I-35 officials lay out plans for next six months

Representatives from Texas Department of Transportation and James Construction will be on hand 6:30 p.m. Oct. 22 at the Salado Intermediate School cafeteria to outline plans for the expansion of I-35 through Salado and its impact on the community over the next few months as the Thomas Arnold Bridge will be taken out and a new overpass built in its place.

The representatives will also speak with local residents and business owners about informing the public when high impact lane closures will be happening so that locals can make alternate travel plans.

Currently, TXDOT maintains an email list of those who have signed up for the notices which are sent out before a major lane closing is put into effect. The most recent major lane closing was done on the north end of town when traffic was routed off of the interstate and onto the access roads so that supports could be put in place for the overpass bridge being built at I-35 and FM 2484. Work has begun on the access roads where they intersect with Thomas Arnold Road to make room for the longer and wider bridge which will be placed at that location. Because of the right-of-way footprint for that intersection, the bridge itself will have to be taken out and a new bridge constructed in its place. TXDOT officials say that the project to replace the Thomas Arnold Bridge is expected to take between three and five months.

While no firm dates have been given on when the bridge will be taken down, local officials have told Salado Village Voice that they do not expect it to be done until after the start of the new year. Others have said that the bridge will be taken down in mid-November.

In other locations of the project, TXDOT has been able to replace the overpass bridge before taking out the current bridge, as it is doing at the intersection of I-35 and FM 2268 (Holland Rd.) and the intersection of I-35 and FM 2484.

The entrance of the Salado Public Library has changed with its recent expansion. Find out other changes during the annual Friends of the Salado Public Library meeting 5 p.m. Oct. 21.

Friends of Library gather Oct. 21 for annual meeting

The annual membership meeting of the Friends of the Salado Public Library will be at 5 p.m., Oct. 21 in the Library Meeting Room. Officers for the coming year will be elected. A By-laws revision will be presented for adoption. The annual meeting is open to all members of the Friends of the Library and members of the community.

The Friends of the Library will discuss the growth of the library in the past year, including the 3,200 sq. ft. expansion that began on Sept. 14, 2012. The Friends of the Library sponsored an Open House on May 19 to celebrate the opening of the new addition. The size of the Library was almost doubled allowing the creation of separate children and teen areas, a high tech meeting room with a computerized presentation screen and a Genealogy section.

The Friends of the Library worked to raise funds for the completion of the project and volunteers helped with everything from landscaping to the moving of all the bookshelves. The Friends also provided table and chairs for the patio, seating for the children's area, custom door mats for both entries, artwork for the meeting room and landscaping plants.

The Friends of the Library developed and placed rack cards at the Visitors Center. Additionally, a half page ad was placed in the Chamber of Commerce brochure to advertise library services such as fax, copies, the Cemetery Directory, History & Genealogy Section, free Wi-Fi, the library website: www.saladolibrary.org, and Book Ends, the used book store operated by the Friends.

Book Ends now sports a new front door and colorful awning to invite visitors to the store. Book Ends is open the same hours as the library and has quite an array of used books priced from 50 cents to $2. Book Ends also accepts donations of used books.

Village sales taxes leap 31%

The October sales tax rebate to the Village of Salado jumped by 31 percent compared to last October's payment as State Comptroller Susan Combs issued a rebate check of $31,051.12 to the Village of Salado. Last year, the Village received $23,746.42 in October.

Despite the increase, which far exceeds the increases of local municipalities, Bell county and the state, the Village of Salado is still down 1.7 percent for the year. In 2013, the Village has received $312,199.07, compared to the $317,647.11 paid through October 2012.

The Village of Salado levies a one-cent local sales tax.

The Salado Library District saw an increase of almost 9 percent in its October sales tax. The Library district received $29,345.85 for October 2013, compared to $26,971.87 last October. For the year, the Library District is running almost 22 percent ahead of 2012.

So far in 2013, the Library District has received $319,992.76. Last year, the Library District received $263,267.29 through October 2012.

The Library District levies a half-cent sales tax in its boundaries which are the same as the Salado Independent School District.

Texas Comptroller Susan Combs announced last week that state sales tax revenue in September was $2.01 billion, up 2.7 percent compared to September 2012.

