Salado goes to State!

BY TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

In the past decade, the district that includes Salado has dominated the University Interscholastic League (UIL) 2A State Baseball tournament, winning four state championships, including the past three straight with Jarrell (2012), Cameron (2011) and Rogers (2010).

Coach Chad Krempin hopes to continue that tradition and make it four in a row for this central Texas district.

To do so, the Eagles first have to get past Hallettsville, who fell in three games to eventual champs Jarrell in the Regional finals last year. Salado's junior ace Casey Frazier took the mound at the Dell Diamond on June 5 in the semi-final round of the UIL 2A State Baseball Tournament. Hallettsville is the number two seed in the tournament with a record of 33-3. The Brahmas were ranked seventh in the state at the end of district play by the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association. Salado was ranked number two and Hughes Springs was ranked number one in state. Hughes Springs played Bangs, the winner in Region I, and ranked in the Top 20 in state.

The semi-final games were played after this week's Salado Village Voice was printed and delivered to the mail. Salado Village Voice will post updates throughout the two-day tournament to its Facebook page and website. Inning-by-inning updates are posted to the Salado Village Voice Twitter feed: @saladovoice.

The winners of the semi-final games play each at noon on June 6 at the Dell Diamond in Round Rock.

Getting past Hallettsville will be no small task and there was no one Coach Krempin would rather have on the mound for it than junior ace Casey Frazier. "I'm going with Casey," said immediately after the Eagles beat Troy in three games to win the Region III Championship and earn a berth in the state tournament.

Following junior pitcher Casey Frazier's five-inning performance in game three against the Troy Trojans, it is no wonder.

Frazier led Salado to an 11-0 10 run rule victory over Troy by striking out 10 batters and allowing just six Trojans to reach base. Through the first three innings, Frazier completely dominated the Troy batters, striking out nine of them. Zeb Criswell hit a single to right and moved to second on a two-out walk to Jake Shmidt. Runners were stranded when Frazier struck out his ninth batter of the evening looking.

"It feels good," Frazier said of knowing he would pitch in the state tournament. Troy batters had trouble with Frazier's fast ball.

They also had trouble hitting his breaking ball and change ups.

"I have a lot of confidence in my defense," Frazier said. Truth is, the Eagles defense did not see much action as Frazier continued to mow through the competition, throwing 59 strikes and 30 balls.

After giving up a single to Nathan Schleede in the bottom of the fourth and then walking Haden Mattke, Frazier hustled down a botched bunt attempt and caught the ball along the third base line to keep the runners in check. Criswell then connected with what looked like his second single of the evening but Eagles left fielder Davis Little ran under the ball for the final out.

Troy put runners at the corners in the fifth inning on a single by Jake Shmidt and a fielding error at first base. Schleede drove Frazier's fourth pitch deep into centerfield for the final out of the game by Caden Eary's glove.

Troy and Salado were a contrast in teams in this decisive third game.

The Eagles jumped out in the first inning, beginning with a rocket down the third base line by lead-off batter Troy Mohler. A walk to Franz and a single by Cole Haag loaded the bases. Marshall Mann hit, but Mohler was thrown out at home.

Frazier, coming off of throwing 11 pitches and three strikeouts in the first, knocked Zach Epperson's 3-1 pitch for a two-run double. Davis Little walked and Coby Giniewicz singled, knocking in Frazier. Bryce Martin walked to load the bases when Troy made the first of three pitching changes. Payton Stanford walked Caden Eary to push in Little and then he walked Mohler to push in Giniewicz. Troy brought in its third pitcher of the inning, Matt Ellis who proceeded to hit Jon Franz to drive in Martin.

Salado had the bases loaded with seven runs in the pocket and just one out, but Ellis was able to pitch his way out of trouble with a foul out and a strike out.

The Eagles scored three runs in the fourth inning on four singles. Haag led off with a single and stole second. Marshall Mann singled, and an error allowed him to reach second base and Haag to score from second. Davis Little hit a deep single, scoring Mann, reaching second on the throw. With two outs, Little scored on a single by Martin.

