property.

The group thought that they had reached an agreement with Morris Foster on May 13, but those details changed earlier in the day May 16.

The agreement in principle was this: $1.75 million purchase price with $500,000 down payment by Salado Golf Club, financing the remainder over 15 years at five percent. The balance would be interest only for the first three years with principal and interest to be paid over a 12 year period after that.

Dill told the group that Foster came back on May 16 with a change to the agreement. He now insisted on $600,000 down payment with $1.15 million to be financed.

This was a deal breaker for Dill, who resigned officially from the board by letter and withdrew a $10,000 commitment.

Bolick had every check that had been given to the group in his hands on May 16. He told Salado Village Voice that since May 16 he has returned four checks, including Dill's. He said that since the May 16 meeting he has been given four additional $10,000 checks.

On May 21, the board met to discuss going on despite the absence of Dill and voted to make two changes in its fund raising efforts.

First, Salado Golf Club will now accept loans in increments of $2,500 for those who would like to join in the effort but cannot meet the $10,000 level.

"There seemed to be a large movement toward doing that last Thursday," Bolick said. "We'll see if that pans out."

Also, any person who is a current member of the Mill Creek Golf Club or the Salado Golf Club as a social member will be able to join the Salado Golf Club for initiation fees reduced by half.

Bolick said that the group will continue to raise funds to purchase and rehabilitate the golf course in an effort to turn it into a member-owned 501(c)7 organization.

He added that Foster has said that he will close the golf course on Oct. 1 in order to maximize the tax benefits that will disappear on Jan. 1.

What structure that closing could take is not clear at this time, but Michael Cooper told the group that the property could be fenced off and become "pastureland" until it could be developed at a later date, if action is not taken before Oct. 1.

Aldermen vote for management

Salado aldermen voted 3-2 at their May 16 meeting to negotiate an interlocal agreement with Central Texas Council of Governments (CTCOG) to provide part-time city management services on behalf of the Village.

Shannon Ashe made the motion with Ashe, Fred Brown and Michael McDougal voting in favor. Hans Fields and Bryan Fritch voted against the motion.

The proposal will now be considered by the Central Texas Council of Governments governing board.

The proposal will allow its executive director Jim Reed to devote one day a week to management of Salado. Other times would be served by other staff members. Details and costs have not been worked out.

Memorial Day service May 27 at Cemetery

The Salado Cemetery Association will again host the annual Memorial Day Service at 9:30 a.m. on May 27 at the Historic Salado Cemetery on Baines St.

Everyone is invited to honor veterans on this day and pay tribute to their service to our country.

The purpose of the Memorial Day ceremony will be to remember the veterans buried not just in Salado Cemetery but in all of the Salado-area cemeteries, including family and church cemeteries, by a roll call of their names. All 416 veterans buried in the cemetery will have flags placed on their graves. The veterans are from the Texas Revolutionary War, Early Day Rangers, Home Guard, Indian Wars, Mexican War, Confederate and Union Armies, WWI and II, Korean War, Vietnam War, and from peace time service.

The ceremony will consist of: flags from each of the armed services being raised; the Bell County Sheriff's Posse presenting the colors; Rev. Dale Gore providing the invocation; a Commemorative Air Force fly-over; and Bill Herridge will playing bag pipes in the cemetery as he walks among the graves. Lt. Gen. (Ret) Don Holder will give Memorial Day remarks. LTC (Ret)

Stephen Peters, Cemetery Board Treasurer, will read the roll call of veterans' names this year. Taps will be played at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The Roll Call of Honor of veterans buried in Salado Cemetery and elsewhere can be found on page 5C. The list is maintained by the Cemetery Association.

Light refreshments will be served following the closing of the Memorial Day ceremony. Limited seating will be provided by the Village of Salado, so you are encouraged to bring lawn chairs, also umbrellas, as tradition has it, the event is held outside in spite of sun or rain.

West Texas town makes girl's dream come true... twice!

BY MINDI WILLIAMS WALLS

In the west Texas community of Miles, located northeast of San Angelo, the high school students aren't your typical teens, thinking mostly of themselves. This year, in fact, they have made it possible for one of their classmate's magical dreams come true.

Hannah Hicks moved to Miles with her family two years ago. Hannah is the daughter of Bryant and Marci (Williams) Hicks, who grew up in Salado. She is the granddaughter of Bennie and Wylene Williams, of Salado.

Although, she is mentally challenged with autistic tendencies, her outgoing personality and winning smile have brightened the halls and classrooms of her school. Hannah has a child-like love and concern for others, which is evident to other students. This endearing quality has a contagious effect that spreads through the student body.

Hannah's difficult start in life presented many life challenges for her and her family. Hannah was born 3 months premature with a rare tumor attached to her spine. The tumor was removed successfully only to discover a need for open-heart surgery three years later. Hannah has seen multiple doctors, taken a variety of medications, and has continuously struggled with the effects of her special needs. Her parents have selflessly and patiently cared for her for 19 years.

From a very early age, Hannah's favorite pastime has been watching Disney movies, always describing the events and characters in detail. Her most loved, no doubt, are always the beautiful princesses. This year, the students of Miles High School collectively decided to make a difference in Hannah's senior year; to make her magical dreams come true...twice!