"State sales tax revenue collections continued to grow at a moderate pace," Combs said. "Growth was led by collections from the construction, telecommunications and retail sectors. State sales tax revenue has now increased for 42 consecutive months."

Combs sent cities, counties, transit systems and special purpose taxing districts their October local sales tax allocations totaling $579.8 million, up 5.2 percent compared to October 2012.

Last chance tickets for Cattlemen's Ball

Last minute tickets are still available for the Oct. 19 Cattlemen's Ball at the Tenroc Ranch Chisholm Event center, but you better hurry.

The annual event raises money for the Salado Education Foundation, which has awarded more than $250,000 in scholarships to graduating Salado seniors. This year, the Salado Education Foundation has awarded more than $20,000 in scholarships and $5,000 in innovative teaching grants.

Every year, artist Bill Smith hand-crafts knives as the centerpieces of the Salado Education Foundation Cattlemen's Ball, but this year he promises something very special.

Last year alone, Smith's three knives raised $7,500 for SEF scholarships.

Smith has made a replica Musso Bowie knife to be auctioned off on Oct. 19 as part of the 14th annual Cattlemen's Ball.

Freddie Fuller will perform for guests as they arrive and sign-in at 6:30 p.m. A steak dinner grilled by Johnny's Steaks and Bar-Be-Que in Salado will begin at 7 p.m., followed by a live and silent auction.

Tickets are available at First Community Title Salado office, Century 21 Bill Bartlett, The Haire Shoppe and the Superintendent's office.

Jennings deserves better

To The Editor:

You made several valued points in your commentary on Oct. 3. However, the attack on John Jennings wasn't one of them.

I first met Mr. Jennings just a month ago following my own public comment regarding Johnny's Outback being too close to the elementary school.

I've since learned that Jennings spent a 23 year career in San Antonio law enforcement. He's a devout family man with integrity, intelligence and a passion to follow the law and do what's right. Like any other citizen in our democracy, Jennings has the right to his freedom of expression/speech and to protect his property rights to every extent permitted by law. Within these constitutional, state and local rights (and laws), he spoke publicly in order to hold elected officials accountable for real or perceived ignorance to ordinances, permits, and zoning rules already on the books.

Now Jennings himself has been vilified and publicly accused of slandering, harassing and lying - though homebuilder Jim Boynton, who spoke immediately prior to Jennings at the 9/19 Aldermen meeting, lodged the exact same public grievance as Jennings, complete with his own supporting documentation.

The bar for slander/defamation of government officials is appropriately high and occurs only if statements were made with "actual malice". This wasn't the case for Jennings or Boynton.

Further, it shouldn't matter whether Jennings has lived here two months or twenty years, or whether he brings two hundred dollars or twenty thousand dollars to the village coffers. Neither he nor his surrounding neighbors' voices should be diminished or dismissed by their spent time here or money contributed to the tax base. Jennings is a citizen with equal rights under the law and he's proudly served his community by putting his life on the line to serve and protect for 23 years.

He deserves better...

To the Editor:

Mr. Fleischer began with an interesting and informative commentary on "What Is Wrong here" (Village Voice - Oct 3rd) referring to Salado. What was surprising was that he decided to attack me personally toward the end of the article leaving the reader with the impression that among other things I'm part of the problem.

Your Voice

Letters to the Editor

Mr. Fleischer was reacting to a presentation I'd given at the Board of Alderman meeting on Sept 19, calling for the resignation of the Mayor Danny McCort. My comments and evidence, including incriminating pictures, were pointed directly to the Mayor and never intended to besmirch the reputations of any business owners, who could have been led to believe it must be legal if the Mayor was supervising their project.

In fact, after my presentation, two Aldermen immediately commended me. The new Village Administrator, who the Board respects, called me directly the following week and we had a productive conversation about the new direction of Salado. In the very next BOA workshop the main topic was taking away the authority of the Mayor to issue and make decisions on building permits. That is currently in the works.

