Attendance is sparse at bond community meetings

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

If attendance at two community meetings last week on Salado I.S.D. Trustees' decision to call for a Feb. 4 bond election for two propositions totaling $16.2 million, Salado voters have reacted with an overwhelming....

Yawn.

While community meetings in late 2004 and early 2005 concerning the future needs of Salado ISD filled the Meadows Auditorium of the Salado Civic Center, the low number of people attending the morning meeting on Oct. 7 and the evening meeting on Oct. 10 would be lucky to fill a Honda Civic.

"Did you really expect to see a vast number of people here at eight o'clock in the morning?" T.R. Pappas asked school trustees, who responded that the morning meeting was held in response to criticism by people unable to attend night-time meetings.

Morning or night, it seems that public interest in the two bond propositions coming up on Feb. 4 is tepid at best and non-existent at worst.

But those who did attend the meetings grilled Superintendent Robin Battershell and several of the trustees in attendance about the particulars of the bond and its costs.

Bud Wood asked what impact the bond would have on the Maintenance and Operations cost for the school district. Dr. Battershell told Wood that she anticipated increasing the M&O tax rate to the state maximum, $1.50 per $100 evaluation from the current M&O rate of $1.42.

"It will be at least two years before we can occupy the school, if it is approved," Dr. Battershell said. "The state may change the funding formula in the meantime."

Trustees also fielded questions about building or expanding at the current site on Thomas Arnold.

"We would have to shut that campus down for two years," Jeff Kelley said of trying to add a story to the high school, "and that will do nothing to address the problems of core capacity at the high school, septic problems with added growth and further congestion."

Wood asked the board why it was not moving the athletic fields to the 50-acre site and building classrooms on the current site.

"I consider it a misuse of money to tear down a useable facility in order to get a useable facility," trustee Lynn Renfro said. "Not to mention that it would cost us at least $2 million to build those fields."

Trustees will likely face many questions in the days to come before the election with at least one more public meeting likely some time after the holidays.

Hopefully, there will be more than a dozen in attendance at those.

Aldermen not yet ready to act on property annexation requests

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado aldermen took no action Oct. 6 on the request of residents on O.W. Lowery to be annexed into the city limits as the ordinance to approve the annexation was not completed for the meeting.

The board will consider the request by some two dozen property owners on O.W. Lowery during its next meeting 6:30 p.m. Oct. 20 at the municipal building.

Following input from the public hearing, however, the board may turn down the request so that residents may resubmit the boundaries of properties to be brought into the Village of Salado.

According to one property owner, who spoke during the public hearing Oct. 6, the boundaries that were submitted to the Village government were not the same that signers of the petition were shown when they agreed to be brought into the Village.

At question is a section of land that has yet to be developed that backs up to homes that have requested to be brought into the Village.

Bill Wright, one of those homeowners, told the board of aldermen that he understood the undeveloped property was to be part of the annexation.

"We can only act on what has been submitted to us," Mayor Rick Ashe said.

The residents may decide in the coming days to resubmit their request for annexation, including the as-yet undeveloped property in the map.

If that is the decision of those property owners to include the undeveloped land in the annexation request, the board of aldermen will have to turn down the initial request.

Homeowners such as the Wrights say that they want the undeveloped land included in the annexation so that property abatement codes can be enforced by the Village.

Christmas in October launches with Preview Party at Civic Center

The Salado Chamber of Commerce Ladies Auxiliary will kick off Christmas in October with a Preview Party 6:30 p.m. Oct. 13 under the big tent on the grounds of the Civic Center. The theme of the party is "A Night in Santa's Workshop" and will feature Mrs. Santa at her potter's wheel, and of course Santa himself.

A number of local restaurants will provide food and drinks for the gala: Ambrosia Tea Room, Stagecoach Inn, The Range at the Barton House, Subway Sandwich Shop, Uncommon Grounds Café, Just Desserts, Cathy's Broadwalk Café, Cowboy's BBQ, Sweet Smells, Maggie's Catering, Robertson's Hams, Salado Mansion, and Mud Pies Pottery.

There will be a silent auction during the Preview Party with items of elegance donated by local merchants. This is an opportunity for partygoers to do their Christmas shopping ahead of the crowds during Christmas in October which will follow on Oct. 14-15.

Christmas gifts from over two dozen merchants will be featured in the large tent. Salado merchants with booths include: Alice's of Salado, Bundle of Joy, Charlotte's of Salado, Christy's of Salado, Mud Pies, Wedding Wishes, Splendors of Salado, Springhouse Antiques, Village Pharmacy, All Lathered Up, Salado Galleries, Ings, Sweet Dreams, FSG Fine Jewelry, Sweet Nut Things, Angelic Herbs, Rock Creek Treasures, Reigning Cats and Dogs, Kinkadee's Gallery, Chameleon Clothiers, Gourmet to Go, Hansel's Homes, Matters of the Heart, Simply the Best and Solas Gallery.

Tickets to the Preview Party are $15 at the door. Space is limited to 200 people for the evening.

Christmas in October has something for everyone. Besides the Preview Party, there will be early Christmas shopping under the big tent, a giant bake sale, entertainment, light refreshments, a vintage car show and an informal style show.

Vintage cars will take the spotlight just outside the main shopping area at the Salado Civic Center. Sport cars, classic American and some international favorites will be on display as well as Dr. Don Ellis five decades of Ford Autos.

The show will also have cars by Ron's Vintage Auto Restoration as well as privately owned cars.

