Marker to be dedicated at Inn at Salado May 17

by Tim Fleischer
Editor-in-Chief

Unveiling of a Texas Historical Commission Marker for the Norton-Orgain House (Inn at Salado) on Main St. at Pace Park is set for 5 p.m. May 17. The house will also be listed in the National Register of Historic Places. A reception will follow the ceremony unveiling the markers.

The Norton-Orgain house is now owned and operated as The Inn at Salado, a Bed & Breakfast Inn, by George Kolb.

Edward Buckles built the house in 1872. He is listed in George Tyler's History of Bell County as a founder of Salado in 1859. The stonework of the house was probably done by John Hendricks, who built all the stone chimneys in Salado, according to Thelma Fletcher. Buckles also owned Shady Villa (known today as the Stagecoach Inn).

Nimrod Lindsay Norton and wife Mary bought the house from Buckles for $2,323 in 1873.

Norton, a farmer in Missouri organized one of the first companies north of the Missouri River to defend the state from federal invasion during the Civil War. He rose to the rank of Colonel in the Confederate Army.

He moved from Missouri to Texas in 1867 and later to Salado.

He was a charter member of Grange No. 1 in Salado in 1873, which along with the State Grange organization influenced the Texas Constitutional Convention of 1875.

In 1880 Norton was appointed a member of the two-man capitol building commission which considered 11 designs. An extended controversy resulted as to whether the new capitol should be built of Limestone or of Texas red granite.

The Norton-Orgain House on Main St.

Norton along with Joseph Lee and W.H. Westfall, G.C. Lacey, John Hancock and O.M. Roberts ended the limestone-granite controversy in 1882 by donating all of the red granite needed for capitol construction.

It has been stated, "To Col. Norton more than any other person, Texas is indebted for the magnificent structure that adorns Capitol Hill."

After moving to Austin, Norton died in 1903 and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Austin.

John H. Orgain bought the house from Norton and lived there 25 years with his wife Kate Alma.

John Orgain was also one of the founders of Salado in 1859. He owned interest in Davis Mill, was county superintendent of schools and was influential in the formation of Thomas Arnold High School.

Kate Orgain was the first president of the reading society of Salado College "the Amasavourian Society."

She taught music in the Thomas Arnold High School in 1890 and was the author of several books.

All three of their children were graduates of the short-lived Thomas Arnold High School.

Masons celebrate 125 years in Salado

The public is invited to attend the Anniversary of 125 years of Masonry in the Salado Community on May 23, 1992. The celebration by the Salado Masonic Lodge No. 296 will begin at 5 p.m. at the Pace Park Pavilion.

The Hon. Billy Tinsley, Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Texas, will be present and will make an award to an outstanding member of the community who is not a member of the Masonic Fraternity. The recipient of this award has contributed to the business and social prosperity of Salado for many years.

The program will be followed by a barbecue dinner. Tickets for the dinner may be purchased for a $6.50 donation at the Village IGA Food Store, Bluebonnet Savings or Salado National Bank.

MCCA & Lions sponsor Health Fair May 16

The Mill Creek Community Association and the Salado Lion's Club are sponsoring a Community Health Fair at the school cafeteria 10 a.m.-2 p.m. May 16.

The Health Fair will feature hearing screening by Beltone, Belton; non-fasting cholesterol screening by Scott & White Options; glaucoma screening and joint protection by Allied Health Focus; breast cancer risk assessment by Texas A&M Research and Education and blood pressure screening by nurses from the Salado Methodist Church.

In addition, a representative from Scott & White

Senior Care Health Program will be available to talk to healthcare participants. Volunteers from Scott & White will be available to assist in the Health Fair. The Fair is open to the public at no charge.

Jam Session set May 17 at Tablerock

The first Salado musicians, singers and songwriters Jam Session will be held 6-9 p.m. May 17 at Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheatre. Bring your instruments and families for an evening of music and fun.

In addition, plans will be discussed to hold Jam Sessions and other musical events on a more regular basis.

Deadline is FRIDAY for news & ads

Fundraising goal set for high school renovation

The first meeting of the Fund Raising committee to "Save The Red School House" was held May 3 at the Salado Library to outline the steps to be taken to raise money for the renovation. As announced at the April 30 Town Meeting, the initial goal is $358,600 plus a supplemental amount to furnish the building and provide for operation and maintenance.

Co-chairman Patsy

Sanford announced that an offer of a large donation from a Bell County benefactor has been withdrawn due to unspecified complications and that the fund raising responsibility will rest entirely with the Salado community.