Last October, the school unanimously voted Hannah to be their Homecoming Queen and she was crowned at halftime of the football game, escorted by her father.

Then, few months later, an amazing young man named Peter Mejia, invited Hannah to go with him to her prom. Peter attends a different high school in the area and knows Hannah from their church.

After arriving at the prom, Hannah was once again honored by her peers who voted her as Prom Queen.

She danced the night away as her parents looked on, amazed by these students who obviously already know at a young age that love is kind, self-less, and giving. While making Hannah's princess dreams come true, they have experienced real joy for themselves.

In the mind of Hannah Hicks, nothing can beat two tiaras in one year... except, of course, the loving friends who made it all possible.

It sounds like the plot from a dystopian libertarian novel. The word “patriot” and the phrase “educating on the Constitution and Bill of Rights” triggered heightened scrutiny from the most intrusive agency in the federal government.

We now know that the Internal Revenue Service did indeed target conservative groups, as had long been rumored and oft-denied. The news is a perverse confirmation of the groups’ worldview, and a challenge to President Barack Obama’s. He always harangues us about putting more trust in government, and then you find out that the IRS has been singling out his political enemies.

This isn’t an unaccustomed role for the IRS. It was notoriously used as a partisan bludgeon by Franklin D. Roosevelt and Richard Nixon, an abuse that was a Watergate impeachment count. In this case, the IRS gave special scrutiny to conservative groups filing for tax-exempt status as so-called 501(c)(4) organizations. Their applications would be flagged if an offending phrase or issue popped up, say, “tea party,” or statements criticizing “how the country is being run,” or concern about the federal debt. Then, the group might be hit with massive document requests and queries about the activities of family members of board members and key officers.

No one defends the propriety of any of this. President Obama says it is “outrageous,” and even the IRS calls it, drawing on that elastic Washington word, “inappropriate.” So how did it happen? The IRS explanation is that it was an innocent mistake by the rubes out in the Cincinnati office, who apparently lack an appreciation for objectivity and the rule of law, not to mention common sense.

We will learn soon enough how this holds up. But Ken Vogel, a reporter at Politico who has covered the IRS, says via twitter that the “Cincinnati office has little autonomy” and “mostly just follows DC’s instructions.” Certainly, if the IRS had a rogue operation on its hands, it didn’t act like it. An agency vigilant in defense of the rights of citizens and of its own reputation would have exposed and shut down the misconduct immediately.

Reports say that the IRS targeting of conservatives began as early as 2010, and senior IRS officials learned of the practice two years ago. In March 2012 congressional testimony, then-IRS Commissioner Douglas Shulman repeatedly denied any targeting of conservatives. Evidently, no one who knew about it did his or her boss the favor of telling him he had misled Congress.

There are two steps toward making it right. One is a thorough congressional investigation and the firing of anyone involved in the harassment or in looking the other way or covering it up.

The other is, as much as possible, to remove political regulation from agencies like the IRS that can become the tool of one party and its partisan agenda. The Federal Election Commission has its faults, but it is designed to be bipartisan and is better suited to making politically sensitive judgments. Needless to say, ours should be a country where you can start a group with the word “patriot” in the title and not incur the hostility of the American government.

The Parched Truth About American Jobs

The recent good news about job creation obscures the bad news facing the nation’s middle class.

At last, some excellent economic news for folks long-mired in the stagnant labor market.

“Jobs Spring Back,” exclaimed a typical headline on recent reports that 165,000 private-sector jobs were added in April. Wow — the thunderous, three-year boom of prosperity that has rained riches on Wall Street is finally beginning to shower on our streets, right?

Well, as dry-land farmers can tell you: Thunder ain’t rain. Read beneath the joyful headlines and you’ll see the parched truth.

For example, more than a third of working-age Americans are either out of work or have given up on finding a job. Also, last month’s hiring increase was almost entirely for receptionists, waiters, temp workers, car-rental agents, and other low-wage positions. Plus, manufacturing, generally the source of good, middle-class jobs, didn’t add workers in April, when the unemployment rate inched back to 7.5 percent.

Especially problematic was the continued rise in underemployment — people wanting full-time work, but having to take part-time and temporary jobs. Underemployment is also pounding college graduates. While they’ve been more successful than non-grads at landing jobs, they’re not getting jobs that fit their career goals or even require the degrees they spent money and time to obtain.

Indeed, many of those rental agents and restaurant employees you encounter hold four-year degrees, forcing everyone else to scramble for the few, even lower-paid jobs farther down the skill ladder. Meanwhile, the next graduating class is about to flood into the labor market with nowhere to go.

America’s middle class is in a crisis, while our pathetic political leaders pretend Wall Street’s prosperity covers us all — and the corporate media puts little happy-face stickers over the dark reality faced by the workaday majority.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

On guns and golf

Dear Editor,

I would like to respond to Mr Murphey’s letter to the “Salado Reader” in the last Your Voice section regarding recent Firearms legislation.