To enhance this venue, a Vintage Fashion Show will be presented by Etrulia's of Salado at 11 a.m. Oct. 14. Ladies will model fashions of this era.

Admission to Christmas in October is free Oct. 14-15. Christmas in October is a joint effort of the Salado Ladies Auxiliary and the merchants of Salado. Proceeds of this event are returned to the community in the form of scholarships and grant.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

Bush's pain, McCain's gain

Katrina has indeed altered our political landscape: For the first time in years, conservatives have listened to Arizona Sen. John McCain talk about a high-profile domestic issue and have nodded their heads vigorously. The maverick Republican made his reputation by bucking his own party, especially its conservative base, and, after his failed 2000 nomination bid, seemed to want to make a career out of it.

After Katrina and the countless billions of dollars that began pouring toward the Gulf Coast, conservatives clamored for spending offsets elsewhere in the budget, and there was McCain right there with them, excoriating pork-barrel spending (as he always has) and calling for repeal of the massive new Medicare prescription-drug entitlement. In a major battle between conservatives in Congress who want to cut spending, and the party's leadership, which is -- to put it mildly -- unenthusiastic about the prospect, McCain is with the conservative rebels.

This is so important because, if he runs, McCain is probably the front-runner for the Republican presidential nomination in 2008. But he's an odd front-runner, a front-runner whose campaign is almost certainly doomed unless he handles conservatives better than he did in 2000.

McCain will come out of the gate with formidable assets, among them near-universal name recognition, media adulation and credibility as a serious candidate. But if he again lets another major candidate get to his right on nearly everything -- as he let President Bush in 2000 -- his campaign will again attract independents, but not the Republicans who are by definition necessary to win the Republican nomination.

So McCain is in a different game from other potential candidates. They need money, media attention and insider buzz. McCain needs the "right" to stop loathing him, and he seems to realize it. Indeed, McCain's campaign will strain his capacities for insincerity. If a second marriage is the triumph of hope over experience, a second McCain presidential campaign, to be successful, will have to be the triumph of experience over the candidate's own predilections.

McCain has never demonstrated great affection for social conservatives, whom he blasted in 2000. But he can work around these things. He recently endorsed teaching Intelligent Design in schools, although he probably has as much sympathy for this critique of evolution as The New York Times editorial board does.

McCain will be the strongest performing Republican against Hillary Clinton in early opinion polls; if anything, he is more aggressive on the War on Terror than Bush is; he will have a strong theme of returning to a cleaner Republicanism after the ethical lapses of the current congressional majority. And all of this will be wrapped in his appealing thematic mix of patriotism, sacrifice and duty.

The problem for McCain is that he has such a richly layered history of apostasy, including on conservative gospel like the Bush tax cuts. A strong conservative candidate who unites the right can take him down. But for that candidate, the less conservatives nod their heads at anything McCain has to say, the better.

Bush nominee for high court has Demos happy; GOPers twisting in wind; FEMA contracts; Fears about a 1929 repeat

The nomination of Miss Harriet Ellan Miers to the Supreme Court wasn't a complete surprise to some insiders within the D.C. "beltway." Fact is, Senate Minority leader Harry Reid (D-Nevada) had recommended her to President Bush.

Other Demos seem equally pleased with Miers, thus handing the upcoming Judicial Committee hearings a strange anomaly, with leftists favoring (perhaps) a conservative appointee, and the rigid-right trying to find politically escapable ways of saying "No."

Miss Miers has an "interesting" record. She didn't go for an Ivy League law degree (nailed hers at SMU), and is much like new Chief Justice John Roberts - bright, quiet, steady and tenacious in pursuit of facts (from all sides of an issue).

Nothing in her record on "hot-button" items (abortion, assisted suicide, death penalty, gay-lesbian issues, affirmative action). Nor does Miers have a judicial paper trail which is always exciting fodder for the "anti's."

Probably thousands of "internal" memos and commentaries from Miers (as current White House Counsel), but those are mostly protected under arguable attorney-client privileges.

This may be the "perfect" nomination to stymie Democrats like Senators Schumer, Kennedy and Boxer, who had been salivating in anticipation of a "knock-down, drag-out" brawl over what they felt would be a "hard-core" ideology fashioned along the lines of Justices Scalia and Thomas.

CONSPIRACY AFOOT?

From the conspiracy-buffs - one intrigue emerged immediately following the Miers' nomination. Involves a complicated scheme created (supposedly) in the White House, that included enticing GOP loyalists to purposely "bad-mouth" Bush's pick for the high court seat being vacated by Justice O'Connor.

Thinking was, if Democrats believed Repubs hated Miers, then she must have some "worthwhile liberal" leanings. They would then naturally fall in the trap, and support her.

Once on the court - Miers would then reveal she is really a mirror image of Scalia! How's that for a "Deep-Throated" conspiratorial connivance?

DO-NO-GOODER'S REACTION

One local wag had an unusual reaction to Miss Miers' potential job advancement. He shall remain anonymous, but is among the rag-tag group of "Do-No-Gooders" who still meet with alarming regularity at the Stagecoach Coffee Shop.

This stalwart DNGer was impressed by the early written comments about the nominee. That is until reading a National Review story that quoted Miers - to wit: "The president was the most brilliant man she had ever met."

Brilliance and mental acuity are rarely assigned to President Bush's cognitive deliberations, so our skeptic ran to his American Heritage Dictionary and discovered: "Brilliant: marked by extraordinary power of intellect, invention and intelligence."

