

Cartooning Texas, by Ben Sargent.

Cartooning Texas shown at Museum in Aug.

Beginning August 1 at the Salado Museum, Salado Village Voice will present "Cartooning Texas: One Hundred Years of Cartoon Art in the Lone Star State," an exhibition developed by Maury Forman and Robert A. Calvert for the Center for Texas Studies at the University of North Texas with support from Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Political cartoons in Texas often focus on hotly contested, controversial and colorful political campaigns—usually for the governor's chair.

In "Cartooning Texas" you will meet a fascinating array of flamboyant politicians, ranging from the controversial Governor Hogg to the remarkable Pappy O'Daniel.

"Cartooning Texas" is both a cartoon history of Texas politics and a history of political cartooning in Texas. It tells the story of one hundred years of events in Texas from 1890 to 1990 in a form that is wonderfully visible and precise.

This exhibition serves as a compilation of the visual commentaries of journalists about the issues and people most important to Texans during the 100-year period.

The exhibition will be available to the public August 1-29. For more information about viewing hours or to arrange group visits, call Salado Museum at 254-947-5232.

Humanities Texas develops and supports diverse programs across the state, including lectures, oral history projects, teacher institutes, traveling exhibitions and documentary films.

Lighting up the sky

Mill Creek Country Club and Tommye Prater provided a fireworks extravaganza on July 6 for locals who lined the banks of Salado Creek for the Saturday night event. The show lasted half an hour once full dark hit. Prior to dark, Color Me Brass warmed up the crowd with music. A full day of activities led up to the night-time show. You can find more photos of the fireworks online at saladovillagevoice.com. (PHOTOS BY TIM FLEISCHER)

Fourth of July picnic

Salado Historical Society hosted its annual Fourth of July picnic, a potluck affair, at the Salado High School cafeteria, attended by more than 100 people who brought side dishes, salads and desserts to complement the fried chicken provided by the Historical Society. The Salado Community Chorus performed patriotic songs and led a sing-a-long following remarks by State Rep. Brad Buckley. (PHOTOS BY MARILYN FLEISCHER)

He was raised at the Masonic Home and School in Fort Worth, Texas. After four years in the U.S. Navy, Carl received a Bachelor of Science degree in Art from Texas A&M at Commerce, Texas. He also received a Masters Degree in Art from the University of Houston. He attended a summer course in Italy at the University of Rome, studying art history, drawing and watercolor. He took a two-year commercial art course at the Art Institute of Houston. He also studied with western artist, Joe Radar Roberts, worked with G Harvey and Lajos Markos and has been painting and doing art shows ever since, for 65 years. After teaching art for 30 years in Houston, he retired to Marquez, so he could devote full time to painting. His paintings feature western landscapes, wildlife, antique cars and rural farm scenery.

American Beauty

We live in an era of public ugliness, of architects who deliberately make their forms unsightly and inhuman, and of public art installations that are invariably ridiculous.

The most obvious exception is the ballpark, which has gotten more beautiful rather than less in a great example of renewal through a return to tradition.

Paul Goldberger, a former architecture writer for The New York Times, traces this journey in his wonderful new book "Ballpark."

He rightly calls the ballpark "one of the greatest of all American building types" and argues that "as much as the town square, the street, the park, and the plaza, the baseball park is a key part of American public space."

Ballparks went from delightfully peculiar structures shoehorned into city streets, to monochromatic multiuse facilities with all the charm of public-works projects, before rediscovering the old forms.

The first ballpark was built in Brooklyn in 1862 and called "Union Grounds." Amazingly enough, "The Star-Spangled Banner," not yet the national anthem, was played before the first game. The wooden parks of the 19th century tended to burn down, sometimes spectacularly (a fire at the South End Grounds in Boston took out 200 buildings in Roxbury).

The 20th century brought the age of steel, brick and concrete, and "the Golden Age" of 1912-14. It gave us Crosley Field, where the Reds played until 1970, with an upward slope known as the "terrace" in left field; Tiger Stadium, quirky and cozy (a flagpole stood in the field of play in deep center); and especially the "jewel boxes" of Fenway, Wrigley and Ebbets.

Subsequent decades brought a flight from cities, and from idiosyncrasy. Cleveland previewed what was to come in the 1930s with its publicly funded, gargantuan, usually half-empty, symmetrical, multisport Municipal Stadium, or the "Mistake by the Lake."