"Following the enthusiasm expressed at the town meeting for the school project, a group of donors has already contributed over $30,000 and new pledges are being received at the Chamber of Commerce every day," said Sanford. "We are hoping every organization and individual in the community will help with the fund raising."

An Alumni Committee is being formed to reach out to all those who attended school in the old building and several other committees are in the process of being organized. Expressions of support have been announced from some organizations and it is hoped that others will follow.

Attending the meeting were Chamber President Denver Mills, Co-chairman Stewart Smith, Jesse Foster, Bob Cottle, Cathy Sands, Wylene Williams and Chamber secretary Laura McQueary.

To assist with the fund drive to make a contribution or pledge, please contact the Salado Chamber of Commerce office at 947-5040.

Lottery to begin in Texas May 29

Into the Sun

rated R

starring Michael Anthony Hall, Michael Pare'

Our rating: *

by Tim Fleischer
Editor-in-Chief

Why does nerdy Anthony Michael Hall think he's a stud? He was best as a pimply faced nerd in The Breakfast Club, but since surviving puberty and dating actress Molly Ringwald, Hall has developed an attitude.

He has an attitude much like Tom Slade, the character he plays in Into the Sun. We've seen this character before, only under a different name in Hall's other dog Johnny Be Good.

If you liked Johnny Be Good, you'll love Into the Sun.

But for the rest of us, Into the Sun is a dark cloud.

Our rating system

The Texas Lottery begins on May 29, 1992, with what is expected to be a day full of pomp and ceremony usually reserved for more important state functions. Thousands of merchants across Texas will begin pushing the purchase of lottery tickets with a promise of rewards beyond imagination for the lucky few and a voluntary tax contribution by the unlucky many.

Texas Comptroller John Sharp, who truly hungers for the Governor's Mansion, is in charge of the mammoth lottery project. If all goes well and millions flow into the general revenue fund - then he will have bragging rights as he presents himself, in a few years, as a candidate for the State's highest office. On the other hand - should a breath of scandal touch the lottery - Sharp will be dead in the water politically. Chances of something going wrong with a state sponsored gambling endeavor are high if experience in other lottery states is any guide. Gambling and crime and illegal payoffs and scandal are traditional running mates where games of chance are

Off the Record

by Ken Clapp

legalized. Things may go perfectly well in Texas and Comptroller Sharp will be keeping a weather eye on the proceedings in high hopes that things do go well. There have been, to date, a few minor glitches including the problems last year surrounding the selection of a company to handle the mechanics of the lottery. And then there was the "big" story in April indicating that State Treasurer Kay Hutchison had accepted campaign contributions from a bank chosen as a depository for lottery funds. She turned on Sharp at once for his "failure" (her words) in not notifying folks what companies are on the "no-no" list insofar as being connected with the lottery and hence not a legal giver to any campaign. Little things so far but a precursor perhaps of things yet to come!

Another interesting thing to watch will be exactly what the state revenue will be each year from legalized gambling. Bet it does not come close to the half billion that was touted when the lottery plan was first introduced.

Good Move

Top State officials together with the Legislative Budget Board are already warning state agency heads that when lawmakers convene for the 73rd Session in January 1993, there will be a strong movement against raising taxes or conjuring up new revenue sources. In fact - these folks may be looking for a "zero growth" budget for the first time in history. This would mean that many agencies would take a cut since normal population growth causes budget increases, on an almost automatic basis, for most service related agencies.

People are tired of the courts taking over legislative duties and mandating higher costs which translate into higher taxes.

Tired of politicians that have campaign promised to take the tax burden off the old homestead but once elected fail to follow thought - thus hiking the ad valorem levies on the same old non-productive land. And tired of having to work a little longer each year to pay the total tax bill presented by all levels of government.

Truth of the matter is that we can have a "hold the line" budget for the next biennium if we can convince our elected officials that we will accept nothing less. And threaten them with a real term limitation if they don't pay attention. That is a limitation at the ballot box even if we can't get a legal limit put into statutory form.

Try that idea out on your local representative and see what happens.

That's -30- for this week!

Bell County Museum honored with Wilder award from T.A.M.

The Texas Association of Museums (TAM) announced at its annual meeting in San Antonio recently, the listing of award winners in the Thirteenth Annual Mitchell A. Wilder Publication Design Awards Competition. The entries came from large and small museums statewide and included materials ranging from exhibition posters and catalogues, to public service announcements.

The Bell County Museum received awards for the Governor Miriam Ferguson exhibition poster, the Miriam Ferguson commemorative badge and ribbon, and the "Me for Ma" promotional button. These materials were used in conjunction with the opening of the Governor Miriam Ferguson collection at the Bell County Museum which was acquired for the museum by the former Exec. Director Carl McQueary of Salado. McQueary, who designed the award winning material, is now the Director of Museum operations for the Daughters of the Republic of Texas Museum in Austin.

