proposed lines drawn for Salado

Incorporation effort begun with CTCOG planning

The Salado Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors has contracted with the Central Texas Council of Governments to assist the Village of Salado in preparing plats, managing a census and guiding other steps required to call for an election on incorporation. A volunteer committee of Salado residents was formed shortly thereafter to interact with representatives of the CTCOG and enlist their help in proceeding with the study.

In a meeting with the committee on Nov. 1, Project Manager Jim Reed presented detailed maps of the Village to assist the development of a boundary for incorporation. With input from the committee, a proposed line of incorporation has been drawn which conforms with the state limitations of two square miles for entities with fewer than 2,000 residents.

The committee is organizing an effort to conduct a census of the village to verify the population and present a petition to the County Judge to formally request the incorporation election. For the type of incorporation being considered, 50 names are required on the petition.

Maps showing the proposed boundary will soon be posted in public places in the Village. A list of registered voters residing in the area proposed for incorporation will also be available with the map. This list will also be published in the Salado Vil- lage Voice. Salado residents are encouraged to examine the maps and lists and then call the Bell County Voter Registrar to give their correct physical address to ensure their eligibility to vote in the incorporation election tentatively set for January 20. Residents must be verified on the voter rolls 30 days prior to the election in order to vote.

Throughout the study, the CTCOG has affirmed its commitment to provide the residents of Salado with objective information and guidance necessary to enact its wishes on this issue. Saladoans are encouraged to contact Mr. Reed at 939-1801, if they have any questions regarding the progress of the incorporation election.

Saladoans start work to provide Christmas for under privileged children & families

While the frost is hardly on the pumpkin yet, several Saladoans are planning ahead for the holidays.

But they're not planning for themselves.

The Salado Volunteer Fire Department, along with the Salado Village Voice, IGA Village Foods, First State Bank and Peoples National Bank are working to gather Christmas toys and meals for needy children in the Salado area.

Toys and foods gathered will be distributed to the families Dec. 23.

Drop-off locations for donations are the Saldo Village Voice, IGA Village Foods, First State Bank and Peoples National Bank.

First State Bank and Peoples National Bank have also established Salado Family Christmas Funds for monetary donations to be used to buy toys and Christmas dinner for the underprivileged families in and around Salado.

The Salado Village Voice has contributed $150 to begin the fund drive. All Salado businesses or individuals matching the donation will be listed in the newspaper the week of Christmas.

Fire Chief Wayne Rutherford asks that toys be either new or in good, usable condition for gifts.

Firefighters have volunteered to pick-up toys from those who cannot get to the drop-off locations. Call Rutherford at 947-5773 or the Salado Village Voice at 947-5321 to arrange a convenient time.

There is a great need for toys and clothes for children this Christmas at the elementary school.

Ages and sexes of underprivileged Salado school children are these:

Girls:
Four 4 year olds, four kindergarteners, four first graders, a third grader, a fifth grader, a fourth grader, three sixth graders.

Boys:
Four 4 year olds, two kindergarteners, four first graders, a second grader, two third graders, four fourth graders, a fifth grader and four sixth graders.

Dana Britt is working with the group to organize the needs for junior high and high school children.

A list of those children's ages and sex will appear in a later issue of the Salado Village Voice.

Parents of children under school age are encouraged to contact the Salado Village Voice so that we can try to collect toys and clothes for toddlers and babies.

"None of the names of any of the disadvantaged children will appear in the newspaper or will be made public in anyway," Marilyn Fleischer said.

For more information, call Marilyn Fleischer at the Salado Village Voice, 947-5321.

Gathering of Clans in Salado Nov. 10-12

Salado will be alive with sights and sounds of the 34th Annual Gathering of the Clans Nov. 10-12.

Sponsored by the Central Texas Area Museum, the Gathering of the Clans will include Highland dancing, piping and drumming contests, and Scottish games.

The Scottish Games and Gathering of the Clans will begin with registration and a chance to see the Scottish Vendors in the Hall of the Clans at the Central Texas Area Museum on Main St. 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Nov. 10.

Imported Scottish merchandise and Scottish foods will be available 10:30 a.m.-12 noon Nov. 10.

A genealogy workshop will be 1-4 p.m. Nov. 10 in the Longhorn room of the Stagecoach Inn, followed by more visits to Scottish vendors, the Museum and the Wee Scots Shop.

The Games will kick off

9 a.m. Nov. 11. Among the Scottish Games will be a Piping Contest on College Hill, a Highland Dance Contest on the Village Green and a Drumming contest on College Hill.

