

Spooky & safe spots for Halloween night

There are plenty of scary and fun Halloween events across the Village of Salado this year.

J.Genevieve continues its Haunted Art House, a temporary art exhibit celebrating the darker themes of the season, curated by Georgetown, artist Sonia Mathis until Oct. 31.

Dr. Barton's Haunted House will be hosted by The Barton House. A costume and Cocktail Party will begin at 5 p.m., tickets are $35. From 10 p.m. - midnight a Ghost Whisperer event will be held with a guest limit of 40 people. The $40 ticket includes appetizers.

Halloween night will feature trunk or treat style festivals in addition to businesses open for trick or treating.

Trek or Travel will be held from 5 - 8 p.m. at 3C Cowboy Church, 16258 Gooseneck Road. Activities include a mule drawn wagon ride, bounce house, hay ride and trunk or treating as well as food and drink offering.

At First Baptist Church of Salado's Trunk or Treat you will find food trucks, games, candy and prizes at the church on South Main.

Salado FFA will host their annual Trunk or Treat from 6 - 8 p.m. in the Salado High School Parking Lot at the corner of FM2484 and Williams Road. In the event of harsh weather trunk or treat stations will move indoors.

Stop by The View at the Creek and First Texas Brokerage in the evening for candy.

Halloween safety tips from Salado police dept.

Salado police chief Pat Boone gives the following tips for having a safe Halloween night.

Safe Trick or Treating

- Cross the street at corners, using crosswalks. Look left, right and left again when crossing and keep looking as you cross.

- Put electronic devices down, keep heads up and walk, don't run, across the street.

- Teach children to make eye contact with drivers before crossing in front of them.

- Always walk on sidewalks or paths. If there are no sidewalks, walk facing traffic as far to the left as possible. Children should walk on direct routes with the fewest street crossings.

- Watch for cars that are turning or backing up.

- Teach children to never dart out into the street or cross between parked cars.

- Join kids under age 12 for trick-or-treating. If kids are mature enough to be out without supervision, tell them to stick to familiar areas that are well lit and trick-or-treat in groups.

Costume Safety

- Decorate costumes and bags with reflective tape or stickers and, if possible, choose light colors.

- Choose face paint and makeup whenever possible instead of masks, which can obstruct a child's vision.

- Have kids carry glow sticks or flashlights to help them see and be seen by drivers.

- When selecting a costume, make sure it is the right size to prevent trips and falls.

Driver Safety

- Slow down and be especially alert in residential neighborhoods. Children are excited on Halloween and may move in unpredictable ways.

- Take extra time to look for kids at intersections, on medians and on curbs.

- Enter and exit driveways and alleys slowly and carefully.

- Get rid of any distractions - like your phone - in your car so you can concentrate on the road and your surroundings.

- Turn your headlights on earlier in the day to spot children from greater distances.

Popular trick-or-treating hours are 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Be especially alert for kids during those hours.

Barrow Costume Party

Salado Highland Games is oldest in state of Texas

The second weekend in November is everyone's chance to be a little bit Scottish for a day!

The 58th annual Scottish Gathering and Highland Games (www.saladoscottishfestival.com) are coming to the grounds of the Salado Civic Center, Nov. 8-10.

This family-friendly event is the oldest Scottish festival in Texas and has been sponsored continuously by the Salado Museum since 1961. All proceeds benefit the museum, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Young and old alike will enjoy hearing the bagpipes play, seeing the Tossing of the Caber, watching the famous Sword Dance, listening to Celtic singers and musicians, visiting the Clan Village, the largest gathering of Scottish Clans in Texas where Clan members share information on Scottish history and genealogy, and, of course, all those men in kilts!

The Calling of the Clans is held at 6 p.m. Nov. 8 on the banks of Salado Creek just north of the museum, a solemn torchlight ceremony recreating the gathering of Scottish clans in 1314 to fight for Scotland's freedom.

The Civic Center grounds open at 9 a.m. on Nov. 9 with a full slate of activities that include sanctioned competitions in Scottish athletics, bagpiping, drumming and Highland dancing.

Official opening ceremonies are held at noon Nov. 9 with the Bands and Clans Parade on Main Street followed by presentations and massed bands on the grounds.

The parade starts at North Pace Park Road and moves north on Main Street to the Civic Center.

