

Texas GOP fights off Democratic blue wave

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Despite predictions of a blue wave nationwide, Precinct 203 (Salado) remained devoutly Republican in the 2018 midterm elections, voting for GOP candidates by a four to one margin.

The biggest surprise of the election was a race that most people in Bell County thought Republican Brad Buckley had in the bag.

Buckley will be elected to the State House District 54, but it will be due to voters in Lampasas County, not his home county of Bell.

With all Bell County precincts reporting, Richerson led Buckley by a narrow margin, 20,805 votes to 19,911 for Buckley.

District 54 includes part of Bell County and all of Lampasas County.

Buckley carried Lampasas County with 80.87 percent, tallying 6,013 votes compared to Richerson's 1,417 votes.

This was enough to give him a narrow win. Buckley tallied 54 percent with 25,924 votes while Richerson had 21,779.

Several of the precincts in western Bell County went heavy toward Richerson, including precincts 210, 404, 405 and 408.

Salado's Precinct 203 voted overwhelmingly for Buckley, who moved here from Killeen, giving him 82.74 percent of the vote, 3,702 to Richerson's 772.

Salado also voted heavily for Rep. John Carter, with 3,501 votes to MJ Hegar's 932 votes.

If Carter is returned to office, he can thank Salado and Bell County specifically. Bell County remained a deep red county with Carter taking 56.83 percent of the vote, 44,912 votes to Hegar's 33,047.

Interestingly, a big chunk of Killeen was carved out of Bell County and put in District 25. That precinct overwhelmingly voted Democrat this time, with unknown Julie Oliver getting 4,787 votes to Republican incumbent Roger Williams 1,794. Had that part of the county been in District 31, the outcome might have been different.

Republican Senator Ted Cruz won re-election.

U.S. Representative John Carter may stave off a furious challenge by MJ Hegar.

Brad Buckley won Texas House District 54 thanks to Lampasas County.

As of presstime, the U.S. House seat was still too close to call as Carter had a narrow edge of 131,958 to 123,509 for Hegar with 26 polling places remaining in Williamson County to report their numbers.

Williamson County, once a deep red county, is apparently turning blue this time around, with Beto O'Rourke and MJ Hegar both outpacing Republican incumbents Ted Cruz and John Carter.

In 2016, Rep. Carter won re-election by more than 20 points over Mike Clark and by more than 32 percent over Louie Minor in 2014.

Ted Cruz was successfully re-elected to the U.S. Senate, outlasting Beto O'Rourke by a narrow margin.

In 2012, Cruz was elected to his first term as the U.S. Senator from Texas by a large margin, winning 56.46 percent of the vote with 4.44 million votes compared to Paul Sadler's 3.19 million votes.

While the U.S. House may have turned Democratic in 2018, Texas remains Republican, Bell County remains heavily Republican and Salado remains deeply Republican.

Highland Games is oldest Scottish Festival in Texas

Heralding all things Scottish, the 57th Annual Scottish Gathering and Highland Games is the oldest Scottish festival in Texas and has been sponsored continuously by the Salado Museum.

This year, Salado celebrates the 57th Scottish Gathering and Highland Games (www.saladoscottishfestival.com) on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center, Nov. 9-11.

The three-day event includes the skirl of bagpipes, wearing of the tartan, tossing the caber, Highland dancing, Celtic musicians, shopping, food and more. One of the event's main features is the Clan Village, the largest gathering of Scottish Clans in Texas where members from 40 Scottish clans and societies will share information about Scottish history and genealogy.

On the evening of Nov.

9, a solemn torchlight ceremony is held on the banks of Salado Creek that recreates the coming together of the ancient Scottish clans to fight with Robert the Bruce for Scotland's freedom in 1314 at Bannockburn. The Calling of the Clans ceremony is free to the public and starts at 6 p.m. Nov. 9. The Calling of the Clans ceremony is free to the public and starts at 6 p.m. Nov. 9. The Calling of the Clans ceremony is free to the public and starts at 6 p.m. Nov. 9. The Calling of the Clans ceremony is free to the public and starts at 6 p.m. Nov. 9.

The Gathering begins at 9 a.m. Nov. 10 on the Salado Civic Center grounds. Scottish athletics competition (including Tossing the Caber), Highland Dancing competition, bagpiping and drumming competitions, Bonniest Knees Contest, Scottish shortbread baking contest, live Celtic music, a Celtic marketplace, local and Scottish food vendors and more.

