Gospel Festival set April 25 at Tablerock

The third annual Tablerock Gospel Festival will be held at the Goodnight Amphitheater 6:30 p.m. April 25.

This family-friendly celebration is a nondenominational gathering focusing on the common heritage of the Christian faith. A variety of music will be presented, from Southern Gospel and Country to the sacred.

Returning for a repeat performance this year, Won by One - Holly Mayes, Janet Leigh, Anna Jo Scott and Dana Hurley, all from Belton, and very active in the music ministry of First Baptist Church. Also returning for his third consecutive appearance is Mr. Brad Irons, whose album, The Return, was released last year and received national airplay on the nation's many Christian radio stations. His first single is soon to be released.

Marj Haynes, of Belton, will be bringing her distinctive style to minister, as well. Married to Dr. Michael Haynes, Marj has performed with Jerry Clower, Jim Nabors and Bill Mack, who wrote Blue, the monster hit for Leann Rimes.

She has performed in Nashville, Branson, Las Vegas and countless other venues.

Sandy Samples, recording artist for Misty International Records, whose We Are One in the Name of Jesus CD reached seventeen on the national Gospel charts, will be making her first appearance at Tablerock. A country singer prior to being saved, she now ministers through a country-flavored Gospel message that is changing lives wherever she appears.

Several of the artists will have material and albums available at the festival.

This program is Tablerock's gift to the community. No admission fee is charged. Concessions will be available at 6:30, with plenty of sandwiches and soft drinks. Picnic baskets are welcome. Seating in the amphitheater is on flagstone, so audience members are encouraged to bring blankets, lawn chairs and pillows for a more comfortable evening.

For more information contact Jackie Mills in Salado, or Tom Taylor in Temple.

Dr. Raymond Carver, of Salado, is author of "How To Write Your Own Obit." One-man show to benefit Pace Park

How to write your own obit

Salado author Raymond Carver has written a one-man-show for Buddy Carlton, actor, singer, and dancer, who will premiere How To Write Your Own Obit in Salado prior to an off-off-Broadway production.

The show was originally scheduled to be performed on April 16; however, the date has been changed to April 15, to avoid conflict with the Salado Library fund-raiser on the 16th.

The premiere will be held at the Meadows Auditorium in the Salado Civic Center at 7 p.m. Admission is $12.50 per person, as a fund-raiser for the Salado Chamber of Commerce Pace Park restoration project.

Carver's Ain't Nobody Loves You Like A Mama But Your Mama was produced off-Broadway in 1994. Three other of his shows, Catch As Catch Can, Texasity, and Family Reunion, have been staged in Hollywood. As a trustee of the Bell County Museum, Carver produced a one man show in the CAC as a fund raiser last year, We Had A Grand Time, Didn't We? He also directed an award-winning musical comedy by Rick Smith, Sideshow, in the Kennedy Center in Washington D. C. in 1978 featuring Buddy Carlton in a show-stopping role.

Carlton, a native of Texas, currently lives in New York where he appears in improvisational theatres, industrial shows, and most recently, in a two-character show off Broadway last November, The Two of Us Together Again. He is a member of the Screen Actors Guild, and he has performed roles in Dracula, The Cherry Orchard, Pierre Pathelin, Man of La Mancha, and Sweet Charity. Carver says he has researched and written the material in How to Write Your Own Obit to fit Buddy like a floppy glove. Titles of various numbers are, "Life & Times, What Will Jesus Say When He Finds Out I Was The Other Woman?", Liking Your Uncle is Optional, There's an Indian On The Answering Machine, My Uncle Drank Too Much and Saved All the Bottles, and Edward and Lucilla's Trip to Branson.

Tickets may be purchased on a first come-first served basis at the Salado Civic Center, 8 am to noon, 1-5 p.m., or from any Chamber officer, or by calling 254-947-5040.

Salado cleans up April 23

Live music, children's tent, artist's reception some of new plans for Aug. 1-2 Art Fair

Live music, a children's tent and an artist's reception are just a few of the plans being made for the 32nd Salado Art Fair Aug. 1-2 in Pace Park.

The Art Fair committee met last week in the home of Marilyn Fleischer, chair of the event, to discuss plans for the show.

One of the new entertainment events being planned for the Art Fair is the addition of Live Music performed throughout the two-day event. Musicians interested in performing either on the Tablerock Presents Stage or roaming throughout the crowd are asked to send a tape, photo, resume and schedule of upcoming performance to Art Fair Music, P.O. Box 312, Salado, TX 76571-0312.

For more information about the opportunity to perform during the Salado Art Fair, which is visited by over 7,000 people during the weekend, call Richard Paul Thomas at 947-4717. Thomas is chairman of the Entertainment Committee with Jackie Mills acting as co-chair.

Children visiting the Art Fair will get hands-on experience with art, thanks to Cindy Dale, of Salado Pottery. She is chair of the Children's Tent. To volunteer to work in the Children's Tent, call Cindy Dale at 947-5935.

Susan Richmond, owner of Susan Marie's of Salado, is chair of the Artist's Reception, which will be held July 31. Plans for the reception will be unveiled at a later date.

Jim Lee will serve as chairman of the setup committee responsible for the layout of the artist's booths, as well as setup of the shade cloths, dumpsters, portable toilets, electricity and transportation needs. He will also man the PA system during the weekend.

Volunteers are Jim Pringle (advisor for design and setup), Les McCollum and Richard Teeler.

Salado artists Ronnie Wells, Larry Prellop and Troy Kelley are working with the Art Fair Committee to attract new artists to the show and to help in the jury process.

The Art Fair Committee is still taking applications from artists and fine craftsmen. Call Diana Zulauf at the Salado Chamber of Commerce, 947-5040, for an application to the show. Booth spaces are available beginning at $200.

Carolyn Dachs will also help in the jury process in reviewing booths of exhibitors to be sure that what is offered by exhibitors is original, hand-

by Tumbleweed Smith

Everything was white. The floor tiles, the walls, the ceilings, the curtains on the shower stalls, the doors, the attendants' uniforms, the tubs, the towels, the sheets. White. Nearly blinding white.

We were on the third floor of the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Arkansas. We were there to take a bath in the mineral water.

Hot Springs used to have several bath houses when bath houses were the rage. Now there's very few. The Arlington's bath house stays busy.

Inside the men's bath house, the attendant at a white table takes your ticket and asks you to take off all your clothes. When you remove the last article, another attendant quickly wraps you in a white sheet and accompanies you to a bath cubicle. The tub is full of water. The temperature is perfect. Not too hot, not too cold. You glide in and the water swirls around you. It's coming out of a metal tube attached to a huge pump-like device that gushes out the water at a high rate of gush.

In about five minutes the attendant comes in with a course bath mitt and rubs your back and the backs of your legs. It feels wonderful. The water feels wonderful. Everything feels wonderful. It is pure enjoyment.

After a few minutes the attendant returns with a warm towel. You dry off, then spend about five minutes in a sauna next door. Next you walk a few steps to a hard table. You lie down on your back and the attendant wraps you in a white sheet. A warm towel is placed around your neck. About the time you begin to get hot, a cool wet towel is placed on your forehead. This is nice.

You stay there very still, not thinking about anything except how great this experience is. The narrow tables are in a large open area and other bathers are there getting the same treatment. When you first lie down, you are asked if you have any aches or pains. If you do, you get a special warm towel placed near that ache or pain.

The time spent on the table makes you extremely relaxed. You get some kind of oily substance rubbed over you, then take a shower. Now comes the best part: a massage.

The masseur uses a warm, soothing cream that he rubs over your back, your chest, your legs. He massages your forehead, your hands, your feet. I've never had anything feel so good as when he rubs the bottoms of my feet. Wow! This guy knows his stuff.

He finishes with a few Karate-chops to the body, then trails off gradually until his touch is barely felt. It's almost sad when he says, "OK, sir, you're done."

I walk over to where my clothes are and I don't want to put them on. I don't especially want to do anything. I am in a near zombie state and it is fabulous.