People are encouraged to bring lawn chairs for viewing along the route.

Activities continue with the hilarious Bonniest Knees Contest, a large Celtic marketplace, food court and live Celtic music. Featured entertainers are Scottish singers Ed Miller and Carl Peterson, renowned guitarist Rich Brotherton, and Celtic band Murder the Stout.

Grounds open at 9 a.m. Nov. 10 with the Kirkin' o' the Tartan devotional service, bagpipe bands, Clan tents, dog parade and costume contest, children's games, music, food, and shopping.

The Wee Scots Gift Shop is open all three days at the Salado Museum on South Main Street.

For ticket prices and more information, go to www.saladoscottishfestival.com or call the Museum at 254-947-5232.

Family Relief serves thousands of kids over the decades

For two decades, the Salado Family Relief Fund has brought Christmas to hundreds of Salado families that otherwise may not have had any gifts under the tree for their children.

Last year, the SFRF served 142 elementary and middle school aged children in 64 families in the Salado school district by providing Christmas presents to them. The SFRF also coordinated its annual back-to-school program to provide backpacks and school supplies for about 150 students in the school district.

It does so through the support of local churches, service groups and organizations.

In addition to these two major programs, the Salado Family Relief Fund provides services throughout the year to families in need, including help with rent/mortgage, help with utilities and help with minor medical expenses.

The SFRF also contributes to Salado ISD lunch fund for students who are in need and do not qualify for the free lunch program under federal guidelines. It also provides gas cards of up to $25 for travelers through the area who show the need for help.

SFRF Board members are President Renee Oas, Vice President Basilia Flores, Treasurer Juli Bergstrom, Secretary Britanni Broussard and members Richard Sapp,

J. R. Lett, Laura Novotny, Jessica Halfmann and Marilyn Griffin

"Our members enjoy being able to help others who might be facing difficult times when a little help means so much," said Richard Sapp.

"We are looking forward in continuing our service to the community and possibly doing more in the coming years," he added. "We appreciate all of the support that comes from the Village of Salado and the surrounding area."

"We are blessed to receive this support from our local churches, civic organizations, businesses and

Record high markets despite record high fed borrowing

The S&P 500 Stock Index (SPX) rose a delightful 1.22% for the week to close at 3022.55, finally clearing the "3000 ceiling" off which it has been bouncing for several months. That rise puts the Index at only a 0.11% loss for the trailing three months and up a whopping 13.69% from a year ago. Before we get too excited, the SPX is still three points below where it was in late July when it rose to 3025 before succumbing to more tariff-related bad news. It is also only about 5% higher than it was in January of 2018, 21 months ago. In short, the stock market appears ready for either a breakout or a slap back.

The yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury note fell during the middle of the week but soared to close at 1.80% by the close on Friday, confirming the end of the inverted Treasury yield curve. West Texas Intermediate crude oil closed out at $56.63, 5.44% higher than a week ago although still down over 16% from last year at this time. Both the Treasury yield and the price of oil were credited to optimism that the U.S. and China might have a breakthrough to end the trade war.

The Economy

The U.S. Treasury finally closed out the books on the fiscal year 2019 and, as of the end of September when the federal fiscal year ended, the federal deficit for the year was officially $984.4 billion, up 26% from 2018. 2019's overdraft brings the total official federal debt due to 78% of GDP. Barring some major unseen event, all forecasts anticipate that the total for the calendar year will exceed $1 trillion and keep on doing so for at least the next decade. In past economic cycles, the federal government borrowed heavily during times of war and depression then paid down much of the debt in good

Market & Economic Update

By Jeffrey W. McClure

times. This time around we have decided to give ourselves a tax cut and increase spending. Economists generally do not see a good end to this practice but only time will tell.

We can say that the record-high levels of short term borrowing by the federal government are having an unprecedented effect. Beginning about six weeks ago, the Fed was infusing $35 billion per week into the short-term Treasury market each week as it bought freshly issued Treasury bills to fix a sudden and unexpected cash shortage in the economy. Two weeks ago, as it became apparent that there was still a short-term cash flow problem, the weekly infusion was raised to $75 billion. Last week came the announcement that the ceiling was to be raised to $120 billion. On Friday, the Fed announced an extra $77.3 billion would be added to major banks' liquidity to cover the weekend. While the intervention of the New York Federal Reserve bank to offset a cash crunch in the money-center banks is absolutely one of the prime missions of the Federal Reserve, to trigger an emergency relief function of the U.S. central bank in a time of economic boom should be taken seriously. We have triggered a stress crack in the system. The culprit is the decision not only by Congress to run amazingly high deficits in a time of high economic demand but also by the Trump Administration to focus the borrowing on the short end of the curve. As the short-term Treasury securities mature, the Treasury must not only sell new ones to cover the deficit but also more to cover the maturing issues. This cycle is piling up and in doing so draining the cash from the system and forcing the Federal Reserve to step in to prevent a crisis.