The official opening ceremonies begin at noon with the Bands and Clans Parade on Main Street followed by presentations and massed bagpipe bands on the Civic Center grounds. The parade will start at North Pace Park Road and move north on Main Street to the Civic Center grounds.

Events begin at 9 a.m. Nov. 11 with the Kirkin' o' the Tartan, a traditional devotional service in which family groups carry banners of their family tartans and ask blessings on the families. Sunday activities include bagpipe band competition, Scottish athletics, Clan tents, pet parade and contest, children's games, live Celtic music, food, and shopping.

Family Relief Fund makes Christmas better for 150+

For more than two decades, Salado Family Relief Fund has made the Christmas holidays better each year for 50 local families, distributing gifts to 150 local children.

The Salado Family Relief Fund tries to make it better for more than 50 Salado families each year by providing Christmas presents to their children. Salado Family Relief will again be managing the Christmas Project, whereby qualified families will be presented with toys and gifts for Christmas.

"We cannot do this without the generosity of our community," said Renee Oas, president of the Salado Family Relief Fund.

Civic groups, church groups and school groups are encouraged to adopt a family or a child during the Christmas drive. If you would like to "adopt" a child or family for Christmas, email Oas at oasrenee@gmail.com or call her at 947-9471 for details. Contributions can be mailed to: Salado Family Relief Fund, P.O. Box 461, Salado, TX 76571.

The SFRF protects the identity of the children receiving the gifts. No groups or individuals will know the names of the children they have agreed to adopt.

The Christmas drive, and other efforts of the Salado Family Relief Fund, benefits from the annual Salado Empty Bowl Project, which will be 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Nov. 10 at the Salado Intermediate School cafeteria.

For just $25, you can purchase a handmade bowl by area potters, fill it with soup provided by area restaurants and help support the Salado Family Relief Fund. You can have all-you-can-eat soup for just $10 per person.

Soup will be provided by local restaurants and bed and breakfast inns: Ambrosia Tea Room, Baines House, The Barton House, Cathy's Boardwalk Café, The Inn at Salado Bed & Breakfast, Inn on the Creek, Lively Coffee House & Bistro, McCain's Bakery & Cafe, The Pizza Place, Ramble Restaurant & Farmhouse Grill, The Shed, Stagecoach Inn, Stonecreek Settlement Bed & Breakfast and Sylvia's Tacos.

Local potter Titia Califano, of Mud Pies Pottery, works with potters from around the state to provide the handmade pottery bowls for the event.

The Empty Bowl Project comes at a great time for the Salado Family Relief Fund, according to Oas. It helps replenish funds used for the annual back-to-school drive to provide school clothes and supplies to 150 Salado ISD students.

None of these projects would be possible without the support of local churches, civic groups, school groups and individuals who give of their time and money each year.

The annual Christmas drive began in the mid 90s.