Jon Franz led off the seventh with a walk and advanced on a one-out single by Mann, who was 3-for-4 in game three. Frazier laid down a sacrifice bunt to advance the runners before Franz scored on a wild pitch. Mann was left stranded on third.

In Tow benefits Sirena

In Tow, a play written by Jackie Mills, will benefit the effort to raise funds to recast Sirena. It will be performed at Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheatre on Royal St. on June 8-9.

The play stars Tablerock cast members. Attendees are invited to partake of hamburgers and hotdogs at the new Tablerock concession stand. All of the play and concession stand proceeds and the sale of books will be contributed to pay the foundry fee for having Sirena recast.

Sirena, was sculpted by Troy Kelley 27 years ago. Troy placed Sirena in Salado Creek on January 1, 1986 at 12:01 in the morning to ensure Sirena's title as the First Public Sculpture to be donated on the 150th anniversary of Salado's becoming a Village.

The concession stand will open at 6:30 p.m. for purchase of hamburgers and hot dogs, drinks, chips and candy. Tickets for the 7:30 p.m. show are $20 each, or more if you wish, and can be purchased at the Salado Tourism office, Fletcher's Books and Antiques and at First State Bank in Salado.

Tablerock's 2013 Poetry books are dedicated to Mermaid poetry this year and will be sold for $10 each. Sirena of Salado children's books will also be available for sale.

For information call Tablerock, 947-9205 or Salado Tourism, 947-8634.

Wilkins plays for Hoffman

Free concert will help injured Salado woman

Walt Wilkins will perform live in Salado on June 8 in an outdoor concert at Johnny's Outback to raise money for Amanda Hoffman, who was critically injured in a car accident three weeks ago and remains in a coma. Gates open at 6 p.m.

Hoffman graduated from Salado High School in 2008 and recently graduated from Texas A&M University. She was injured on the way to a waterskiing tournament.

While attending school, she worked for Johnny Bratton and Josh Bratton, owners of Johnny's Steaks and Bar-Be-Que. The concert is free, but there will be collection tables set up to accept donations of any amount to benefit Hoffman, who worked for four years as "a Johnny's girl."

"Help us help one of our beloved girls by passing this on to your friends and come out and enjoy a great event for a beautiful girl in need of our assistance," Josh said.

In addition, a medical fund has been established at <http://www.gofundme.com/helpthehoff> to help with medical expenses.

She was enrolled to

Salado is going to the dogs this weekend

The Salado Chamber of Commerce will host the 2nd Annual Dog Daze of June 9 a.m.-noon June 8 in Pace Park along Salado Creek.

The Dog Daze will host an array of animal themed vendors, as well as treats for pups and humans.

Admission to Pace Park for the Dog Daze is free to all animals, humans cost $1.

Returning again this year will be the Military

Dog Demonstration Unit from Ft. Hood, TX. The crowd will be wowed by the strength, agility and command of these military police dogs as they perform their "take-down" techniques for spectators.

To add to the enjoyment of Dog Daze, the Pace Park Pooch Parade returns. For $5, enter your dog in the parade that shows off their best features and vie for your chance to win the coveted Grand Marshal for next year's Pace Park Pooch Parade.

A portion of the Dog Daze of June proceeds will go to the Wounded Warrior Project to help recovering veterans match up with trained service dogs to help them with their daily activities.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

Being Eric Holder

President Barack Obama has been mocked for learning about untoward conduct in his administration from the press. But he's on the ball compared with his attorney general, who wouldn't know about his own poor judgment without reading about it in the papers. Let's hope he has a Google alert set for "Eric Holder."

The website The Daily Beast interviewed the attorney general and Justice Department officials for a piece about how the AG is holding up in the firestorm over two controversial Justice Department leak investigations, one into The Associated Press, the other into Fox News reporter James Rosen.