I too am appalled at all of the recent incidents of violence in our country and wish there was an easy resolution to this situation. Unfortunately, legislation for more gun control will not stop the violence any more than locking your house will prevent a burglar from entering if they choose to do so. The people committing these crimes are not going to be stopped by new legislation because by definition they are criminals.

It’s time we own up to the real issues needing to be addressed and they are not easy for any of us to admit. We all want to gravitate to something easier even when we know in our hearts the root problem is deeper.

We are seeing a true moral decay in our society where the value of life itself is no longer important. Babies (some prefer to call them a fetus to remove from reality) are aborted by the millions because it is not convenient. A recent case has finally brought the horrible torturous death of these babies to our attention. Children play violent video games where killing is the goal of winning the game. Many choose to stay home on Sundays rather than taking their families to church services. We choose “not to offend” the “few” that want all references to God removed from public places by removing them.

History tells us without question that past societies have failed from within by the decay of morals and values. We are no different, we too are heading down the same path unless we take action now to change our course.

This nation was founded on Christian principles. They are carved into all our national monuments in Washington. Our founding fathers looked to God for wisdom in all their decisions and understood this nation would prosper as long as we held those values. Our pledge still says, “One Nation, Under God”. So how do we go about changing our course if we really want to do so? For a start, we need to go back to the principles this nation was founded on and pray to God for the wisdom we need. We need to instill the proper values in our children and then live by example. We need to attend church with our families. We need to stop the innocent murder (abortion) of children.

Let’s take the blame for where we are today and work to make this a better place by loving our neighbor as we love ourselves and place God back in the driver’s seat where He belongs.

Sincerely,
Mark Johnston
Salado

Dear Editor:

I am Letta Meinen and have made Salado my residence since 2004. My husband discovered Salado back in the late 1960’s when he came here to play golf with his brother from Fort Worth. He made this his mini- vacation for the next 20 years. The golf course and the village of Salado is what he fell in love with and in turn it grew on me. It was the Mill Creek Golf Club that drew us here as we purchased one of the Mill Creek townhouses in 1984 and we found it a wonderful place to come to get away from the Iowa winters.

After my husband passed away in 2003 and I moved here in 2004 I found trouble with the golf course and club house. It had lost some magic and things did not improve with Morris Foster as owner. With several floods Morris decided he would not rebuild and it has stayed this way for two years. Then out of the blue Terry Dill came to town and saw the mess we were in. He felt he had some skills to offer us the chance to bring the course back to the full 27 holes. I was involved to organize the first group meeting when Terry told us about making this course a 501-c7 non-profit amusement and recreational golf course. With people of Mill Creek and Salado to pledge as a loan of $10,000 to help purchase the golf course. I felt this was an offer we could not refuse and worked with the board to make it happen.

As small towns go gossip, rumors and groups who wanted to buy the course for their own profit kept arising throughout the winter. It was sad as fewer people were willing to make a pledge of $10,000 as a loan to buy the golf course. We are now at a standstill as we could only raise about $750,000 and the executive officers of the board worked out a deal with Morris Foster if he would go into our deal for the remainder of his asking price. Foster did not agree and it turned into his making us a loan of the total minus $600,000 of our money as our down payment. We would owe Morris 5 percent interest and he would own the lien on the full property. No non-profit as we worked out in the prospectus.

I do not agree with this and am holding back my $20,000 pledge in hopes that enough people from Salado and Mill Creek residents come forward and help us reach our goal. Wake up Salado and especially Mill Creek Community this is your golf course and it can become our own with no strings attached if we meet Foster’s asking price. This will become member owned and we can bring it back to its scenic beauty again. If you want to check out what I think of this course check out my web site at www.booksbyletta.com/scenic-millcreek.html. I want to see this course back to what these pictures show and want the members to run the show. At my age I may never see my pledge paid back but I want to see this golf course back to its 27 holes. It can be the show piece it was several years ago and Terry had a vision for Salado and the Salado Golf Club at Mill Creek let’s make it happen. We have two weeks as Morris Foster will be out of the country for the next two weeks.

Church of Christ Wednesday Summer Series starts June 5

The Salado Church of Christ will once again be hosting a special summer series and wishes to invite the community to come and share it with them.

Beginning Wednesday, June 5, 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium, the church will present a 13 week series of videos entitled "The Truth Project," produced by Focus on the Family.

The producers, according to Joe Keyes, the church's preaching minister, bill the series as "an in-depth Christian World-view Experience."

The intent of the series is to approach topics such as philosophy, anthropology, science, history, sociology, etc. by means of a Christian or biblical worldview, rather than the secular. In a world in which truth and moral absolutes are harder to find, the issues discussed in these videos will be very timely.

Call the church office at 947-5241 if you have any questions.

Centerville pushes Salado to 3 games in quarterfinal

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

It shouldn't have been this tough -- or taken this long.

Salado Eagles took three games and almost eight hours of time on the field to get past Centerville in the 2A Region III Quarterfinals May 17-18 in College Station. It took an extra inning in the third game for Salado to get to the next round of the playoffs. Salado will face Elkhart this week (see related story).