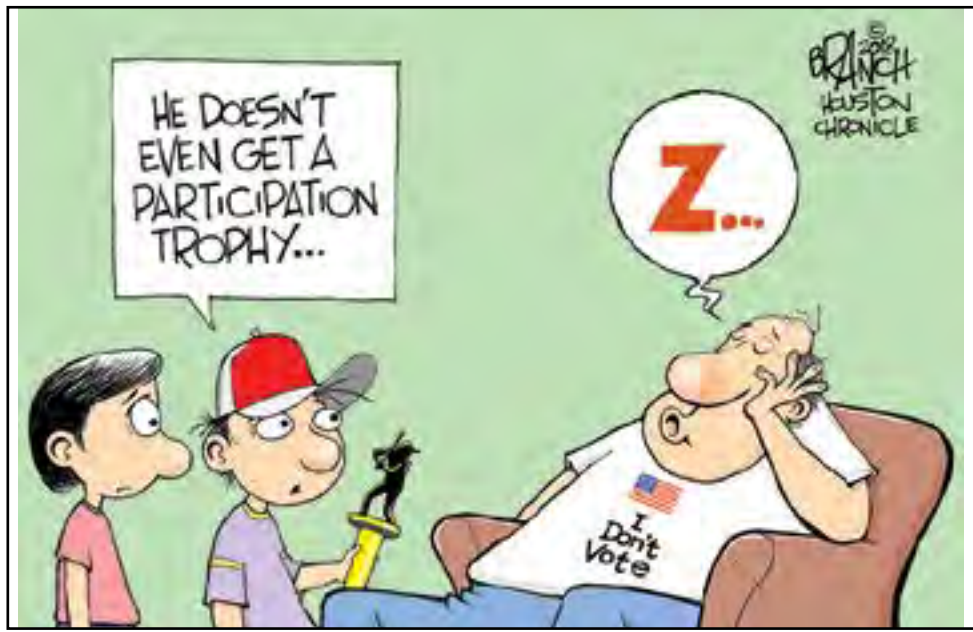

"I heard of a couple of school teachers and volunteers who were gathering things for kids in the schools. Dana Britt and the late Mary Ribeiro were doing this on their own for a long time without much help," founding president Marilyn Fleischer said of the beginnings of the Family Relief Fund.

The first year that the Fund began to take shape, collections of used toys and clothes were gathered at the fire station. "It was discouraging sifting for hours through used toys that were broken or should have been thrown away," Fleischer said.

The Fund continued its work at Christmas, but changed gears when the tornado ripped through Jarrell, causing such devastation to that small community. "We solicited and took donations for relief efforts in Jarrell, which was when we changed the name of the group to Salado Family Relief Fund," Fleischer said. "We collected more than $12,000 for those victims."

At that point, Fleischer said she realized it was time to organize the group formally. "We invited all of the churches and civic groups in Salado to join us in forming this organization," she said.

Since forming in 1996, the Fund has helped families in the area in a variety of ways, including temporary assistance for medicines, rent, clothing, food and other necessities.

Oil prices drop 7 percent could indicate slower future gas demand

The Markets

Our dear old Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (SPX) turned in a very respectable 2.42 percent rise for the week ending 11/02 to close at 2723.06. The recovery in this correction started on Oct. 30 as the forward price to earnings (P/E) ratio dropped below 15 and at least some investors realized that stocks had gone from fairly priced to cheap. An interesting and quite sensible shift occurred at the same time as investors began to favor value stocks over the more exciting, but more volatile, growth stocks. That kind of shift historically does not mark the end of a bull market but rather that it has reached a degree of maturity that bodes well for the next six months to a year. The Index returned to positive territory, up 1.85 percent year-to-date, and has risen 5.23 percent since this time last year.

As we have written before, individual stock valuations have historically tended to be driven by either anticipated future growth in earnings (growth stocks) or the underlying value of a company's assets (value stocks). Over the long-term, value has done better than growth, but particularly in the late stages of a bull market, growth stocks tend to run off and leave reality behind. We may not see record levels in the SPX again any time soon, but the underlying market looks healthier to us than it did before the correction began.

Despite the looming imposition of an oil embargo on Iran scheduled to take effect on Nov. 4, U.S. oil prices dropped nearly 7 percent to close at $62.91, suggesting the markets see slower demand growth ahead. It remains up over 17 percent from last November, so oil is not cheap. The 10-yr. U.S. Treasury note was virtually unchanged at 3.217 percent, up 8/10 of a percent

Market & Economic Update

By Jeffrey W. McClure

so far this year. Gold, too, was largely unchanged at $1,233.30, still down over 7 percent for the year. Like Treasuries, gold, and oil, the dollar barely rose against world currencies but was up about 6 percent for the year against the Chinese Yuan, continuing to largely offset the 10 percent U.S. tariff on many Chinese goods.

The Economy

The Bureau of Labor Statistics announced that U.S. employers added about 250,000 jobs and the unemployment rate remained at 3.7 percent while wage growth rose 3.1 percent from this time last year. Moody's is predicting unemployment to fall to about 3.2 percent in 2019 before reversing. The indicators suggested too that wage growth was accelerating as recent gains equated to 3.4 percent on an annualized basis. The accelerating wage growth is consistent with the observation that, on average, the U.S. produces about 100,000 new workers each month while creating well over twice that number of new jobs. Since hiring is running ahead of new worker creation, higher wages are needed to bring older workers back into the market. Among people ages 25 to 54, when decisions about school or retirement are less likely to influence whether people are in the workforce, 82.3 percent are participating and 79.7 percent have jobs. Using that as the basis for comparison, the maximum level of employment we have seen since measurement began was 81.7 percent in the year 2000. The next high spot was an even 80 percent in 2007, suggesting we don't have a lot more reserve in the labor pool and wages may be headed up.