Mr. Fleischer refers to "those who screamed to the roof tops about live music" and compared them to fictional characters in Foot Loose, the imaginary town that forbids dancing. How ridiculous. The truth is when the issue of music and dancing was brought up for conditional use; I spoke publicly in favor of many places that had done it well, including The Range on Main St. I was not in favor of a live concert facility so close to residences.

I am dubious that encouraging more alcohol in Salado, as some have suggested will be the saving of the future. I like the wineries and restaurant use as it was in the past.

Many in Salado have advised me to give it up because the "Good Old Boy" system is well known, and will never change. Some have explained that they respected what I was doing, but unfortunately they did business here and could not publicly support my efforts. Their livelihoods depended on overlooking the misdeeds. We must change that, so business and contractors that previously stayed away will begin to trust that there is a level playing field, where future decisions about building and doing business will not be decided by a connection at the top, the amount of time someone has lived here, or the amount of money they have previously invested. Thankfully the Board of Alderman is working on those issues.

To the Editor:

What makes Salado - it's the people! I have to shout out an incident of generosity I experienced Saturday October 12 that mirrored a recent letter in the editorial section - It's the people that make Salado a great place to live.

Lo and behold I was again in Ace Hardware seeking another small home repair job that I needed assistance on - the roller wheels on the bottom of a 1970's sliding screen door. One of them had broken and the screen door wouldn't slide anymore.

I first sought to figure it out and repair it myself which failed, then proceeded to take it to a great neighbor who bless his heart sees me coming his way every other week with yet another house, auto, equipment - you name it problem I can't figure out in which he has a 99 percent rate of fixing. Well, unfortunately on our screen door task he was unable to repair it.

So I take it to ACE Hardware and two individuals: Richard Dodge and Steve Collins did what folks at ACE do - went out of their way not only to identify the part, have it in stock, but put the new part on the door which was in my car in the parking lot in which was sticking out of the trunk.

But it wasn't just the responsibility of the employees as far as assisting customers - they both said they just enjoy helping people!

Then to my amazement another sign of "It's the People" comes into play - as the two men were fixing the screen door sticking out of the back of my trunk in the parking lot a gentleman in a "pickup pulls up behind us and says - "say can I assist in helping you get that screen door back to "your house?" I say thank you but I can get it back and he says are you sure - all we have to do is "put the door in back of my truck - it would be my pleasure.

Thank you Salado!

Obituary
Warren "Doug" Lincoln
December 3, 1949 – October 15, 2013

Warren "Doug" Lincoln of Salado, TX, passed away on Tuesday, October 15, 2013, having valiantly battled cancer for over six years. He is survived by his loving family, wife Susan of 22 years, their four children, Aaron, Shawn, Ashley, Alex, and two grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Don Lincoln of Lago Vista, TX.

Doug was born in Dallas, TX, December 3, 1949. He is preceded in death by his parents, Roy E. Lincoln and Margaret A. (Robinson) Lincoln, both of Dallas. In 1968, Doug graduated from South Oak Cliff high school in Dallas and enlisted in the Marine Corps immediately afterward. For the last six months of his enlistment, he was a permanent member of the honor guard at Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, CA, conducting funerals for Marines who were killed in Vietnam. Doug considered this a "spiritual" bookmark in his life. He learned a great deal about self-discipline and leadership as a Marine. These experiences were to be used in many other areas of his life. In 1981, Doug started his own computer consulting business. For the next 26 years, he worked as a free-lance software developer. At age 56, he re-enrolled in college and completed his MBA. In 2010, he completed his Project Management Professional (PMP) certification and returned to work at the V. A. Austin Information Technology Center where he and his brother were employed. Doug taught Bible study for eight years, was deacon in his local church, and was involved in the children's and youth ministries. Doug was also a dedicated Boy Scout leader for over 10 years. For two years, he worked as a Christian counselor at the Bell County jail to help inmates develop a relationship with God and get a fresh start on life. During his many trips to the VA Medical Center in Temple, he visited disabled and bedridden vets to provide comfort and to "give something back". Doug is remembered as a devoted Christian, husband, and father who loved his family with all of his heart. He believed the family unit was God's design for mankind's procreation and survival. Doug placed his family above all other earthly things and continually strove to be the best husband and father possible. Doug did not wish for others to mourn his passing, but rather they celebrate the beginning of his new life with the Creator in eternity. Doug had a wonderful life and looks forward to seeing his family another day. A graveside service with military honors will be held at Salado Cemetery in Salado at 10 a.m. on Oct. 18, 2013. Following the service, refreshments and a celebration of Doug's life will be held at First Baptist Church Salado. In lieu of flowers, Doug requested donations be made to First Baptist Church Salado, Youth and Children's Ministries, 210 South Main, Salado, TX 76571. Funeral arrangements are being handled by Broecker Funeral Home.