We go to supper and I'm still relaxed. I'm still relaxed the next day and the next. Now a couple of weeks after the experience I'm relaxed just remembering the Arlington's bath house in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Congress would do well to look at state retirement plans when fixing Social Security

Off the Record

by Ken Clapp

The great thing about our nation is that despite all the rancor that takes place from time to time between the parties, as well as Congress and the White House, there is usually some good work being done, that in the long run will help the general citizenry.

Currently the matter of Social Security has been allowed to come out of the Congressional cloak room and unlike the uncorked Genie-in-the-bottle, it is hoped that no one will try to put the problem back on the shelf because it is "too hot to handle" (a traditional third rail fear) or too politically explosive during an election year.

There will be many plans uncovered and discussed during this year and next, however a few constants need to be nurtured and kept as a part of the final product.

First - we will have to determine if Social Security will continue to be a supplement to a full pension or if it is to become the main retirement program for each annuitant. Once that is determined then the matter of investing part or all of the payroll deduction can be put into play.

Next - we will have to have a guaranteed "hands-off" policy towards the fund that contains the monthly contributions from working Americans. No more trading government IOUs for cash as soon as the money flows to Washington. These government promissory notes that draw a measly one percent interest must be discarded and an agency akin to the Federal Reserve Board set up to invest the billions that are scooped up annually by the Social Security Administration.

The new board, made up of investment professionals and overseen by appointed and carefully vetted commissioners representing business, labor, the professions and the retired, would have to be free of pressure from Congress, the administration and the corporate business-banking communities.

How that would be done is a challenge but the board would have to be free to handle the huge trust fund without the traditional "over-the-shoulder micro-management" that bureaucrats love to exert.

STATE RETIREMENT MODELS WORTH STUDY

The majority of state retirement systems have programs that are worthy of study and emulation. Very simply, these pension plans take a flat amount from each state worker - usually 6 percent. It is matched by the state and put into a fund that is managed by a free standing retirement agency. Professional investment experts invest a portion of the fund in "blue-chip" stocks as well as triple "A" rated bonds that are insured and the results keep the fund not only solvent but able to provide excellent retirement benefits starting with those who work at least 30 years by the time they reach age 55. The longer they work and the later they retire, the higher the retirement amount.

All of this under the watchful eyes of the State's Auditors, as well as insurance and financial experts employed by the retirement system, who watch not only the income and expenditures, but also certify that the fund is safe and actuarially sound at all times.

FUTURE OF FED PLAN?

Whatever the administration and Congress come up with, there will be a great "pro-con" debate that will rage nationwide as special interests come forward to protect their constituencies. It is to be hoped that when all is said and done a plan will be put in place that will provide a secure future for the millions who will be counting on a comfortable life after years of work.

Dignity and respect are important to older Americans but so are decent housing, nutritious food and sufficient funds to do more than just sit at home and worry.

A workable plan can be constructed. It will take imagination and boldness. There will be a need for new directions including investing contributions to insure adequate and safe rates of return.

And there must be a will to travel beyond partisanship and well into the land of statesmanship and honor by those charged with crafting the 21st Century pension plan.

OPPORTUNITY FOR SALADO?

One of Austin's nationally noted get-togethers is about to lose its home and Salado should be readying itself to pounce on the possibility of securing what could be an outstanding annual event worthy of great publicity, a huge assemblage and a chance for a local service group to make some easy cash.

It is the Annual Celebration honoring the "Birthday of Eeyore," that has, for over three decades been the "numero-uno" Rite of Spring in the capitol city. For readers who have not kept up with the goings-on in our neighboring free spirited conurbation on the Colorado, Eeyore's Birthday has been celebrated at Pease Park since 1964, much to the delight of the free wheeling

Library is more than just books

by Lynn Epps

When you used to think about libraries, the first picture to come to mind was rows upon rows of bookcases with shelves of books from floor to ceiling. You might spend hours sometimes thumbing through the card catalogue just to find that one special volume and then only to find out that someone checked it out yesterday.

Today's libraries have greatly benefited from the electronic revolution of the last 10 years making them easier, faster and more enjoyable to use. Your public library here in Salado has worked hard at keeping up with this revolution. The hard card catalogue disappeared completely last year giving way to an electronic card catalogue that not only gives the patron a more powerful search capability. The electronic catalogue also tells the patron if the book is on the shelf or checked out. With the special relationship that the public library has with the Salado Independent School District Libraries, patrons are able to check the school library catalogues from the same terminals.

In addition to books on the shelves, the library has a large collection of books on audio tape and many of the more classic videos on tape. While these are not quite the same as reading a good book, they do provide many people with alternative access to great literature.

Until recently research and reference materials were not the focus of the library's collection. With the growth and change of Salado's population, the demands for this type of materials have grown at a phenomenal rate. Through the assistance of the Central Texas Library System and VVM the library gained Internet access last year providing its patrons with passage to a world of unrestricted information.

The library is currently installing equipment that will enable its patrons to have access to over 21 gigabytes (35 CD Roms) of reference information. The public library works hand in hand with the Salado school libraries to keep the duplication of titles to a minimum and allowing each to maximize the use of their limited budgets. Planned upgrades to both library systems would permit access to the other's reference volumes.

The library is currently working on a learning center for preschool children in addition to its Children's Library area. A terminal and printer just for children's educational games will be available by summer.

The Salado Public Library, its Friends and volunteers work tirelessly to provide Salado with the level of quality of facilities and services that it has come to expect over the years. Today's technology brings a wealth of new information, but at the same time now places a whole new set of demands on the library staff.

The Library needs your help in order to keep up the growth and the demands brought about by development of our village.

hippy-derived generation that still roams Austin.

The Austin American-Statesman described the event as "costumed looniness and primal drumbeating" which may be one reason the city council in a split vote decreed this April 25, to be the last of Eeyore's special days to be held near the staid and sensitive Enfield neighborhood that borders Pease park.

WHO IS EYORE?

Eeyore was a small donkey who, together with Pooh Bear, Tiger and others, were featured in A. A. Milne's wonderful story about "Winnie The Pooh" that has delighted children since the late 1920's. It was this lovable little animal that was selected, by the fun loving, happy-go-lucky 1960 era UT students and their hangers-on, as the icon for an April birthday bash.

Folks dressed up like cartoon and children's book characters or just selected something else equally nutty to wear (hippy types came as they were) and everyone spent the day in the park in what was termed back then as a "laid back frolic" which included games, food, drink and probably a lot of funny smelling cigarettes.

SALADO'S CHANCE

Now's our chance! This could be Salado's finest hour!

Why not have a delegation of our villagers confront the organizers of the "Eeyore Birthday" goofiness and see if the annual extravaganza can be moved to our city in 1999?

Moving the event would also drag thousands of loyal Austin fans with it thus guaranteeing a large, albeit rowdy, crowd of free-spenders and fun seekers.

Think of the possibilities. We have areas in the village where we could put some of the more radically designed and multicolored pavilions usually found at these birthday bashes - places where they would blend in nicely. The rest of the wacky goings-on could find a home in Pace Park as well as up and down our newly remodeled Main Street.

Salado service clubs and community groups could jump in and perhaps make a few fast bucks selling a variety of fast foods to Austinite revelers who are known to eat almost anything as they encourage the participants with whoops of joy and laughter.

No doubt there will be those who will pooh-pooh this idea of bringing hundreds, perhaps thousands, to our gentle shores to view what has always been a fun day in Austin and could be even greatly expanded here in Salado as a money-making annual event.

There might even be a Saladoan or two who would want to join the celebrants - costumed and all!

In any event, nay-sayers need to think of the publicity to be gained by such an event. After all, if we want to really grow, we need to expose ourselves to the visiting masses so our ambiance can be tasted by those less fortunate folks who must settle for such "no-fun frontier communities" as Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and the dreary Temple-Belton-Killeen triplex.