The truly dreadful, indistinguishable concrete doughnuts, made for football and baseball but manifestly unsuited for the latter, arrived beginning in the 1960s.

The turning point was Camden Yards in Baltimore, opened in 1992. Originally conceived as another multisport suburban facility, it instead decisively moved baseball beyond such hybrids. Camden Yards has a red-brick exterior and exposed steel supports inside, eschewing the concrete of the doughnuts. It limits foul territory to bring ground-level seats closer. The stands are arranged asymmetrically to avoid a deadening sameness, and frame a view of the Baltimore skyline, anchoring the park in the city.

It was such a triumph that its retro style has become a design cliché. Its influence stamped the best of the new parks: PNC Park in Pittsburgh, which, outside of Fenway and Wrigley, might be the most charming place to watch a game in the country; Oracle Park in San Francisco, which is everything its execrable forebear, Candlestick, wasn't; T-Mobile Park in Seattle, which is enchanting despite a retractable roof.

Goldberger writes of how the ballpark, with its lush field at the center of an enclosure of concrete and steel, is the garden in the city, a sports combination of the Jeffersonian agrarian tradition and the Hamiltonian emphasis on cities and industry.

It's a wonder we managed to mess it up, but we did, before the current revival that shows there's always a way back.

Bell County Historical commission volunteers clean historic headstones

Several historic headstones at South Belton Cemetery in Belton were "given a scrubbing" Saturday morning, June 29, when Bell County Historical Commission members and other volunteers began to converge on the cemetery, just after daybreak.

The volunteers immediately went to work to take advantage of the clear day needed to clean the stones. Armed with protective gloves and garb, brushes, spray bottles, pressurized garden pump sprayers, and a special tombstone cleaner, they began their task.

"We cleaned about 20 tombstones today," said Nancy Kelsey, chair for the BCHC.

Salado Legends 27th annual performance

Central Texas' favorite outdoor musical drama, Salado Legends, will be presented at Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheater on Royal Street in Salado on July 20, July 27 and August 3.

An optional catered BBQ dinner will be served before the play at 7:15 p.m. at Tablerock's Park where you will be eating on limestone tables, seated on rock benches under Live Oak shade trees. Reservations for the $13 catered dinner are required.

If you wish to attend the 8:15 p.m. show only (no dinner), you may purchase tickets ($20 adult and $5 child) at the gate the night of the performance.

To purchase tickets online with your credit card for dinner and show or show only go to CentralTexasTickets.com. For group rates call 254-760-6838.

Playwright Jackie Mills was honored in Washington

D.C. when Salado Legends was placed in the Library of Congress as a "Local Legacy." Only four outdoor theaters in the US, out of 124, have been so honored.

This year there are over 100 cast and crew members in the epic tale that the Library of Congress called "a record of life in America at the end of the 19th century."

Add the horses, carriage, wagon, saloon girls, and black powder and you've got a memory-making evening!

This year will be the 14th year Donnie Williams has directed the play and the third year that Cassidy Carpenter has been choreographer. Cassidy has been in Salado Legends since she was eight -years-old. Thom Wilson, playing the revered "Mr. Tenney" for many years will serve as the company's assistant director. Jon McHaney, Cameron High School theatre instructor and long time actor "Legends" actor, will call the show all performance nights.

Andy Anderson is once again called upon to perform many "quick changes" in Salado Legends. Last year, the full-time Chief Meteorologist for KCEN TV for the past 21 years and the part-time movie actor appeared in a three-part PBS documentary named "Texas Before the Alamo." This year, Andy has another cowboy role in "Showdown on the Brazos" airing this fall (see www.imdb.com). Andy, also a horse trainer, has had major roles in Salado Legends for the past fourteen years.

Cowboy Hall of Fame honoree, Bob Stewart, also had a role in "Texas Before the Alamo" and joining Andy for a spot in "Showdown on the Brazos." Bob has had roles in numerous movies and is the 2018 President of The Bell County Sheriff's Posse. This year Bob will again take the role of Malcolm Ross in "Legends." He has been a major figure in Salado Legends and Fright Trail for the past nine years.