In another bit of good news, worker productivity rose at an annualized rate of about 2.2 percent in the last couple of months, suggesting that many newly hired workers are becoming more productive. Year over year productivity is only up about 1.3 percent, a low number that, with the wage increases, could create higher inflation.

Those are the numbers that make it likely that the Federal Reserve is likely to continue to raise rates at a quarter percent per quarter at least through mid-2019. They are also the most visible evidence that economic growth will likely begin to slow in 2019 and there is a danger of recession by 2020. More employed persons and higher wages drive greater consumption which, with a lag, drives higher production. Eventually, the consumption growth tops out but production continues, leading to excesses that force layoffs. The layoffs further depress consumption and so on. Thus, is the classic supply/demand economic cycle perpetuated. Historically, goosing the economy with a tax cut when it is already in a boom tends to make the next recession come sooner and be worse when it arrives. The current tax and spending bills passed for this year are challenging that historic record. The great macro-economic fiscal experiment continues. Only time will tell if it is indeed "different this time."

America's loser problem

Rich Lowry

It's not any less awful for being so familiar.

The last three high-profile attacks that have convulsed the nation, two in recent weeks, have been carried out by fringe loners who fit the stereotype of the perpetrators of such crimes precisely -- they didn't fit in, they were "off," they kept to themselves.

The word that comes up again and again in accounts of their lives is "alone," always alone.

The life of Cesar Sayoc, who mailed crude pipe bombs to Democrats ranging from George Soros to Hillary Clinton to Robert De Niro, was a pitiable wreck. His father abandoned his family as a child, and after dropping out of college, Sayoc lived with his grandmother. Then he went from place to place, performing as a male stripper. He compiled a record of petty crime, lost his home, declared bankruptcy. He was estranged from his family and resisted its pleas for him to get help. Sayoc lived out of his van, bizarrely festooned with pro-Trump stickers.

Not much is known about Robert Bowers, the Pittsburgh synagogue shooter, besides his vile social media postings. A childhood friend called him "pretty much a ghost." He may have dropped out of high school.

As an adult, he lived alone in an apartment, and no one ever came to see him. One neighbor said she couldn't remember Bowers ever talking to anyone."

The Parkland school shooter, Nikolas Cruz, was left with no parents after the death of his adoptive mother. He was expelled from Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, where he was an outcast. He was reportedly depressed and had other behavioral problems. Police were called constantly to his home. A defense attorney called him "a broken child."

None of this, of course, is to excuse in the slightest the heinous crimes of these men, or to deny the existence of pure, unadulterated evil. Murderous haters and kooks have been with us forever, as has anti-Semitism. Yet the social pattern is clear.

The phrase "deaths of despair" has entered the nation's vocabulary to denote the rise of mortality among a subset of working-class whites from suicide, drugs and alcohol. Its declining longer life expectancy is one of the most stunning trends in American life. The at-risk population tends to be unmarried, disconnected from civil society, marginally employed and largely on their own.

One way to look at recent mass killings (or attempted killings) is as the handiwork of a very small, violent fringe of the socially disconnected. Their destructiveness is directed outward, in cowardly acts of mindless malice, rather than inward. They marinate in hate and proudly share their lunatic obsessions online, in a twisted simulacrum of community. They seek their identity in political extremism, Jew-hatred or the hellish idolatry of school shootings.

Their crimes are, in their diseased view, feats of grandeur. They give them a chance at perverse consequence and notoriety otherwise not available to them in their marginal lives and social isolation.

It's evil and pathetic, infuriating and sad, and, by the looks of it, a persistent feature of 21st-century American life. What Emile Durkheim called anomie has been weaponized, and it's horrifying to behold.

Salado Families Make Global Impact Through Operation Christmas Child

SALADO, TX., Nov. 12, 2018 — This week, nearly 5,000 U.S. drop-off locations across the nation open to collect shoebox gifts for children overseas during Operation Christmas Child's National Collection Week, Nov. 12-19.