In Scotland, Highland Dancing was once an athletic event.

The oldest of the traditional dances of Scotland is the Highland Fling. It is believed to be a dance of victory in battle. The dancer performed with a Scottish shield called a Targe.

Hornpipe is also considered one of the national dance and the competitors wear the dress of the Royal Navy. It depicts the sailors

Texas GOP gunning to take over state Senate in '96

"They told me to cheer up because things could get worse. So, I cheered up and sure enough - things did get worse."

*From the Many Pithy Sayings
Of Pete Jennings,
The Sanguine Sage of Salado*

(Writer's note: We certainly want to apologize to readers for the foul-up on the layout of last week's amendment presentation.

Amendments twelve through fourteen and the closure got all mixed up with results that made no sense whatsoever.

Things happen strangely during the last minute rush to get a newspaper on the press and the witching-hour-gremlins got to us.

Hope it didn't confuse you too much - we were trying to recommend defeat of Amendment 12, approve numbers 13 and 14 and end with a recommendation to be sure to vote.

What came out was garbled and useless. Sorry for any inconvenience.)

Mare's Nest For Bullock

More news on the upcoming battle for control of the Texas Senate by State Republicans who only need two additional seats to take over the upper house and oust Lt. Governor Bob Bullock from what most observers of Texas politics and government consider to be the most powerful elected job in the Lone Star State.

Currently the Democrats hold 17 Senate seats, Republicans 14, with 16 needed to take charge.

The way things work in the Senate is simple. The Lt. Governor presides and directs the Senate in and out of session. The Constitution states only that he is President of the Senate, period, and should he become a member of the minority party that is all the power he would have.

The majority party gets together before opening day every two years and makes the rules; hands out committee assignments; coordinates the day to day operation of the 31 member organization; determines the administrative budget including member expenses, office assignments and number of staff per member plus all the other niceties that go with membership in the rarefied atmosphere of the upper chamber.

Over the years power has slowly shifted from the Democratic majority caucus to the Lt. Governor. In return the presiding officer has given to his supporters - on a quid pro quo basis - certain key chairmanships, the best offices, the largest staffs, expenses and other perks that make life so enjoyable in the Senate, up to and including priorities in legislative matters and the all important individual veto when it comes to gubernatorial appointments.

The Senate President works with his party's key tenured members on major legislative decisions while minority party Senators are required to "go-along to get-along".

Bullock has bent over backwards to see that Republican Senators have had their share of political goodies this past session including six top committee chairmanships: Chris Harris, (R-Arlington), Administration; David Sibley, (R-Waco), Economic Development; Bill Ratliff, (R-Mount Pleasant), the powerful Education Committee; J. E. "Buster" Brown, Republican from Lake Jackson, sub-committee chair on Veteran's Affairs; Don Harris, (R-Houston), Jurisprudence and Teel Bivins, (R-Amarillo), super-powerful Nominations Committee head.

The Lt. Governor vowed to have a bi-partisan session and got his fellow Demos to go along, since many of them are as conservative as those on the opposite aisle.

As a result things went swimmingly throughout the 74th session.

Governor Bush, Bullock and House Speaker Pete Laney had a regular media-pictured love-fest complete with hugs (no kisses, thank goodness) after the session and leaders from both parties hailed the 140 day session as "historic" - which translated means little acrimony between leaders and less than normal fussing among party-line members.

As we approach 1996, a key election year in Texas, Republicans from State Committee headquarters on down, are salivating over three targeted Senate seats they plan to win to give them firm control of the upper house.

The total they covet in the House has not been firmed up as yet, but the hope is to unseat, either through election or disloyal decamping by unhappy Demos, a mystery figure lurking around the number "14", just enough to take over the lower house. More on that in a later column.

The three Senate seats under the watchful telescopic eye of the big GOPer guns includes our own District 24, which up to now has been "safe" with Bill Sims holding firm. Problem: Sims has announced his retirement so the conservative money is piling up to add this huge district to the growing Republican list.

Two candidates have jumped in the District 24 race so far. Republican Troy Fraser, Horseshoe Bay, a former house member who has the financial backing and blessing from state GOP leaders.

He will go against Sweetwater's Democratic Mayor Rick Rhodes who has the political savvy and funds to make this a real horse race.

Right now we would call this an "up-for-grabs" battle.

Other targeted Senate seats are David Cain's District Two sinecure in Dallas and a real blowout pending over in East Texas' District 5, currently held by a strong Democrat - Jim Turner.