GIGGLE OF THE WEEK

This week we want to offer something discovered at a recent gathering of Republicans busy schmoozing about the next presidential election. This report comes under the heading of "unusual funny stuff" hence the natural title: "GOPgiggle" primarily because our friends in the Grand Old Party are not well known for their humorous side, which is sort of odd since their counterparts constantly provide all of us with funny-bone and knee slapping activities!

Anyway - the conservatives were meeting and having a high heeled time knocking the Pres and plumping the various wannabees who hope to take up residency in the White House after the year 2000's battle royal.

The "fun" part came when some of these GOPers were spotted wearing Tee Shirts emblazoned with the tickler: "Lorena Bobbitt For White House Intern"!

Don't tell me Republicans lack a sense of humor!

We have to wonder what the loyal opposition will do to counter this right jab (as compared to a "left" or liberal punch)?

Healthy from nose to toes?

Do your children know how to stay "Healthy from Nose to Toes?" Scott and White's 1998 Children's Health Center Health Fair, set for May 2, will cover a wide spectrum of health and safety issues for children through displays, speakers, and activities.

Rob Sweetgall, the "Pied Piper of American Walking," will be a special guest at the fair. The only person to walk through all 50 states in one year, Mr. Sweetgall has crossed America 7 times. He has also claimed a spot in the Guinness World Book of Records for walking the 10,608-mile perimeter of the United States.

Sweetgall has written and co-written 8 books on how walking fits into a healthy lifestyle, and helps schools, hospitals, companies and communities develop their own programs.

He will kick off the Health Fair at 8:30 a.m. with "Making Tracks for Health," a family walk designed for adults and children of all ages. He will also speak on "Creative Walking" in a special session noon-1 p.m.

Jungle Jenny, from "Animal Edutainment" will also be at the fair, with a pygmy hedgehog, African tortoise, Burmese python and other exotic creatures. She will be introducing her scaly and ferry friends from 1:15-2 p.m.

Jack Houston, creator and host of award-winning children's program, "Imagineland," will be a featured guest at a concert for children and families 11-11:45 a.m. Houston is a cross between Mr. Rogers and Garth Brooks, who, incidentally, he has opened for in concert. He will perform his creative, sometimes silly songs which are featured on more than 200 stations nationwide.

Although all the Children's Health Center Health Fair activities are designed to be fun, most are also educational, although sometimes in disguise. There will be booths such as an "Immunization Station," where children can immunize a giant nose with a squirt gun, fingercasting, and the Temple Fire Department's display on proper use of fire extinguishers, complete with burning barrels for practice.

Other booths will feature topics on Drugs and Alcohol, Reach Out and Read, Sports Safety, Bike Safety, Stranger Danger, and others. Children will also be able to enjoy the miniature horses from Peaceable Kingdom Retreat for Children.

Seminars for parents will be offered throughout the day, including a presentation by Diane Dowdy, Ph.D., C.H.E.S., on "The Winning Combination: Parenting and Humor... Is it Possible?". The presentation will be 10-10:45a.m.

There will be a Talent Show featuring Pediatric staff members who will perform skits, songs, and stories. Clowns, the Energizer Bunny, and local celebrity, "Pedi Bear" will also be in attendance.

DOCKET NO. 17809 AMENDED PUBLIC NOTICE

Central Telephone Company of Texas dba Sprint (Sprint) has filed an amended petition with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) to change the increase for Expanded Local Calling (ELC) from 34 cents to 41 cents per month per customer line to recover costs for providing the service. This amended petition is submitted under PUC Substantive Rule 23.49 (c) (12) which implements Senate bill 632, 73rd Legislature-Regular Session.

Prior to October 4, 1997, Sprint's local telephone customers paid a $1.15 fee per month per line to recover ELC costs. Since October 4, 1997, Sprint's local telephone customers have paid an additional 34 cents per month per line to recover ELC costs, a charge which was approved by the PUC on an interim basis. If the amended petition is approved by the PUC, the rate would increase by 7 cents, for a total additional fee of 41 cents. This means that the current fee will increase from a previously approved $1.49 per month per line to $1.56 per month per line.

Sprint will continue to collect the previously approved additional monthly amount of 34 cents per line on an interim basis. If the request for the 41 cents per month per line fee is not approved by the PUC, Sprint will increase to the PUC approved amount or refund the appropriate amount if the approved amount is less than 34 cents.

If approved by the PUC, the $1.56 per month fee would not be billed to customers who currently are paying the maximum charge of $3.50 for a residential customer or $7.00 for a business customer.

ELC was created in 1993 by Texas legislation that requires telephone companies to provide toll-free calling between small towns that share a community of interest such as a school or a hospital district. The legislation allows telephone companies to recover costs not paid through customer charges by applying a surcharge to all other customers in the state who do not receive the ELC service, or who do not pay the maximum ELC rate. The maximum monthly ELC rate allowed under state law is $3.50 per line for residential customers and $7.00 per line for business customers.

Sprint estimates that the additional monthly fee of 41 cents per month per line will recover the $817,454.28 in lost revenues and reimburse Sprint for the increased cost of providing ELC service between April 2, 1996 and December 11, 1997.

For questions about the reasons for this charge, please call Sprint at 1-800-788-3500.

The PUC has assigned Docket No. 17809. Persons who wish to intervene in or comment on these proceedings should notify the PUC no later than June 10, 1998. ACTA N° 17809 NOTIFICACIÓN PÚBLICA ENMENDADA

La Central Telephone Company of Texas, que realiza sus operaciones comerciales con el nombre de Sprint (Sprint), ha presentado una solicitud enmendada ante la Comisión de Servicios Públicos de Texas (PUC) para modificar el incremento al Servicio Ampliado de Llamadas Locales Exentas de Cargos (ELC) de 34 centavos a 41 centavos mensuales por línea cliente, con el propósito de recuperar los costos de proveer este servicio. La solicitud enmendada se presenta según la Regla Sustantiva 23.49(c)(12) de la PUC, que implanta el proyecto de ley 632 de la Sesión Ordinaria de la 73ª Legislatura del Senado.

Antes del 4 de octubre de 1997, los clientes de servicios telefónicos locales de Sprint pagaban una cuota mensual de $1.15 por línea para recuperar los costos del ELC. A partir del 4 de octubre de 1997, los clientes de servicios de servicios telefónicos locales de Sprint han tenido que pagar 34 centavos adicionales por línea cada mes para que la compañía pueda recuperar los costos del ELC, un cargo que fue autorizado por la PUC de manera provisoria. Si la solicitud enmendada recibe la aprobación de la PUC, la cuota aumentará 7 centavos, para una cuota adicional total de 41 centavos. Esto significa que la cuota actual aumentará de la cantidad previamente aprobada de $1.49 por mes por línea a $1.56 por mes por línea.

Sprint seguirá cobrando la cantidad adicional mensual previamente aprobada, de 34 centavos por línea, de manera provisoria. Si la solicitud del incremento de la cuota a 41 centavos mensuales por línea no es aprobada por la PUC, Sprint aplicará el aumento aprobado por la PUC o reembolsará a los clientes la cantidad apropiada si el aumento aprobado es menos de 34 centavos.

Si la solicitud de incremento es aprobada por la PUC, el cargo mensual de $1.56 no será facturado a los clientes que actualmente pagan el cargo máximo de $3.50 por cliente residencial o de $7.00 por cliente comercial.

El ELC fue creado en 1993 como resultado de la ley del estado de Texas que requiere que las compañías telefónicas provean llamadas sin cargos por larga distancia entre poblaciones pequeñas que comparten intereses comunitarios, tal como una escuela o un hospital de distrito. La ley permite que las compañías telefónicas recuperen los costos no pagados a través de cargos a los clientes mediante la aplicación de un cargo adicional a los demás clientes del estado que no reciben el servicio ELC o que no paguen la cuota máxima del ELC. La cuota máxima mensual por el servicio ELC permitida por las leyes estatales es de $3.50 por línea residencial y de $7.00 por línea comercial.