The Daily Beast piece pinpoints when Eric Holder had a crisis of conscience leading him to question his leak-investigating ways. The Washington Post had made inquiries at the Justice Department about the investigation into Rosen stemming from a 2009 leak, and the department's press office had begun to ready itself for the storm. For Eric Holder, though, "the gravity of the situation didn't fully sink in until Monday morning when he read the Post's front-page story, sitting at his kitchen table."

of 1917, and closed his interrogation with the clear trap: "I'll yield the balance of my time to you." Unable to find any way to wiggle free from this killer line of questioning, Eric Holder said, "With regard to potential prosecution of the press for the disclosure of material, that is not something I've ever been involved in, heard of, or would think would be wise policy." Eric Holder had plumb forgot that Eric Holder might have signed off on such a thing. Timing is everything: If only The Washington Post had published earlier!

What Eric Holder has done is so troubling to everyone, including Eric Holder, that President Obama has ordered a review of Justice Department policy -- to be undertaken by the single most appropriate man for such a task: Eric Holder. An unidentified friend told The Daily Beast, "Look, Eric sees himself fundamentally as a progressive, not some Torquemada out to silence the press."

And why would he want to silence the press? It's how he keeps up with Eric Holder.

Rich Lowry is editor of the National Review. (c) 2013 by King Features Synd., Inc.

Yes, Eric Holder was beginning to wonder whether Eric Holder had made the right call. It may get worse if Eric Holder gets around to reading in the papers that Congress is investigating whether Eric Holder lied to it under oath. It turns out that Eric Holder did indeed make a false representation about Eric Holder.

Congressman Hank Johnson, D-Ga., pointed out to the attorney general that reporters could potentially be prosecuted under the Espionage Act

The new face of poverty in America

Fifty years after poverty in America briefly became a front-burner issue on our nation's political agenda, it's time to move it off the back burner again.

Even as those at the top of our society have grown fabulously richer, those in the economic middle have seen their incomes stagnate and fall, opportunities decline, and poverty become — not about someone else — but about them.

Half a century after Washington declared its war on poverty, our cold reality is bleak. We've got nearly 50 million poor people and 51 million more who are "near poor." Statistics vary, but between one in five and one in four American children now lives in poverty — the most grim reality for kids in any rich country.

And there's no sign that the growth of poverty will reverse.

The face of Ameri-

Jim Hightower

"The suburbs have become the fastest-growing home of American poverty."

can poverty, however, has changed somewhat. In the sixties, the poor had largely been born into it and were out of most people's sight, tucked away in backwater rural counties and isolated urban ghettos. This kind of poverty persists, but today's big jump in numbers comes from families that have been knocked down from a middle-class life. These folks are dismayed to find themselves among the long-term unemployed, grabbing at temporary low-paying jobs, and buying meager groceries with food stamps.

These are the new poor, but they also constitute a new demographic phenomenon: the suburban poor.

Once the secure base of the middle-class, suburbs have become the fastest-growing home of American poverty. Since 2000, the number of suburban poor has surged by 64 percent, twice the rate of urban poverty growth. By 2011, America's suburbs held 16.4 million poor Americans. That's 3 million more poor people than reside in our core cities.

To learn more about this alarming new trend, check out Confronting Suburban Poverty in America, a new book published by Brookings Institution experts Elizabeth Kneebone and Alan Berube.

John and Judi Wilson, of Honolulu, Hawaii and formerly of Salado, celebrate the graduation of their son, Christopher Wilson with a Masters of Business Administration degree with honors from Hawaii Pacific University on May 16, 2013. Wilson graduated in 2006 from Holy Trinity Catholic High School, Temple. The Wilsons are planning to return to Salado.

Alyssa Kristin Powell received a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from the College of Veterinary Medicine, Texas A&M University, along with 130 others on May 9. This is the culmination of the goal she has had since she was four years old. Dr. Powell is going into a mixed animal practice, which encompasses both companion animals, equine and livestock. Dr. Powell has been a resident of Salado since 1999 and graduated from Salado High School in 2005. Her parents are Dick and Marjorie (Powell) Hairston of Salado. Alyssa's family, friends and mentors, to include Drs Jon and Jeanne Kendall, of Salado and Dr. Glenn Holub, of College Station were on hand to share this momentous occasion.