DECISIVE GAME 3

SALADO 7
CENTERVILLE 5

With two outs in the top of the eighth inning, Salado's Marshall Mann hit a triple to the right field fence to score two runs and give the Eagles an edge that they would hold on to tightly for the win in the third game of the Regional Quarterfinal series against the Centerville Tigers after almost five hours of baseball play on May 18.

Cody Proctor saved the game for Salado, as he came in with one out in the seventh inning and the bases loaded, the score knotted at 5-5. Salado used four pitchers in the game: starter Jon Franz, Britton Hawes, Drew Van Winkle and Proctor.

The Eagles appeared to have the game secured in the fifth inning, when they led 5-2 with two outs and empty bases. But Centerville had a two-out rally of monstrous proportions to score three runs and tie the game.

Cade Harris walked with two outs in the fifth and empty bases. He stole second and scored on a double. Franz then issued his second walk of the fifth to put runners at first and second. Britton Hawes took the mound for Salado. With a 1-2 count, Cort Harris bunted to reach first and load the bases for the Tigers. Chance Carigan then got behind in the count at 0-2 before hitting a line drive for a single, scoring Cannon and keeping the bases loaded.

Eagles face talented Elks

Salado will face the 29-8 Elkhart Elks in the Region III Semifinal round May 24-25 with the best-of-three series to be played at Franklin High School baseball field.

Game one will be played at 7 p.m. May 24 at Franklin High School. Game two will be a 2 p.m. May 25 in Franklin. If a third game is necessary, it will begin 30 minutes after game two.

Elkhart is the runner-up in District 19AA. The Elks finished district with a 12-2 record, tied with the Central Heights Blue Devils. Central Heights, the number one seed in District 19AA, is still alive in the playoffs and will face Troy in the Regional Semifinals this weekend.

Elkhart is coached by John Adair, with over 400 wins in his career. He has been head coach for nine years.

The Elks won their district and were a state semifinalist team last year. The Elks were 36-6 and 12-0 last year.

Returning players include seniors Cole Bridges, a State All-Tournament team pick who plays third base, short stop and pitcher and Jordan White, a State All-Tournament Team selection.

Others returning include seniors Hunter Parker, outfield and pitcher and Kevin Kidd, outfield and sophomores Cullen Adams, outfield and catcher, Mason Huffines, third base and pitcher and Jordan Ives, first base and pitcher.

The Elks appear to have heavy bats as well as the Eagles, scoring 10 or more runs in five games this year. Their greatest margin of victory was 20-0 over district opponent Woden in March.

The Elks beat Gladwater Sabine in three games to get to the Region III Semifinal round.

The top two teams in the Texas High School Baseball Coaches poll remain in the playoffs. Hughes Springs continues its romp through Region II at 29-0. Salado is ranked #2 at 30-4.

Eagles get past Centerville

stop Franz allowed Chase to score to knot the game and keep the bases loaded. Ty Tollett swung at the first pitch to him, flying out to right field.

Centerville put Salado out in quick order in the top of the sixth, allowing only two batters to reach first with no hits. The Tigers threatened in the sixth with runners on second and third. A one-out errant throw to first by the third baseman allowed Centerville's Ryan Payne to reach second base. Cade Harris followed with a single to put runners at the corners. Harris stole second before Salado coach Chad Kremplin went to the mound and brought in Drew Van Winkle, the third pitcher of the game for the Eagles. An overpowering Van Winkle was able to force a pop up to the second baseman and a ground-out to the third baseman Mann who threw the ball across the field to beat the batter as the runner at third was heading home.

After retiring Salado in order in the top of the seventh, Centerville had a chance to win the game and upset the heavily-favored Eagles, but Cody Proctor – and a poorly hit bunt attempt – put an end to those notions. Proctor relieved Van Winkle with one out in the bottom of the seventh and runners at the corners. The runners had gotten there thanks to two walks, a sacrifice and the fleet feet of Cort Harris to steal third base.

Proctor pitched two pitches in the seventh. Ty Tullott popped up the first pitch back to Proctor for the second out. Haden Nash popped up his second pitch to Hawes at second for the third out and a second chance for the Eagles, who had committed five uncharacteristic errors during the regular innings.

In the eighth, Marshall Mann took a 2-0 pitch from Garrett Chase (his 68th pitch in relief) and knocked it to the right field fence, scoring Trey Mohler and Franz. Mohler reached on a four-pitch walk and moved to second on an 0-2 single by Franz. Cole Haag grounded out to the first baseman for the second out, advancing the runners to second and third.

Centerville was down but not out (yet) as Cade Harris singled and reached third on a shot by Jordan Cannon, who tried to stretch his single into a double and was put out for the second out. Chase hit to third baseman Mann, who rocketed the ball across the field for the final out at first.

Proctor got the win for Salado, facing six batters, allowing two hits and no runs. Franz pitched 4-2/3 innings, striking out four, allowing four hits and three earned runs. Hawes pitched 2/3-inning in relief, allowing three hits. Van Winkle walked two in relief.

Salado had 11 hits in the game, while Centerville had nine hits. Mann led the Eagles in batting, going 2-of-4 with 2 RBIs on his triple, Franz went 2-of-3 with a single and double.