Result of that investigation, moved the DNGer past "flabbergasted." Right now he's approaching the "flummoxed" stage!

Bush may not be "brilliant" but he is stubborn, and has heatedly declared (many times) "The Miers nomination will never be withdrawn" - regardless of the Republican revolt that's brewing.

"NO BID" CONTRACTS

A third flood has hit the Gulf Coast - primarily in New Orleans but also scattered along the waterfront from Texas to Alabama, and deals with how our government is handling the billions of dollars earmarked to resurrect that area following the twin hurricanes - Katrina and Rita.

Off the Record by Ken Clapp

Keep in mind the name - Richard Skinner. He's Inspector General of the Homeland Security Department. He and his assistants are overseeing the mass (or mess) of agreements issued by FEMA to contractors of all shapes, sizes, abilities, and past performances.

Skinner has admitted that most of the contracts for work along the Gulf Coast were issued on a "no-bid" basis for the sake of speed (and of course political opportunism).

"BAD RECORD" COMPANIES

Among companies given contracts are several with records of poor performance including the Bechtel Corporation that received a hundred million dollar no-bid contract for work to be done in New Orleans. Bechtel is under investigation for the supervisory job they performed on the infamous "Big Dig" project - Boston's downtown tunnel fiasco.

Oh yes - also mentioned was Halliburton subsidiary KBR, that overcharged $60 million (to date) for questionable service contracts in Iraq - i.e. invoices for meals "never served" to the military; as well as unsubstantiated charges for laundry services, construction, etc.

FEMA TO REBID CONTRACTS

Result of the furor that erupted from Skinner's, and other public complaints about "no-bid" contracts - FEMA officials were hauled up before Congress and quickly told lawmakers they plan to "re-bid" all non-competitive contracts originally issued.

That's a good start. We'll watch closely to see who "now" gets their snouts in the federal-feeding-trough, this time around.

Meanwhile, we wonder what the future holds for Skinner, who blew the whistle on the "no-bid" outrage. He appears to be an honest official trying to do a good job. As a result, he may not last long in today's Washington climate, where word on the street is "protect the administration; help their cronies; and keep your mouth shut!"

A TERRIFYING THOUGHT

A friend recently passed along the editorial page of The Commercial Appeal. A respected newspaper printed in Memphis, Tennessee since 1889.

It had a report from David Broder (nationally syndicated political writer) who had met recently, in Washington, with a group of top ranked professional men and women whose jobs, during the past two decades, have included steering economic and fiscal policies inside government, as well as corporate America.

They were examining the "overspending, tax cutting Bush administration and Congress," and the economic effects of the "over three trillion dollar debt" rolled up in four short years.

One speaker summarized the alarmed feelings of the group: "I think it's 1925," he said "and we're headed for 1929."

In case you've forgotten, 1929 was the year of the "Crash" that began the worse depression ever recorded in this country (or the world for that matter).

It lasted 12 years - until Dec. 7, 1941.

A thought that should terrify us all - if we believe even a portion of such frightening economic observations.

That's -30-

Sisters of the Temple Brethren Church to raise funds for Katrina

The Temple Brethren Church Christian Sisters group will hold a bake and crafts sale from 8 a.m. to noon Oct. 29 in the church fellowship hall. Featured at the sale are casseroles made by women of the church. "We have over 100 casseroles, including chicken spaghetti and cornbread chicken," pres. Barbara Poulter said. "All the profits from casserole sales are going to the Hurricane Katrina fund. Each casserole is over three pounds and each will be priced at $15," she added.

Temple Brethren Church has adopted Brodie Road Baptist Church in Biloxi, Miss. as part of its missions' team "Each One Reach One" effort to aid Hurricane Katrina victims. The church has pledged to support Brodie Road through fundraising and other giving efforts during the next six to 12 months, said the Rev. Mark Labaj, church pastor.

Also featured at the sale will be baked and canned goods, including pickles; jams; jellies; candy; kolaches; bread; homemade noodles; cookies; cakes and pies. Craft items will include fall and holiday decorations, as well as handmade home décor for all seasons.

Handmade quilts will also be available for sale. "Admission to the sale is a free-will donation of non-perishable items, such as food, personal hygiene, toys or money, which will be donated to church-supported causes," Poulter said.

Tickets are being sold for a handcrafted two and half-foot tall birdhouse made out of weathered wood. The birdhouse is crafted to look like an old-fashioned style church. Tickets are available at two for $1 from Christian Sisters members or the church office. They will also be available the day of the bake and crafts sale.

Anyone making a donation to the church's Hurricane Katrina "Each One Reach One" fund either by purchasing a casserole or through a monetary donation will receive a stuffed animal as a thank-you gift.

Temple Brethren is located at 2202 Bird Creek Drive in Temple. More information may be obtained by calling the church office at (254)778-8759.

Eagles hope to avoid deja vu

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

"It's deja vu, all over again," Yogi Berra.

Salado head football coach Jeff Cheatham and his Eagles are feeling a bit like Yogi Berra going into the Oct. 14 contest with the Lexington Eagles 7:30 p.m. here at Eagle Field.

Salado Eagles find themselves in much the same position as they were at this point in the season last year: facing a tough opponent after coming off of a heart-breaking last-second loss to the Academy Bees.

The race for the District 25AA crown was picked by many to come down to the Oct. 14 contest between Lexington and Salado with neither team having a clear-cut advantage over their opponent. Both teams have been ranked at one time or another slightly ahead of the other in the top rankings statewide.