Local families, churches and groups are busy transforming empty shoeboxes into fun gifts filled with toys, school supplies and hygiene items. The Samaritan's Purse project partners with local churches across the globe to deliver these tangible expressions of God's love to children affected by war, disease, disaster, poverty and famine. For many of these children, it will be the first gift they have ever received.

This year Salado families hope to collect more than 15,000 shoebox gifts to help collect 9.1 million gifts which will contribute to the 2018 global goal of reaching 11 million children.

"We are honored to be linking arms with our community to help children around the world experience the true meaning of Christmas," said Randy Riddle, senior director of Operation Christmas Child in the United States. "These simple gifts show God's love to children facing difficult circumstances."

For more information on how to participate in Operation Christmas Child or to find the nearest drop-off location, visit samaritanaspurse.org/occ. Participants can donate $9 per shoebox gift online through "Follow Your Box" and receive a tracking label to discover its destination. Those who prefer the convenience of online shopping can browse samaritanaspurse.org/buildonline to select gifts matched to a child's specific age and gender, then finish packing the virtual shoebox by adding a photo and personal note of encouragement

Turk's 4 TDs tame Black Cats

By LARNCE BARKER
SPORTS

Hunter Turks rushed for 186 yards and four touchdowns in the Salado Eagles 44-21 win over Mexia on Nov. 2. (PHOTO BY RON LE GUIN)

Hunter Turk rushed for 186 rushing yards on 21 carries and scored 4 touchdowns in the 44-21 Nov. 2 win against the Mexia Black Cats at Eagle Field.

Turk scored on runs of 5 yards, 34 yards, 5 yards and 4 yards that kept Eagle Fans on their feet all night.

Connor Cook also had a break out game rushing with 168 yards on 29 carries and a 2 point conversion and a 37 yard TD run for the final home game of the season.

The Eagles offensive line had another great clinic blocking and creating holes and lanes for the Eagles backfield. The offensive line has block well the last two games for about 1,000 yards of offense which starts with Center Bryce Dobbins, Strong Guard Ryan Starrit, Quick Guard Trace Medlin, Strong Tackle Tommie Barker, Quick Tackle Bryce Wales, Tight End Ashten Sniggs, and Swingman Tyler Oglesby blocked for 441 yards of rushing offense against Mexia and kept the Eagles defense on the sideline most of the night.

The win kept the Salado Eagles hopes alive for post season with a win against Fairfield and a Waco Connally loss.

If this happens then the Eagles will have their fourth straight playoff berth and the third consecutive with Head Coach Alan Haire.

The Eagles took their first possession of the game and scored on a 5 yard TD run by Hunter Turk and the PAT failed but an off-sides penalty gave the Eagles another shot. Coach Haire decided to go for two and the Salado fullback Connor Cook muscled the 2 point conversion in at the 6:40 mark in the 1st quarter to take the early 8-0 lead.

The Mexia Black Cats had 4 plays in their first offensive series then had to punt the football back to the Eagles. Salado's Turk would score again on a 34 yard run on the 6th play of the drive and kicker Nader Smein would tack on the PAT to make the score 15-0 with 2:10 left in the 1st quarter. Mexia would finally punch the ball into the end zone when QB Jaden Proctor's 3 yard TD run and Kicker Lalo Ortiz PAT was good at the 11:56 mark in the 2nd quarter the score would be 15-7 Salado.

Salado QB Hutton Haire would deal the offensive backs the football on a 16 play time consuming drive when TB Turk scored from 5 yards out. QB Haire would score the 2 point conversion at the 5:47 mark in the 2nd quarter which made the score 23-7 Eagles. Mexia would strike quickly with a QB Proctor 67 yard TD run with a Lalo PAT the Eagles lead was cut 23-14 at the 5:32 mark in the first half. The Eagles would burn off 5 minutes on the 13 play drive of their next offensive when Slot Back Wrook Brown would score a 4 yard TD run and the Smein PAT failed. The Salado Eagles would increase their lead to 29-14 with 32 seconds left in the half.