Only problem there is that Turner has his eyes focused on Washington now that Congressional District Two has opened up thanks to flamboyant Charlie Wilson's announcement that he does not plan to run for reelection. Wilson wants to return home to start earning an honest living, we presume.

If Turner, who has several years remaining in the Senate, wins - there will be a special election and should ultra-conservative Richard Smith, who was barely defeated by Turner last time out be elected as projected, (due to his anointment by state GOP leaders, dollars and other assistance), then another Senate seat will be absorbed by the hard charging Republicans.

GOP Takeover

All the Republicans need do is win two of the above three districts and the tables are turned in the Texas Senate and overnight Bullock is in deep trouble.

Some of Bullock's people and other millennialistic political "experts" think that because the Lt. Governor has been super nice to Senate Republicans, they will allow good old Bob to continue cruising along as the top power in the upper house.

This is crazy. Reason is that in the political "winner-take all" world we live in, a newly minted GOP majority would not only want to dominate but would "have-to" in order to

Salado Eagles district champions after beating Lexington, face winless Academy

After clenching the district championship by beating the Lexington War Eagles 31-0 Nov. 3, the Salado Eagles travel to Academy to face the hapless Bumblebees 7:30 p.m. Nov. 10.

Academy sits at the bottom of the District 26AA standings at 0-4 while Salado sits at the top with a 4-0 record. Academy is 1-7-1 for the year while Salado is 6-3 for the year.

Rogers is in second place in the district rate at 3-1. If Rogers loses to Lexington Nov. 10, it will force a three-way tie for second place as Lexington and Hutto are 2-2 in district play.

In the first round of the play-offs, Salado will face either Blanco or Junction, while the 26AA runner-up will face the Mason Punchers, who are undefeated in district play.

The Eagles controlled both sides of the ball in their 31-0 win over Lexington, totalling 374 yards offense and holding the War Eagles to 166 yards total offense, all on the ground.

The Eagles also collected six turnovers: David Berumen, David Kirk, Jerome Peoples, Jerry Ratliff, Rusty Wasik and Chris Woolard all recovered fumbles.

Salado led 17-0 at the half, with all the scoring in the second quarter.

Joshua Goodnight ran for 73 yards to score the first touchdown. Chris Frazier added the extra point.

Frazier kicked a 33 yard field goal to increase the lead to 10-0.

David Berumen ran in from the 6 yard line to top an 80 yard drive late in the half. Frazier's extra point brought the score to 17-0.

Goodnight connected with Tim Powers on a 17 yard touchdown in the third quarter. The extra point brought the score to 24-0.

Shawn Reichert ran in from the 6 yard line in the fourth quarter. The extra point brought the final score to 31-0.

Reichert was the leading rusher with 81 yards on 11 carries. Goodnight followed with 75 yards on 8 carries.

Carolyn Owen and Morgan Brooks help kick off the recycling program at Thomas Arnold Elementary. All classrooms will have bins to recycle paper. The sixth grade is also recycling aluminum cans. All classes are learning the importance of recycling and taking care of our Earth. The bins are provided by a grant.

Thomas Arnold has recently acquired the Accelerated Reader computer program, being used by grades 2-6. By reading library books and passing computer tests on these books, the students earn prizes each six weeks. The program, designed to motivate student reading, has really taken off at Thomas Arnold Elementary. Research shows that Accelerated Reader children show faster growth in reading achievement and better comprehension. By motivating students to read excellent books, the Accelerated Reading naturally stimulates a love reading itself. 8th Annual Mid-Tex College Night Nov. 16

The 8th Annual Mid-Tex College Night will be held at the Bell County Expo Center in Belton on Nov. 16. The event is a cooperative effort on the part of area counselors and college admission personnel. The purpose of the evening is for students and parents to talk one-to-one with admission officials representing colleges throughout the United States. Last year more than 7,000 central Texas students took advantage of this extravaganza.

The agenda for the evening is as follows:

6:30-7 p.m.-Non-traditional Ways to Earn High School and College Credit/Assembly Hall

7-7:45 p.m.-Financial Assistance Workshop/Assembly Hall

7-9 p.m.-Visit with college admissions personnel/Arena Area

Approximately 100 college representatives will be available to visit with students. A list of colleges represented is available through your high school counselor. This is an opportunity for ALL high school students and parents to plan for the future.

FFA officers to perform Vespers Nov. 25

Children, teenagers in particular, are faced with many problems in today's society. The Salado FFA Chapter is aware of this and feels the need to address one of these problems: under age drinking and the consequences of this action.