Belton Senior Activity Center hosts Dance, Movie Day

The Belton Senior Activity Center will be having a Country and Western Dance 6:30-9:30 p.m. June 6 with Larry Burgin and Texas Traditions Band. The dance is open to all area seniors. A $4 donation per person is requested. Guests are asked to bring a finger food or snack to share during intermission. Come out and enjoy the fun and fellowship at the Belton Senior Activity Center, 842 S. Mitchell Street, Belton, Texas.

The Belton Senior Activity Center will be having "Movie Day" 12:30 p.m., June 11. The featured movie will be "Trouble with the Curve" released in 2012, starring Clint Eastwood and John Goodman. Slowed by age and failing eyesight, crack baseball scout Gus Lobel takes his grown daughter along as he checks out the final prospect of his career. Along the way, the two renew their bond, and she catches the eye of a young player-turned-scout.

This activity is open to all area seniors and their guests. Popcorn and drinks will be provided free of charge.

Check the website for the dance schedule and other activities at www.BeltonSeniorCenter.org. The Center is located at 842 S. Mitchell Street, in Belton.

jans, while Troy used their Texas-signee Jon Malmin through 5-2/3 innings for a 7-5 win. For a while it looked as if the Trojans would walk their way into a blow out over Salado, as starting pitcher Jon Franz struggled to get batters out, walking five in two innings.

Franz loaded the bases by walking two and hitting a batter before striking out Payton Stanford. He then walked his fourth batter to give Troy a 1-0 lead. Daniel Wurster sacrificed to left to score Lewis and Schleede stole home when Franz tried to pick off the runner at first. Franz threw his second strike out to get out of the inning.

Salado added a run in the second. Coby Giniewicz doubled to left and after two walks loaded the bases, he scored on a ground out by Trey Mohler. Salado left two on base in the second.

The Eagles struggled to convert runners into runs, leaving 12 runners on base in the second game.

Troy scored four runs in the third inning, taking advantage of two more walks and three singles. Zeb Criswell hit a two-run single. He stole second and scored on a two-out single by Ryan Cox.

Trey Mohler singled in the fourth to drive in a run, before Malmin got out of the inning with runners at the corners and one out.

The Eagles scored three runs in the sixth inning. Mohler was hit by a pitch to get to first and Mann doubled to move him to third. Davis Little drove in Mohler and reached on an error by the third baseman. Coby Giniewicz grounded out to the second baseman, driving in Chase Basham, who had reached on a walk and made it to third on an error.

Caden Eary led off the bottom of the seventh with a single and stole two bases with one out before Nathan Schleede pitching in relief retired the final two batters with strike outs for the 7-5 win forcing game three.

Salado 9
Troy 3

Casey Frazier hit a double and a home run over the left field fence to lead the Eagles to a nine-run fourth inning in their 9-3 win over the Troy Trojans in the first of a best-of-three series at University Mary Hardin Baylor tonight.

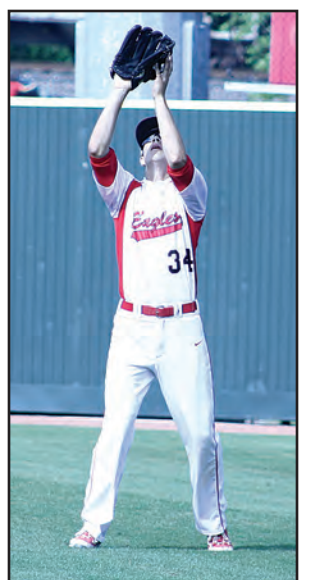

His double put Marshall Mann at third after he reached on a walk by Troy pitcher Nathan Schleede in the top of the fourth. Frazier and Mann scored on a single by Davis Little, his second hit of the night. Little advanced on a ground-out to shortstop by Bryce Martin and Coby Giniewicz was hit by a pitch to put runners at first and second. Everyone came home when Caden Eary drove the ball well over the 365 foot left centerfield fence to give Salado a 5-2 lead after trailing 2-0 since the first.