The Lexington Eagles probably remain in the top 10, following their 49-14 whooping of the hapless and winless Rogers Eagles, whom Lexington beat in the Region IV Fi-

Lexington returns five offensive starters from that squad, including standout running back Corey Lewis, who has already amassed more yards on the ground midway through the season (687) than he did throughout all of 2004.

Lewis is second in rushing in District 25AA, behind Jarrell's Charles Spradley, who has 1,076 yards so far. Immediately behind Lewis in the district is teammate and quarterback Chase McCravy, who has 679 yards on 89 carries. Both have the ability to break long runs, as Lewis has a run of 55 yards and McCravy has broken off an 85 yard run this year.

With that powerful tandem in a multiple set offense -- Lexington runs from an I set and a spread offense -- Lexington hardly puts the ball in the air.

In fact, the visiting Eagles are dead last in the district when it comes to passing, with only 161 yards passing.

Overall, Lexington is third in the district in offense, behind Jarrell, which has amassed 2,654 yards, and Salado, which has 1,946 yards in total offense.

Salado will make some adjustments in its defense to offset Lexington's speed advantage.

"If they get a gap, it's hard to contain them," Coach Cheatham said, adding that the defensive ends will have to contain the rush, while the linebackers fill the holes.

Chance Coe, Austin Smith and Ethan Williams have all turned in solid performances for the Eagles defense, as have linebackers Jesse Rodriguez and Justin Konzen.

Rodriguez and Konzen led the defense against Academy: Rodriguez had 18 total tackles, including three unassisted tackles, while Konzen had 17 tackles, including four unassisted tackles.

Matt Fritsch also turned in a slew of tackles, with 15, two unassisted and a fumble recovery.

Williams had eight tackles, two of them unassisted, a tackle for loss and a quarterback sack.

Coe contributed six tackles, two unassisted, a tackle for loss and a sack.

Expect to see one change in the Salado defense: Wes Ruth will play both ways in the game.

"He's one of those players who is best kept on the field," Cheatham said.

By keeping his best players on the field, Cheatham hopes that his Eagles can avoid that same old feeling again.

Turnovers haunt Salado Eagles during

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

With just 17 seconds left to go, Academy's Brett Menifee caught a tipped pass from Chris Marek in the end zone to cap a last-minute 80 yard drive that was spurred by Chubba Kasa's third interception of the night. The touchdown and two point effort gave the Bees a final, 26-20 at home win against the favored Salado Eagles Oct. 7.

The last-second pass to Menifee came on a first down and goal to go after Marek had connected for 23 yards with Menifee on a second and 21 to go. Chance Coe had just sacked Marek for the 11 yard loss to move the ball back to the Salado 30 yard line.

During the 10 play drive, Marek hit Menifee three times deep in the Eagles' secondary, as Salado reeled from the Bees' constant pressure. With just over a minute left in the game, Academy faced a third down and 16 to-go at the Eagles 47 yard line. Salado had defended a pass and took advantage of a false start to set up the third down play. But Menifee and Marek combined once more for a 28 yard pass to move the ball into the Salado red zone.

Marek had hit Michael Hutto for 20 yards and Menifee for 19 yards to get the ball across the midfield mark, before the 28-yard strike.

While the last second catch by Menifee gave Academy the points needed to win, the game was decided in the 47:43 prior to the catch during which Salado turned the ball over four times, two of which resulted in touchdowns for the Bees.

Salado forced three turnovers by Academy (an interception and two fumble recoveries), but converted only one of those into points.

Academy, after fumbling a punt early in the first quarter, took advantage of the Eagles first turnover of the game.

The Bees took an early lead after Kasa intercepted Ruth's pass to give Academy the ball at their own 32 yard line. Salado's Josh Bush recovered a fumbled punt to give the Eagles the ball at Academy's 43 yard line, but the Eagles were unable to move the ball before Kasa made the interception with 9:18 left in the first.

The Bees faced a third and two to go when Chris Marek faked a hand-off up the middle and went around the right end to outrun the Eagle backers for a 60-yard touchdown at 7:26 in the first quarter. The PAT failed, giving Academy a 6-0 lead.

After giving up the long run, the Salado defense held Marek to 82 yards total rushing in the game. The Academy ground game accounted for a total of 146 yards for the night.

The Bees forced the Eagles to punt on their next possession, and took advantage of a high snap to Josh Shaw, sacking him for a loss of 18 yards and taking over at the Salado 14 yard line with 5:14 left in the first.

Academy got to the Eagle six yard line, facing a fourth down when Marek hit Zack Peters in the end zone on a play-action pass with 3:15 left in the first. The Bees went for two, but were stopped, giving them a 12-0 lead.

last-second loss to Academy

Slayt Ebeling at the end of the first quarter, but it proved to benefit Salado as the defense forced an Academy punt from their 15 yard line.

Salado took advantage of the short field, lining up at the Academy 48 yard line and scoring just three plays later on a five yard run by Tucker Wilhite. Ruth scrambled for 21 yards on the first play of the drive, followed by a 22 yard scamper by Wilhite. On first and goal from the five yard line, Wilhite took the hand-off and went behind the big side of the offensive line, found it clogged with bodies, cut back around the left side of the line and followed a block by Ruth to get to the end zone at 10:02 in the second quarter.

Salado went ahead of the Bees in the final two minutes of the second quarter, eerily similar in nature to the way Academy would go on to win the game.

In the last five minutes of the half, Academy was driving in Salado territory, but faced a fourth down and forever to go at the Salado 27 yard line when Shaw stepped in front of a Marek pass at the five yard line and returned it to Salado's 30 yard line with 2:46 left in the half.