Meanwhile, in the bigger economic picture, durable goods orders in the U.S. were down 1.1% in September. Shipments to fill old orders have been declining for the past three months and were down another 0.4% for the month. At the same time, inventories continued to increase, suggesting that manufacturers are still producing more than they are selling each month. Capital goods, which are the high-dollar items companies use to make other things and to do new business, declined 2.8% in September.

We certainly don't know if history will repeat itself but in 1920, one hundred years ago, largely because of tariffs, fiscal mismanagement, and an unexpected cash shortage, our economy experienced the largely forgotten "mini-depression" of 1920-21. It followed a record-low unemployment period and a decline in domestic manufacturing. There are similar forces in play today but there are also striking contrasts. As always, all we can do it watch and be aware.

The evidence continues to mount that consumer spending alone is propping up the economy with all the other elements surviving on the hope that the trade war will end soon and bring with it a resurgence in international trade. At the same time, each survey of business owners both here and around the world grows gloomier each month.

Snapshot provides look at growth in Salado ISD student enrollment

This past Friday, October 25, was the official "snapshot date" for public schools in Texas. The snapshot date is always the last Friday in October and it is when the official enrollment for each district and school is counted for that school year.

Our snapshot enrollment numbers by grade level for this year are the following:

- Early Education = 3
- 3 year old Pre-Kindergarten = 21
- 4 year old Pre-Kindergarten = 43
- Kindergarten = 118
- 1st Grade = 138
- 2nd Grade = 139
- 3rd Grade = 151
- 4th Grade = 177
- 5th Grade = 163
- 6th Grade = 137
- 7th Grade = 167
- 8th Grade = 173
- 9th Grade = 183
- 10th grade = 147
- 11th grade = 170
- 12th grade = 143
- 18+ program = 1

Superintendent's Corner

by Dr. Michael Novotny

Our district enrollment is 2,074 students. This is an increase of 133 students from last year, which is the largest one-year enrollment increase in the history of our school district.

Here are our district enrollment numbers from the past several years:

- 2012 = 1,348
- 2013 = 1,461
- 2014 = 1,556
- 2015 = 1,656
- 2016 = 1,748
- 2017 = 1,862
- 2018 = 1,941
- 2019 = 2,074

This increase of 726 students over the past seven years represents a 54% increase, which is the largest percentage increase out of the 76 school districts in our Waco Region.

Texas school districts also use our high school snapshot date enrollments for the University Interscholastic League (UIL) realignment every two years. In 2017 the 4A size classification had a high school enrollment range from 505 students to 1,149 students and Salado High School had 563 students.

While the UIL can adjust the enrollment ranges for each size classification, our current high school enrollment of 644 students will most likely still be within the 4A size classification. The first week of December the UIL will release the 1A through 6A classifications and cutoff enrollments. The first week of February the UIL will release the UIL districts and regions.

Trump should want a rapid impeachment

The Ukraine story hasn't been good for President Donald Trump, and there's only one way out -- to get impeached, and the sooner, the better.

Trump obviously hates the idea of being impeached. He thinks it's unfair, and is raging against the process with every political and legal argument his team can muster and every insult and countercharge he can make on Twitter. But he doesn't have any choice in the matter.

Impeachment is baked in the cake. There's no way that Democrats, having opened an impeachment inquiry (although without a vote), can pull up short now. How could they, after tout revelation after revelation, including a supposed "confession" by Trump's chief of staff?

As impeachment rumbles on, it puts every Trump lapse (Syria, Doral, etc.) in starker relief and places it in the context of the question of whether he should be impeached and removed.

Meanwhile, if support for impeachment is about 50 percent or a little higher, there's every reason for Democrats to stretch it out. The current process suits their purposes nicely. They interview officials in private and then leak the most damaging parts. There's no danger of public hearings bouncing the wrong way ...