Sprint calcula que la cuota mensual adicional de 41 centavos por línea le permitirá recuperar los $817,454.28 en ingresos perdidos y le reembolsará a Sprint el costo adicional en el que incurrió por proveer el servicio ELC entre el 2 de abril de 1996 y el 11 de diciembre de 1997.

Si tiene alguna pregunta sobre las razones de este cargo, por favor llame a Sprint, al 1-800-788-3500.

La PUC ha asignado a esta Acta el número 17809. Las personas que deseen intervenir en este proceso o presentar sus comentarios al respecto deberán notificar su intención a la PUC antes del 10 de junio de 1998. Todas las solicitudes de intervención deberán enviarse por correo a la Public Commission of Texas, 1701 N. Congress Ave., P.O. Box 13326, Austin, TX 78711-3326. Si desea obtener información sobre la forma de intervenir, por favor llame a la PUC, al 1-888-782-8477 ó 512-936-7120. Las personas con impedimentos del habla u auditivo que tengan teléfonos de texto (TTY) podrán comunicarse con la PUC al 512-936-7136.

A Brief Visit With... Pastor J. Floyd Franks

"In the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth." (Genesis 1:3)

Dr. Raymond Damadian, inventor of the Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) machine, is a world-class scientist and creationist. Recently, he stated that he doesn't think the theory of evolution is true because the data doesn't support it.

He further said, "The truth is: One has to be brutally honest about science, and in my opinion, it's incompatible to be a scientist and evolutionist. I've been looking at the data for years and I believe evolutionists are just spinning their wheels. The argument that evolution occurred by chance has no foundation in reality."

"The truth is that it takes more faith to believe in evolution than to believe that 'in the beginning God created.'"

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE Jesus' Death Saved Us All

"So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying, 'He saved others; he cannot save himself ... He trusts in God; let God deliver him now if he desires him...'"

— Matthew 27: 41-43

Many among those gathered around the base of the cross on which Jesus hung — and even the two felons crucified with Him — were derisive of the man they looked upon as a charlatan and religious enemy. They can be forgiven, just as Jesus forgave them, for they did not understand the true mission of God's Son on earth. His birth, ministry and death were all ordained. His final sacrifice was a victory, for through His death, He achieved that reconciliation of God and sinful man that He had preached in life. Thus, He turned that sad occasion into one of joy through His resurrection.

The Salado Volunteer Fire Department arranged for a "Smoke House" to visit Thomas Arnold Elementary School recently. The two-story house on wheels is used to teach children fire safety habits. After learning what to do, the children were given a realistic situation in which a water-based "smoke" was pumped into the second story of the house. The children then had to crawl to safety and meet outside the house at a designated area. Wayne Rutherford is Chief of the SVFD.

Boy Scouts offer signs for 911 addresses

The Boy Scouts of America, Pack 115, Bear Den 1 family, has teamed up with the Salado Volunteer Fire Department in a dual effort to provide 911 reflective address signs for Salado and surrounding residents. This is a community service project as well as a fund-raiser for the local Scout Troop.

The signs are highly visible at night and during the day, and serve as a community service project that allows a faster response time in locating a residence in an emergency situation. The recently mandated 911 address change has left many with an improper address visible to emergency personnel.

Money raised will help fund activities planned for 1998 and will allow for camping and other projects they will plan for in the near future.

Please help your local Fire/Rescue Department find you in an emergency and your sign purchase will be helping the Scouts as well.

Salado Postmaster Jim Lee states, "We will deliver the 911 addresses on Tuesday April 21, 1998."

SHS softball team can qualify for playoffs depending on several scenarios in last week

The Salado High softball team split a doubleheader with Hutto April 7 to set up a crucial match with league-leader Holland in the regular-season finale April 14.

The results of the Lady Eagles' doubleheader at Holland (results were unavailable at press time) played a role in Salado's postseason hopes.

Holland, 10-0 in district, has already clinched one of two playoff spots. The second playoff team will be determined among Salado (8-2), Hutto (7-3) and Jarrell (6-4).

Jarrell plays at Hutto April 14 in another crucial match.

Salado can clinch a playoff spot if it splits with Holland and Hutto splits with Jarrell.

If Salado is swept by Holland and Hutto and Jarrell split, it would force a district playoff game between Salado and Hutto. The winner would advance to the playoffs.

If Jarrell sweeps Hutto and Holland sweeps Salado, then Salado and Jarrell would be tied for second since both teams split a March 21 doubleheader. This scenario would also force a district playoff game.

A Salado sweep of Holland would put Salado in the playoffs, no matter what Jarrell and Hutto do.

Salado could have locked up a playoff berth had it swept Hutto April 7. But the Lady Eagles lost the first game, 12-10, and came back to win the nightcap, 11-6.

Game one was tied 6-6 after the fourth inning, before Hutto scored five runs in the fifth and added another in the sixth to take a 12-6 lead.

Salado rallied in the bottom of the sixth with four runs. Shelly Dillon hit a two-out RBI triple to make it 12-9 and then scored on a wild pitch to cut it to 12-10. But the rally ended with the next batter, and Salado failed to get a runner on base in the seventh and final inning.

Stacey Krueger went 2-for-2 with two walks, an RBI and three runs scored. Nikki Jackson was 2-for-4 with two runs scored.

Losing pitcher Dillon struck out seven. Hutto freshman Stacy Stanley fanned 11 Lady Eagles. She struck out the side in the final inning, as all three Salado batters went down swinging.

Game two was tied 2-2 after two innings, before Salado erupted for six runs in the third and two more in the fourth, and led 8-2 entering the seventh inning.

Sommer Wilson was 2-for-3 at the plate, with two runs scored and an RBI. Jackson was 2-for-4 with two RBIs, both in the big third inning when she belted a triple.

Lauren Quirk also added a pair of RBIs in the third with a triple of her own.

Krueger was the winning pitcher, striking out just one batter but scattering eight hits. She also added two RBIs at the plate.

Salado Youth Association plans to pick board members

The Salado Youth Association will meet at 6 p.m. April 22 at the Civic Center to select board members.

The public is encouraged to attend, as well as those interested in serving on the board.

"We need your ideas, help and support," SYA spokesperson Judy Marsh said.

The SYA will continue work on the soccer fields, she said. A concession stand and gym are also in the plans, she added.

Spring sports heating up at Salado High

Like the recent weather, spring sports are heating up at Salado High.

No more so than on the softball and baseball diamonds.

By the time this issue gets to most Saladoans, it will be known if the softball team has clinched a playoff berth -- or at least earned a shot at the playoffs with a district playoff game.

Verses and Versus

by John Eubanks

The second-place Lady Eagles entered their regular-season finale at district leader Holland April 14 with a shot at the playoffs -- depending on several scenarios outlined in a softball story elsewhere in this issue.

It would be quite a feat for Coach Alan Haire's team to qualify for the playoffs, considering that softball is a varsity sport for only the second year.

It would be a great opportunity to build some tradition for this young sport.

The baseball team has already built up tradition. The defending district champs are in second place behind current leader Hutto.

After the April 14 Holland game, Coach Melvin Bates' team has six more district games left. The rematch with Hutto, which beat Salado 12-2 in March, will be April 24 at home.

The high school track teams will compete in the district meet April 16 at Florence. While team titles in the boys and girls divisions would be tough to come by, coaches of both teams are hoping to have several individuals qualify for the regional meet.

The top two finishers in each event qualify for regionals.

Future varsity track teams should be in good shape, if recent performances by the junior high teams are any indication.

Three of the four teams won their division at the district track meet April 4 at Salado.

The eighth-grade girls and boys, along with the seventh-grade girls, captured titles. The seventh-grade boys were fourth.

The seventh-grade girls scored 203 points, which is incredible in itself, but even more so when you consider that none of their three relay teams placed first.

The 800-meter relay team did place second, but the 400 and 1,600 relays managed just fourth.