SALADO	4

Salado Eagles forced a third game against Centerville May 18, shutting out the Tigers 4-0.

The Eagles scored a run in the second and three in the fourth inning to put the game away. Casey Frazier went the distance on the mound for the win for Salado. Frazier struck out six batters and allowed five hits but no runs, as he dug himself out of a bases loaded with one out situation in the fourth by striking out Ty Tollett and pinch hitter Trevor Goolsby.

Frazier also scored two runs for the Eagles. He led off the second with a single, advanced on a bunt by Davis Little and scored on a fielder's choice by Reagan Bazar.

Marshall Mann led off the fourth for Salado with a single, advancing to second on an error by the first baseman and reaching third when Frazier legged out a fielder's choice to put runners at the corners. Frazier stole second and Davis Little bunted down the third base line, where Mann was thrown out trying to reach home. This put runners at the corners and Frazier scored on a bunt by Bryce Martin. An error by the pitcher loaded the bases and an error by the right fielder allowed a run to score. Trey Mohler singled with the bases loaded to score the runner at third.

Centerville pitcher Jordan Cannon was able to get two outs with the bases loaded by forcing a foul out and a ground out.

Salado Ladies Auxiliary and the Salado Area Republican Women presented scholarships to two Salado seniors on May 21. These awards were given separately from the usual presentation that is to be held May 23 for the college bound seniors. The Ladies Auxiliary award is in honor of Wilbur and Jesse Foster in the amount of $500 and the Salado Area Republican Women's award is also for $500. These two awards are for trade-school bound seniors that will be attending trade schools or aiming for an associate degree. The Ladies Auxiliary began this program last year, recognizing the financial need for trade school students as well as college attendees. The Salado Republican Women have also realized the need and are awarding this scholarship for the first time this year. Shown above are (from left) Ellen Staples, President of the Salado Area Republican Women, SHS senior Bridgett Gloria, Judy Fields, chairman of the scholarship committees of the Republican Women and the Ladies Auxiliary, Julia (Jacy) Roberts, and Pat Broecker, president of the Ladies Auxiliary. Roberts said that she will begin her work to become a licensed nurse this fall by taking the basic courses at a community college. Gloria will attend school to become an esthetician.

Frazier pitched the entire game, striking out six of the 28 batters he faced. He allowed five hits and walked two.

CENTERVILLE 4

With two outs in the seventh inning and Salado's Britton Hawes pitching in relief, Centerville rallied for two runs to win the first game of the best-of-three series May 17 at A&M Consolidated High School in College Station.

The Eagles scored the go-ahead run in the top of the seventh after Cole Haag went to first base on a walk. He advanced on a sacrifice bunt by Marshall Mann and moved to third when Basham reached second on a fielding error by Centerville second baseman Haden Nash. Mann scored on a passed ball before the Tigers got out of the inning with two runners in scoring position.

The Tigers answered after Hawes retired Wacey Brown and Haden Nash with just seven pitches. He struck out Brown and forced Nash to ground out to second baseman Caden Eary. Ryan Payne took Hawes' 2-1 pitch and knocked it for a double. Cade Harris fought from behind the pitcher for a full count walk to put runners at first and second. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch and Jordan Cannon knocked a full-count pitch to right field to drive in the winning runs.

Salado had seven hits in the game but left 11 on base. Meanwhile, Centerville had five hits in the game, only one for more than a single.

Davis Little led Salado in batting, going 2-for-4 with an empty base single and an empty base double. Also getting hits were Mann, 1-for-4 with an RBI single and a sacrifice bunt; Trey Mohler, Jon Franz, Casey Frazier and Cole Haag all with singles.

Hawes was issued the loss, coming in to pitch with runners at second and third in the fifth inning. Centerville converted the scoring opportunity into two runs with an RBI groundout by Cade Harris on a 3-0 pitch. Wacey Brown scored on a wild pitch during Harris' at bat and Nash scored on the grounder to Salado's second baseman Eary.

Region championship sparks friendly rivalry with Troy

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

The 2A Region III championship in baseball this week is likely to rekindle a slow-burning, decades' long rivalry between Salado and its northern neighbor Troy. Salado and Troy played the first round of the best-of-three series at 7 p.m. May 29 at University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. The game was after press time. Game two will be played June 1, beginning at 5 p.m. at either Baylor University or UMHB. A third game, if necessary, will follow 30 minutes after game two.

A lot rides on this best-of-three series this week between the second-ranked Salado Eagles and the seventh-ranked Troy Trojans, chiefly a trip to the Round Rock Dell Diamond with a berth in the UIL 2A State Baseball Tournament June 5-6.

Usually, the two schools have a friendly rivalry playing in the same football, basketball and baseball districts, but even when they don't see each other in district play, they play in non-district or tournaments against each other.

The rivalry is not as heated as Salado's rivalries with Jarrell and Rogers but it is prevalent.

Fans may remember how Salado dismantled a highly-ranked Troy team in the 2008 Region semi-final 16-2 under head coach Melvin Bates. That Eagle squad went on to win the State Championship, the first in baseball for Salado.

