I'll be home for Salado's Christmas in October 10-11

Annual event in Salado Civic Center to feature displays by businesses, individuals, homemade items & more

After a great deal of planning and anticipation, one of Salado's favorite events is final upon us.

The theme for this year's Christmas in October is, "I'll be Home for Christmas." It will be open 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Oct. 10-11 with admission at the door of $5 for adults and $2 for children ages 2-11.

Over 35 displays will be shown in the Civic Center, while the Bake Shop and Grandma's Pantry will be in the Historical Society log cabins on the grounds of the Civic Center.

Christmas ornaments will be on sale in the Historical Society room in the civic center. Potpourri and baked goods from ladies throughout the village will also be on sale during Christmas in October.

"The Salado Historical Society so graciously offered the cabins this year, which should offer a quaint and cozy feeling," said LaFon Ditzler, chairman of the Christmas in October event.

Santa Claus will greet visitors in the Gazebo on the grounds of the Civic Center 10 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. Oct. 10-11. Carolers will also sing on the grounds of the Civic Center during the special event.

The following Salado businesses will have displays at Christmas in October:

Salado Antique Mall,

"Christmas Past;" Jan's, "Twas the Night Before Christmas," Strawberry Patch, "It's Beginning to Look a lot like Christmas;" Main Street Place, "The Warmth of a Holiday Evening;" Salado Pottery, "You Can Plan on Me"; Spring House Antiques, "Old Time Christmas;" Another Day, "Warm Winter Wishes;" Angelic Herbs, "Angelic Host;" The Dusty Rose, "Santa at Home in Our Hearts;" Gospel Gifts, "If Only in my Dreams;" MJs Country Corner, "A Few of my Favorite Things;" Red Barn Antiques, "Christmas at Grandma's."

Fun night will offer chance to win travel gift certificates

You can reward those fair projects with even more than hugs and kisses from Grandma and have a chance to win up to $5,000 in travel gift certificates at the same time.

You can't miss the extra fun evening held at Jack's Barn on Pace Park Rd. at 6 p.m. Oct. 11. The Salado Youth Fair Boosters (SYFB) are sponsoring this fund-raiser to benefit every Salado youth that enters a project in Bell County Youth Fair.

"It's all about supporting the youth of Salado, who need your encouragement for their continued fair projects and rewards for their efforts. Each child will receive a share of the proceeds, no matter what their project is," said Youth Fair Boosters President Glenda Hill.

These children who range from the age of 8 years old through 18, and are members of Salado FFA, 4-H or FHA are eligible to compete with Bell County children at the Bell County Youth Fair held in February every year.

"The SYFB raises money to see that each child who enters a project is rewarded for their efforts," Hill said. "Many of these projects help keep our kids off the streets and help teach our children responsibility, exposing them to a variety of worthwhile experiences like no other type of youth activities are able to offer."

Some projects take a full year to complete and others are created in an afternoon. But every project requires thought, personal responsibility and perseverance, and the help of adults such as our ag teachers, homemaking teachers, 4-H leaders as well as parents or other caring friends and relatives.

Salado Youth Fair Boosters have very few fundraisers each year, so don't miss this chance to help the youth of Salado and at the same time have the opportunity to win travel certificates valued at $5,000, $2,500 and $500. Great prizes are awarded up to 10 places. Each ticket entitles two persons for dinner and an evening of fun and games.

Tickets are limited to only 200 (one out of every 20 tickets wins a great prize) and they're going fast!

If you haven't gotten your ticket yet contact one of the following: Judy Houston, 947-9370; Glenda Hill, 947-8548; Jackie Burson, 947-9186 or Sue Ricks, 947-0064.

John Hall is Salado's Lucky Duck for 1997

Saladoan John Hall was one lucky duck Oct. 4 as one of his entries into the Annual Duck Race Down Salado Creek came across the finish line first at the bend of the creek near Tablerock.

Hall's first place duck entitles him to a $3,000 gift certificate from Markie McTravel Agency in Salado.

The Duck Race is part of the Annual Salado Family Festival, held in Pace Park by the Salado Chamber of Commerce. This year's Family Festival grossed $11,850. After paying for the gift certificate and other expenses, the Salado Chamber of Commerce will donate all proceeds to the Salado Youth Association, approximately $8,250.

At presstime, Festival organizers were resting their wings and waiting to pay final expenses for the event.