The girls are coached by Susan McLaughlin and Cindy Mewhinney, and assisted by student teacher Ty Taggart.

"When you score over 200 points, that's rare," Mewhinney said. "The seventh grade has some great athletes."

The eighth-grade girls won the district meet, after placing fifth last year as seventh-graders.

And the eighth-grade boys, coached by Brett Mullins and Alan Haire, won district, after finishing second as seventh-graders.

The improvement shown by the eighth-grade teams should inspire the seventh-grade boys, who finished fourth at the district meet -- but scored a respectable 94 points.

Salado dominates jr. hi district track meet as 3 teams win division

Salado dominated the district junior high track meet April 4 on its home track, winning three of the four divisions.

Salado's eighth-grade boys and girls, along with the seventh-grade girls, captured district titles.

The seventh-grade boys placed fourth in their competitive division, as at least one Salado seventh-grader placed among the top six finishers in 14 of the 16 events.

The top finishers in each event score points on a 10-8-6-4-2-1 scale, with first place getting 10 points. The points are doubled for relay teams.

Seventh-grade girls surpass 200 points

The eighth-grade Lady Eagles scored a whopping 203 points to dominate their division.

Hutto was a distant second with 139 points. Rogers was third with 123 points.

Salado surpassed the coveted 200-point mark, despite not winning any of the three relays.

The depth-laden team won six of the 13 individual events, sweeping the top three places in the triple jump, 1,600-meter run and 2,400-meter run.

The Lady Eagles placed among the top six in 15 of the 16 events. The only event in which they didn't place was the 100-meter sprint.

Kasey Keller was the top individual performer, winning the triple jump and 300-meter hurdles, and placing second in the long jump and the 100-meter hurdles. She also ran a leg of the fourth-place 400-meter team. That accounted for 40 points.

Annie Correa won both the 1,600-meter and the 2,400-meter races. She also ran a leg of the fourth-place 1,600-meter relay team.

Her time in the 2,400 (10:56.33) was about 16 seconds faster than the second-place time, and would have been good enough for third place in the eighth-grade division.

Olga Urquiza was second in the 2,400 and third in the 1,600. Katie Blankenship was second in the 1,600, and Taylor Rozenboom was third in the 2,400.

Laura Mewhinney won the 800-meter run, placed second in the triple jump and 400-meter run, and ran on the 400-meter relay.

Meagan Joiner won the discus throw (by more than 11 feet), second placed in the shot put and ran a lap on the four-lap 1,600-meter relay.

The 800-meter relay team of Kellie Phelps, Elizabeth

Dachs, Lindsay Pruitt and Kaci Fritsch placed second.

Dachs also took third in the long jump and triple jump and sixth in the high jump.

Phelps was third in the high jump and fourth in the 200 meters.

Besides Keller, the 400 relay team included Pruitt, Mewhinney and Phelps. Besides Joiner, the 1,600 relay team included Correa, Dachs and Tabetha Lawson.

Stephanie Krueger was third in the shot put and fifth in the discus.

Eight-grade girls hold off Holland

The eighth-grade Lady Eagles used their overall depth to place in all but one of the 16 events.

They outscored second-place Holland, 144 1/2-112. Like the seventh-grade girls, the only event in which they didn't place was the 100-meter sprint.

Last year as seventh-graders, the girls placed fifth at the district meet.

Lindsay Quirk, who scored five individual points last year, accounted for 26 individual points this year. She placed second in the long jump and 100-meter hurdles, third in the 300-meter hurdles and fourth in the triple jump. She also ran a leg of the second-place 800-meter relay, which earned 18 points (four-and-a-half per runner).

That relay team included Robyn Womac, Candace Simpson and Amanda Ruiz.

Simpson also won the high jump, was second in the 800 meters and ran a leg of the third-place 1,600 relay, which included Womac, Meredith Akins and Amanda Rivers.

Womac won the shot put (by a quarter inch, no less) and was sixth in the 400 meters.

Sara Moon won the 300-meter hurdles, was third in the 100-meter hurdles and ran a leg of the fourth-place 400-meter relay, which included Samantha Bruce, Randi Rader and Echo Jacobsen.

Emily Bates won the discus by nearly seven feet.

Misty Simonton was third in the 2,400 and fifth in the 1,600.

Eighth-grade boys outscore Hutto

The Salado eighth-grade boys won the district track meet with 171 points. Hutto was second with 151.

Salado's two relays teams accounted for 36 points. The first-place 400 relay team of Alex Torres, John Kirk, Jeremy Grimm and Gordon Smale nipped Hutto's team by a little over a second.

The 1,600 relay team of Andrew Hanson, David Matthews, Grimm and Smale placed second to Jarrell (by six-hundredths of a second) but defeated third-place Hutto (by more than seven seconds).

Smale accounted for two of the team's four individual wins, placing first in the high jump and 400 meters.

Kirk won the 200 meters, and Torres won the 1,600 meters in a photo finish with a Hutto runner, last name Stern.

Chris Santoya was second in the 2,400 meters, as Stern won the race by almost 24 seconds.

Matthews was second in the 110 hurdles, Hanson was third in the high jump, Ricky May was third in the discus, Jose Tonches was third in the 400 meters and fourth in the 300 hurdles.

Last year as seventh-graders the boys placed second at district.

Seventh-grade boys score 94 points

Salado's seventh-grade boys placed fourth with 94 points, five behind third-place Florence. Rogers was first with 162. Hutto was second with 146.

Baseball team still 2nd in district after record-setting performance

The Salado Eagles baseball team remained in sole possession of second place in District 26-2A, after a record-setting performance at Lago Vista April 9.

The Eagles, 14-2 overall and 4-1 in district, were scheduled to host Holland April 14 (results were unavailable at press time). They then begin the second round of district play April 17 by hosting Florence, with the varsity to follow the 5 p.m. JV game.

The Eagles, a game behind Hutto in the district standings, defeated third-place Lago Vista 12-1 on the strength of six home runs.

Those six homers produced 11 runs and were half of Salado's 12 hits.

The onslaught began early as Salado's first two batters of the game, Paul Mashburn and David Palmer, slapped home runs.

The Eagles took that 2-0 lead into the second inning. Jon Phelps led off the second with a line-drive double to left field. Chad Kiphart then delivered a two-run homer over the centerfield fence.

In the top of the third, David Kirk and Chris Michna drew walks to open up the inning. Phelps then connected for a double to give the Eagles a 5-0 lead.

While the offensive onslaught continued, Chris Michna was doing a masterful job on the mound for Salado. He allowed only one baserunner through the first three innings.

Kiphart singled to open the fourth inning. Adam Nuse was hit by a pitch to put runners on first and second. After a strikeout and a fielders choice left the Eagles with only one more out, Kirk stepped to the plate and slapped a 2-0 pitch over the left-field fence for three more runs.

In the bottom of the fourth, Lago managed two singles in the inning. The result was their first run of the ball game.

In the top of the fifth, the Eagles refused to ease up. Kiphart hit a one-out home run, and Kirk delivered another three-run homer with a towering shot over the lights in left center.

The game was halted by the 10-run rule, after Michna mowed down Lago Vista in the bottom of the fifth.

Kiphart led the way offensively, going 3-for-3 with two home runs. Kirk was 2-for-3 on the night with two home runs and six RBIs. Phelps, Palmer and Mashburn all collected two hits each.

Michna picked up his fourth victory on the mound. The junior lefthander pitched a complete game, allowing only three baserunners on the night.

SALADO 15, BREMOND 0
 The Eagles defeated Bremond's Tigers 15-0 at their place April 10 in a non-district game halted by the Bremond coach after the fourth inning.

Salado again started quickly, scoring two runs in the fifth and two more in the second.

In a wild third inning, the Eagles collected seven base hits and received four free passes to first, en route to an 11-run inning. The Bremond coach then called the game after the fourth inning.

Michna had a great day at the plate, going 3-for-4 with four runs batted in. Palmer was 2-for-3 in the game.