Troy returns 10 starters from last year's Region semi-finalist team. The Trojans were 31-6-1 last year and 31-1 in district, losing to eventual state champion Jarrell in the Region final.

Two of those players were named to the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association All State team. District MVP Jon Malmin was named to the THSBCA team as a first team pitcher in his junior year. Kyle Whitley was named to the THSBCA All-State first team as a sophomore. He was last year's District Offensive MVP.

Other returning starters include senior All District nods Nathan Schleede, Dalton Lewis, Daniel Wurtser and Justin Saxon and junior All District nominees Haden Matke, Rylan Cox and Payton Standford and junior Matt Ellis.

The Trojans were 12-0 in district this year as champions of District 21AA ahead of Crawford and Clifton. To get to the Region III final, the Trojans swept Trinity in two games after a first round bye, beat Teague in three, and Central Heights in three last week.

The two teams met early in the season in the Rockdale baseball tournament in late February. Salado got the better of Troy in that tournament as the Eagles went on to win the tournament crown. Salado beat Troy 4-2 and out hit the Trojans seven to six. Troy had a 2-0 lead until the fourth inning when Cole Haag got a walk and rode home on a home run by Reagan Bazar. The Eagles added two more runs in the fifth for the win. Britton Hawes pitched for the win against Troy, facing 32 batters in the tournament-shortened five inning game. He struck out four batters.

All eight teams left in the playoffs were ranked in the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association Top 25 in the last week of rankings before playoffs began in May.

Hughes Springs is the top-ranked team in state, followed by Salado at number two, Hallettsville at number six and Troy at number seven. Hughes Springs remains at the top of the list after getting past Grandview in three games. Grandview gave Hughes Spring the only blemish to its season record. Hughes Springs plays Palmer, the ninth-ranked team in state in a best-of-three series at University of Texas-Tyler May 30 and June 1 to determine the Region II Champion. Bangs and Wall, ranked 19th and 20th respectively in the THSBCA poll, face off May 30 in Sweetwater with games two and three (if necessary) at Hardin-Simmons on June 1 for the Region I Championship.

Hallettsville and Marion, number 18 in the coaches poll, will play May 30 at Weimar and June 1 at New Braunfels Canyon High School for the Region IV Championship.

The Region champions will face off June 5-6 in Round Rock at the Dell Diamond for the 2A State Tournament. Semi-final games will be played at 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. June 5, pitting the Region I and II champions against each other and the Region II and IV champions. The winners of the semi-final games will play each other for the state championship at 12 noon June 6.

Salado Village Voice will post results of the series with Troy on the website www.saladovillagevoice.com, as well as updates on the state tournament, if Salado qualifies.

Baseball

second and scored on a single by Mann. Frazier doubled to put runners in scoring position before White was able to force Giniewicz to fly out to left field.

After allowing two runs in the fourth inning, Salado tied in the fifth and took over in the sixth inning.

Frazier threw 105 pitches over the entire seven innings, allowing six hits and striking out eight batters. He allowed no earned runs in the game.

Jordan White allowed seven hits on the mound for Elkhart, striking out eight batters. Jacob Cheatham struck out no batters in relief and gave up three hits.

Frazier went 2-for-4 at the plate, both doubles. Martin went 2-for-3 with a double and single. Mann went 2-for-4 with a double and an RBI. Giniewicz hit an RBI double. Both Haag and Franz hit RBI singles.

Splash Day hosted by Stagecoach Inn

Stagecoach Inn will host the Second Annual Splash Day along the banks of Salado Creek at Main Street. The May 25 event is free to the public and water fun will begin at 11 a.m. with water slides, a paddle boat, kayaks, saturn ball, a 30 foot alligator and the bongo water park.

Free hot-dogs and drinks will be served 11 a.m.- 1 p.m. Several Salado merchants will be exhibiting their wares along the creek.

A free street dance featuring the music of The Heather Roberts Band will kick off at 6 p.m.. Roberts was chosen as the Texas Regional Radio New Female Vocalist Of The Year in 2012.

Roberts has always been involved in music in one way or another. Her dad, Charlie Reynolds, was a musician for the better part of his life. Her very first experience was as an infant sitting in a car seat on the stage while her father's band played in the Stockyards. Later on she sang in the church choir and at church camps.

Through-out middle school and high school she was in the band where she learned to read and play music. After high school, music took a backseat to a family.

Roberts met her future husband Cisco and got married at age 18. They welcomed their first baby girl, Tynleigh, in December of 2004, followed by their second little girl, Natalie, in February 2007. Needless to say, life was busy for their blooming family.

In October 2009, Roberts decided that it was time to start music up again. Cisco quickly made this a reality for her.

By February 2010 he bought Roberts her first guitar, although having a father who played bass and guitar his whole life, Heather had never played one herself. It only took a week for her to learn, play and sing the first song.

This was a major turning point for her. By that summer she was playing at Six Flags over Texas and building her own band.

Roberts has no plans of slowing down or letting anybody stop her from reaching her goals and doing what she loves. Roberts and her band are dedicated to putting on an entertaining show. Bring your dancing shoes and enjoy a fun time under the evening sky.