Ruth proved why he is one of the premier players in 25AA on the next two plays as he needed his way through the Academy defense for runs of 43 yards and 20 yards to put Ervi takes first in Georgetown team places 3rd

Continuing to show improvement from meet-to-meet, the Lady Eagles cross country team earned itself a third place finish at the Oct. 8 Georgetown meet.

Individually, junior Chelsea Ervi won first place, clocking in with a time of 12.31. Other individual finishes were not available at press time, but times were as follows: Rosie Sierra, 13.18; Kathryn Holdampf, 13.59; Molly Rooney, 13.43; Tamra Stanish, 14.12; Kaleigh Rank, 14.19; Abby Frazier, 15.35; and Crystal Saucedo, 15.55.

For the boys, Johnny Kendall had another strong performance, finishing in the top 10 at 18.07. Other individual results were Ryan Clark, 18.47; Sterling Martin, 19.27; C.J. Little, 19.50; and Andrew Murray, 20.41.

The next cross country meet will be held Oct. 15 in Liberty Hill.

the ball at the Academy seven yard line. On the first play of the drive, Ruth ran up the middle on a draw, following his big offensive linemen, and then breaking through to the left side of the Academy secondary, where he got a block from Stephen Fry to get to the Academy 27 yard line. Ruth called his own number on the next play and dodged his way to the Academy seven yard line with less than two minutes in the half and Salado trailing 12-7.

After three tries by Ruth from the seven yard line to find the end zone, Salado lined up in its Hogs formation with Chris Redman, Jesse Rodriguez and Wilhite in a tight backfield.

Rodriguez dove through the gap to score from mere inches away with 47 seconds left in the half. Travis Kemp booted the extra point to give Salado a first half lead, 14-12.

The Eagles cashed in on great field position midway through the third quarter after a short punt gave them the ball at the Bees' 40 yard line.

Ruth ran a hard 15 yards to the Academy 25 yard line, but had to be taken out shortly after a big hit. Shaw stepped in and scrambled for 17 yards on his first touch. He then ran through the hole provided by Raymond Soto and Jared Quirk, who was pulling from the quick side, leaped over the defenders and dashed in from the eight yard line. The PAT failed, but the Eagles held a tenuous 20-12 lead at 5:59 in the third quarter.

Academy closed the gap to two points by driving 62 yards on 12 plays spanning more than seven minutes before Menifee dove in from less than a foot out. The drive was highlighted by short gains, until Marek hit Menifee for nine yards and then Marek ran for 14 yards to give the Bees a first and goal at the Eagle 10 yard line. Menifee dove in on a fourth down effort. Ethan Williams sacked Marek on the two-point try to leave Academy trailing 18-20.

Academy had 146 yards on the ground and 111 yards in the air, most of it on the final drive of the game. The Bees were called five times for 25 yards in penalties.

JV Eagles throttle Academy 58-6

The Salado JV Eagles were firing on all cylinders Oct. 6, and the results showed, as Salado thoroughly routed the visiting Academy Bumblebees by the final of 58-6.

It was a blowout from start to finish, as the Eagles improved their season record to 3-2.

Salado jumped on top in the first when Seth Collins scored on a 20-yard run. The two-point was unsuccessful.

Still in the first, Salado's ground attack kept on the pressure as Misa Jaimes took the ball from 15 yards out and dashed to the end zone, putting Salado up by a dozen. This time, the two-point try worked, as Jaimes took it in himself for the conversion.

Up by 14 entering the second, the Salado offense remained in high gear, with Matt Rosenau finding Stephen Quick for a 50-yard touchdown reception. The duo would hook up again on the successful two-point pass and catch.

The Eagles would hit paydirt once more before the half expired, again coming on a big play, this time with Patrick Williams going 65 yards for the score. Rosenau converted the two-point run to give Salado a comfortable 30-6 halftime advantage.

In the third, Collins torched the Academy defense for 72 yards and his second touchdown of the game, extending the Salado lead to 36-6.

Salado would score three more times on the evening, the first coming on a 15-yard run from Williams, the second on a three-yard plunge from Mike Cullin and the third on a four yard run from Collin Smith. Smith and Quick also notched successful conversions in the fourth quarter, which brought the game to its 58-6 final.

"This was one of those games where everything worked for us," said Coach Kory Craddick, whose JV will take the field Oct. 13 in Lexington.

Craddick also gave credit to the entire offensive line, as well as the defensive play of Kevin Goodman, Trevor Young, Misa Jaimes and Matt Simon, who had a blocked a punt.

Freshmen

The Eagle freshmen had their record drop to .500, at 3-3, after Thorndale rebounded from an early deficit to defeat Salado 16-7 Oct. 6.

On Salado's first quarter scoring drive, Garrett Ward hit Jared Lutz for two completions, and a nifty run from Josh Rodriguez set up a 30-yard touchdown run. The point after kick put Salado on top early, but the lead would not last through the half.

In the second quarter, the Bulldogs went up by one with a touchdown and two-point conversion, and tacked on eight more points in the fourth quarter to seal the Thorndale win.

Coach Scott Ringo said that although they surrendered 16 points, his defense - led by Patrick Prince and Jon Spinks - had an impressive game.

The freshmen will look to go one-up in the win column when they face College Station A&M Consolidated.