Palmer also got the victory on the mound for Salado. He allowed three hits and struck out seven.

-- Coach Melvin Bates

NOTE: The Eagles host district leader Hutto in a rematch April 24. Hutto defeated Salado 12-2 in the first round of district play March 31.

It was Salado's first district baseball loss since 1996, when the Eagles lost twice to district champ Lexington and finished second.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The JV Eagles defeated Lago Vista 13-0 April 9 to remain in second place in district at 4-1 behind unbeaten Hutto.

The Eagles pounded out 17 hits. Winning pitcher Troy Smith had a triple and Del Lisenbe and Jeremy Whitaker each had doubles.

The Eagles defeated Bremond 17-7 April 10 in a non-district contest to improve their season record to 10-3-1.

The team again produced 17 hits, including a three-run homer by Rory Oldham and a triple by Smith. Robert Ellis was the winning pitcher.

Varsity track teams tune up for district meet

The Salado High varsity track teams tuned up for the District 26-2A meet April 16 in Florence by participating at a meet in Rogers April 9.

The girls placed third with 86 1/2 points. The boys tied for ninth with 14 points.

Further information is expected to be in the April 22 edition.

MORNING BACKACHE

How you feel when you wake up has a lot to do with how you slept the night before. If you've been waking up stiff and miserable because of poor sleeping posture, overwork and tension, it's time to see the chiropractor for a "cure."

Your doctor of chiropractic can attack the problem two ways; with expert, hands-on treatment to help your back feel better right away and with the know-how you need to get better sleep in the future.

Chiropractic adjustments are designed to eliminate any spinal subluxations that are causing nerve irritations, restoring the normal flow of nerve energy and helping the body to heal itself. Your chiropractor also can provide guidance in choosing the right kind of mattress for proper support and the placement of extra pillows—under the knees if you sleep on your back, or between your legs if you sleep on your side—for added comfort. Sleeping in an unsupported, face-down position can, in time, cause pain.

Salado Lions hear how Lions Camp changed life of man legally blind

by John Eubanks

Nolan Underwood was 15 when an explosion in an agricultural workshop at school left him legally blind.

The accident left him with just enough vision in his right eye for limited reading. He even managed to drive in the rural areas around his home in the west central Texas community of Lohn, north of Brady.

But the cornea in his right eye began to deteriorate, leaving Underwood with an uncertain future.

"The only blind person I knew was an old man who sold pencils on a street corner in Brady," he said.

That was 1951. Eight years later, Underwood enrolled at the Texas Lions Camp in Kerrville to receive personal adjustment training in the adult blind program. Training included the use of a cane and learning to read Braille.

Today, Underwood serves as the camp's public relations specialist, traveling with wife Peggy to spread the word about the camp's positive impact on those like him.

He related that positive impact to the Salado Lions Club at its April 8 meeting at Creekside Restaurant and Club.

Underwood, who became a Lion in 1967, also updated his fellow Lions about the Campaign 2000 fund-raising effort to upgrade the camp's facilities.

The swimming pool, which is the camp's most popular area, was built in the 1950s. It will undergo a renovation later this year, including the addition of a dressing room.

Texas Lions Camp has served more than 45,000 children since opening in 1949. But Underwood estimates the camp has touched half a million lives when counting the campers' immediate and extended families.

While the campers' disabilities might have excluded them from activities back home, Underwood stressed that when they get to the camp, "We don't let the kids sit on the sideline."

Underwood said he was reluctant to stay at the camp, when he arrived there in the summer of 1959.

He was 23 and married less than a year, and "needed something more than fishing and swimming."

"Everywhere I looked was someone with a disability, but I knew I needed some training," he said.

His "why me?" attitude which had persisted since his accident, began to fade.

He recalled two boys who aided in that attitude change. One was a youngster with a speech impediment who adopted the older Underwood.

One morning as Underwood laid in his bunk with his nose in his pillow, he felt something slide across his back.

Noticing the boy besides his bed, Underwood asked, "What did you drag up my back?"

"Nake!" the boy cried out, a devil-may-care look on his face.

"I saw a mischievous little rascal, not someone with a disability," Underwood said. "That's where the attitude began to change."

The other boy who had an impact on Underwood was named Little Joe.

A bout with polio had forced Little Joe to walk with crutches and braces. Nevertheless, he would walk the hill to the dining hall every day, inspiring the once-uninspired Underwood.

"I'm only blind," he told himself. "If he can make it, so can I."

Underwood has had seven cornea transplants since 1957. The latest one, two years ago, "opened up a new door," he said.

Underwood's disability didn't prevent him from earning a bachelor's degree in sociology from Southwest Texas State and a master's degree in psychology from Texas Tech.

He has worked at the Texas Lions Camp since 1972 and is a charter life member of the camp's alumni association.

He and Peggy have three children, five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Underwood has come a long way from that day when he reluctantly entered the Texas Lions Camp.

He reminded the Salado Lions of what their support of the camp can do. "I can never repay Lionism for what it's done for me," he told them.

LION NOTES: Lions Club officers for the coming year are President Eldon Miller, 1st Vice President Don Owens, 2nd Vice President Frank Wallace, 3rd Vice President Joe Holt, Immediate Past President Lloyd Parks, Secretary Jean White, Treasurer Jeff McKinney, Membership director Dianna Zulauf, Lion Tamer Bob McKinney, Tail Twister Hulda Horton, Gene Williams and Dick Westlake, one-year directors, and Joan Schrock and Jack Hardin, two-year directors.

Owens received the Lion of the Year Award in recognition for his work heading the club's phone directory program, which is the club's biggest fund-raiser. He's also been nominated for the Tom P. Kirkham Award for his overall effort with the Lions.

Expand Your Horizons in Math Science

Temple College will host the 8th annual Expanding Your Horizons in Science and Math Conference for eighth grade girls April 17. More than 750 girls from nine schools in Temple, Belton, Salado, Rogers, Cameron and Rosebud-Lott will attend the annual events which provides an opportunity to explore careers in science and math.

Thirty-four eighth grade girls from Salado will participate in the event.

Some of the most important careers in the coming decades will be in the math and science. The fields are wide open for young women and the conference is designed to allow the girls to "expand their horizons" by learning about some of the opportunities available and how to prepare for these careers from successful women who are in these jobs today.

The year's conference is sponsored by Temple College and Tenneco Packaging. Other major contributors to the conference are the Central Texas Tech Prep Consortium, Central Texas School-to-Work Partnership, Acer American Corp., Omega Homes and Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of the Southwest.

Lisa Heitman, KCEN-TV anchor, will moderate the opening session, which will include a panel of professional women from various careers. Panel members are Gayla Herschler, of the Women's Health Care Research program at Scott and White; attorney Lisa H. Bowling, Police Legal Advisor and City Prosecutor for the City of Temple; Betty Howe, owner of Omega Homebuilders; Lydia Santibanez, Broker Associate with RE/MAX and Lisa Shed, owner of Lisa's Dance Connection of Temple.

Each girl will attend three workshops led by professional women who work in a field that involves math or science. The workshops are hands-on, so that the girls can get a sample of what the job is like. The role models also explain to them how they chose their career, what education and experience are required and other aspects of their work life.

More than 30 workshops are scheduled in the fields of Science and Technology, Health Care, and Business and Law. Experiences for the girls will range from filling prescriptions with a pharmacist, testing their hearing with an audiologist, to learning about investments and insurance and engineering and manufacturing. Other careers include veterinary medicine, dentistry and dental hygiene, law and law enforcement, mortuary science, accounting, speech pathology and occupational therapy.

Ribbon cut at Angie's Amish Attic

A ribbon-cutting was held March 27 at Angie's Amish Attic on Rock Creek Drive in Salado.

Angie's Amish Attic specializes in handmade furniture by the Amish and Mennonites, along with quilts, gifts handmade by local and national artisans and pantry items.

The shop opened Feb. 15 under the ownership of Angie E. Colwell, with support from husband Carl and daughter Karin.