The Salado FFA Chapter officers will perform "Vespers" 7 p.m. Nov. 25 in the Salado Elementary School Cafeteria. They will perform the short skit about drinking and driving for the Salado FFA members and the community.

The Texas FFA Association State President, Corey Rosenbusch, will be the guest speaker at this meeting. Refreshment will also be served.

The Salado FFA officers and advisor J. Brit Owen would appreciate the presence of the Salado community at this meeting.

Summer Read places second among Texas girls in Coca-Cola NASTAR

Summer Read, of Salado, raced Coca-Cola Jr. NASTAR (National Standard Race) during the 1994-95 season and placed second among all of Texas' 7-9 year-old girls making her one of the fastest ski racers in the state.

Read was ranked against U.S. Ski Team member and 1994 Olympic gold medalist, Tommy Moe, along with approximately 110,000 other recreational ski racers participating in the 1994-95 Coca-Cola Jr. NASTAR program.

NASTAR, a SKI Magazine program, is offered at 180 ski areas in 30 states and is open to recreational ski racers of every age and ability level. Racers are timed on a modified slalom course and given a score or "handicap." The handicap system allows racers to compare themselves to other NASTAR racers across the U.S. and to earn bronze, silver or gold medals every day they race.

Read earned a season best handicap of 31 while skiing at Aspen Highlands, CO. That score means she was just 31 percent behind NASTAR National Pacesetter, Tommy Moe, who held NASTAR's best handicap, a zero, during the 1994-95 ski season.

At the end of each season, Coca-Cola Jr. NASTAR ranks the top recreational racers nationally and in all 50 states. Winners are listed on special rankings posters distributed nationwide. Bula Headwear, Dachstein, Kneissi, Revo and Sport Obermeyer are proud sponsors of the NASTAR program.

Summer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monte H. Read, of Salado.

Her grandparents are W.O. Stinson, Sr., of Gladewater and Pearl Read, of Greendale, WS.

Cancer Society needs drivers for road to recovery effort

The road to recovery is often hard for someone to travel, especially if they have to travel it alone. The local Board of Directors for the American Cancer Society is currently recruiting members to help area cancer patients through this difficult time. The program being developed is called "Road to Recovery." The Road to Recovery program trains volunteers to give rides to cancer patients who can't get to treatment or to doctor's appointments any other way.

Doug Lawson, Chairman of the local board, said "This program is vital in the Temple/Belton area because we have so many people who are being treated for the disease. If they can't get to treatment, they have no chance."

Many patients who take advantage of such a program do not qualify for any other type of assistance. The Road to Recovery program may be the only hope they have of finishing their cancer treatments.

Recruitment for the program will take place during the first three weeks of November. A training for new driver volunteers is scheduled for November 15 at the Scott & White Cancer Center. Any interested parties can call 1-800-882-4366 outside of Temple, or 724-5705 within Temple to sign up to volunteer in Road to Recovery.

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide community-based voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy, and service.

The most certain sign of wisdom is continual cheerfulness. Her state is like that of things in the regions above the moon, always clear and serene.

"Mom's the one with Alzheimer's, but we're the ones who feel helpless."

How often do you have to tell her what day it is? How often does she forget her name? Or where she is? Or who you are?

We understand the anguish that caring for someone with Alzheimer's can put you through. That's why we developed the Arcadia wing, a special part of our nursing center just for people with Alzheimer's and related disorders.

In this safe, uncomplicated environment, your mother will receive the 24-hour care she needs. And she'll take part in a vigorous daily schedule of activities designed to maintain awareness, encourage independence and ease the trauma of confusion. We will also extend our care to you, with family support groups and counseling sessions to make this difficult time a little easier for everyone.

For more information on our Arcadia Wing, plus a free copy of When Love Gets Tough, a wonderful book about the nursing care decision, call or mail the coupon. And find out how we're helping people feel less helpless about Alzheimer's Disease.

Thomas Arnold receives $2,084 award from Texas Successful Schools Program

Monetary awards in the amount of $2,084.26 were made to Thomas Arnold Elementary school in the Salado ISD as part of the Texas Successful Schools Awards Program (TSSAS), Steven Ervin, superintendent of the Salado Independent School District announced recently.

The school is being recognized for gains in student performance in indicators that are part of the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS), more commonly known as the state's school report card.

The Salado ISD school is among 1,236 cash-winning schools statewide receiving awards for exemplary or recognized performance and 401 schools receiving awards for recording gains in their performance over last year.