Other winners in the Duck Race include Terry Shumate, who won a Shopping Spree in Salado, valued at $1,400. The Shopping Spree is composed of gift certificate given by the various shops in Salado.

Stone Solutions was the third place winner of a Ronnie Wells' print, which was the winner of a Ducks Unlimited award. The print is framed by Prollop Fine Art Gallery. In addition to the fine print, the third place winner will also enjoy Dinner for Two at Inn on the Creek.

The fourth place prize goes to Evelyn Carroll. It is a two-

U.S. SENATOR
KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON

RETHINKING OUR ROLE IN BOSNIA

Recent events in Bosnia highlight the fatal flaw in the Dayton Peace Accords that U.S.-led NATO troops are trying to enforce there. We are attempting to recreate Bosnia in the multi-ethnic, multi-cultural image of the United States. As desirable as that may be, it ignores facts on the ground and the region's sad history.

We are trying to create conditions in Bosnia that will force disparate groups of people with long-standing animosities to live in homes 50 feet from one another. While many express concern over the Balkanization of America, I am far more concerned in the near term over efforts to Americanize the Balkans.

Resettling refugees prematurely and forcing a combination government on the various factions is rubbing salt into an open wound.

I visited Bosnia during the August Congressional recess, walking through the streets of Brcko just a week before the anti-NATO and anti-U.S. demonstrations there.

Based on my discussions with local officials and Muslim and Serb citizens of Brcko, as well as briefings I received from NATO leaders, I believe we are embarking on a questionable and quite dangerous course in Bosnia.

Our peacekeepers in Bosnia have been assigned a mission that is inherently not peaceful, repeating a major mistake we made in Somalia in 1993 and in Lebanon, where "mission creep" led to the devastating 1983 attack on our Marine barracks that killed 240 Americans. As we did in both those instances, we have chosen sides. This time it is among competing Serb factions.

In short, we have become partisan. We have inserted ourselves into a power struggle between two unsavory factions, just as we did in Somalia when we sent our troops after Somali warlord Mohammed Farah Aideed.