Mexia would take the 2nd half kickoff and QB Proctor would score a 23 yard touchdown and Kicker Lalo would add the PAT at the 10:20 mark of the 3rd quarter to cut the Salado lead 29-21. Salado 1st offensive series of the 2nd half would end after a 14 play drive when the Eagles would come up dry and turn the ball over on downs. Sloppy field conditions would alter play calling the rest of the game for both teams. Mexia's next 14 play offensive series would end at the hands of the Salado Defense to give the ball back to the Eagles. Turk would strike twice on the next Eagles drive on a 4 yard TD run and would also run in the 2 point conversion to make the score 37 -21 Salado with 9:06 left in the 4th quarter. The final Eagles Touchdown of the game when FB Cook looked like he was shot out of a cannon and scored from 37 yards out and Kicker Brown PAT was good and with 5:23 left in the game the score would be the final score 44-21. Head Coach Alan Haire said. "I'm glad our last week means something. You have to win on the road in the playoffs so, therefore, it doesn't matter where you play. You just have to play well in the 48 minutes. Like I tell the kids, you don't have to be the best team out there. All we have to do is play the best in those 48 minutes."

Salado Eagles with a win against Fairfield and a Robinson win, the Eagles have a spot in the Texas State 4A-DII Playoffs. Salado (3-5, 2-3) will travel to Fairfield (7-2, 3-2) for their last regular district game of the season with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Daniel Frisby scored in the first quarter on a five yard run. Ryder Haas caught a pass from Josh Huckabee for the two-point conversion.

Later in the quarter, Chris Bates bulled in from the one yard line. The two-point try failed and Salado led 14-0 at the end of the first.

The Eagles allowed a touchdown in the second but added eight more points of their own for a 22-8 half-time lead.

Noah Mescher scored on a 65 yard run. Frisby added a two point conversion.

In the third, Bates scored on a nine yard run. Frisby added the two point conversion for a 30-8 lead going into the fourth.

Both teams scored eight points in the fourth.

Salado scored on a 55 yard run by Bates. Noah Mescher added the two point conversion.

Offensive leaders were Chance Hill, Logan Pitts, Josue Loza, Blake Marshall, Hunter Drouillard, Lucas Morvant, Ryder Haas and Josh Huckabee.

S9th 30
M9th 8

Salado ninth graders crushed the Mexia Black Cats 30-8 on the road Nov. 1. The win improves their record to 5-4.

Tailback Boden Savage rushed for 120 yards and scored a TD and two 2-point conversions.

Fullback Blake Volk rushed for 100 yards and scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

Halfback Toby Rios rushed for 80 yards and a touchdown.

Safety Brian Rose recovered a fumble. LB Cooper Scott, Safety Boden Savage, OLB Braydon Sumners had an interception each. Braydon Sumners' INT went for a TD.

The offense was led by Blake Volk, Boden Savage and Toby Rios.

Gavin Keyser, Braydon

Sumners and Brian Rose led the defense.

"The athletes were determined to make the trip worth the drive. Hard work and planning this week made the difference in the game," Coach Ramiro Mojica said. "Our young men worked to execute properly and it paid off for them."

"We could not be more proud," he added. "We are on to Fairfield."

Salado 8th A 32
Mexia 8th A 32

The Mexia Black Cats eighth grade A team marred the Salado Eagles' perfect record by forcing them to a 32-32 tie on Nov. 1.

Salado got down early, as Mexia's offense was humming behind their quarterback, who was the center of their offense. However, the Eagles responded in the second half with some long sustained drives and a couple of key stops to put the Eagles in position to get another win.

The Eagles were able to make a stop and get the ball back on a fumbled snap of a punt with about three minutes left in the 4th quarter. The Eagle offense drove down and scored on an Adam Benavides run up the middle with 44 seconds left to seemingly put the game in the Eagles' hands 32-24.

However, Mexia's athletic quarterback took over on their next drive, weaving in and out of Eagle defenders to complete a 75 yard touchdown run on the 1st play from scrimmage.

The Eagle offense tried to respond, but there was not enough time, and so the Eagles had to settle for a tie.

Adam Benavides scored on touchdowns of 5, 10, and 5, with Seth Reavis adding a 15 yard run.

Outstanding Offensive Players were Seth Reavis, Adam Benavides, Caden Strickland, and Drew Bird with some nice runs and 4 AT kicks. The offensive line was again the key to the Eagles success in the second half.

Outstanding Defensive Players were Drew Bird, Nolan Miller and Caden Strickland.