Rich Lowry

because there are no public hearings.

The impeachment inquiry also has the advantage of giving the Democratic base what it wants, and creating a strong sense of action against Trump. When Republicans took the House in the middle of Barack Obama's first term, they had trouble controlling the expectations of their own base, which wanted immediate results when the GOP had limited power. Impeachment allows Democrats to forestall such a feeling among their own voters, even though they, too, aren't getting anything substantive done.

This suggests that, as of this moment, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi looks to have judged the politics of impeachment shrewdly, holding off when it still seemed politically premature and striking when the prospect of moving the needle of public opinion presented itself.

Given how impeachment is playing, she should welcome the White House embracing the normal strategy in these fights of attempting to frustrate and delay the inquiry. Not only is this standard approach not fully working -- former and current officials are talking to House investigators regardless -- at the margins it lengthens an inquiry that's working for the Democrats. All that said, it's always possible the public will tire of the probe, especially if it reaches past the first month or two of an election year.

What can Trump do about any of this? Absent a mea culpa and promise of full transparency, which aren't in the cards for temperamental reasons if nothing else, Trump can't change the dynamic or the timing. But he should be secretly rooting for the rapid arrival of Impeachment Day (and the near-inevitable acquittal in the Senate).

It will be one of the biggest stories of the Trump presidency. Then, like everything else, it will grow old very fast. Impeachment won't be forgotten, but it will fade into part of the tapestry of endless Trump controversies and outrages, from Charlottesville to his Helsinki press conference with Vladimir Putin.

Democrats will believe they struck a decisive blow against Trump, when they really may have helped him turn the page.

WE KNOW EXACTLY WHERE TO GET THE MONEY TO FIX INEQUALITY

IT'S NO SECRET WHERE AMERICA'S WEALTH HAS GONE IN RECENT DECADES: UPWARDS.

Jesse Jackson ran a strong populist campaign for president in 1988, advocating bold new policies and programs to address inequality. This prompted establishment skeptics to scoff, "Where 'ya gonna get the money?"

Jackson answered directly: We'll "get it from where it went."

He meant from corporations and the rich, which had long been rigging the economic system and government policies to shift income and wealth from the workaday majority to themselves.

Thirty years later, that shift has become an avalanche: Just three men — Jeff Bezos, Bill Gates, and Warren Buffett — now own more of the nation's wealth than the 165 million Americans who make up the bottom half of our population combined.

This extreme (and expanding) separation of the few from the many is why Propositions progressive policy makers today are calling — as Jackson had — for big, forward-thinking populist solutions. But again, the smug forces of the status quo scoff, "Where 'ya gonna get the money?"

The answer is the same one Jackson offered decades ago, but this time two new factors are in play.

First, Senators Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren have offered specific, easy-to-understand proposals to tax multimillionaires and billionaires to pay for the structural changes needed to open opportunities for the poor and middle class.

Second, the public now enthusiastically supports such a tax: A recent poll found two-thirds of Americans (including a majority of Republicans) favoring Senator Warren's plan for a 2 percent tax on fortunes above $50 million.

Inequality will not fix itself. As the American majority has had to do periodically in our history, We The People must intervene to keep greed and wealth concentration from suffocating our society's essential democratic values of fairness, justice, and opportunity for all.

Paul's Journey concert at Cedar Valley Baptist Nov. 9

Paul's Journey performs Nov. 9 at Cedar Valley Baptist

Paul's Journey will perform their final gospel concert in Salado at First Cedar Valley Baptist Church at 6 p.m. Nov. 9.

The gospel quartet will be retiring at the end of this year.

Paul's Journey is a full time Gospel Music Ministry. The group travels about 200 days a year nationwide.

"We want to present a program that is not only entertaining but uplifting to the soul as well," said bass singer Rod Treme. "Wherever the Lord sends us, we go with these thoughts in mind: to lift up the name of Jesus, to see lost souls saved, and to see other Christians touched by God."

The ministry of Paul's Journey started over 37 years ago with four young men all related to each other. Of course, many faces have come and gone since that time, but the calling and commitment of the group has never changed.

The group was voted SGM FanFair Favorite Male Quartet in 2007. They were awarded South Texas Association Group of the Year for 2001, 2004, 2007, and then again in 2014.