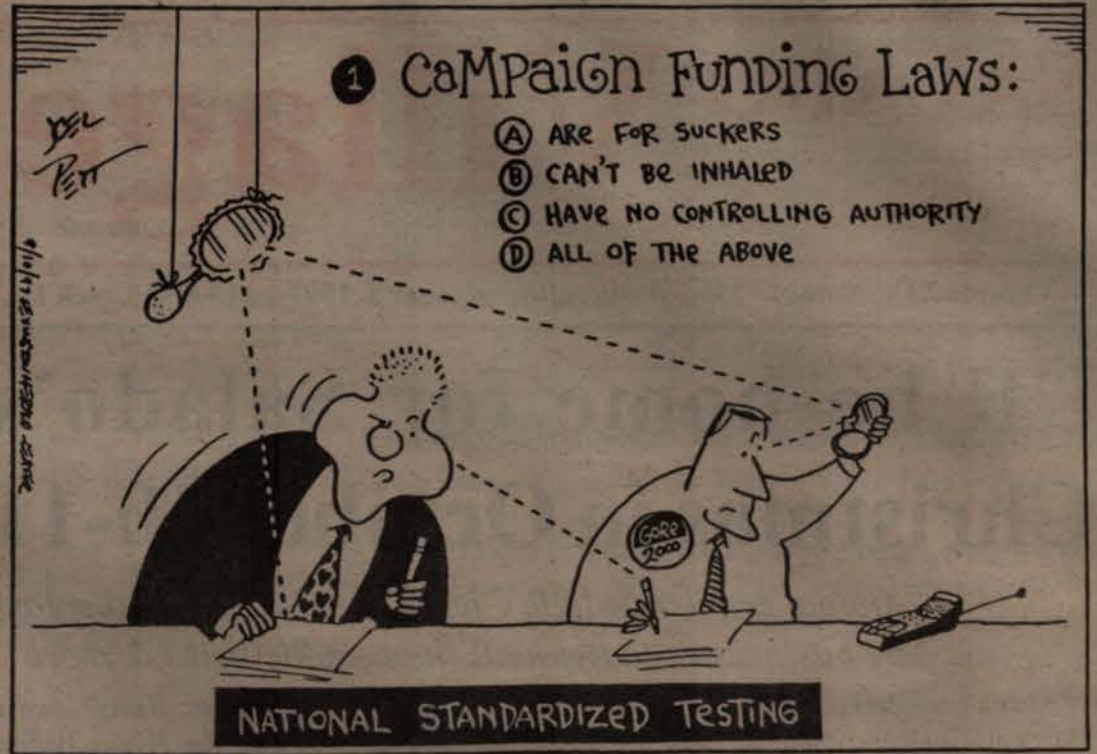

The administration's apparent decision to pick sides in the dispute between two Serb factions undermines our role as neutral enforcers of the Dayton Peace Agreement. With thousands of U.S. troops involved and the sides themselves refusing to abide by the agreement, conditions are ripe for the United States to be sucked into conflict. Choosing sides risks altering political and security conditions in such a way as to make it very difficult to achieve our peacekeeping objectives. Worse, it puts American troops in harm's way without a clear mission to perform.

It is not too late to re-examine our efforts in the Balkans. Based on our experiences since the Dayton accords were signed in 1995, it may be time to reconvene the parties and reconsider. It is time to acknowledge that our objectives of a stable Bosnia and the early withdrawal of American forces are in grave jeopardy. We should explore a policy that has a better chance to succeed and which incorporates an exit strategy.

It may well be that a partition of the region will lead to a more stable, peaceful co-existence.

But with an eye on the June, 1998 withdrawal date, President Clinton has recently emphasized the need to speed up the implementation of accords as written. When you're headed in the wrong direction, though, speeding up won't get you where you're trying to go.

We're going the wrong direction in Bosnia, and it's time to stop and look at the map before we find ourselves in territory we've visited before: Somalia or Lebanon. Let's not wait until the June deadline for the much-needed course correction. 9.26.97

Oct. 4 marks 50 years of "Star Wars"

An almost forgotten date in world history passed by us last Saturday, October 4, and triggered a number of 40 year old memories and thoughts.

Readers may recall that it was on that day in 1957, the Russians launched Sputnik I, the first satellite to reach just barely beyond the earth's gravity.

At that time our country and the Russians had entered the space race competition. Sputnik put the Russkies ahead for 119 days, until January 31, 1958, when we shot Explorer One into orbit and from that moment until near the end of the cold war, the two powerful nations were locked in a "star wars" battle to control the earth from both inner and outer space.

Sputnik's effect on America and its citizens was predictable.

Fear. Shame. And Blame. Those were the three horsemen of our space apocalypse up to the mid-60's.

From our elected leaders all the way down to the family home front, in that otherwise peaceful post-Korean-war year of 1957, there was suddenly a desperate fear that the Russian oligarchy had in their hands the potential to send deadly missiles raining down on us from the skies.

There was also a collective shame felt by Americans that another nation had beaten us by inventing a very special device that was "out of this world" in more ways than one.

And naturally there was the inevitable finger pointing to see if we could find out who was to blame for this second class position we found ourselves in thanks to the tiny pinging noise from Sputnik.

Public education became the immediate scapegoat and suddenly school boards began beefing up curricula and a worried congress poured big money into a plan called the National Defense Education Act.

The extent of the concern

Off the Record
by Ken Clapp

was apparent when a half billion bucks was appropriated for this major federal aid to education plan. Especially designed to improve the teaching of science, math and foreign languages.

The unnecessary hysteria was felt all the way down to a small high school in southwest Texas where this writer had just started his teaching-administrative career.

The Uvalde School Board, in its wisdom and after the Russian's triumphant adventure, proclaimed that graduation requirements should include four years of math, four of science, three of a foreign language, four of English, three of history-government - for everyone!

They even toyed with the idea of introducing Latin as one of the foreign languages. This idea failed because no one could be found that knew enough to teach the course.

Electives were cut to the bone - termed "basket weaving courses", and for a time it was feared that sports, band, drama and choir would be dropped.

When those of us who were trying to teach a mixed bag of kids, (a third of whom were language-challenged and spoke neither Spanish nor English well enough to pass seventh grade work), begged the board to let the non-college bound students take vocational courses such as auto mechanics, building trades, cosmetology, plus upgraded homemaking and vocational agriculture studies.

We were told to either get with the new program or get out of the business!

When we warned these paragons of wisdom that nearly forty percent of the population of our high school would drop out because they could not manage such high powered courses, the response from several was: "So what, we are already overcrowded and besides, these people don't pay many taxes anyway!"

Some educators did in fact leave. Others of us stayed and fought the battle - which was eventually won, years later, as courses leading to both college and the immediate workforce were put in place.

The battle over English becoming our primary language, however, still lingers nationwide.