"I knew that the Ferguson poster had been very popular around the state, but I never dreamed that I would win a Wilder. I could not be happier for the Bell County Museum. This is quite an honor for the people of Bell County," said McQueary. Director Carol Kehl accepted the award for the museum.

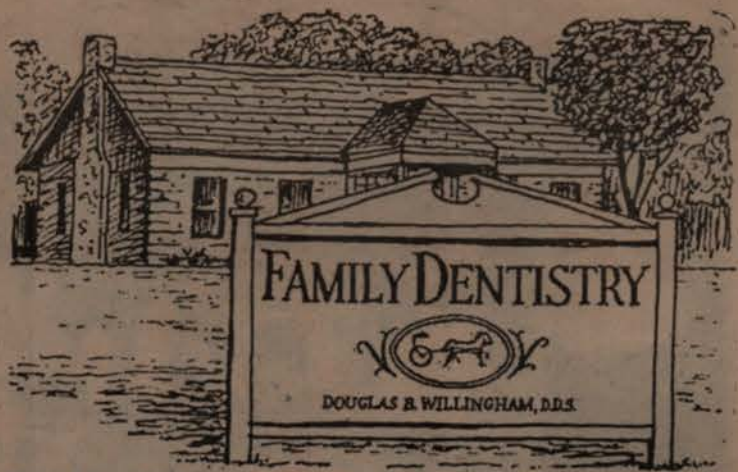

The poster design for the Ma Ferguson collection at the Bell County Museum was a winner of a Wilder award along with the Miriam Ferguson commemorative badge and ribbon and the Me for Ma promotional button.

This competition, which is equivalent of the Academy awards for the Museum profession was organized by the Texas Association of Museums to encourage museums to strive for better communication through excellence in publication design and presentation. The awards are named in honor of one of the early advocates of excellence in museum publications, Mitchell A. Wilder (1913-1979) founding director of the Amon Carter Museum in Fort Worth.

Alice Allen presents program to Salado Village Artists

Alice Allen recently presented a program to the Salado Village Artists on how to "Sew A Crooked Stitch". Speaking on the reawakening of quilting in America, she showed several different types of quilting methods.

Allen, a teacher, author and designer, has brought an enthusiasm for sewing to her new home in Salado. With her husband Charles and daughter Alisa, she moved to Salado a year ago and opened their shop, "The Allen Collection."

In September Allen will host Salado's first stitchers conference.

Each month the Salado Village Artist present programs of special interest. You are invited to join the Salado Village artists each Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at Tablerock Amphitheatre.

Hodge Soccer team wins two more games

The C.B. Hodge Soccer team rolled on for two more victories recently, ending the regular season with an 8-1-1 record. They will play Temple's Gulf Coast in the championship game next Saturday at 10 a.m. May 2, the Salado team defeated Temple Kiwanis by a 4-1 score. Josh Lee led the way for Salado with two goals and two assists. Tate Hunter and Robin Culp each had goals, and Taylor Hutton and Ryan Hodge were credited with assists.

May 9, the Salado team defeated Temple's Heartland by a 3-0 score in a rough game. Goalie Brady Johnston was kicked in the head while making a save, and Tate Hunter and Taylor Hutton were blindsided, without penalty, as the Salado team has obviously worn out its welcome in Temple.

The Salado team responded with continuous pressure, and Terry Phillips began the scoring with a 20 yard shot into the far corner of the goal. Josh Lee headed in David Kirk's corner-kick for the second goal, and Kirk scored on a 20 yard shot for the final goal. The tough Salado defense recorded their fourth shutout of the season (acutally six- two were on penalty kicks).

Rich Strawberry Cheesecake without the Guilt

Don't let strawberry season with its tempting shortcakes and pies steer you away from your goal to reduce fat in your diet. The following recipe for Guilt-Free Strawberry Cheesecake has the flavor of the rich cheesecake you've always loved, without the extra calories.