Dawna Walker and Carla Bullimore are employed at the shop as well.

Angie was a textile artisan and wholesaler of her own designs for the past six years. Prior to that, she was a seamstress for 20 years.

Angie launched her own business, with 12 employees, while living in Minnesota in the mid-1990s.

"I always wished to own my own shop and feature the many talented women I've had the privilege of becoming acquainted with during my husband's military career," she said.

"We purchased several pieces of Amish furniture while in Minnesota and loved the quality and price, so we decided to add this to my line, and hence the shop was born."

Carl thinks the handmade furniture is what makes Angie's Amish Attic unique. Angie remembers the time -- their first Christmas in Minnesota, in '93 -- when he bought a hutch from an Amish family and surprised her with it.

They liked it so much, they went back and bought a cherry sleigh bed.

When Angie went into business, she got back in touch with the Amish family, asking if they would their furniture sell to her.

It's now displayed throughout the shop.

Angie credits the diverse talents of the artisans who supply their wares, for giving the shop its unique style. She would like to feature an artisan each month at the shop, with their photo displayed perhaps, to add a personal touch to their work.

SHS student, teacher honored by Tandy

Salado High School senior Michelle Lenis and SHS math/science/computer teacher Dennis Cabaniss have been recognized by the Tandy Technology Scholars program.

This is the ninth year that the program has made awards to teachers and graduating seniors at American high schools. Currently, 16,822 public and private secondary schools have been certified to participate in the awards program. That is almost 82 percent of all secondary schools in the United States.

The academic top two percent of graduating seniors are eligible to receive certificates recognizing their academic achievements. This year the program will honor 29,249 meritorious seniors.

Each school may nominate a senior who is outstanding in mathematics, science or computer science. These students receive a certificate recognizing them as a Tandy Technology Scholar. In addition, they were eligible to compete for the one hundred $1,000 scholarships awarded annually.

Each certified school also may nominate an outstanding teacher in mathematics, science or computer science. These teachers receive a certificate of recognition and are eligible to compete for the one hundred $2,500 cash awards presented annually.

The program is funded by Tandy Corp. and administered by Texas Christian University in Fort Worth.

That's how much Angie thinks about her artisans. They in turn are thankful to have an outlet for their wares.

When the opportunity to open the shop came along, Angie jumped on it. As she says, "You can't let the grass grow under your feet."

She has received several compliments in the short time she's been open. One came from a Chamber of Commerce official from Granbury who was in Salado recently.

"You've got the right idea," he told her, admiring the natural look of the shop, with its tin roof and comfortable bench outside. She hopes to add another table outside with an old-fashioned checkerboard.

Angie knows how important it is for a place to maintain its heritage.

She hails from Natchitoches, La., established in 1714 and considered the oldest city in the Louisiana Purchase. Angie and Carl thought about retiring there, but the allure of Salado was too strong to resist. She hopes visitors to her shop feel the same way.

-- John Eubanks

Angie's Amish Attic is located at #20 Rock Creek in Salado (the last of the row of shops on that street, east of the Main Street walk bridge). It's open 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday and Wednesday-Saturday.

Allergy sufferers advised to take household inventory to control of reaction triggers

Allergy sufferers can help control allergy triggers by doing a "household inventory."

"Your home should be a safe place, but for sufferers of allergies and asthma, it can be a source for triggers that set off a reaction," said Dr. Robert Moore, a pediatric pulmonologist at Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children's Hospital in Houston. "One of the best things you can do to control allergies and asthma is to do a thorough inventory of household triggers."

Knowing what is most likely to bring on an attack is crucial. This may involve keeping an asthma "diary" of possible causes or skin testing for allergies to narrow down the suspects.

"Finding triggers isn't always easy," Moore said. "Once you have a good idea, though, it's important to limit your exposure."

Common household allergy and asthma triggers include:

- *Overstuffed furniture, shelves and other dusty surfaces

- *Excessive humidity which spurs dust mite growth

- *Rugs, another dust mite source. Bare wood or tile floors are best.

- *Pet dander
- *Tobacco smoke
- *Poor household ventilation
- *Infrequent changing of heater and air conditioner filters

- *Clothes not properly stored. Keep clothes in closed closets and woolens in plastic bags.

- *Bedding. Use washable synthetic blankets and pillows and cover mattress with aired-out plastic.

- *Household cleaners. Common cleaners such as ammonia, baking soda and nonchlorine bleach are less likely to trigger an attack than will more chemically based products.

- *Live plants, bathrooms, garbage pails, basements and other potential sources of mold. Clean regularly to avoid mold growth.

"Of course, there is no such thing as a completely allergy and asthma-free house," Moore said. "But by taking steps to control possible triggers, the potential for attacks can be greatly reduced."

Dear Editor,

My sisters, Amy and Laura 6 years old, and I, Sarah 10 years old, would like to give a special thanks to Mr. Dale, Ms. Chris, Peggy, Kristy, Theresa and the many other people at the Salado Brookshire

Bro.'s grocery store who not only say they support their community BUT actually do it!

• This past Autumn they had a Halloween Festival in which there was a pumpkin and costume judging contest. The greatest thing of all was that EVERYONE walked away a winner!

• Each year they have allowed the Girl Scouts and Campfire Boys and Girls Clubs to have booth sales! For parents who do not feel safe having their children go door to door this was a comforting alternative!

• Each year they have allowed the Youth League to set up registration tables for soccer, basketball and T-ball.

• Last but not least, they sponsored the Apples for Students program. We appreciated so much the fairness with which they handled this program between both the Public School and Home School communities! Without their sincere, generous, and thoughtful actions we would not have been able to obtain the software programs and soccer ball we are.

As a customer we have always been treated with respect and genuine concern when my sister was having surgery by all of the employees. Especially Peggy! It really made us feel important and special too. This kindness makes us want to keep shopping at the "FRIENDLIEST GROCERY STORE IN THE UNITED STATES" regardless of the distance to a closer larger grocery store!

Thank you from the Fincher Family: Amy, Laura, Sarah, Julia and Bob

Innovative new car wash unveils in Temple

An innovative new car wash is opening in April at 314 S. 31st Street near the Santa Fe Railroad Museum. This new business represents a "one-of-a-kind" concept in the car wash industry.

Discovery Car Wash offers two types of express car wash services using state-of-the-art equipment operated by professional attendants. Each customer is offered the choice of an automatic touch-less, or drive-through conveyorized soft-touch car wash. Customers stay in their vehicles in both bays. Both options include a professional "prep" hand wash from highly-trained, uniformed attendants before entering the automatic bays. These friendly knowledgeable attendants will focus on each car's needs and make sure that every problem area receives special attention. Customers are given the option of having the interior vacuumed and windows cleaned. Since this service is not always needed, the savings is passed onto the customer.

The express drive through conveyor is equipped with the revolutionary "Foam Brite" soft-touch material which has just been introduced to the car wash industry. The material is extremely resistant to sand and dirt and does not harm the clear-coat finish. It buffs and shines the vehicle when used over a period of time. Both washes will use the highest quality detergents and sealants. The nationally recognized "Turtle Wax" brand will be used exclusively in both wash bays. The goal of Discovery Car Wash is to provide the highest quality car wash available, along with a dedication to customer service unparalleled in the industry.

Express detailing is also offered to every customer. Exterior waxing and polishing and interior carpet and mat steam cleaning is available while the customer waits.

CAC announces plans for 40th anniversary celebration

In celebration of 40 years of generous community, business and individual support for the Cultural Activities Center, the CAC is proud to host a 40th Birthday Party and Concert 2:30 p.m. May 3 in the Temple High School Auditorium.

The nationally renowned, multi-hit recording artists, The Diamonds, will be the featured performers for the celebration. Tickets for the concert may be purchased from the CAC Box Office or at the door the afternoon of the performance. Adults are $10 each and students are $5. The La Quinta of Temple is providing housing for The Diamonds.