Incidentally, it was these same public schools and universities being castigated so fiercely in 1957-8, that went on to provide the scientists NASA needed, to put a man on the moon a few years later.

What the commotion really did was to give our space agency; the military-industrial giants and public education a "blank check" to spend our way into first place in technology.

Much as we did in World War II when we used our treasure to beat down the Axis powers and emerge in 1945 as the strongest nation in the world, a position we retain to this day.

 Interesting item came at the very end of the poll in which the "pollee" was asked to make a contribution from $25 on up to whatever the traffic would bear, to keep Bill Clinton in his place (Arkansas or jail), Democrats in a minority and unions out of money.

And then, good reader - we were asked to send in eight bucks to help process our individual poll results! Wow! There's a novel idea that might also be used by our benevolent government. Pay in advance for services!

SIGNS OF THE TIMES
 Pittman's Cleaners, over in Belton, had an interesting sign on the door recently. In fact, so neat we feel compelled to pass it on as a "sign of the times"!

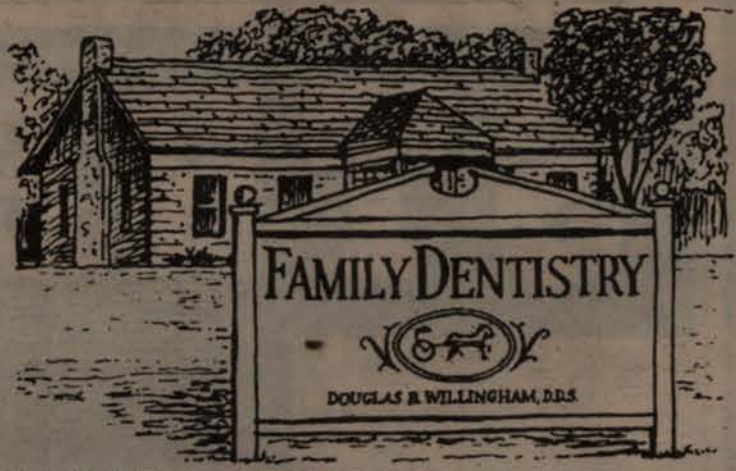

"No credit cards accepted - sorry"
"Gratefully accept local checks"

"We have even been known to take cash!"

Also wanted to share an item printed boldly on a sweat shirt offered in one of the innumerable catalogs received on a daily basis. Perfect for those of us whose memories are not as sharp as they once were:

"Over what hill?"
"Where?" "When?"
"I don't remember any hill!"

Nuff said. That's -30-

Humane society member writes

To the Editor:

The Salado Humane Society would like to thank the villagers who have donated pet food, money, and time to help us help the animals. A very recent donation of dog food was made by Sara, a 10-year old who used part of her birthday gifts to make the purchase.

The opportunities to help the animals are many. We need people willing to help with fund-raising, legal matters, grant searches, transporting animals to veterinarians, investigating cruelty calls, brainstorming on issues (permanent facility, finding homes for animals, etc.). These activities can take as little as an hour several times a year to as much time as you care to donate.

If you are a pet owner, please spay or neuter your animal. The fee for this procedure varies at the different pet hospitals, but call today to have this done. We all need to work together to stop the flood of animals which are homeless and die horrible deaths from starvation or getting run over.

We appreciate your thoughts and suggestions and are very grateful to those of you who know the needs never, never stop.

And a heartfelt thank you is due to the editors' of this newspaper, who always make room for our articles.

Thank you,
 Betty Slack

The 3rd annual ABWA Style Show featuring fashions from Christy's and The Store was a great success. The models for Christy's were Jeni La Strapas, Patsy Slaughter, Wanda Cox, Mary Lee Bailey, and Titia Dunn (shown above). The models for The Store were Suzanne Allen, Mandy and Macy Ashford, Joyce Clemons, Norma Terhume, Fran Ridout, Sandy Emmons, and Cheryl and Allison Calvin. The chapter would like to thank the following individuals and merchants who donated door prizes: Christy's, Lil' Gifts in Temple, Hair Designs, The Choppin Block, Stagecoach Inn, Salado Gift Baskets, Ann Marie's Mary Kay, Linda Pritchard's Massage Therapy, Billie Fuller and many members who donated door prizes and gave of their time. Many thanks to Marge Kirkman, who provided the beautiful accompaniment, Hulda Horton of the Salado Civic Center and Marilyn and Tim Fleischer of the Salado Village Voice. The style show is the main fundraiser for the ABWA and all the proceeds will be used for scholarships for area students and women. Each spring applications are taken for these scholarships. Salado's new postmaster Lee to oversee growing post office with eight employees

by John Eubanks

Jim Lee is Salado's new postmaster. He comes from De Leon, Texas, where he served as postmaster.