Gingersnaps, one of the cookies that are lowest in fat, add an unusual twist to a traditional crumb crust. With a rolling pin, crush the cookie crumbs in a gallon-size Reynolds Sure-Seal zipper bag. ### Guilt-Free Strawberry Cheesecake

Crust:

- 1 Reynolds Sure-Seal storage bag, gallon size
- 30 gingersnap cookies (1 1/2 inch diameter)
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/3 cup margarine, melted

Filling:

- 2 packages (8 oz. each) light cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 4 egg whites
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Topping:

- 2 cups frozen sliced strawberries thawed, divided
- 1/4 cup sugar

Preheat oven to 325°F. For crust, place cookies in a gallon-size Reynolds Sure-Seal storage bag. With a rolling pin or heavy smooth object, crush cookies into fine crumbs. (Crumbs should measure about 1 1/2 cups.) Add sugar and shake bag to blend ingredients. Pour melted margarine over crumbs and shake bag until well blended. Press crumb mixture evenly into a 9-inch pie plate.

For filling, in a large mixing bowl, with an electric mixer, beat cream cheese and sugar until smooth. Add egg whites and vanilla and beat until well blended. Pour mixture into crust. Bake 30 to 35 minutes or until center is set. Cool on wire rack. Refrigerate until chilled.

For topping, in a food processor or blender, puree 1 cup thawed, sliced strawberries. Add 1/4 cup sugar and blend. Pour mixture into small bowl; stir in remaining 1 cup sliced strawberries. Serve over cheesecake.

Makes: 8 to 10 servings.

Rich Strawberry Cheesecake without the Guilt

Don't let strawberry season with its tempting shortcakes and pies steer you away from your goal to reduce fat in your diet. The following recipe for Guilt-Free Strawberry Cheesecake has the flavor of the rich cheesecake you've always loved, without the extra calories.

Gingersnaps, one of the cookies that are lowest in fat, add an unusual twist to a traditional crumb crust. With a rolling pin, crush the cookie crumbs in a gallon-size Reynolds Sure-Seal zipper bag. Sure-Seal zipper bags are strong enough to withstand the pressure of crushing cookies for the cheesecake crust. Use the same bag as a mixing bowl for the remaining crust ingredients. The quart-size zipper bag is just right as a mitt to protect hands while pressing the crust in the pie plate.

With only four ingredients in the cheesecake filling, the recipe is a breeze to make. Light cream cheese and egg whites cut fat and cholesterol in the filling while the topping is simply frozen strawberries, thawed and pureed with a small amount of sugar. Guilt-Free Strawberry Cheesecake is sure to become a family favorite, so freeze plenty of strawberries while they are in season.

Guilt-Free Strawberry Cheesecake

Crust:

- 1 Reynolds Sure-Seal storage bag, gallon size
- 30 gingersnap cookies (1 1/2 inch diameter)
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/3 cup margarine, melted

Filling:

- 2 packages (8 oz. each) light cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 4 egg whites
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Topping:

- 2 cups frozen sliced strawberries thawed, divided
- 1/4 cup sugar

Preheat oven to 325°F. For crust, place cookies in a gallon-size Reynolds Sure-Seal storage bag. With a rolling pin or heavy smooth object, crush cookies into fine crumbs. (Crumbs should measure about 1 1/2 cups.) Add sugar and shake bag to blend ingredients. Pour melted margarine over crumbs and shake bag until well blended. Press crumb mixture evenly into a 9-inch pie plate.

For filling, in a large mixing bowl, with an electric mixer, beat cream cheese and sugar until smooth. Add egg whites and vanilla and beat until well blended. Pour mixture into crust. Bake 30 to 35 minutes or until center is set. Cool on wire rack. Refrigerate until chilled.

For topping, in a food processor or blender, puree 1 cup thawed, sliced strawberries. Add 1/4 cup sugar and blend. Pour mixture into small bowl; stir in remaining 1 cup sliced strawberries. Serve over cheesecake.

Makes: 8 to 10 servings.

news of the institutions and people of our village

Cedar Knob Homecoming planned

Cedar Knob Church and Cemetery Homecoming is set for May 16-17.

The annual meeting of Cedar Knob Cemetery Association will be at 10 a.m. May 16 at the cemetery located 8 miles West of Salado on FM 2484. All interested persons are invited.

The annual Cedar Knob Baptist Church homecoming will be May 17 at the church located off FM 2484 8 miles west of Salado. Scheduled events include Sunday school at 10 a.m. Worship at 11 a.m. and a covered dish lunch at 12:30 p.m. Singing will begin at 2 p.m.

The Choral group from Lakewood Baptist Church, Georgetown, featuring the Red Herrington Family will present special music at the 11 a.m. service and during the congregational singing 2-4 p.m.

SHS students take part in water monitoring

Salado High School physics students Trey Bethke, Sharon Dunlap and Kara Fuhs participated in the monthly creek monitoring by the Historical Society's Creek Preservation Committee volunteers on May 7, at the Stagecoach Inn dam, one of five sites tested regularly. Results have consistently indicated high quality water.