Rylan Cox came to the mound for Troy and got the second out before walking Jon Franz, who stole second base. Cole Haag grounded to shortstop, but an error by the first baseman allowed Haag to get to second and Franz to score.

Mann singled to deep right field, scoring Haag from second. Frazier dialed up Cox' fast ball and knocked it over the left field fence to score the eighth and ninth runs of the inning.

Cox finished the inning on the mound but Troy threw two more pitchers at the Eagles before the end of the game: Matt Ellis in the fifth and Payton Stanford to close out the game.

Troy scored two of its three runs in the first inning off of Reagan Bazar, who struggled to throw pitches in the strike zone.

He walked Jake Shmidt. Shmidt advanced on a wild pitch when Bazar walked Dalton Lewis in the second at-bat. A passed ball followed by a wild pitch allowed Shmidt to score and Lewis to reach third.

Schleede walked to put runners at the corners and Payton Stanford hit into a fielder's choice scoring Lewis. Haden Mattke walked on six pitches to put runners at first and second before Salado coach Chad Krempin called in Cody Proctor. Proctor walked Daniel Wurster with four straight pitches before Zeb Criswell popped up to second baseman Britton Hawes who threw the runner out trying to get back to second for a double play to get out of the inning.

Hawes moved from second base to pitcher at the start of the second inning and took eight pitches to get out of the frame.

For the game, Hawes threw 101 pitches over five innings, facing 25 batters. He threw 65 strikes and 36 balls, hitting one batter, walking two and allowing three hits. He struck out seven batters and allowed just one unearned run to score in the seventh inning.

In the seventh, Hawes walked Zach Epperson and Kyle Witley followed with a double. A bobbled ball by the centerfielder loaded the bases before Hawes struck out Lewis in three straight pitches. Schleede sacrificed to right field to score the runner at third and advance the other runners. Stanford was hit by Hawes, who was beginning to tire from throwing almost 100 pitches.

Mattke took the third pitch from Hawes and drove a deep fly to left centerfield. Trey Mohler chased the ball down and dove to catch it for the final out of the game.

Transplanting Hope

Salado author's first novel follows characters through twists of fate

Salado resident Jessica D. Lovett has recently published her debut literary fiction novel, Transplanting Hope through Electric Mirage Publishing Co. The paperback is currently available from the author's website at www.jessicadlovett.com and from Amazon.com. It will be available in other fine booksellers in July 2013. The Kindle eBook release is slated for mid-June 2013.

In Lovett's book, an aspiring mystery writer mines his world for greater meaning, and perhaps a soul mate along the way. A kind-hearted chemical engineer casts a cold eye on his disappointing marriage. A stunning journalist conceals her surprising shyness through her well-chosen words. Transplanting Hope, the debut work of fiction by Jessica D. Lovett charts the sometimes hapless, sometimes hopeful lives of divergent individuals whose paths cross in the heat of a corporate cover up, and whose connections help each of them heal past wounds and find inroads to heartening new horizons. With craft and compassion, this absorbing novel will engage readers who seek out subtly wrought character-a richly drawn, suspenseful foray into three lives, and how feelings, failings, hearts, and hopes can be transformed by chance meetings and redemptive twists of fate.

Salado resident and author Jessica D. Lovett.

Transplanting Hope centers on Simon Kincade.

The author, Jessica D. Lovett, is an avid reader, who has long been passionate about writing books for both adults and children. She holds a master's degree in humanities with an emphasis in creative writing from Tiffin University and a bachelor of arts degree in literature from Howard Payne University. Currently, the author, her husband and their two young children, are building a fledgling homestead in Salado, which hosts a gigantic white dog, a growing flock of Easter Egg chickens, and a chicken-herding cat.