Rod Treme is the bass singer and manager of the group. He is also a licensed, ordained minister. Rod is an original member of the group and has written many of the songs performed and recorded by the group including "I'm On A Mission", "The Almighty One", "My Lord's Coming Some Day", "When I go Home", and "A Boy Like Me". He was voted S.T.G.M.A Male Vocalist of the year for 2004 and 2014. He was also voted at S. G. M.Fan Fair as one of the top five bass singers in the country. Rod and his wife Diane live in Magnolia, TX. They have three daughters, five grandchildren and one great grandchild. Rod is to be inducted to the Southern Gospel Music Hall of fame this fall.

Lady Eagles qualify for state McGregor leads pack of 4A's top runners

Salado Lady Eagles cross country team qualified for the State Meet by placing third at the Region IV cross country meet Oct. 28. Jaci McGregor won the race.

The State Championship Meet will be held on Nov. 9 in Round Rock.

McGregor ran a phenomenal race to claim the title of Region IV Champion. She ran a blistering time of 11:26 on the 2 mile course. McGregor beat her two nemeses from Liberty Hill by more than 10 seconds: Zaila Smith had a time of 11:42.63 and Ayanna Donwerth had a time of 11:44:38. McGregor also outpaced the winners from the other Regional meets across the state: Region I, sophomore Breanna Stuart, Canyon, 11:28.50; Region II, sophomore Adele Clarke, Celina, 11:34.16; and Region III, senior Emily Garcia, Alvarado, 11:50.90.

Anna Lesley ran a really strong race and also qualified as an individual medalist by placing ninth with a time of 12:21.76.

The team was rounded out with strong finishes by Samantha Vargas 13:02 (33rd), Taylor Rich 13:30 (67th), Kate Neas 13:33 (72nd), Avery Fossum 13:51 (81st) and Ellie Mescher 14:55 (145th).

The girls raced in a field of 181 runners.

"We are incredibly proud of our Lady Eagles!" Coach Corey Baird said. "All of their hard work, effort and dedication to achieve their season goals has paid off."

Varsity boys place sixth; Rickey to state

The Varsity Eagles cross country team placed sixth out of 24 teams at the Region 4 4A Championship on Oct. 28 in Corpus Christi.

Logan Rickey placed third overall and qualified for the state meet Nov. 9 in Round Rock.

"This has been a great season for the guys and good luck to Logan Rickey at State!" Coach Michael Goos said.

Rickey covered the 3-mile course in a time of 16:39 for third place behind Hudson Bennett, a freshman runner from Burnet with a time of 16:21.39 and Adan Jonjitud, a senior from Zapata who ran a 16:28.40.

Also running for the Salado varsity boys were sophomore Isaac Huerta, 34th, 17:46; junior Grant Sellers, 52nd, 18:13; junior Trey Graham, 71st, 18:47; freshman Owen Pitcock, 83rd, 19:12; freshman Jake Rechtfertig, 118th, 20:00 and freshman Ryan Novotny, 141st, 20:29.

Ladies in 2nd place

Salado Lady Eagles will be the runners-up in District 27-4A behind the state-ranked Liberty Hill Lady Panthers. The girls played their final district game after press time this week against the Burnet Lady Bulldogs, whom they swept in the first round of play.

Meanwhile, the third place team in District 27-4A, the Taylor Lady Ducks, faced the Liberty Hill girls on Oct. 29. Even if Taylor won and Salado lost, the Lady Eagles will be the second place team because it won both head-to-head matches against Taylor.

Salado will face the Canyon Lake Hawks, the third place team in District 28-4A in the first round of the playoffs in a match that has yet to be set as of presstime. We will publish the match details on our website and social media channels when they are announced. The Bi-District matches must be played Nov. 4-5.

After dropping the first set 21-25, Salado Lady Eagles fought through three close sets to win their District match against the Taylor Lady Ducks on Oct. 25. It was the final home game for Salado.

The second set was a marathon as the squads fought to a 34-32 final. Taylor led 23-21 before Lainey Taylor got a kill and Landry Rogers got two to give Salado a slight lead 24-23. Taylor led 25-24 until Rogers had back-to-back kills for a 26-25 lead. An error by Salado tied the game at 26-26. Neither team could get the two-point edge until Salado went on a 3-point run with a serving ace book-ended by kills by Rogers gave the Lady Eagles the 34-32 win. Salado won the third set

25-20 with a block by Ha-leigh Wilk and kills by Taylor Rich and Maddy Wade giving Salado the win.