Volleyballers fall to 3-7 in district with two games remaining

The Salado Lady Eagle volleyballers fell to 3-7 in the district standings following a three-game Oct. 7 defeat at Academy. That loss followed an Oct. 4 victory versus Rogers, where the girls took out the visitors after getting behind early, 21-25, 25-21, 25-11 and 25-12.

Coach Bree Holz said she was pleased with the resiliency her team showed. "We started this match really slow and could not get a good pass to our setter, which made it difficult to get a good attach going," said the first-year coach. "But once we settled down and started playing our game, we were unstoppable. I was very happy about the way we bounced back from that first game loss to take the next three games."

The win was a total team effort, with several Lady Eagles turning in solid performances. Shae Janda totaled 17 assists to go along with two aces and three digs, while Kate Marshall had eight kills, five aces and four blocks. Nichole Weatherly came through with nine kills, Kathryn Holdampf had seven and three aces, while Molly Rooney did a little of everything, with four kills, five digs and five blocks.

Danielle Hazzard had six kills and one block, and LeeAnne Ingalsbe tallied seven digs.

In the Academy match, everything Salado did well a few nights before abandoned them, as the girls struggled the entire night with unforced errors. Salado lost by a final of 15-25, 19-25 and 16-25.

"Academy made numerous unforced errors in the first two games and we could not capitalize on them," said Holz. "We made just as many unforced errors, which did not help our confidence against this team."

For the game, Marshall had four kills, two blocks and two aces, Janda had seven assists and four digs, Rooney had five kills, two aces and one block.

At 13-18 overall and only two contests remaining in the season, the Lady Eagles will host Somerville Oct. 18, with JV games beginning at 5 p.m. As the final home game of the year, seniors and parents will be acknowledged.

The volleyball season will conclude Oct. 21 when Salado travels to Florence.

Benefit concert will be part of Fall Festival

St. Stephen Catholic Church, in conjunction with its Annual Fall Festival, will host a Hurricane Relief Concert featuring National Christian Recording Artist Curtis Stephan 6:30 p.m. Oct. 15. Tickets are $5 per person at the door. All ticket sales will be donated to hurricane victims for long term relief.

Curtis Stephan will perform Oct. 15.

As the devastation of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita revealed itself, it became evident that the concert had the chance to do more than just bring a community together in faith, it would give the little parish a chance to affect the lives of those who they serve.

Curtis Stephan will perform music from his albums "Humble Beginnings" and "Through the Storm". His third album "Sacred Revolution" is due to be released at the upcoming National Catholic Youth Conference in Atlanta, Georgia where he and fellow artist Jesse Manibusan will perform their duet, "Winds of Change."

The following day, the Fall Festival will kick in to full gear at the St. Stephen Catholic Church on Holland Rd.

The smell of barbecue beef tri-tips and authentic Mexican gorditas and tamales will call everyone out to enjoy a day of fun beginning at 11 a.m. Oct. 16. The annual event includes games including rock climbing, bingo, train rides, bounce house and much more. The silent auction opens at 11 a.m. and closes following the live auction which begins at 1 p.m.

The live auction will intrigue collectors and antique buyers with antiques from Argentina and France, an antique phonograph, furniture, artwork, hand crafted items, themed baskets and much more.

The day will end with the announcement of the raffle winners of three $1,000 gift cards prizes to Academy, Lowe's and Wal-Mart.

The church invites the community to both the Oct. 15 concert and the Fall Festival Oct. 16.

What's at the heart of the gospel message? Those who try to tell it to others often make it harder than it has to be. They "muddy the waters" so that it seems more difficult to understand the basics of what God wants us to know. This morning, we'll clear the waters a bit by revealing the simple basics of God's saving plan for man.

Celebrating 25 Years in Salado!

A Message from Dr. Douglas B. Willingham

Twenty-five years ago, this month, I moved to Salado to begin my dream of a dental practice. Very much a "greenhorn," I had just graduated from Baylor College of Dentistry and had precious little business experience.

Fortunately for me, the citizens of this great community got behind me and supported me from the very beginning. There were lots of rocky times (remember the 80s?), and I had some personal set-backs, too, as does everyone at some point or another. But I'm still here, doing what I love and living my dream of a dental practice in this wonderful town.

To the people of Salado -- my patients and friends -- I wish to say "Thank You" for allowing me to realize that dream and for your continued support and friendship. I look forward to many more years of providing dental services to the Village of Salado and surrounding communities.

Salado Historical Society Homes Tour returns Dec. 2-4; features 6 private homes

When the four children, spouses, 11 grandchildren and numerous cousins of Dr. Robert and Linda Mastin gather for the Christmas holidays at the Mastin home, 2518 Hester Way, there will be plenty of room.

The home's dramatic facade with its wide porch and stone columns, welcomes guests to an unexpectedly informal and child-friendly interior. The Mastin home is one of six private dwellings to be open on the Salado Historical Society's annual Home Tour, Dec. 2-4.

The dining room, opening off the foyer, is the home's most formal room, with its rich burgundy walls complementing traditional furniture, including Dr. Mastin's grandmother's china cabinet, filled with sparkling crystal pieces.

The wide entry, providing ample room for a stately Christmas tree with its wealth of heirloom ornaments collected over 45 years of marriage, leads directly into a huge great room where an eclectic mix of comfortable furniture encourages conversation.

Linda says their builder thought the family would not like the unusual size of the room, but she held out for it as she had designed it, wanting a room where friends and family could gather without feeling crowded.

Floors are of five-inch wide oak planks hand-scraped to appear old. A grand fireplace with shelves and cabinets on either side is a focal point.