The awards are based on school's spring 1995 performance on The Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS) test, which measures performance in reading, writing, and mathematics. Schools also had to meet performance standards for dropout and attendance rates.

Cash awards ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 per school were given. In the exemplary category, schools had at least 90 percent of all students and students in each student population group (White, African-American, Hispanic and economically disadvantaged) passing each section of the TAAS, a 1993-94 dropout rate of 1 percent or less for all students and each student group, and a 1993-94 attendance rate of 94 percent or greater. These schools also had to have passing rates on the TAAS tests given at Grade 3-8 and 10 that exceeded the spring 1995 state average for all students and student groups.

In the recognized category, schools had at least 70 percent of all student and those in each student group passing each section of the TAAS, a dropout rate of 3.5 percent or less for all students and each student group, and an attendance rate of 94 percent. The change in TAAS performance from 1994-95 also had to be high enough so that the passing rate for all students and those in each student group would be at least 90 percent within five years.

To be eligible for a significant gain award, schools had at least 25 percent of all students in each student group passing each section of the TAAS. In addition, a school's gain in performance from spring 1994 to spring 1995 had to be in the top 20 percent of the school's demographic group on overall gain for all students and each student group and average at least 5 percent gain across all subject areas for all student and each student group.

Under law, the AEIS computes a demographic index based on campuses' percentages of minority, economically disadvantaged, limited English proficient, and highly mobile students and the wealth of the school's district. The index is used to array campuses and form 24 groups of roughly equal size. A school's performance is compared to other schools that are in its same demographic group.

A total of $5 million is being awarded to school this year under the TSSAS program.

answer to the folks back home and more importantly - to the state hierarchy.

Not to mention the Governor himself who yearns for a majority in at least one of the two legislative houses.

An immediate relegation of Bullock to just presiding and other social duties would take place, while the new-kids-on-the-power-block make the key decisions as to who gets a key to the bathroom and other perks that go with majority power in any legislative body.

Predictions

It is this observer's opinion that the Republicans will win big in Texas in 1996. The Senate will go to the conservatives and the House should gain five or six seats thus giving them a "close-but-no-cigar" configuration that will provide Speaker Laney a series of fits when it comes to passing legislation.

This might force Bullock to make an early decision about running for Governor in 1998 and taking on a popular first term Governor.

This would, of course, frustrate our power hungry Comptroller John Sharp, who has done everything but go on a "hunger strike" to attract attention towards his master plan to capture the governor's chair.

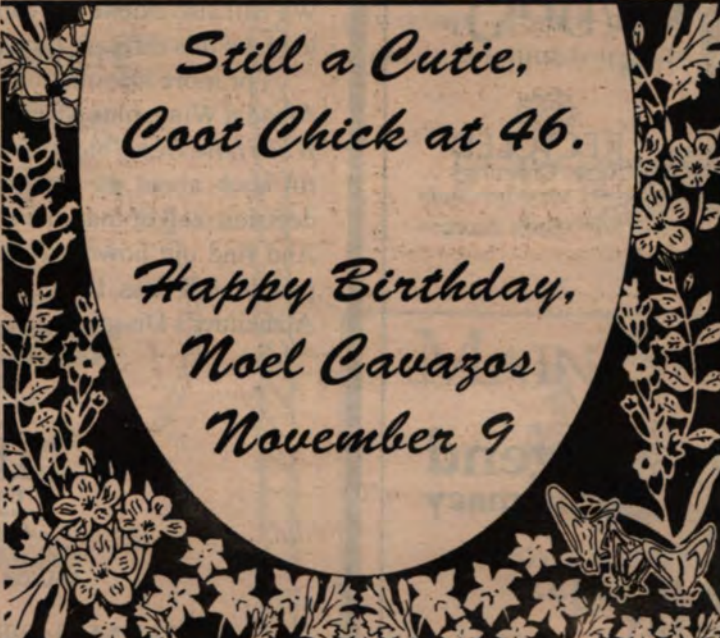

Bob has always yearned to be Governor even though his time-at-bat for that job is probably past.

Or the feisty Lt. Governor might just hang it up and return to practicing law in Austin with an occasional stab at lobbying.

Due to his age and past health problems, his family probably is opting for plan two but Bob has been nothing, if not totally unpredictable, so don't count him down and out just yet.

We can safely guarantee that there will be more on this fascinating game of legislative musical chairs as the all important pre-election period looms - ever and ever closer.

That's -30-

 Coot Chick at 46.