Born with a silver spoon, the happy-go-lucky novelist Simon Kincade has had the luxury of dabbling in mysteries with his poison pen, while living in considerable comfort. His best friend from college, Dr. George Morris, faces an altogether different reality each day. His job at the pharmaceutical company Chemi-Life is proving complex, and his marriage to the shopaholic Emily has long since soured. Simultaneously, Times reporter Madeline Bryson learns her job is on the line. Her hunt for a job-saving story entwines all of them in a sinister swirl that exposes far more than any of them had bargained for. As old secrets are unearthed and new allegiances are fused, Transplanting Hope offers

An unusual safety play

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

There are times when declarer must make what appears to be a senseless play in order to give himself the maximum chance for his contract. The play might seem foolish if it later turns out to be unnecessary, but when the play proves to be essential, declarer has something worth talking about.

Take this case where West leads a club against four hearts. South wins with dummy's ace, returns a low trump and, after East plays the eight, finesses the jack! The finesse appears absurd, considering that South possesses 10 trumps headed by the A-K-J. But, oddly enough, it is the right play -- not because the finesse succeeds in the actual deal, but because it assures the contract against any distribution of the opposing cards.

To appreciate the advantage of the finesse, let's assume that declarer makes the more normal play of the ace on the first round of trumps. After West shows out, South must go down one, losing a trick in each suit.

Now let's assume that when South finesses the jack, it loses to the queen. This is not cause for alarm, because the contract is still fully under control. The best the defenders can do in that case is to cash a club and shift to a diamond.

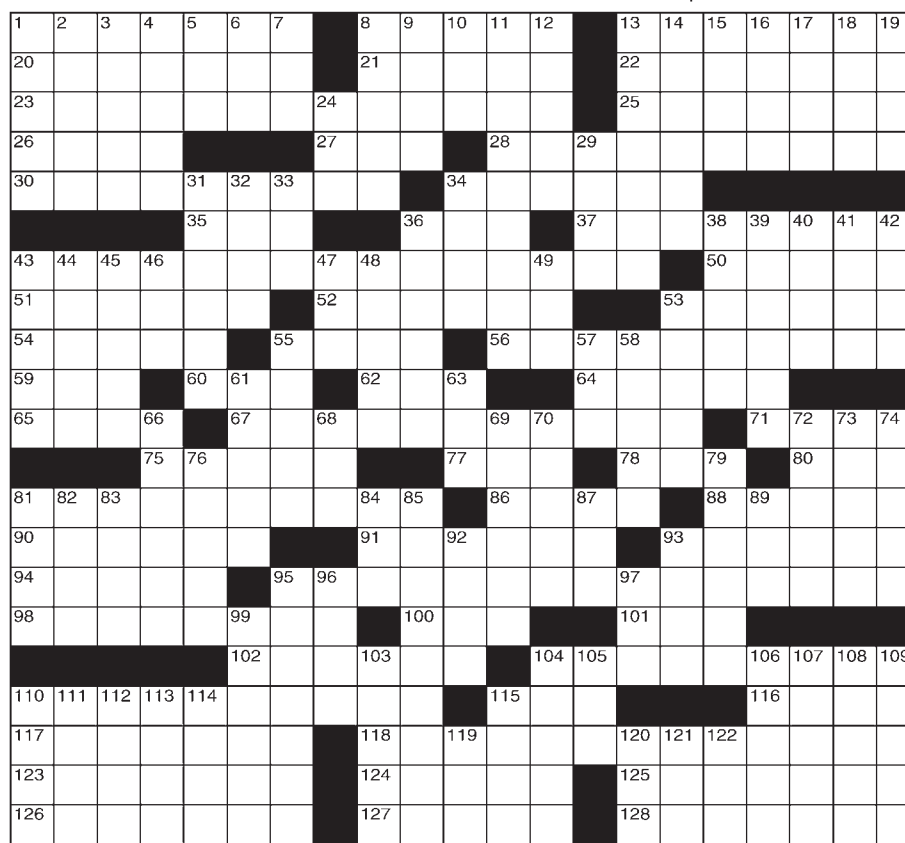

South wins the diamond return, draws the one missing trump and plays the king of spades. West takes his ace, but that's the end of the line for the defense. South later crosses to dummy's nine of trumps and discards his diamond loser on the queen of spades.