Art Club is joining SHS Student Council in celebrating Pink Week. The SHS Art Club is raffling a special "Pink Week" fleece blanket to help with the money-raising. The raffle tickets are two for $5 or five for $10. You may purchase your tickets through the high school office, an Art Club member, or myself. The blanket will be on display in the high school office the week of Oct. 14-18.

SHS celebrates Pink Week

This year, the Salado High School Student Council is organizing the Pink Week fundraiser Oct. 15-18.

The council has recruited the different organizations in the school to partner in raising both funds to donate to cancer research and awareness.

All of the profits from the week will be donated to the Scott and White Cancer Institute in Temple in order to benefit the research and patients of the center.

Student Council is sponsoring the sale of breast cancer awareness T-shirts, and has already sold around 200.

Many of the other school organizations are getting involved, such as Art Club's blanket auction, National Honor Society's pink bracelets, Spanish Club's eye black, Chemistry Club's bake sale, the Sophomore Class's pink lemonade sale, FCA's pink ribbons, Literature Club's awareness posters, and FCCLA's cookies.

Additionally, Student Council has set theme days for the week in order to encourage participation and contribution, including the Power of Patterns Day, Prince and Princess Day, Pink Flamingo Day, and Pink Out Day.

The Council Officers hope to match and exceed previous records in donations, and ultimately set precedents for raising awareness in years to come.

Taylor grabs calf during HOT Fair scramble for swine entry next year

Salado FFA member Mason Taylor captured a calf during the Oct. 6 Heart of Texas Fair and Rodeo Calf Scramble in Waco.

Each night of the rodeo, 25 participants attempt to catch one of 12 calves. The calf has to be caught and taken to a designated area during the allotted time period. Those who catch a calf can choose between a heifer, lamb or swine project. Project animals are raised throughout the year and shown at the next year's Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo Livestock Show.

Taylor, the son of Michael and Kristina Taylor is a sophomore at Salado High School who has been showing pigs since he was in the eighth grade. He serves as CenTex District FFA First Vice President and is working toward becoming a State FFA Officer.

Placing fourth in the heavyweight Hampshire division of the Heart O' Texas Fair with this year's hog entry, Taylor plans on purchasing a gilt for next years competition. His long term goals are to own a small breeding program for show pigs.

Currently Taylor is preparing several other

Eagles win battles in the trenches to secure homecoming victory gated due to a holding call.

However, Coach Graham and the Eagles overcame these difficulties and kept the offense rolling. Pivotal plays such as the 52 yard reception by senior receiver Caden Eary halfway through the 3rd quarter and the 30 yard reception by Davis Little three minutes into the 4th quarter sparked the Salado offense in the second half.

As the Eagles' offense cut through the Florence defense, the Salado defensive line really stole the show. Anchored by Peyton Womack, James Robison, James Collins and Jace Robison, the defensive line found themselves in the Florence backfield numerous times throughout the night. Accounting for 21 tackles, these four defensive linemen were able to disrupt the Florence offense throughout the game. This defensive performance was capped off with a fumble by Florence running back Lendell Freeman halfway through the fourth quarter, which led to another Salado touchdown.

"The offensive line has got to come off the ball, Florence head coach Paul Smith said. "If they do that, we will be successful and if not, then we won't. They [Salado's defensive line] won the line of scrimmage quite a bit."

Coach Graham was pleased about their performance, "Our defense gave our offense an opportunity. They re-established the line of scrimmage and they did a great job getting tackles for a loss. And Nothing is quite as dangerous as a football team seeking its first win, especially in front of a homecoming crowd. This became apparent as the winless Eagles hosted 1-4 Buffaloes Oct. 11.