The Lady Eagles led 24-19 in the fourth set before Taylor closed the gap thanks to two hitting errors, a Taylor kill and a shot into the net. Taylor Rich put an end to it with her kill for the 25-23 lead.

Rogers led the girls with 28 kills, 3 aces and 2 blocks. Taylor had 15 kills and 2 blocks in the match. Manning had 9 kills, 1 block, following by Law and Ford, 3 kills each, Rich, 2 kills and Will and Wade, a kill each.

Prior to the win over Taylor, the Lady Eagles were in a battle for a share of the district championship last week. The Lady Eagles came out flat against Liberty Hill, but would not go away easily in the match played on the road Oct. 22.

After dropping the first set 15-25, Salado would respond well and make Liberty Hill earn every point. However, the Lady Eagles couldn't get the big point late, falling 25-27. They would again compete in the third set, but ultimate fall short 20-25. Senior Landry Rogers would lead the charge for Salado racking up 17 kills on the night.

JV Red – Salado's JV Red squad would hold themselves back with too many unforced errors to get any real momentum started. Liberty Hill cruised to victory in straight sets (25-17, 25-14).

JV White – The Lady Eagles JV White team came out to a hot start competing with the Lady Panthers. However, 13-12 would be as close as Salado would get. The dropped the match with scores of 25-15 and 25-9.

Even on their off-week, the Salado Eagles worked hard. They took time from practice to go to the Salado Volunteer Fire Department stations and wash the fire trucks and also washed the cars and trucks for the Salado Police Department. (PHOTO BY TRAVIS BURLESON)

Eagle football players head to fire station to wash vehicles of First Responders

BY TRAVIS BURLESON
SALADO EAGLE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

During their open date of competition recently the Salado Eagle Varsity boys football team responded to a different call.

Right after school dismissed, and their classmates scattered for a long weekend, the entire Eagle squad bussed over to Salado Fire Station #2 where they spent their time helping First Responders with a variety of chores and projects. Another contingent of the team was transported to Fire Station #1 off of Church street.

Coordinated between Dr. Travis Burleson, Director of Player Development for the Eagles, Precinct Judge Cliff Coleman, and Fire Chief, Shane Berrier the Eagle players washed fire trucks, police cars, and other response vehicles. They also cleaned out and wiped down interior areas of the vehicles, as well as sweeping, vacuuming, rolling firehoses, and performing general maintenance at both Fire Stations.

Said Chief Berrier, "This was so great! The Team brought over more manpower than we hardly ever have. Every weekend our volunteers have a chore list to complete, but instead the football team was able to do them! That afternoon a couple of our trucks had just come back from a call in the country, so they were filthy. It was perfect timing!"

Indeed it was, as local law enforcement and county officials even stopped by to have their vehicles cleaned.

"Coach Haire has a pretty straightforward philosophy that he preaches to the boys," Dr. Burleson said. "People spend their time and money to come out every week and watch our Team perform, so this (open weekend) is a way we can give back to our Community and surrounding area."

"We often forget the luxury and benefit we receive of having First Responders on-call 24/7, so this is a way to give the boys some perspective and refresh their appreciation for what we have and enjoy," Coach Haire said of the service project.

In addition to their service work, Eagle players got a tour of the Fire Stations and explanation of how various emergency equipment functioned. Holding the heavy jaws-of-life cutting device, one of players equipped, "Oh man?! How do ya'll hold these heavy things?!!" "Same way you do," responded Berrier. "When your adrenaline is pumping you can accomplish all sorts of things you normally couldn't."

The Eagle team certainly accomplished much on their Friday afternoon.

Following their service-work at the Fire Stations, the Varsity team enjoyed the rest of their night off at a nearby food, game, and attraction park.

The cold weather did not slow up Salado Eagles ground game as three rushers went over 100 yards as the “Vaunted Slot-T was executed to perfection in the Eagles’ 43-15 win over the Madisonville Mustangs on Oct. 25.