The Gathering of the Clans is a colorful weekend in Salado for many of the visitors who come to enjoy the kilts, cabers and ceilidhs every year.

in their daily routines on board ship. The Sword Dance is reckoned nu many to be the oldest Scottish dance. Sword and scabbard were placed on the ground in the form of a cross and if the dancer's feet managed to avoid touching either one, it was believed the clan would be blessed with good fortune in the coming battle. However, if the sword or scabbard were disarranged, the prediction was defeat.

Many of the steps in the Seann Triubhas are intended to express the Scotsman's displeasure for an old law, which at one time forbade the wearing of kilts. Literally translated, Seann Triubhas means "Old Trews." The name is a derisive reference to the law enforced after the unscuccessful rebellion of 1745 in support of "Bonnie Prince Charlie," when kilts, bagpipes and other Highland traditional trappings were forbidden. Many of the steps of the dance are intended to indicate the Scotsman's efforts to kick off the trews.

Scottish dances, such as Highland Fling and the Sword Dance are in fact solos dances of the Highland men, and are so vigorous that one must be in top physical shape to perform them.

Two Ceilidhs will be held at the High School during the day, as well. A Ceilidh (pronounced Kay-lee) is an informal gathering.

In Scotland, groups gather in a home, a pub, a hotel, or even a church social hall to play and sing the old songs. There is usually not a planned, prepared program: it's just a happening.

Listen to the pipes and beat of the drums, see Highland dancing at its best, hear soloist sing the good ole Scottish songs and join in the singing yourself.

Clans will gather in tents on the Village Green while Sheep Dog Trials will begin 8 a.m. Nov. 10 at the Robertson Ranch.

Church services will be held in the Longhorn Room of the Stagecoach Inn 9 a.m. Nov. 12.

Over 18 Scottish games will be held at the Robertson Ranch including tossing the caber, weight toss and weight throw, hammer throw, tossing the sheaf and putting the stone.

The origin of tossing the caber is somewhat obscure, even though records of its existence dates back to the 16th Century. This event, like so many athletic events, may well have begun as a military discipline to breach fortifications and barriers.

The weight toss and weight throw are normally combined into a three part competition using two metal weights, one of 28 pounds, the other 56 pounds. The 28 pound weight is thrown for distance. The 56 pound weight is tossed for height as well as for distance.

The hammer throw became popular in the Scottish Highlands as a pastime among strong young men who gather in the late afternoon at the local blacksmith shop. There, the smith's long-handled 22 plus pound hammer was thrown to prove one's strength and agility.

General admission to the Scottish Games is $4 per person Nov. 10 and 12 and $5 per person, Nov. 11.

Admission to the 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Ceilidhs is $4 per person.

The Belton Acoustic Concert Series presents Nigel Russell, Emily Kaitz and Mary Reynolds; three talented performers and songwriters together on one stage Nov. 11.

The concert will be held in the smoke- and alcohol-free environment of the Parish Hall at Saint Luke's Episcopal Church, at Beal and 22nd Streets in Belton.

The doors open at 7 p.m. and the $7 admission includes refreshment throughout the evening.

Glasgow native Nigel

Russell has performed with Canadian folk-hero Stan Rogers, Chris Ward, Susan Cogan and Jerry Jeff Walker. Since moving to Central Texas he has also appeared with The Legendary Flakey Biscuit Boys, Caryl P. Weiss, The Studebakers and Don McAlister. Nigel Russell's songs have been recorded by over twenty different acts, and his "White Collar Holler" appears on the American musical anthology Rise Up Singing. His current projects include recording with The Studebakers, building a thirty-two foot sloop and raising his twin sons.

Emily Kaitz is a songwriter, performer and recording artist best known for quirky compositions and a wry, sometimes bizarre stage presence that have delighted audiences all across America. Mary Reynolds is a classically-trained vocalist, guitarist, bass- and saxophone player whose repertoire includes jazz, rhythm and blues, country, Irish traditional and her own original songs. As a duo Emily Kaitz and Mary Reynolds have performed at the Lone Star Women's Music Festival, Kerrville Folk Festival, and at venues across the region. In March of this year they appeared on "Live Set", on Austin's KUT-FM.

Latin percussionists featured artists with Temple Jazz Orchestra Nov. 12

Latin Percussionists Henry Brun and Stephen Crawford will be featured artists with the Temple Jazz Orchestra in a concert Nov. 12 at Temple Junior College.