Regardless of the numerous penalties against the Eagles or the Buffalo offense cutting Salado's lead in the second half; The Eagles still maintained their focus and defeated Florence, 34-12.

The Eagles scored early, and they scored often. Junior quarterback McLane Carter (19 completions for 346 yards and 2 touchdowns) was able to keep the Florence defense off balance, but what was unexpected was the smash-mouth nature of the Eagles' running game, spearheaded by senior Ryan Simmons. Simmons who had a breakout game with 17 carries for 128 yards and 3 touchdowns (an average of 7.5 yards per carry).

Whenever the Florence defense was able to guard Carter's favorite target, senior receiver Kase Spears (7 receptions for 114 yards and 1 touchdown), Simmons would power through the middle of Florence's defense and keep offensive possessions alive. Salado head coach, Brent Graham, stated, "Ryan's a warrior. You can tell he is a student of the game, and it helps us tremendously," said Eagle head coach Brent Graham. "It almost feels like you're playing with twelve people on the field because of his leadership capability." Simmons scored his first touchdown of the night on an 8 yard run halfway through the 1st quarter, and it he never let up on the throttle.

Despite their offensive performance, Salado kept finding a way to shoot themselves in the foot by committing costly penalties, six in the first half alone for 70 yards. This not only cost the Eagles yardage but scoring opportunities, as a 28 yard touchdown pass from Carter to Senior receiver Davis Little would be ne-

Lady Eagles sweep Lady Buffs in 3; attack at the net too much for Florence

By: MASON SIMMONS

The Lady Eagle front row dominated the net, plain and simple. After being defeated in a five game nail-biter in Florence, the Lady Eagles played like a team possessed as they hosted the Lady Buffaloes Oct. 11. The Lady Eagles swept Florence in three sets; 25-10, 25-13, 25-18 to improve to 10-14 on the year and 5-4 in District 22AA play. With the win, the girls remain in the playoff picture in third place.

The difference between these two matches was like night and day, as the Salado Eagles improved in almost every statistical category. The Lady Eagles had a better hit percentage, assist average, ace percentage, fewer errors, and most importantly a win.

Dominant play at the net and an overall offensive progression led to a commanding performance by the Lady Eagles.

The Lady Eagles had 33 kills in the match, led by junior Taylor Atwood and sophomore Cheyenne Vaca led with 9 kills each. Salado had a .302 hitting percentage and 15 errors for the match. This was a significant improvement since the last time these two teams faced each other, as Salado had a .262 hitting average and 24 errors. Senior Shyenne Hicks also made a considerable contribution with 6 kills.

The Lady Eagles' hitting led to numerous Florence errors, which was the cornerstone to Salado's victory. The Lady Buffaloes' inability to stop the Salado attack was the most prominent reason Salado was able to sweep Florence.

The Lady Eagles offense took full advantage of a Florence team on a five-game losing streak, and were able to place the ball anywhere on the court almost at will.

The Lady Eagles' serving for the match was quite notable as well, as the team totaled for 5 aces and a 91.5 serving percentage. Senior Shyenne Hicks led with 3 on the match, while senior Jaylee Sebek and junior Tori Laughland each had one. Again, this was an improvement since Salado's loss in Florence, as the serving percentage improved from 84.8.

Sophomore setter, Meagan Hill accounted for 30 assists on the night (averaging 10 assists per set), which contributed to the Salado offense considerably.

LADIES FALL TO ACADEMY LADY BEES IN 3 SETS

After two tightly-contested sets, the Academy Lady Bees easily handled Salado Lady Eagles in the third set, 25-12 to sweep the girls in the District 22AA match Oct. 8. Academy won the match 25-22, 25-21, 25-12.

In the first district match of the season, Salado swept Academy at home Sept. 13 25-20, 25-18, 25-19.

But Academy found an answer when the Lady Bees hosted Salado Oct. 8.

Salado averaged 26 percent in net attacks with only 19 kills in the three sets. Sebek and Atwood had more than half of the kills with 5 each. Hicks followed with 4 kills and Vaca had 3 in the match. Meagan Hill and Mallory Schattle each had 1 kill.