The Salado offensive linemen Bryce Dobbins, Joe Sampson, Gavin Keyser, Nick Sibbitt and Avery Womack wore down the Mustangs defensive line and opened holes for running backs Wrook Brown, Reid Vincent and Hunter Turk to rack up 442 yards of offense on the night.

Madisonville won the toss and elected to receive. The Mustangs took their open drive down the field on the Eagle defense to score a 8-yard touchdown run by QB Tyrese Brown at the 9:40 mark in the first quarter. The point after touchdown failed to make the score 6-0 Mustangs.

Salado’s first drive was capped off with a 20-yard TD run by Wrook Brown, who also tacked on the PAT to take the lead 7-6 with 3:44 left in the first quarter.

The Mustangs did not take long to regain the lead with a 2-yard run for the touchdown and their kick failed again to bring the score 12-7 Mustangs at the 1:03 mark in the first

The Eagles next series continued their ground attack and at the 9:59 mark in the second quarter, Hunter Turk hit “up the gut” of the Mustang defense and scored on a 35 yard TD run. The Eagles got in the Swing-Gate formation on the point after and scored the two-point conversion when Brown connected with Kofi Stoglin to make the score 15-12 Salado.

Madisonville would knot the game up 15-15 with a 25-yard field goal from Juan Polanco with 2:15 left in the first half.

Salado took their next drive down the field with outstanding blocking of the offensive line and great running from the back. Salado’s Brown scored a TD run from 3 yards out and add the PAT to regain the lead 22-15 with 0:55 seconds left in the half.

The Eagles received the second half kick-off and on this series the Eagle Slot-T offense maneuvered the football down the field chewing up the clock, engineered by signal caller Hutton Haire to the Mustang’s one yard line. Hutton Haire then scored a 1-yard touchdown run and Brown would add the PAT to increase the lead 29-15 with 4:22 left in the 3rd quarter.

The Eagle Defense would come out with half-time adjustments and stifle the Mustangs offense the whole second half. Kofi Stoglin, Lucas Morvant, Peyton Miller, Kory Walker, Caleb Self, Latrell Jenkins, Travis Carter. Noah Mescher and Greg Washington were the top tacklers of the Eagle Defenders on the night. Stoglin and Morvant were the top tacklers of the game with Kofi Stoglin also recovering a Mustangs fumble during the district ball game.

The Eagles scored two more times in the District 8-4A D2 football game. Reid Vincent found the end zone from 53 yards out and the Brown PAT to bring the score 36-15 with 9:43 left in the fourth period. Wrook Brown would score his third Touchdown run of the night with a 73-yard run with 6:32 left in the fourth and Brown added the point after to bring the score to 43-15 and this would be the final score. The Eagles bring their record to 6-2 overall and 3-1 in District 8-4A D2.

Texas Stagecoach Wine Trail celebrates Centex favorites

Turn off the cable news pundits and celebrate election weekend by exploring the wineries of central Texas. The Texas Stagecoach Wine Trail ticket gives the holder the opportunity to taste three complimentary wines at 10 central Texas wineries.

Embark on a memorable journey to the finest wineries in central Texas from Nov. 1 - 3. Along the way, you'll drive routes that were operated by western stagecoaches for over sixty years. While the stagecoach was rendered obsolete in the 1880's, it survives as a rugged symbol of the West. This trail is more than just a group of wineries; it is a nod to the history of our region and the spirit of adventure we all share.

Participants in the trail are encouraged to verify winery business hours as they plan their route. They can start where they like and are encouraged to take their time as the trail event lasts all three days. Stops along the route range from Clifton through Waco, down to Salado and including Rogers.

This is designed to be a self-guided tour, designated drivers are encouraged.

Begin your tour in the Village with Salado Winery and Axis Winery then plan your route to other participating wineries and Vineyards including Dancing Bee Winery in Rogers, 3 Texans Vineyard and Moose and Goose Winery in Temple, Country Springs Vineyard in Lorena, Kissing Tree Vineyards in Eddy, Valley Mills Vineyards, Waco Winery and Red Caboose Winery Clifton.

Tickets are available on Eventbrite.com.

Salado Winery Gallery welcomes new exhibit

Jason Deckman is a photographer who loves to explore all things Texas providing a wide-ranging and eclectic choice of subject matter. He works with perspective, camera movement, and long exposures to turn everyday landscapes into otherworldly views. He is a combat veteran and a transplanted Texan. He likes to say that the US Army brought him to Texas, but his wife kept him here.