A long harvest table for informal dining anchors a corner, and to the left, the kitchen sports plentiful white cabinets with green granite counters and colorful English tiles for the backsplash. A complete collection of Hummel plates hangs on a kitchen wall. Four pewter chandeliers light the kitchen and great room.

Beyond the great room is "the most special room in the house," a place Linda designed especially for 11 grandchildren (nine who are ages four-to-six). Their names are stenciled around the walls, marking places for sleeping bags and trundle beds.

From the kids room through a sun room looking out over a deck with swings and rocking chairs, visitors enter the master bedroom centered by a king-size poster bed custom-made by a furniture maker in Corpus Christi, the Mastin's hometown. The ceiling of the bedroom is painted deep blue, with white crown molding hiding recessed lighting. The master bath is designated "my beach room" by Linda, who has designed it to remind her of the south Texas coast. Deep blue walls, shell collections and paintings of sea and sand complete the theme.

Guest bedrooms are furnished with simple pieces and each is done in soft pastel colors, departing from the usual every-wall-the-same-color decor. Vintage twin beds in one are covered with pink and blue quilts, complementing pale blue walls. A pink crocheted sweater Dr. Martin wore as an infant is framed in a shadowbox on the wall. A portrait of Linda's grandparents holds a prime place in the room.

The study leaves no doubt that the residents of this home are graduates of Baylor University. Besides diplomas and other official documents, there are trophies and logo-imprinted items in the beloved green and gold.

Careful to emphasize the "reason for the season," the Mastins display throughout their home a large collection of nativities, expensive to cheap, crystal to cloth, wood to resin. "Of course, with all the children, we also love the fun of Santa," Linda says.

Other houses on the tour include Bishop Claude and Barbara Payne, 617 Indian Trail; Bob and Diane Pascoe, 2001 Indian Trail; Johnny and Jill Shipman, 711

College Hill; Bennie and Wylene Williams, 1430 Robertson Rd.; and Jan Scurlock, 20 Rock Creek.

Other attractions on the tour are the City Garage with Dr. Don Ellis' collection of vintage cars, the Salado Silver Spur Theater owned and operated by Grainger and Penny Esch, two historic log cabins owned by the Salado Historical Society, and the Society's History Room at the Salado Civic Center.

Hoffman is Artist of Month

The Salado Village Artists have announced Joan Hoffman as the Artist of the Month for October. Hoffman is a well known watercolorist in Salado, who also shows her work at the Griffith Fine Art Galley on Main Street. Most of her paintings are floral or still life, however she did win the John Carter Spirit of Texas award with a cowboy theme, western flavor painting. Hoffman is also at home painting landscapes and people. She has won several awards and ribbons for her art, had her own show at the Cultural Activities Center, and was presented with the best of show at this year's Barclay Arts Contest. She has served as President of the Salado Village Artists for four terms, as well as holding most other positions on its board of directors. She remains active the club in which she was a charter member. Hoffman grew up in San Angelo, studied at Baylor, and lived in Austin before moving to Salado. She had always liked oil painting and tole painting, but when she met watercolors she never looked back. She is an excellent teacher and gives beginner and intermediate watercolor classes in the SVA center several times a year.

Joan Hoffman
 Hoffman's paintings will hang in both Salado banks and the Salado Public Library for the month of October.

Storing apples

Apples keep well for about six months at temperatures between 32 and 45 degrees F. Remember to give your apples an occasional change of air. Never refrigerate potatoes and apples together; the apples give off ethylene gas, which spoil the potatoes.

UMHB pres. speaks on college's past, present and future

Dr. Jerry Bawcom, President of the University of Mary Hardin Baylor, spoke to the Rotary Club of Salado Oct. 4. Dr. Bawcom has served in his current position since 1991. Formerly, he was President of Texas Wesleyan University, holding that position for 22 years prior to coming to UMHB. Bawcom provided the club with a history of the university, beginning with its founding in 1845 in Independence, Texas. At that time, he said, the university educated both men and women. In 1860, however, the men's school separated and became Baylor University. UMHB remained in Independence until 1880, when the rail companies choosing not to located a railway in Independence forced the college to seek a different location. Bawcom said both Temple and Belton made financial bids for the college, with Belton turning in the most attractive offer. The university has been co-educational since 1971, but the change did come gradually. In its first years as a coed institution, Bawcom explained, men and women were presented their diplomas separately at commencement exercises. The school now has an enrollment of approximately 2,700 students, and is growing at a rate of about two percent per year. According to Bawcom, over 90 percent of UMHB's students receive some type of financial aid. The faculty at UMHB has a Ph.D rate of 70 percent, and the school has been recognized by both U.S. News and World Report and the Princeton Review as one of the country's top institutions of its type. Bawcom said he is equally proud of the school's athletic achievements. Despite the fact that UMHB cannot award athletic scholarships, they have won or contended for NCAA Division III championships in football, baseball and golf. Bawcom closed by saying the university's main goal in education is to do more than confer degrees, but to also help its students to find their calling in life and service to their community. --REPORTED BY GERRY REIHSEN