Salado 8th B 7
Mexia 8th B 0

Salado eight grade B team bounced back from their loss on the road to Madisonville by dominating the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball and winning 7-0 on Nov. 1.

The defensive line was in the backfield all night and made it tough sledding for the Mexia running game.

The Eagle offense was able to move the ball, but they could not punch it in until a drive in the 4th quarter that was ended by a 50 yard touchdown run up the middle by Tanner Agee.

"This would prove to be the difference in a defensive battle throughout the night," Coach Michael Gunter said. "Their effort was outstanding, and they showed that they really wanted this game more than the Blackcats."

Outstanding offensive players were Tanner Agee, Ramsey Davidson, Brody Naegele, Offensive line

Outstanding defensive players: Owen Crisp, Alex Villafranco, Brazos Farr, Jeff Bauser, Jade Fields, Lane Heath, James Tipton, Jayten Burt, Zach Hortness

Salado 7th A 6
Mexia 7th A 8

Salado Eagles seventh grade A team scored on a 25 yard pass from Luke Law to Kase Maedgen, but the Mexia Black Cats were able to add the extra point to their touchdown, which was the difference in the 6-8 loss for Salado Nov. 1.

Outstanding Offensive Players: Luke Law, Kase Maedgen

Outstanding Defensive Players: Garrett Combs, Dusty Rhiddlehoover, Peanut Brazzle, Bryton Massar, Brendan Wilson, Jack Ingrum

The 7th grade A team played suffocating defense for most of the night, forcing 5 turnovers by the Mexia Blackcats. Peanut Brazzle recovered 2 fumbles, Bryton Massar recovered 1 fumble, and Brendan Wilson and Jack Ingrum each had an interception. Garrett Combs was a dominating presence along the line for the Eagles as well, providing a number of tackles for loss.

Salado 7th B 25
Mexia 7th B 6

Alex Hauck ran rough-shod over the Mexia Black Cats 7th B defense, scoring touchdowns of 65, 60 and 50 yards. The Eagles beat Mexia 25-6 on Nov. 1.

Lexi Wilson also had a 40 yard touchdown run. Adrian Fach added a two-point conversion and had some nice runs throughout the night.

Outstanding offensive players were Hauck, Wilson, Fach and Easton Mendenhall.

Outstanding defensive players were Morgan Adams, Hauck, Houston Thomas and Jonathan Pena.

"The 7th grade B team provided a great response to a disappointing game in Madisonville by coming out and playing lights out defense and moving the ball seemingly at will," Coach Michael Gunter said.

Hauck was moved to Tailback this week. "He made that move pay dividends immediately. He showed some amazing burst and speed through the hole and led the way for the Eagles ground attack all night," Gunter said.

Salado junior high teams hit the road to play Fairfield squads on Nov. 8.

Salado Village Voice will close at noon on Wed. Nov. 21 and reopen at 9 a.m. on Mon. Nov. 26. Deadline for the Nov. 22 Thanksgiving edition is 12 noon on Nov. 15. Deadline for the Nov. 29 Stroll edition will be 10 a.m. Wed. Nov. 21 for display ads.

Barrow welcomes VET CHURCH Nov 11

Barrow Brewing Co will host the Reverend Doctor Matt Williams and VET CHURCH 5 - 7 p.m. on Nov. 11.

VET CHURCH is all about extending the love of Christ to those with pain and problems. They offer prayer upon request. A daily thought and a weekly service on Sunday. VET CHURCH is a bit different than normal church in that it is a virtual community designed specifically for Veterans and those who struggle with PTSD, Moral Injury, Depression, Anxiety, Physical Pain and other Stuff. The church partners with the Leaders and Members of dozens of Caring and Charitable Organizations to Empower, Inspire, Educate and Provide Hope.

The Reverend Doctor Matt Williams is a Singer Songwriter. He is the Official Chaplain of the Last Honky Music Series, which is a historic Roots Music Series featuring performing National Artists.

Williams was medically retired from the Army in 2013. He served as a Chaplain in both Afghanistan and Iraq. He is a life member of the Society of the First Infantry Division.

As a Songwriter, Williams cut his teeth with the band Alien Seven with whom he wrote and recorded five albums. In his solo career as the Retired Army Chaplain, Williams has completed two albums: This Veteran Life and Moral Courage. He has written the songs for a third album, which is scheduled for recording in the fall of 2018.