Lee replaces Boots Brizendine, who will concentrate on her postmaster duties in Jarrell. Brizendine came over from Jarrell on May 28, 1996, as "officer in charge" of the Salado post office until a permanent postmaster was named.

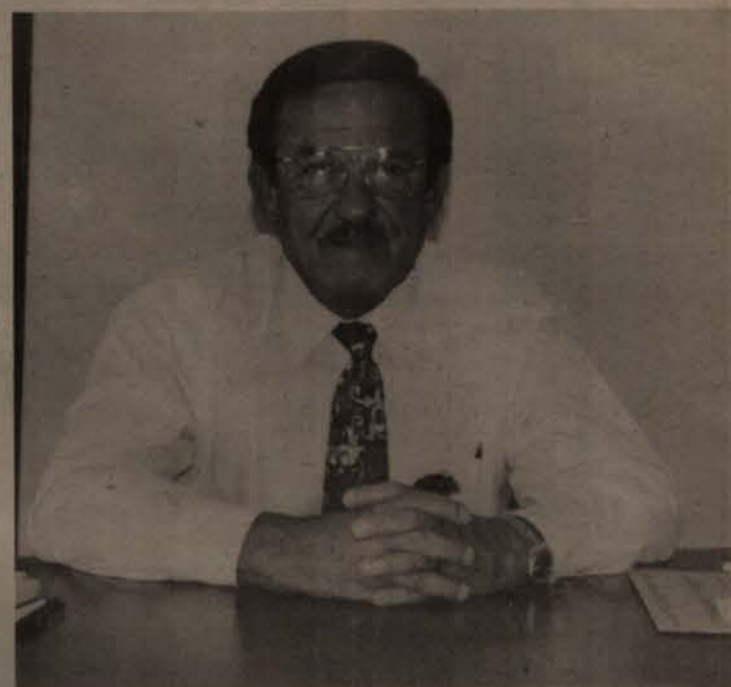

Lee officially began his duties on Sept. 13, working alongside Brizendine for two weeks until she left Sept. 29.

"I'm excited about being here," Lee said. "We've got a lot of work to do."

Much of that work has to do with "staying on top" of the increasing volume of mail for the growing Salado area.

Lee estimates that deliveries are increasing 15 to 20 each month. That includes post office boxes, residences and new businesses.

The post office has increased the number of regular rural routes from two to three. An auxiliary route will become the third regular route after an increase in the number of deliveries on that route. Because of the area's growth, Lee said Salado needs a post office double the size of the present one. The building was built in 1988.

Salado post office has about 900 boxes, compared to 250 in De Leon, a town of about 2,190 residents, west of Stephenville. De Leon, however, has more home deliveries than Salado does.

The Salado post office has nine employees, including Lee.

The others are three part-time "career employees," three regular rural route carriers and two rural relief carriers people.

Mail is delivered to Salado around 5:30 a.m. each day. First-class and second-class mail is usually in the boxes by 10:30 in the morning.

Mail is picked up at about 4:45 each afternoon and taken to Waco, where it is processed. Lee does not anticipate another pick-up in the near future.

Lee is living with relatives in Georgetown, until he can move his wife, La Juan, and 14-year-old son, Steve, to the area from Weatherford.

He also has two daughters in college and another daughter who is married.

Lee, a native West Virginian, joined the Army in 1958. He spent nine years in the military before going to work in the aircraft industry.

After being laid off on three different occasions, Lee decided to take the postal exam. He took the test in May of 1973 and was hired in July.

He spent five years as a mail carrier in Weatherford before going to Gordon, Texas, (pop. 465), where he served as postmaster for 18 years.

He spent the past year as De Leon's postmaster.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Forgiving All Others

"Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, forbearing one another and, if one has complaint against you, forgiving each other ... And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts."

— Colossians 3: 12-15

At his second inaugural, in March 1865, as the Civil War was coming to a close and his own assassination was being plotted, Abraham Lincoln offered the hand of friendship to the South. "With malice toward none, with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right," he said. By that charitable gesture, the great president hoped to assuage the wounds that had torn the country and to show he felt forgiveness not only to his own countrymen but to all men. How often in our lives have we had the chance to forgive and not been as generous?