Salado Winery chose Jason Deckman because of the passion he shows towards Bell County. He shines especially in the portraits he makes of the personalities he meets. Veteran's Day Weekend was chosen for the date of the opening because it seemed like the perfect way to celebrate veterans and the transitions they make to the civilian world.

The exhibit opens Nov. 10 with a reception from 3 - 5 p.m. and continues through Jan. 5. The gallery inside Salado Winery, at 841 N Main, is open noon - 6 p.m. daily.

Handmade wines from Bell County grapes will be available for sale by the glass or bottle. Salado Winery was started in 2005 by June Ritterbusch and Sheldon Vickers who are also veterans.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

This famous hand occurred in the 1948 European Championship during a match between Norway and Great Britain. West was S.J. Simon, author of the classic "Why You Lose at Bridge," and East was the British star Terence Reese.

Reese missed the winning play, as he himself relates, but it is likely that most players would have done the same thing. Simon cashed the K-A of clubs — East playing high-low — and led a third club, which Reese ruffed. Reese then returned a heart.

The Norwegian declarer won the heart, crossed to dummy with a diamond, took a trump finesse, returned to dummy with a diamond, took a second trump finesse and so made four spades. His only losers were two clubs and a ruff.

The same series of plays occurred at the second table, where the English declarer also made four spades. The deal was thus a standoff, but later received wide attention because both Easts could have defeated the contract by making an extraordinary play.

East can stop the contract by discarding a diamond at trick three instead of ruffing the third round of clubs! Declarer can then reach dummy only once, and — since he requires two trump leads from dummy to stop East from making two trump tricks — he must go down one.

The contract is easy enough to defeat on paper. But at the bridge table, where second thoughts don't count, practically any player holding the East cards would ruff the third club and then start thinking about what to do next.

The hand is an exceptionally fine illustration of why you can't afford to play the game mechanically.

Never relax!

This year's event will feature entertainment by Neal McCoy, whose hits include:

"Now I Pray for Rain", "Wink", "No Doubt About It", "They're Playin Our Song", "If I was a Drinkin' Man", "You Gotta Love That", "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye" and many more.

Multiple sponsorship levels as well as individual tickets are now on sale and more information may be obtained by contacting the Bell County Youth Fair Office at 254-933-5309.

The evening's events include a Prime Rib dinner, Live Auction with multiple unique items, and dancing.

This event is the predominant Fundraiser for the Bell

Neil McCoy

County Youth Fair Scholarship program which was launched in 2007. Through this program $500,500 in scholarships have been awarded in the last 12 years to students in Bell County who participate in the Bell County Youth Fair. Scholarship amounts and selection processes both are specifically tailored to be life changing for the recipient. The program targets those exceptional students who may not be able to attend college without financial assistance.

Scholarships which range from $2,000 to $10,000 were awarded to 12 students in May 2019.

The Bell County Youth Fair is the largest County Fair in the State of Texas, showcasing the projects and talents of students involved in 4-H, FFA and FCCLA each year which range from livestock, metalwork, photography, cooking, wood-working, art and textiles.

The number of scholarship applicants continues to grow each year. All proceeds dispersed through this scholarship program go directly into the hands of a Bell County high school senior.

Southern Stride Quartet to headline Texas Country Gentlemen Show

Southern Stride acappella quartet from San Antonio will headline the Texas Country Gentlemen's annual show 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 23 at the Cultural Activities Center in Temple.

This mixed quartet has performed frequently in the San Antonio area as well as in Las Vegas, Orlando and Salt Lake City. In 2018 Southern Stride placed 4th in the World Mixed Quartet Championships held in Germany. Recently, the group opened for the official Disney acappella group, Dcapella in Austin and for Jay Leno's stand-up comedy tour at the Majestic Theatre in San Antonio. The quartet features Diane Stanley (tenor), Manny Lopez (Lead), Peter Cunningham (baritone) and Wallace Stanley (bass).

The show will also feature the Chorus as well as quartets from the Chorus, featuring a cross-section of acappella and barber-shop-style music in the opening act.

The second act rings in the beginning of the Christmas season, and rumor has it that Santa Claus may visit as a break from Christmas preparations.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students and seniors 65+ and are available from the CAC website, cacs.org, chorus members, and at the door.