One of the winningest coaches in 6-man football

"I played six-man football. I didn't play any 11-man football and don't know anything about it. Don't profess to." Jonesboro is a little place near Hamilton. Larry Pruitt played six-man football for Jonesboro, graduated from high school there, and returned as a coach. "It was kinda like going back home for me when I went back to Jonesboro," says Larry. He was there from 1977 until 2001. "I guess that's 25 seasons at the same place. I stayed at Jonesboro my whole career. I raised a lot of kids." He had an impressive record as a six-man football coach. "Well, we had some kids that wanted to play and were dedicated enough to do what it took. My career record was 186 wins, 92 losses and three ties. We had a good run there. We made the playoffs 15 consecutive years, had nine straight district championships and at one time we had a 47-game district winning streak. We had eight seasons with 10-plus wins in them. We had a very good situation out there." Jonesboro doesn't have a lot of students. "K through twelve probably had 200 kids, sometimes less and few times more, but not many. It usually ran from 195 to

205. We'd have 60 to 70 kids in high school." Larry says he always dreaded playing Christoval in the playoffs. "They were a big six-man school. They would beat us, but they had a jinx on them, too, because they always met Fort Hancock in the state championship game and they never won state. Hancock beat them every time they played them, I guess. Some of the other schools in our district were Walnut Springs, Iredell, Cranfils Gap, Oglesby, Milford and Calvert."

by Tumbleweed
Smith

Larry not only coached all sports. He taught some major subjects, like Texas History, Economics and Government. "Whatever we needed to do, that's what we did." Six-man football is different from 11-man football. "For one thing, the field is 80 yards long and 40 yards wide. You have to go 15 yards for a first down. The ball has to be exchanged before it can cross the line of scrimmage, either with a hand-off or a pitch or whatever. Everybody is eligible for a pass. Other than that, it's just blocking and tackling. There's more open field running in six-man." Larry Pruitt lives at Pancake. He is now the attendance officer at Gatesville High School.

The General Store Collection

The Salado Sawmill, an artisan's workshop and gallery, carries a unique line of custom furniture, "The General Store Collection." This bold and chunky design contains many elements of the furnishings you would have found in stores and homes at the turn of the last century. The bead-board detailing and glass front door take you back to a simpler time. Bob Pascoe, owner of The Salado Sawmill, has created several pieces in this line.

Pascoe uses traditional construction techniques, using only solid woods. "There is no press board or fiber board in my work," Pascoe says. "I use mortise and tenon glue joints and a minimum of mechanical fasteners." The General Store design is very flexible, allowing for the creation of cabinet bases, breakfronts, tables, bookcases and the kitchen island pictured here. The entire collection can be seen at saladosawmill.com/generalstore.html.

Pascoe says he can design to your specification. "Just bring in a picture or sketch of something you're interested in and your specific requirements, like dimensions and wood type. I'll provide you with a bid and we can go from there. Pascoe has several other lines, including Arts and Crafts and Country Pine.

The Sawmill, a division of XtraWorX, LLC, is located at 409 Salado Plaza at the entrance to Mill Creek in Salado.

Gil Wanzor

Gil Wanzor to teach perspective drawing

Long-time Salado Village Artists member Gil Wanzor will conduct a perspective drawing class Oct. 19-20 in the art center, located just behind the Salado Civic Center.

"First you draw," says Wanzor. "Everyone loves to try to express themselves in art. And the first step is to draw."

"This class is called a two point perspective," he explained. "You can actually teach this method to third graders, but you keep the properties all your life."

The students will get a strong base in learning how to achieve the correct angles and a solid background in choosing the right visual aids to use in painting. "This will keep your cabins from falling off the mountain and help to learn how to lay your roads and rivers down flat," said Wanzor in discussing the content of the class.

The class will be for any individual's level of accomplishment, with personalized instruction, whether you are a beginner or an advanced student. "This is not blueprint drawing," he stated, "This will apply to creative art."

Wanzor studied and received his degrees at Kent State University and went on to teach at that institution. Actually, he has applied and studied art all his life, often lending his talents to the Village Artists and to the city of Salado as well.

The class will meet 9 a.m.-3 p.m. both days, and supplies are minimal. Contact Helen Alexander at 947-1089 to register and receive a supply list. Cost for the two day class is $100 with a discount for Village artists members. Lunch will be included.

Salado Volunteer Fire Department plans Carnival for Halloween

The Salado Volunteer Fire Department will hold its 2005 Halloween Carnival 5:30-8:30 p.m. Oct. 31 at the fire department.

A costume contest will take place at 7 p.m., and games such as ring toss, cake walk, spooky musical chairs, face painting and pumpkin decorating will be held. Prizes and candy will also be provided.

The public is invited to attend this free event.

Families in Crisis, Inc. will celebrate 25 years of progress 5:30-7:00 p.m. Oct. 13 with a reception at the office of Jeffrey W. McClure, 918 North Main St., Salado.

In 1980, a group of volunteers formed an organization to provide services to victims of family violence in the Fort Hood area.

Thousands of clients later and 25 years later, the agency now employs 25 professional who provide free and confidential services to victims of family violence and sexual assault in Bell, Coryell and Hamilton counties.

The organization incorporated in 1980 and, in 1983, purchased a 14,173 square foot facility that serves as the safe shelter facility. The shelter can house up to 55 clients per night and has space to house support staff.

In 1996, Families in Crisis, Inc. expanded existing nonresident outreach services to rural, underserved, and unserved populations by opening outreach offices in Belton, Gatesville, and Hamilton. A fourth outreach location has been opened in Temple.

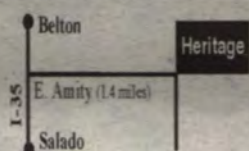

Services to these areas have increased the number of victims that the agency has been able to serve.

In 2004, the agency provided 8,630 shelter nights to 320 adults and 502 children, as well as non-residential outreach services to 583 clients.