The girls could not string together points from the service line as Salado had no aces and Laughland led the serving effort with just 5 service points in the three sets.

The Salado defense managed just two blocks, one each from Sebek and Vaca. Hicks had 7 digs, followed by Laughland, 6 digs, Vaca, 5 digs, Hill 3 digs and Victoria Valeriano, 1 dig.

Hill had 16 assists in the three sets. Laughland had 18 receptions and Hicks had 14 in the match.

UNDER-VARSITY GIRLS

Salado Junior varsity Lady Eagles swept Academy on the road 25-21, 25-19 Oct. 8 and Florence at home 25-9, 25-13 on Oct. 11 to improve to 8-1.

Katy Croftcheck, defense specialist, Amy Coleman, defense specialist and Shaula Palow, hitter led the team against Academy.

Setter Carmella Perez, middle hitter Averi Fischer and defense specialist Croftcheck led the team against Florence.

Salado Lady Eagles ninth grades swept Academy 25-21 and 25-18.

SALADO JUNIOR HIGH

Salado junior high teams took three of four matches at home against Lexington on October 14.

Seventh B beat Lexington 25-16, 25-17. Players of the game were Roxi Thrasher, Abigail Molyneux.

Eighth B lost to Lexington 12-25, 20-25. Players of the game were Logan Roach, Camrie Rhodes.

Seventh A beat Lexington 23-25, 25-11, 25-14. Players of the game were Haley Giesecke, Amanda Stephenson

Eighth A beat Lexington 25-19, 25-17. Players of the game were Macy Thrasher, Kayla Manning.

Runners Ready for district; Teams place in River Run

Salado Cross Country teams will run in the District Meet Oct. 21 at Cameron Yoe, after teams placed in the Oct. 12 River Run Invitation in Georgetown.

Salado Lady Eagles placed second in the Georgetown River Run behind Liberty Hill in the A-AAA division. Liberty Hill had all five runners place in the top 10 finishers.

Salado had 86 points as a team.

Freshman runner Katey Kendall led the Salado team in 11th place with a time of 13:36.7, immediately followed by 13:37.5.

Senior Ashley Adams placed 16th overall with a time of 13:41.9.

Also scoring for the Salado team were Arianna Rangel, 19th, 14:01.9 and Cassidy Brown, 29th place, 14:33.6.

Annie Ewton and China Saxton also ran for the girls.

The JV girls placed 11th in the River Run Invitational in a field of 20 teams. Running for Salado JV were these: Ellie Phelps, 15:37.1, Daniella Gantenbein, 16:00.7; Jessica Ringstaff, 16:40.8; Madelyn Murray, 16:50.1; China Saxton, 17:10.5; Julie Craig, 17:28.1, Annisa Peralta, 18:28.3;

Boys place third

Salado boys varsity

Mark calendars for Garden Guild Fashion Show

The arrival of fall welcomes the season for the Salado United Methodist Church Garden Guild's 18th Annual Style Show and Luncheon to be held 12:30 p.m. Nov. 2 at the church, 650 Royal Street.

This year's theme is "Angels Among Us." Tickets are $25 each; you may obtain tickets and information by calling 947-5434. Everyone attending will be eligible for the $100 cash door prize donated by the Garden Guild, no purchase necessary.

Local boutiques, Christy's, Magnolia's of Salado and Sofi's will be presenting fall and holiday fashions and accessories, the ensembles being modeled by ladies from Salado United Methodist Church. Table decorations will be by Garden Guild members. They also prepare the lunch which will include their traditional chicken salad, a variety of other salads and topped off with Mary Hodge's special chocolate cake and their signature lemon curd served with pound cake.

First State Bank Central Texas and Paul Williams/Holland Scrap Metal and Recycling are underwriting the event this year.

The financial support provided by these two institutions enables the Guild to contribute to local community projects.

In addition to their annual donation to the Salado Volunteer Fire Department, this year the Garden Guild will also use profits from the event for a contribution to the community-wide Thanksgiving Basket project and to bring a generous Christmas to two families, including six children, who are recent "graduates" of the Bell County Family Promise Program. Salado UMC is one of 12 churches in Bell County that provide on-site housing and food for homeless families who are being assisted with job training, job search, day care, transportation, financial planning and ultimately permanent housing placement through the Family Promise Program.