Williams has chronic pain and struggles with the effects of PTSD and Moral Injury. As a Singer Songwriter, he is working through his own pain while encouraging and inspiring others to actually 'BE' all that they want to be.

"In a world of virtual reality, virtual friends and virtual connection, I had a simple idea. I would travel around America singing songs and talking to the folks I went to Afghanistan and Iraq with. So many people liked it that I just kept singing, talking and playing that guitar. I want to provide face-to-face encouragement. I realized that I cannot travel all of the time, so VET CHURCH was born. Partnering with David Peters of Veteran Fellowship I am doing all that I am able to empower others to do something about PTSD and Moral Injury." Matt Williams

More can be learned about Matt and Vet Church at www.retiredarmychaplain.com or www.vetchurch.com. The music can be purchased in person or from iTunes.

This west Texas spider is among the most feared – the Brown Recluse.

The Brown Recluse belongs to the family Sicariidae, or the Six-eyed Sicariid Spiders. Six-eyed Sicariid Spiders are a large and diverse family of spiders with approximately one hundred twenty something species that can be found in all of this planet's temperate regions. This group is represented in Texas by one genera with five species. However, the most familiar and most feared member of these species is the Brown Recluse, Loxosceles reclusa.

The Brown Recluse, like other species of arachnids, has a body that consists of two parts (the cephalothorax and the abdomen) as well as the customary eight legs. Overall, this species of spider is rather drab in coloration, for as the common name implies, the dorsal coloration of adults is primarily brown, although their color can range from tan to almost a pale yellow. Oftentimes, the abdomen is darker than the cephalothorax. There are very few distinctive markings on the backside, save for a dark blotch that superficially resembles a violin. This violin shaped marking starts right behind the eyes and extends towards the abdomen, with the neck of the violin pointing backward. This violin shaped marking is also the source of the common name "Fiddleback Spider". Occasionally there is a darker line that extends along the midline of the abdomen, although this is not always the case.

It is a rather small species of spider, with males having a body length of just one third of an inch. Females are ever so slightly larger, and both sexes have a leg-span that approaches one inch.

Whereas there are several other species of spider that resemble the Brown Recluse in pattern and size, one morphological characteristic can be utilized to positive identification. In most species of spiders,

Brown Recluse

Wild About Texas

there are a total of eight eyes placed in the front portion of the cephalothorax. However, the Brown Recluse, as with all other members of its family, has a total of only six eyes. The eyes are arranged in three pairs: one pair centered in the front and one pair on either lateral side of the cephalothorax.

Because it is a predatory rather than an ambush hunter, the Brown Recluse is not an intricate web maker. It naturally has a preference to live in reclusive places such as under rocks and rotting logs, although it has adapted well to human encroachment by thriving in cellars, attics, woodpiles, garages, and sheds. In these human created habitats, this species prefers areas that are dark, dry and undisturbed, and many times will be encountered in shoes and clothes piled in closets or corners of rooms.

The Brown Recluse is native to the United States and can commonly be observed from western Texas northeastward to Ohio and eastward to Georgia.

Prey items accepted by this species include just about any invertebrate creature that is small enough to be tracked down and overpowered, including many harmful and nuisance species, including the non-native fire ant.

As with other spiders, food is eaten in a very odd, if not disturbing, way. The fangs are inserted into the prey item, much like short, hollow straws, and the insides of the food are literally sucked from within. The exoskeleton that remains is discarded after the feeding. This is akin to a person drinking a milkshake. We drink the contents of the cup, (usually with just one straw) but then we throw away the inedible container.

Unbelievable to most people, given their dastardly reputation, most Brown Recluse spiders are quite timid. Typically they will retreat when confronted by a larger animal, biting only as the last line of self defense. As with all other spider species, this species is venomous. However, only two species that can be observed in western Texas are considered to be dangerous to man: this species and the Black Widow. Unlike the vast majority of other spider bites, the bite of a Brown Recluse can be of serious consequence, depending on a plethora of variables. Rather than going into the gory details here, if one feels like they have been bitten by a recluse, the best course of action is to remain calm, make a positive identification of the spider, and get to a medical facility as quickly as possible. Fatalities from Recluse bites are extremely rare, but that is still no reason to not seek medical attention if bitten.