Also, 60 sixth graders from Mrs. Curry's and Mrs. Lackey's home rooms, observed and participated in tests at the site near Sirena.

Denis Qualls from the Brazos River Authority, which supports this Texas

Watch program (created by the Texas Water Commission) gave each group of students information on stream characteristics generally and Salado Creek specifically.

Kelly promoted at First Security

Wendy Kelly currently a resident in Oklahoma City and mother of two recently received a promotion to Commercial Loan Officer at the First Security Bank in Oklahoma.

Wendy is the daughter of Salado resident Leon Price of Leon's Livery.

SHS Eagles win 1, lose 1 to Liberty Hill Panthers

The Salado Eagles were defeated by Liberty Hill Panthers on May 5 with a score of 8-7. The win put the two teams in a tie for first place in the north zone of 26AA.

Liberty Hill scored a single run in their first at bat. The lead off hitter woaked and stole second. He moved ot third and eventually scored on passed balls.

The Eagles tied the game with a run in the bottom of the second. Ty Warrick and Brandon McGregor walked to put runner-son first and second. Warrick scored on an errant pickoff attempt at first that rolled into right field.

Salado took the lead in the bottom of the third with two more runs. Jereme Hosch started things with a walk. He stole second and moved to third on a misplayed fly ball to right that was hit by Chris Jackson. Hosch scored on a balk by the Panther pitcher. Andrew Voelter who was running for Jackson moved to third on the balk and a scored the Eagles third run on a daring paly. As an Eagle batter swung at a low third strike the ball got away from the catcher, as the catcher threw to first to retire the batter, Voelter raced home ahead of the return throw.

The Panthers recaptured the lead with three runs in the fifth inning. Liberty Hill received four walks in the inning and recorded two singles which were the first hits of the game. Richard Jackson came in as relief to Robbie Ray in the inning to record the final out.

The Eagles didn't waste any time overcoming the one run deficit. Shawn Morris singled for the Eagles first run of the game. Chris Jackson drew a walk and Jereme Fischer hit a towering shot over the left centerfield fence for a three run homer and a 6-3 lead. Salado wasn't finished though as Richard Berumen, Ray Warrick and Brandon McGregor received consecutive walks to force in another run.

Each team scored one run in the sixth. This brought the score to 8-5.

The Panther put together a rally in their last at bat, thanks mainly to the generosity of the Eagles. The first batter was hit by a pitch. The next batter tapped a slow roller to third but the throw to first was wild and both runners advanced another base. After reliever Jereme Fischer struck out two batters, Liberty Hill then recorded a single to drive in both runners. The next batter hit into a fielder's choice to end the game.

Shawn Morris was the only player to collect more than one hit on the night as he went 2 of 3. Richard Jackson picked up the win on the mound for the Eagles. His record improved to 3-1.

May 8th, the Eagles had a rematch against Liberty Hill to determine the zone champion. This time the Eagles were not as good or as fortunate as they had been losing 14-4.

Walks were the main offensive weapons on the night. Five Salado pitchers issued 14 base on balls. Two Liberty Hill pitchers walked 11 batters.

Liberty Hill was able to add seven base hits to further aid their offense, while Salado could manage only two hits. The Eagles also committed seven errors in the game.

Liberty Hill opened with two runs in the bottom of the first. They added six more in the third to build an 8-0 lead.

The Eagles only threat came in the sixth inning. Chris Jackson lead off with a single and the Eagles received six walks to account for their four runs.

Liberty Hill ended the game by scoring six runs in the bottom of the sixth for their 14-4 win.

The Eagles played the Manor Mustangs May 12. A loss would end the Eagles season, a victory would send them into the championship for the district title. Results of this game were not available at press time.

Civic Theatre plans youth workshop

Temple Civic Theatre will be sponsoring a Summer Youth Workshop for youth entering the 5th grade through high school (10-19). Natasha Tolleson is the Workshop Director of the Summer Follies '92.

"This workshop will be a hands-on theatre experience for all the kids," Tolleson commented. "Participants in the work shop will be building the set, learning how to build flats and platforms, pulling costumes, painting, attending special classes about the box office and publicity, improvisation and choreography."

Summer Follies '92 begins July 27 and will culminate in the Follies production on Aug. 15. Workshop hours are 9 a.m.-noon for the first two weeks and then 9 a.m.-4 p.m. The final week to prepare for the performance. Fee for the 3-week workshop is $75.

There will be a special orientation session on July 11 for parents and prospective students to ask question and meet the instructors. If you would like more information about he Summer Follies '92 Workshop at Temple Civic Theatre call 817-778-4751.