Eagles dominate Rosebud-Lott Cougars

by Tim Fleischer
Editor-in-Chief

Joe Barron's 85-yard punt return in the first period was an indication of things to come in the Salado Eagle's 42-20 whipping of the Rosebud-Lott Cougars Oct. 3 at Eagle Field.

The first quarter was wild and woolly as the two teams combined for 33 points in the first 12 minutes of play.

Following Barron's punt return at 8:35 left in the first, Rosebud-Lott drove the ball 70 yards before Trent Taylor dove in from the 3 yard line. Jamie Thompsen's PAT failed giving Salado a 7-6 lead at 3:22 in the first.

In the span of two minutes of play, three touchdowns were scored.

Taylor Hutton took a hand-off 68 yards to score with 2:58 left in the first period. Josh Lee's kick was good giving Salado a 14-6 lead.

After David Kirk lept to intercept a Matt Luedke pass, John McLaughlin dashed 46 yards to score with 1:11 left in the opening period. Lee's kick gave Salado a 21-6 lead.

Jamie Thompson took Lee's ensuing kick 91 yards, breaking three tackles near mid-field to bring Rosebud-Lott to 12-21. The two point conversion failed.

Luedke pass and returned it 40 yards at 1:28 in the second period. Lee's kick gave Salado its halftime lead of 28-12.

Rosebud-Lott took the second half kick-off to their own 30 yard line before scoring on Luedke's 54-yard pass to Sedric Whitfield. Trent Taylor punched the ball in for the two-point conversion to cut Salado's lead to 28-20.

But Salado would capitalize on two Rosebud-Lott miscues to expand its lead.

Chad Kiphart fell on a fumbled punt to give Salado the ball at the Cougar's 17-yard line.

Three plays later, Hutton ran in from the 9 yard line at 4:55 left in the third. Lee's boot gave Salado a 35-20 lead.

After recovering a Salado fumble at the Eagle 39 yard line, a roughing the passer flag brought the ball to the 24 yard line.

A big word of thanks to all the area restaurants who not only supplied the food, but their time to make the first "Taste of Salado" a big success.

But none of it would have worked had not the people of Salado come through again. Time after time, when called on, the people answer.

From all of the directors of the board to build the Salado Community Center, thanks again.

Or, as my Dad used to say: "Much obliged."

Battle of Eagle maniacs during Salado's district 26AA opener in Rogers Oct. 10

by John Eubanks

It will be a battle of Eagle maniacs when Salado and Rogers open District 26-2A play Oct. 10 in Rogers.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Both teams capped non-district play Oct. 3 with victories. Salado's Eagles (3-2) defeated Rosebud-Lott 42-20. Rogers' Eagles (4-1) beat Franklin 24-13.

Rogers, coached by Joel Berry, runs what is called a "black gun" offense, which relies heavily on the passing game, with the quarterback in the shotgun formation (lined up several yards behind the center). Quarterback Patrick Hutka triggers the wide-open offense.

"They're good," Salado Coach Joe Mullins said. "That quarterback will either throw the ball or keep it. I don't think anybody has stopped them."

Rogers' only loss was a 29-21 decision to No. 1 Mart in week two. In that game, wide receiver Josh Whatley caught a school-record 11 passes for 115 yards.

"They're very well coached and their kids know what to do," Mullins said. "They don't make many mistakes."

Salado is coming off a big win over favored Rosebud-Lott, whose defensive coordinator is Dan Wasik, Salado's head coach last year.

Wasik's familiarity with Salado inspired Mullins and his staff to change up the defense three days before the game.

"We put it in Tuesday and by Thursday they had it down," Mullins said, praising the players. "I want to commend them for that. They learned it in two days."

Mullins also praised offensive coordinator Alan Haire for his game plan. "Coach Haire did an excellent job," Mullins said.

Salado's offense rolled up 392 yards and tied its output for most points in a game this season.

Running back Taylor Hutton was named offensive player of the week, after rushing for 230 yards on 23 carries and scoring three touchdowns. He scored a fourth touchdown on a 40-yard interception return.

In five games, the 200-pound junior has rushed for 892 yards on 114 carries. He leads the team in scoring with 80 points, (13 TDs and a two-point conversion).

Linemen Dan Alcozer (eight tackles) and John Woolard (12-14 tackles) were named co-defensive players of the week.

"I wish I could name the whole defense," Mullins said.