Brun, the founding member of The Latin Playerz jazz ensemble of San Antonio, performs a wide variety of music covering a cavalcade of Latin styles, ranging from the slow tempo of a Cuban cha-cha and the more upbeat mambo, to the conga and rhumba, guaguanco, songo, charanga and merengue rhythms. He will be joined on stage by Stephen Crawford, timbalero, who is in his first year as conductor of the Symphonic Band and director of percussion studies at TJC.

The Temple Jazz Orchestra, directed by Tom Fairlie, will be performing several special Latin jazz arrangements along with a program of straight big band jazz.

The concert will be at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Mary Alice Marshall Fine Arts Building at TJC. Tickets are $5 and will be available at the door.

Henry Brun has accumulated more than two decades of musical experience including participation in more than 200 recordings, several productions, original compositions, a major motion picture (Viva Mandela), and a documentary of Texas music (Texas Saturday Night). Some of his performing credits include Tejano Music Awards winner Laura Canales, Joe Posada, and most recently, Grammy Award winner, The Texas Tornados.

His band, "The Latin Playerz" debut compact disc, "Under The Influence," received rave reviews and the group has won several awards including Jazz Band of the Year by the San Antonio News, Latin, Salsa, Conjunto Band of the Year by Current Magazine, and a Pura Vida Music awards nomination sponsored by Univision.

Brun first appeared in Temple at the Temple Jazz Festival last April.

Crawford comes to Temple from Kansas City where he was the timbalero and singer with Orquesta Flamante, a professional Latin jazz ensemble. Flamante performed in some of the hottest Latin clubs and most established venues in the city and was a featured group along with B. B. King, James Brown, and the Duke Ellington Band in Kansas City's Spirit Festival.

Crawford has performed with such jazz greats as Dave Mancini, Bobby Shew, Ashley Alexander, Steve Wright, Ed Soph and Maynard Ferguson. He also has appeared as a percussionist with many symphony orchestras, bands, jazz ensembles and as a clinician and conductor throughout the United States, Canada, and Ireland.

Letter to Editor commends The Veranda

Editor:

The Historic District Committee wishes to express its appreciation for the outstanding example Tim Brown, Glenn Hodge, Billy Pipes, and David Stanford established in planning and reconstructing the beautiful office building, The Veranda, located next to the First State Bank on Main Street.

They deserve commendation for their thoughtfulness and action in bringing this beautiful old building back to life.

We are grateful that they gave the Historic District Committee the opportunity to review their proposal while it was in the planning stage. While it is doubtful the discussions of that meeting significantly influenced the resulting building, they were, nevertheless, considerate of the Committee's concerns and sensitive to provisions of the Historic District Guidelines established for the Village. The resulting development is even more impressive than was anticipated when the original plans were reviewed by the Committee.

Their new office building is a noteworthy and outstanding addition to Main Street. The Historic District Committee is proud to see the revival of this architectural treasure.

Sincerely,
Jack D. Herrington,
Chairman
Historic District
Committee

Editor's note: The owners of The Veranda plan on hosting a Grand Opening at a near date. At that time, a spread will appear in the Salado Village Voice on the history of the building, its move to Salado and the character of the structure.

Local Heroes Week Nov. 5-11 in Bell County

County Judge John Garth recently presented a proclamation, officially proclaiming the week of Nov. 5-11 as "Local Hero Week".

Local Heroes Week Nov. 5-11 was started in 1992 by George Gromacki of Express Personnel Services to honor all fire, police and emergency medical service workers in Killeen.

This year, King's Daughters Hospitals and Metroplex Hospital have joined with Express Personnel to honor those workers in throughout Bell County and Copperas Cove. The combined program will honor over 1,000 fire, police and emergency service workers.

God Bless our Local Heroes

Our heroes of yesterday have lost their luster.

Almost daily the headlines remind us how unwise 't is to put our faith in sports legends. Or movie stars. Politicians. Or captains of industry.

So where are the role models of today for our sons and daughters?

We have a suggestion.

There is a group of people we tend to take for granted.

There is no special day set aside in their honor, that we know of.

No TV series dedicated to their heroism.

No organized national recognition of their importance to every community in the U.S.-big and small.

Without fanfare, they do their job. Sometimes putting their lives on the line in the process. There is much to admire about these men and women.

From part-time rural volunteer to full-time big-city professional,

From the trainee to the Chief.

From the fire fighter to the fire marshal.

To even qualify for this difficult and demanding work, they have to be physically strong. Dedicated. Intelligent. Resourceful. Highly motivated. And, yes, unselfish.