In effect, the trump finesse is a safety play to guard against a 3-0 trump division. Quite often it will cost declarer a 30-point

Quick kabobs transport weeknight meals

LEBANESE-STYLE GRASS-FED GROUND BEEF KABOBS

These aromatic grilled kabobs made with ground beef are a wonderful way to enjoy the full flavor of grass-fed beef. Serve with tabbouleh.

- 1 1/4 pound ground grass-fed beef
- 1/4 cup grated white onion
- 3 tablespoons finely chopped parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon fine sea salt
- 1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

1 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil

Prepare a gas or charcoal grill for medium-high heat cooking. In a large bowl, combine beef, onion, parsley, allspice, cinnamon, cayenne, salt and pepper. Using your hands or a large spoon, gently mix the ingredients together until just combined—do not overwork. Have ready 4 long metal skewers; form the beef mixture into 8 short sausage shapes and thread 2 onto each skewer. Brush with oil and grill, turning frequently, until browned and just cooked through, about 5 minutes.

GLUTEN-FREE TABBOULEH

Quinoa takes the place of traditional bulgur in this flavorful salad. It can stand alone as a vegetarian main dish, thanks to quinoa's protein content, or be served as a side dish or sandwich filling.

- 1 cup quinoa, cooked according to package directions
- 1 cup finely chopped flat-leaf parsley
- 5 green onions, finely chopped
- 2 cups small grape tomatoes, halved
- 1 cucumber, peeled and seeded, thinly sliced

- 1 lemons, more to taste, Juice of
- 1/3 cup extra virgin olive oil
- Sea salt, pepper and crushed red pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients together in a large serving bowl. Taste and adjust seasoning with salt, pepper and lemon juice. Serve room temperature or chilled.

NOAH'S GINGER ALE

Make a pitcher of this refreshing ginger drink to add some sparkle to your outdoor parties this summer.

- 2 tablespoons peeled and diced fresh ginger root
- 2 cups water
- 2 cups sugar
- Ice
- Sparkling water
- Cherries

Place ginger, water and sugar in a saucepan. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium and simmer about 10 minutes. Cool and strain. Syrup can be chilled in the refrigerator for a week.

To serve, fill glasses with ice cubes. Add a tablespoon of ginger syrup and top with sparkling water. Stir and top with a cherry. Taste and add more syrup if desired.

Makes about 2 cups syrup (enough for 32 servings)

GRILLED PEACHES WITH DANDELION GREENS AND GINGER DRESSING

This sophisticated grilled salad provides another delicious reason to make the most of cookout season. The creamy ginger and date dressing packs a spicy bite and is excellent when served with grilled meats and vegetables, too.

- 1 (2-inch) piece ginger, peeled and halved through the middle
- 1/2 cup toasted walnuts, chopped, divided
- 1/2 cup unsweetened almondmilk, plus more to taste
- 1 1/2 tablespoon apple cider vinegar
- 1 teaspoon reduced-sodium tamari
- 4 pitted dates, roughly chopped

- 2 peaches, halved and pitted
- 1 bunch dandelion greens, torn into pieces

Preheat a grill to medium heat. Grill ginger, turning occasionally, until softened and charred all over, about 5 minutes; roughly chop. (Leave the grill on.) In a blender, purée ginger, 1/4 cup walnuts, almondmilk, vinegar, tamari and dates until very smooth to make a dressing; add an extra splash of almondmilk for a thinner dressing, if you like. Grill peaches, flipping once, until softened and just charred, 5 to 10 minutes. Arrange greens in a bowl, top with warm peaches and remaining walnuts and drizzle with dressing.

HIP IMPLANT RECALL

EXPERIENCE COUNTS
 Lawyers with more than 100 years combined expertise.

Johnson & Johnson has recalled the DePuy ASR XL Acetabular hip socket implant system due to an unacceptably high failure rate: 1 in 8 patients experience symptoms like infection, bone fracture, dislocation and pain. Other complications include increased metal ion levels in the blood, bone staining, necrosis, swelling, nerve damage, tissue damage and/or muscle damage. If you had hip replacement surgery during or after 2005, please talk to your doctor right away, then contact us toll-free for professional insight into your legal rights.