8th grader beat Rosebud-Lott, JV, 7th graders lose to Cougars

The Salado junior varsity football team lost to Rosebud-Lott 30-25 Oct. 2 at their place.

The Eagles' JV (2-2-1) was led offensively by Michael Schoepf, who threw a 9-yard TD pass to Jeremy Whitacre and scored on a quarterback sneak. He also kicked two extra points.

Salado's other TDs came on a 3-yard run by Matt Fleck and a 27-yard run by Rory Oldham.

Offensive standouts were Fleck, Oldham and Matt Gunter. Defensive standouts were Brian McKee, Sam Daniels and Garland Hennig.

EIGHTH GRADE

The unbeaten Salado eighth-graders defeated Rose-bud-Lott 35-6 at their place Oct. 2.

Salado (4-0) led 14-6 at halftime before erupting with two third-place touchdowns.

Gordon Smale scored the first touchdown on a 15-yard run, and added a 7-yard TD run in the third quarter. John Kirk scored on a 10-yard run in the second quarter, and also scored on a 6-yarder in the fourth quarter. Edward Chavez added a 25-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Jeremy Grimm kicked all five point-after-touchdowns (PATs).

Offensive standouts were Grimm, Aaron Gonzales and Gordon Smale.

Defensive standouts were Andrew Henson, Matt Ward, David Matthews and Dillon Reichert.

SEVENTH GRADE

The Salado seventh-graders lost to Rosebud-Lott 42-14.

Salado (0-4) scored on a 5-yard run off tackle by fullback Evan Durham in the third quarter and a 45-yarder by Durham around right end in the fourth quarter.

Besides Durham, offensive standouts were tackle Darrel Clay and quarterback/receiver Roland Buckley. Defensive standouts were Lane Wolfe and Clay, who recovered a fumble.

Eagles

line. But the Cougars could get no closer in four plays and Joe Barron broke up Luedke's endzone pass to Whitfield on fourth and 11.

The Eagles took the momentum and drove 75 yards in nine plays, the last of which was Hutton's 2-yard scoring dive. Lee's PAT kick gave Salado its final lead of 42-20.

Taylor Hutton led all runners with 219 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries.

Trent Taylor led the Rosebud-Lott running backs with 86 yards and one touchdown on 16 carries.

Matt Luedke led the Cougar passing attack with 142 yards on 6 of 14 passing, including one touchdown and two interceptions.

Sedric Whitfield led all receivers with two catches for 80 yards and a TD.

John Woolard led the defense with 12 tackles, followed by Dan Alcozer with 8 tackles.

The win improves Salado's record to 3-2. Rosebud-Lott drops to 3-2.

The Salado Eagles go on the road to open district against the Rogers Eagles 7:30 p.m. Oct. 10. The Rogers Eagles have been picked to win district.

Methodists host
18 volunteers
to work in Jarrell

First Methodist Church of Salado is hosting 18 members of Volunteers in Mission from the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The volunteers are helping build barns in the Jarrell area that were destroyed or damaged during the May 27 tornado.

Rev. Bruce Baker, pastor of First Methodist Church of Salado, said the volunteers are staying at the church and using shower facilities at Salado High.

They will depart the area on the morning of Oct. 11.

UMC to dedicate
Rose Garden

The public is invited to a service of Dedication for the Antique Rose Garden 3 p.m. Oct. 12 at the United Methodist Church of Salado.

"The Memorial Rose Garden is the result of many hours of work by the Garden Guild of the Salado United Methodist Church, and the contributions from many individuals within the Salado community," said Rev. Bruce Baker, pastor of the church.

Prairie Dell slates
Homecoming Oct. 12

The Prairie Dell Baptist Church will hold its 19th Homecoming Oct. 12. Everyone is invited.

The program will begin at 10 a.m., and the regular Sunday service will commence at 11 a.m., when the pastor, Bobby J. Ellis, will preside.

A covered dish luncheon will be served in the educational building before parishioners return to the sanctuary for the informal program. The program should be concluded by 2:30 p.m.

Glover-Carnahan engaged

Heidi Lee Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kattner of Salado, and the late Lawrence Glover, will marry Gregory Alan Carnahan, of Ann Arbor, Mich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benard Carnahan. The couple will marry Nov. 15 at the First United Methodist Church of Salado.

Chamber of Commerce sets
membership meeting Oct. 13

The general membership meeting of the Salado Chamber of Commerce will be 7 p.m. Oct. 13 in the Meadow's Auditorium of the Salado Civic Center.