The theme for this year's Fashion Show is "Angels Among Us."

The case of the missing damsel

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

If you and your partner agree that certain bids show certain types of hands, you will naturally understand each other better in a great many situations.

But it's also true that your opponents, who are entitled to know as much about your methods as you do, can occasionally put this knowledge to deadly use against you.

Consider today's case where declarer profited greatly from information acquired during both the bidding and play. East, playing 13 to 15-point opening notrumps, bid one notrump, after which North-South quickly got to four hearts.

West led a spade, and East's ten forced the ace. Declarer returned the queen of trumps, taken by East with the ace. East then played the king of clubs, queen of spades and ace of clubs in that order. South ruffed, cashed the jack of trumps, ruffed a spade in dummy and was then faced with the critical problem of which way to take the two-way diamond finesse.

You might think that declarer would assume that East, who had opened one notrump, must have the diamond queen and would finesse accordingly. But South did not fall into this trap.

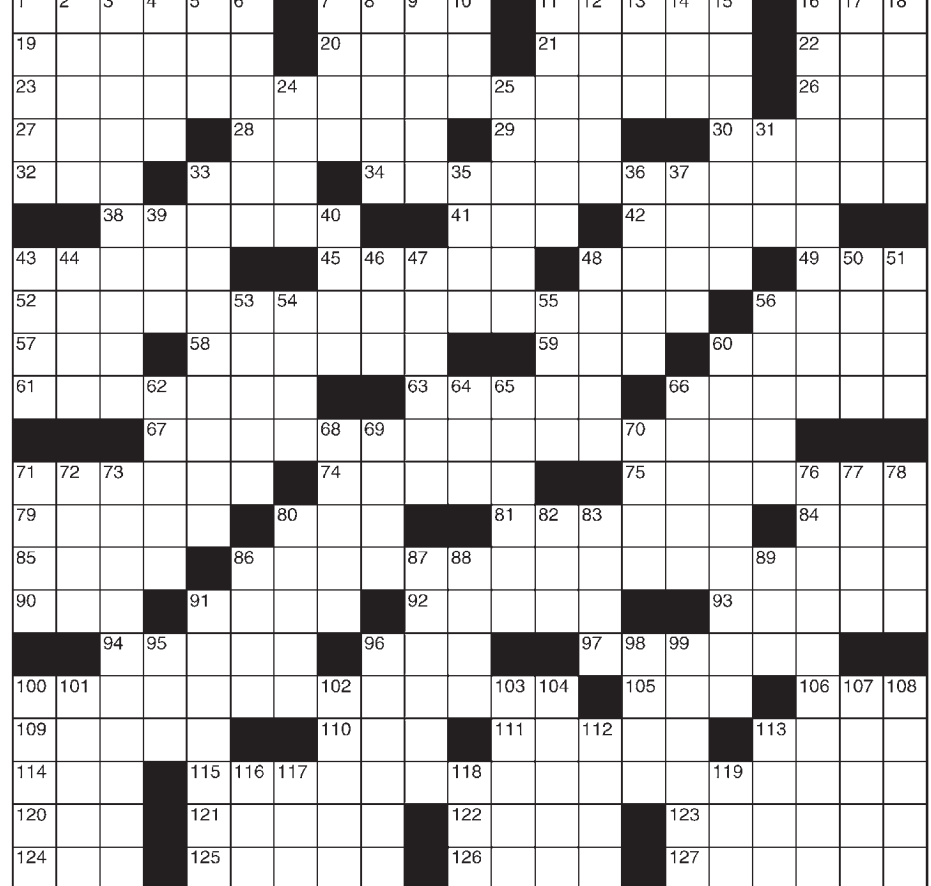

East had already shown up with the Q-J-10 of spades, ace of hearts and A-K of clubs -- a total of 14 points. Declarer was thus able to deduce that East could not have the queen of diamonds for his 13 to 15-point notrump opening.

South therefore took the diamond finesse through West, and as a result made four hearts. East had unintentionally let the cat out of the bag by innocently opening with one notrump.