Established in 1860, the Stagecoach Inn has served countless numbers of travelers and guests during its 152 year long history. Throughout these years, the Inn has sheltered many and the restaurants have fed both locals and travelers alike.

Starting again this February, the Stagecoach Inn Longhorn Room will be the site for the continuing monthly music series to entertain not only the Stagecoach guest but is open to the general public for all to enjoy a wide variety of family entertainment.

Weekend Concert and Lodging Packages and table reservations are also available. For more information call 254-947-5111. The Stagecoach Inn is located at 401 South Stagecoach Road.

Proceeds will benefit the the Children's Advocacy Center of Central Texas. The mission of the Children's Advocacy Center of Central Texas is to provide comprehensive services which protect, promote healing and enhance the quality of life for abused and neglected children in Central Texas through th Children's Advocacy Center and Court Appointed Special Advocates programs. In 2012, the agency served 700 children and their families.

When children are abused and traumatized they are thrown into a legal and social system that, although well intended, is often not fully equipped to deal with these traumatized children. Children's Advocacy Center provides a safe, neutral place for children to come and tell their experiences to a trained forensic interviewer. This interviewer works with agency personnel through a multidisciplinary approach to child abuse. Child victims receive child focused services during investigation and beyond with the assistance of advocacy center staff and team members.

LOVELY HOME ON

Tax Break on Energy Efficient Products May 25-27

During Memorial Day weekend, Texas shoppers get a break from state and local sales and use taxes on purchases of certain energy efficient products. The 2013 ENERGY STAR sales tax holiday begins at 12:01 a.m. (after midnight) on Saturday, May 25, and ends at 11:59 p.m. on Monday, May 27 (Memorial Day).

The products qualifying for the exemption are:
 Air conditioners priced at $6,000 or less
 Refrigerators priced at $2,000 or less Ceiling fans
 Incandescent and fluorescent light bulbs
 Clothes washers*
 Dishwashers
 Dehumidifiers
 Programmable thermostats

* Because most dryers use similar amounts of energy, ENERGY STAR does not label clothes dryers.

 ENERGY STAR specification of programmable thermostats was suspended on December 31, 2009; however, any existing stock of ENERGY STAR labeled programmable thermostats offered for sale by retailers is still eligible for the exemption.

Qualifying products will display the ENERGY STAR logo, which may appear on the appliance, the packaging or the Energy Guide label. ENERGY STAR is a joint program of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy. Earning the ENERGY STAR means a product meets strict energy efficiency guidelines set by these two federal agencies. There is no limit on the number of qualifying items one can purchase during this sales tax holiday, and an exemption certificate is not required.

The tax-free holiday also applies to Internet and catalog sales of eligible products, provided that (1) the item is paid for and delivered to the purchaser during the exemption period; or (2) the purchaser orders and pays for the item and the retailer accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.

The retailer accepts an order when the retailer has taken action to fill the order for immediate shipment. Actions to fill an order include placement of an "in date" stamp on a mail order and issuing a confirmation verifying the date the seller accepted the order. An order is considered "for immediate shipment" even if delivery or shipment may be delayed because of a backlog of orders or because an item is temporarily out of stock or on back order by the seller. Layaway Plans

Layaway plans can be used to take advantage of the sales tax holiday. Layaway sales of eligible products qualify for the exemption when either the final payment on a layaway order is made and the merchandise is given to the customer during the exemption period, or the item is selected by the customer and the order is accepted into layaway by the retailer during the exemption period for immediate delivery upon full payment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.

Delivery Charges

Delivery, shipping, handling or transportation charges connected to the sale of a qualifying item purchased tax free during the sales tax holiday also qualify for the exemption. Such charges are included as part of the sales price of qualifying products sold during the holiday whether separately stated or not. For example, assume a retailer sells an ENERGY STAR-rated dishwasher tax-free during the sales tax holiday and charges the customer an additional fee for delivery. The entire amount billed to the customer for the purchase and delivery of the qualifying appliance is exempt from tax, even if the delivery charge is separately stated or billed after the sale.

Shipping and handling charges must be properly allocated when a package or delivery contains both exempt and taxable items. For example, assume a retailer sells an ENERGY STAR-rated clothes washer tax-free during the sales tax holiday. The same customer also purchases a clothes dryer, which does not qualify for the exemption. The retailer charges the customer an additional fee of $25 per appliance for delivery. The $25 delivery fee connected to the delivery of the qualifying exempt clothes washer is exempt from sales tax, but the $25 delivery fee connected to the delivery of the taxable clothes dryer is subject to tax.

However, if the delivery charge is a flat rate per package or delivery address and the amount charged is the same regardless of how many items are included in the package or delivery, for purposes of the exemption the total charge may be attributed to one of the items in the package rather than proportionately and separately allocated between the items. For example, assume a seller charges a flat fee of $50 per customer address for delivery regardless of the number of items delivered to that ad-

THIS IS A HAMMER
By SAMANTHA MAZZOTTA

Q: In my mom's home, I noticed that a few of the cover plates on the outlets don't sit flush with the wall. Some are angled out so there is a small gap between the plate and the wall, for example. I tried tightening the center screw on the plates, but this didn't help, and one of them cracked when I overtightened it. How can I fix this? -- Sarah in Syracuse, N.Y.