Joey Kincaid, will return this year to his role for the past six years as Andrew McIver. Megan Daniell, a recent Temple College graduate, has appeared in Tablerock productions for the past eight years and will portray Lucy McDougal. These are the two young lovers whose story teases out throughout the play.

Howard Horton, retired University of Mary Hardin Baylor professor, returns for the twenty-first year to portrayed Sam Houston. He is perhaps the only actor who doesn't need a mic, but he, all actors with leading roles, are so equipped.

Mayor Skip Blancett will give the welcome and opening remarks. He has a cameo role in Salado Legends this season and has had roles in "Legends" for the past four years. Skip also mastered the role of Scrooge in A Christmas Carol on the Tablerock stage.

Georgio Graf will portray Tonweya, the Tonkawa Scout this season. Georgio is an accomplished dancer having spent thirteen years acting and dancing on Broadway, off Broadway and touring the east coast. He is once again lend his dancing techniques to highlight the Tonkawa Legend of Origin dramatic scene. Mr. Graf was in Salado Legends several years ago and portrayed Mr. Orgain, an honored Salado settler.

ADDITIONAL NOTICE. TCEQ's Executive Director has determined the application is administratively complete and will conduct a technical review of the application. After technical review of the application is complete, the Executive Director may prepare a draft permit and will issue a preliminary decision on the application. Notice of the Application and Preliminary Decision will be published and mailed to those who are on the county-wide mailing list and to those who are on the mailing list for this application. That notice will contain the deadline for submitting public comments.

PUBLIC COMMENT / PUBLIC MEETING. You may submit public comments or request a public meeting on this application. The purpose of a public meeting is to provide the opportunity to submit comments or to ask questions about the application. TCEQ will hold a public meeting if the Executive Director determines that there is a significant degree of public interest in the application or if requested by a local legislator. A public meeting is not a contested case hearing.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A CONTESTED CASE HEARING. After the deadline for submitting public comments, the Executive Director will consider all timely comments and prepare a response to all relevant and material, or significant public comments. Unless the application is directly referred for a contested case hearing, the response to comments, and the Executive Director's decision on the application, will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments and to those persons who are on the mailing list for this application. If comments are received, the mailing will also provide instructions for requesting reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision and for requesting a contested case hearing. A contested case hearing is a legal proceeding similar to a civil trial in state district court.

TO REQUEST A CONTESTED CASE HEARING, YOU MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN YOUR REQUEST: your name, address, phone number; applicant's name and proposed permit number; the location and distance of your property/activities relative to the proposed facility; a specific description of how you would be adversely affected by the facility in a way not common to the general public; a list of all disputed issues of fact that you submit during the comment period and, the statement "[I/we] request a contested case hearing." If the request for contested case hearing is filed on behalf of a group or association, the request must designate the group's representative for receiving future correspondence; identify by name and physical address an individual member of the group who would be adversely affected by the proposed facility or activity; provide the information discussed above regarding the affected member's location and distance from the facility or activity; explain how and why the member would be affected; and explain how the interests the group seeks to protect are relevant to the group's purpose.

Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

The Commission may only grant a request for a contested case hearing on issues the requestor submitted in their timely comments that were not subsequently withdrawn. If a hearing is granted, the subject of a hearing will be limited to disputed issues of fact or mixed questions of fact and law relating to relevant and material water quality concerns submitted during the comment period.

MAILING LIST. If you submit public comments, a request for a contested case hearing or a reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision, you will be added to the mailing list for this specific application to receive future public notices mailed by the Office of the Chief Clerk. In addition, you may request to be placed on: (1) the permanent mailing list for a specific applicant name and permit number; and/or (2) the mailing list for a specific county. If you wish to be placed on the permanent and/or the county mailing list, clearly specify which list(s) and send your request to TCEQ Office of the Chief Clerk at the address below.

INFORMATION AVAILABLE ONLINE. For details about the status of the application, visit the Commissioners' Integrated Database at www.tceq.texas.gov/goto/cid. Search the database using the permit number for this application, which is provided at the top of this notice.

AGENCY CONTACTS AND INFORMATION. Public comments and requests must be submitted either electronically at <https://www14.tceq.texas.gov/epic/eComment/>, or in writing to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Office of the Chief Clerk, MC-105, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711-3087. Please be aware that any contact information you provide, including your name, phone number, email address, and physical address will become part of the agency's public record.