Solitude is fine when you are at peace with yourself and have something definite to do.

—Goethe

Because they're certainly not in it for the money.

At a time when many of us bemoan the lack of heroes, we suggest all of us look down the street to the men and women who protect you and your neighborhood from the ever-present dangers of fire.

Those role models for our kids? They've been there all along.

God bless the fire fighters of America.

The ghost of Jacob Marley (Salado's Jon McDurmitt) returns to taunt the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge (Salado's Rick Thomassen) in Tablerock's adaptation of the ageless Dickens' classic to be presented Dec. 1-2 and Dec. 8-9.

Catch the Spirit

Tablerock presents A Christmas Carol Dec. 1-2, 8-9

Catch the true meaning of Christmas with Tiny Tim Cratchit and the ever-miserly Ebenezer Scrooge in Tablerock's rendition of the classic story by Charles Dickens, "A Christmas Carol." Gary D. Askins of Salado adapts and directs this version of the timeless tale to be performed at Salado's Tablerock Amphitheater on Royal St. 7 p.m., Dec. 1-2 and Dec. 8-9.

The first weekend coincides with Salado's "Christmas Stroll," where the whole community radiates with a bright holiday spirit, choirs sing, and shops remain open late.

In this, the third annual production, Askins has created a modern-day introductory scene, where the Cratchits, the grinchy old Scrooge and even Dickens himself appear in contemporary, techno-tinted Texas fashion.

The director/playwright takes on the role of Dickens while Mr. Scrooge is brilliantly portrayed by Salado actor Rick Thomassen; the ever-optimistic Cratchits are captured on stage by Bud Alexander, Denise Thomssen, Garrett Daniel, Chantal Dalton, Erin Lummus and Lizzy Lynn. Spirits haunting Scrooge include Jon McDurmitt and Tim Featherston, while Melany Cearley and Mary Helen Schreiner humorously portray domestics abusing him. Mike Wiley, Rita Brown, Ashley Lummus, Kacie Thomas, Tessa Schreiner, Brook Wiley, Earl Bragg, Jann Featherston, Rory Oldham, Brandi

Featherston, Jessi Beck and Brad Ray are cast as past and present influences in Ebenezer's life; Troy Slavens and Sam Daniel portray younger versions of the holiday misanthrope. "Carol" villagers include Joann McDurmitt, Michelle Ellis, Heather Lummus, Garth Daniel, Matthew and Jacob Brown, Garrett Askins, Deann Chambers, Sherry Copeland, Amie and Jocelynn Dunn, Stefanie

Burns, Cheri Slavens, Ashley Screws, Brandy Ernest, Danielle Danford, Alexandra and Alice Taylor.

A production of this nature, of course, doesn't get off the ground without lots of help behind the scenes. Providing production assistance to this years event are Jody Askins, Miles Ellis, Josh Brown, Darlene Lummus, Jackie Mills, Melinda Danford, Phillip Featherston, Randy Ray, Mark Danford, John Giollotti, Denise Thomssen, Time Featherston and Earl Bragg.

So, don't be a "Humbug"; catch the spirit early at Tablerock's version of "A Christmas Carol"; tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for students, and may be purchased in advance at Fletcher's Books in Salado, First State Bank of Salado and Peoples National Bank in Salado, Belton or Temple, as well as at the gate. Remember to dress warmly — it's Christmas!

Letter to Editor commends The Veranda

Editor:

The Historic District Committee wishes to express its appreciation for the outstanding example Tim Brown, Glenn Hodge, Billy Pipes, and David Stanford established in planning and reconstructing the beautiful office building, The Veranda, located next to the First State Bank on Main Street.

They deserve commendation for their thoughtfulness and action in bringing this beautiful old building back to life.

We are grateful that they gave the Historic District Committee the opportunity to review their proposal while it was in the planning stage. While it is doubtful the discussions of that meeting significantly influenced the resulting building, they were, nevertheless, considerate of the Committee's concerns and sensitive to provisions of the Historic District Guidelines established for the Village. The resulting development is even more impressive than was anticipated when the original plans were reviewed by the Committee.

Their new office building is a noteworthy and outstanding addition to Main Street. The Historic District Committee is proud to see the revival of this architectural treasure.

Sincerely,
Jack D. Herrington,
Chairman
Historic District
Committee

Editor's note: The owners of The Veranda plan on hosting a Grand Opening at a near date. At that time, a spread will appear in the Salado Village Voice on the history of the building, its move to Salado and the character of the structure.