The Diamonds began their recording career in 1956 with the hit record Why Do Fools Fall In Love. This was followed by Church Bells May Ring and in early 1957 they recorded Little Darlin'. That year Little Darlin' was one of the most popular songs in America as well as Europe, staying on the charts for 35 weeks and is now considered a rock and roll classic. Continuing with a string of hits including The Stroll, Silhouettes, She Say, One Summer Night and Thousand Miles Away, The Diamonds have sold over 40 million records.

"This is our way of thanking everyone who has enthusiastically supported the Cultural Activities Center these past years," explains David Pennington, Executive Director of the Center. "Our patrons and community supporters have been a tremendous driving force in the continued and thriving success of the CAC. We want to let those who enjoy and participate in the many programs and events at the Center know how much we appreciate them."

McCracken to be honored as Community Builder April 24

Tickets are now available for the April 24 luncheon at the Salado Civic Center honoring Jim McCracken as the Community Builder.

Tickets for the catered barbecue luncheon are $6.50 per person and are now available at the First State Bank, Salado branch, and Compass Bank, Salado branch.

You can also reserve your space at the luncheon by mailing payment (check or money order) to Salado Masonic Lodge #296, P.O. Box 23, Salado, TX 76571 before April 21. Your ticket will be reserved for you at the door.

Salado Lodge A.F. and A.M. #296 will honor McCracken with the Community Builder Award noon April 24 at the Salado Civic Center.

The Community Builder Award is the highest award that a Lodge can bestow upon someone outside of its membership and recognize with deep appreciation unselfish efforts to build a better world for us all and to more fully exemplify that spirit of the Brotherhood of Man, under the Fatherhood of God.

David Benton Dibrell, the Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Texas, will make the presentation.

About Jim McCracken
Jim and Virginia McCracken moved from Los Angeles to Salado in 1989 following Jim's retirement from General Motors. He spent the majority of his 36 year career in GM's Insurance Division where he rose to the rank of Regional Manager. During his career his family was transferred to several large cities including; Kansas City, New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco. When Jim is asked by Saladoans why his family chose Salado for their retirement home he very seriously says, "we drove east from L A until we found a village without a traffic light."

In addition to his career accomplishments, he has participated in community and church-related activities throughout his life. He has been a church Elder for 30 years.

Soon after arriving in

Jim McCracken

Salado, Jim became an active volunteer with the Salado Public Library. He is currently serving as a member of the Library Board of Trustees. He has participated with the Salado Lions Club where he has been a member of the Board. He has been the Program Committee Chairperson and worked on many Lions Club projects to benefit those in the Salado area. He and Virginia have delivered "Meals-On-Wheels" in Temple and Belton for several years. He has been active in the Salado Citizens On Patrol organization since its inception.

Two years ago Jim and Virginia, in cooperation with others in Salado, organized a new Presbyterian church congregation. Jim served as chairman of the group. This congregation has prospered. Jim is an active elder and the treasurer of the congregation.

The McCracken family was looking for retirement in a small town away from the traffic and congestion of the big city. A place where they could enjoy retirement and make a small contribution and help their friends and neighbors. They have found this and much more in Salado.

Orchestral Society announces 98-99 season

The Central Texas Orchestral Society proudly announces a cascade of internationally renowned performances for their 1998-99 season.

"The 1998-99 season proves to be one of the most spectacular and exciting concert agendas found in Central Texas," comments CTOS President, Kay Bonner. "We have secured artists from all over the world. Each performance will be a premiere exhibition of the musical talents and skills of these breathtaking orchestras and artists." CTOS concerts are partially funded by the Texas Commission on the Arts, The Wildflower Guild, and the Wildflower Junior Cotillion.

The San Antonio Symphony returns as the season opener at 7 p.m. Sept. 27. Under the direction of SAS Conductor Christopher Wilkins, the San Antonio Symphony will celebrate its 60th Anniversary Season this year and includes their performance at the Cultural Activities Center as a highlight of that celebration.

Celebrating their 25th anniversary, the American String Quartet will perform at the CAC at 8 p.m. Nov. 5 in the Frank W. Mayborn Auditorium. Performing in all 50 states in honor of their anniversary, Temple was chosen as the selected city for the performance in Texas. The American String Quartet will also present the Marty Lundgren Master Class held each year for area music students.

The Munich Chamber Orchestra, under the musical direction of Christopher Poppen, will bring their 19-member orchestra to the CAC stage on 8 p.m. Jan. 30. The Munich Chamber Orchestra has had a distinguished history since 1950 as part of Munich's musical culture and developed into one of its country's most beloved ensembles.

I Musici de Montreal stands out with a unique character among the chamber orchestras of international caliber. With guest soloist Charles Neidich, clarinetist, the 15 string artists of I Musici will perform at 8 p.m. Feb. 22, 1999.

The award-winning Vienna Piano Trio will present the final 98-99 CTOS performance at 8 p.m. March 23. Founded in 1988, the trio is composed of pianist Stefan Mendl, violinist Wolfgang Redik and cellist Marcus Trefny.

made and not something purchased for resale.

Ronnie Wells recently completed the original painting to be used for the Art Fair poster and in other promotions. The poster will be unveiled later this month. It weaves a beautiful view of Pace Park with the spirit of the Salado Art Fair.

Tim Fleischer and Linda

Griffith will handle promoting the Art Fair. Griffith's expertise is in innovative marketing techniques as owner of Creative Communications advertising agency in Belton. Fleischer, editor of the Salado Village Voice, will work on marketing to newspapers and other media.

Millie and Dan Donaldson, owners of The Gathering Place coffee shop on Main St., will be sure that the artists are fed on the mornings of the fair.

Hulda Horton and Diana Zulauf will sell advertising for the Art Fair fans this year.

The Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary will again handle the gates. Marge Kirkman is president of the Ladies Auxiliary.

Also, the Auxiliary will have tickets for sale for its annual Art Fair Quilt, which is being completed under the direction and quilting of Wilhelmenia Friedrich.

"This is a very important event to our community," said Chamber of Commerce President Bea Stewart, "as all proceeds from the Fair are spent locally on projects from the Salado Civic Center to Pace Park to lighting Main St. to the COPs program ... just to name a few of the worthwhile things we do here in Salado."

4th graders learn about business during planning of annual play

by Jackie Mills

Seven students from the fourth grade at Thomas Arnold Elementary School in Salado, Texas have not only become seasoned playwrights, but have become entrepreneurs in the world of business. Sponsored by Tablerock Festival of Salado and under the direction of playwright Jackie Mills, the fourth graders have been in the process of penning a melodrama for two months. The play, now in rehearsal, will be performed on May 2 at Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheater. The concession stand will open at 6 p.m. to purchase sandwiches and drinks. The play will begin at 7 p.m. Admission to the play is $3 per person.

The theme of this year's melodrama is the spa that graced the banks of Salado Creek in the early 1900's. The fourth graders' goal in writing and performing the melodrama is to experience the full scope of activities required to write, produce, stage, direct and perform a literary work. This year, a serendipitous fallout from their efforts is the opportunity to practice their entrepreneurial leanings.

Grant Boston, one of the playwrights, commented that Ozarka was the oldest water company in the state of Texas. Research showed that spas were popular not only for their baths but for "taking of the waters," or drinking the water. The authors decided to incorporate Ozarka into their melodrama's plot.

When the Ozarka District Manager, Mr. Lloyd Price of Waco, was asked to furnish a truck and driver to participate in the play he conferred with Wade Wilbanks, the Ozarka delivery person in Salado. They readily agreed to participate and asked if the children would like to sell bottles of Ozarka spring water at the concession stand.

That's when business reared its mighty head! The children agreed that they would sell Ozarka but only if they could make a 20 percent profit on the sales. Mr. Price and Mr. Wilbanks were so impressed with the children's business acumen that they provided the bottled water at cost so that the class could make 150 percent profit. Now, the fourth graders will be able to bank even more money for their senior trip in the year 2006.

Today nationwide companies, tomorrow the world!