A: It's likely that the receptacles themselves, or their housing, are misaligned. This can be caused by the screws holding the receptacle in place being loose, or the housing (the junction box) not being properly secured. Because the receptacle or junction box doesn't sit straight, the cover plate doesn't sit straight. Hence, the gap between the cover plates and the wall.

Turn off power to the crooked outlets, at the circuit panel. To make sure power is no longer reaching an outlet, plug a radio or a lamp into each of the two outlets of the receptacle. If they stay off, power is most likely off. However, always treat electrical hardware and wiring as if it is live.

Remove the cover plate and take a look at the small screws on either side of the receptacle. If they're loose, tighten them so that the receptacle sits straight within the metal junction box.

Straightening the receptacle should fix the cover-plate alignment problem. However, if it doesn't, check to see if the junction box itself is straight. It may have been installed at a bad angle.

If this is the case, adjusting the box is more complicated. You'll have to remove the receptacle, disconnecting its wires and labeling them so that you are able to reconnect them correctly. Then you'll have to unscrew the junction box from the stud, use a level to find the correct angle, drill a new hole or holes in the stud, then attach the junction box via the new holes, rewire the receptacle and put it back in place. This can be time consuming and frustrating, because you are working in a tiny space. If you've never wired up a receptacle or light switch before, there are several risks involved, from damaging the receptacle to injuring yourself.

In many cases, the first fix -- tightening the receptacle screws -- generally does the trick. However, if the second issue arises, consider the amount of work involved and whether you're confident in doing it. If you're not sure you can do it, consider having a licensed electrician come in to straighten the junction boxes and give the house's entire electrical system a look over for any other issues.

HOME TIP: Use a small appliance, like a radio, lamp or a fan, to test whether power is reaching an outlet, by plugging the appliance into it.

dress. Assume that during the sales tax holiday a customer purchases a qualifying ENERGY STAR-rated refrigerator tax-free, a taxable stove and a taxable microwave and the seller charges the customer the flat fee of $50 for delivery of all three items. Under these facts, the seller may attribute the $50 charge for delivery to the sale of the refrigerator (a qualifying exempt item) and does not have to allocate the delivery charge between the refrigerator, stove and microwave. If the charge is attributed to the refrigerator, then the entire flat fee delivery charge qualifies for the exemption. The sales invoice must clearly identify that the delivery charges were attributed to the exempt item and separately state the tax due on the non-qualifying merchandise.

It is important to note that delivery and/or installation charges billed in connection with the sale of air conditioners and refrigerators may disqualify some of those products from the exemption. During the ENERGY STAR sales tax holiday, only air conditioners with a total price of $6,000 or less and refrigerators priced at $2,000 or less qualify for exemption from sales and use tax. The total sales price includes charges by the seller for delivery, and charges for installation performed by the seller if the items will remain tangible personal property (i.e., not built-in or permanently attached to the structure of the building). See Tax Code Section 151.007. The addition of these charges to the retail price of the appliance will cause the loss of the exemption if the total price exceeds the cap.

For example, the purchase of a refrigerator priced at $1899 plus a delivery charge of $100 will have a total sales price of $1999 and will qualify for the exemption. But, a refrigerator priced at $1999 with a delivery charge of $100 would not qualify for the exemption because the total sales price would be $2099 which exceeds the $2000 cap.

Installation Charges

Charges for installation of qualifying items purchased during the sales tax holiday may qualify for exemption depending on whether the items are permanently attached to or installed in real property and whether the realty is residential or nonresidential.

Items that are free-standing or mobile, such as clothes washers, dehumidifiers, refrigerators, portable dishwashers and window or room air conditioning units are tangible personal property. If an item retains its identity as tangible personal property after installation, then installation charges billed by the seller of the item also qualify for the sales tax holiday exemption - even if the installation is performed after the holiday period is concluded.

Items such as programmable thermostats, central air conditioning units, ceiling fans and built-in refrigerators and dishwashers that are plumbed, wired or otherwise permanently attached to a building structure are improvements to real property. For items that are incorporated into realty, the taxability of the installation labor is determined by the type of jobsite.

Labor charges are not taxable on new construction and residential repair and remodeling jobsites. Therefore, no tax is due on charges for installing items such as ceiling fans, programmable thermostats or central air conditioning units in residential property or during a new construction project. See Comptroller Rule 3.291, "Contractors," for more information.

Nonresidential repair and remodeling is a taxable service. Therefore, tax is due on charges for installing ceiling fans, built-in appliances, programmable thermostats and central air conditioning units in nonresidential real property, regardless of when the installation is performed. Charges for installation performed on existing nonresidential real property should be separately stated on the invoice from the sales price of the qualifying ENERGY STAR-rated item. A lump sum charge for the purchase of an ENERGY STAR item and installation is subject to tax as the purchase of nonresidential repair and remodeling.

Advertising

Sellers may not advertise or in any way promise to pay or not charge sales tax that is due on the sale of taxable items. See Tax Code Section 151.704. Sellers may, however, advertise that tax is included in the sales price of the taxable items that they sell.