After the membership approves the minutes of the previous general meeting in 1996, a slate of candidates will be presented for election to the board of directors.

In other business, the Chamber membership will consider changing the bylaws to reflect the name-change of the Merchants Committee to the Salado Business Association.

At presstime, there were no other business items on the agenda for the membership meeting, which will follow a 6 p.m. directors' meeting.

The six names presented Oct. 13, along with any other nominees presented by petition, will be placed on the ballot to be mailed to all Chamber members later in October.

Each member should vote for up to three of the six nominated. The top three vote-getters will be elected to three year terms on the board of directors.

Your lawn can't breathe!

We can help by aerating.

Aeration makes it easier to have a great lawn

You can improve the look of your lawn or turf, reduce watering requirements, and reduce the need for lawn chemicals with regular aeration. Aeration reduces soil compaction, the basic cause of many lawn and turf problems. Treatment is simple and affordable. We can help by aerating your lawn or turf once in the spring or early summer, and again in the fall. You'll see better fertilizer efficiency, reduced water needs, lusher greener grass, and reduced need for chemical pesticides. Call today to arrange aeration for your lawn or turf. Free estimates.

School architects to be in district Oct. 7-11 to meet with staff on planning new building

Now that $6.5 million in bonds have been authorized by Salado voters, the real work of building the middle school and renovating the elementary and high school begins.

Claycomb & Associates will be in Salado Oct. 7-10 for Design Workshop for construction of the new middle school and renovations to the existing campuses.

Kevin Smith, Larry Claycomb and Don Steer, from

Claycomb & Associates will be in the Superintendent's Office in the Salado Civic Center Oct. 7-10 to design the new Junior High and the Cafeteria conversion.

Faculty members who will be occupying the new facility are encouraged to drop by on their off periods as often as they like to help with the design process through their input.

"Board members are always welcome and encouraged to drop by often and observe and offer suggestions to the design team," stated Larry Claycomb.

Input from the bandmaster is important in the conversion of the cafeteria into a band hall, he added.

Claycomb & Associates presented the school district with a building program schedule (see adjacent graphic).

Local builders Gary Bartlett & Larry Lilly talk to Junior High Life Skills classes

Local builders Gary Bartlett and Larry Lilly spoke with Marilyn Salisbury's Salado Junior High Life Skills classes on building a home.

Each student was given a chance to read blueprints and discuss various problems a home buyer would encounter. The blueprints were of various homes that have been built in the area or are in the process of being built. The students were informed about the many steps a homeowner would need to know to successfully construct a home.

All students are required to draw floor plans, on scale, with the correct markings as on a blueprint. The students were given the chance to learn new vocabulary along with many math skills.

Salisbury expressed thanks to the two builders for giving their time and sharing their knowledge. "The Life Skills Classes were enriched by being able to see the real world of work," she said.

Battle of Eagle maniacs during Salado's district 26AA opener in Rogers Oct. 10

by John Eubanks

It will be a battle of Eagle maniacs when Salado and Rogers open District 26-2A play Oct. 10 in Rogers.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Both teams capped non-district play Oct. 3 with victories. Salado's Eagles (3-2) defeated Rosebud-Lott 42-20. Rogers' Eagles (4-1) beat Franklin 24-13.

Rogers, coached by Joel Berry, runs what is called a "black gun" offense, which relies heavily on the passing game, with the quarterback in the shotgun formation (lined up several yards behind the center). Quarterback Patrick Hutka triggers the wide-open offense.

"They're good," Salado Coach Joe Mullins said. "That quarterback will either throw the ball or keep it. I don't think anybody has stopped them."

Rogers' only loss was a 29-21 decision to No. 1 Mart in week two. In that game, wide receiver Josh Whatley caught a school-record 11 passes for 115 yards.

"They're very well coached and their kids know what to do," Mullins said. "They don't make many mistakes."

Salado is coming off a big win over favored Rosebud-Lott, whose defensive coordinator is Dan Wasik, Salado's head coach last year.

Wasik's familiarity with Salado inspired Mullins and his staff to change up the defense three days before the game.

"We put it in Tuesday and by Thursday they had it down," Mullins said, praising the players. "I want to commend them for that. They learned it in two days."

Mullins also praised offensive coordinator Alan Haire for his game plan. "Coach Haire did an excellent job," Mullins said.

Salado's offense rolled up 392 yards and tied its output for most points in a game this season.

Running back Taylor Hutton was named offensive player of the week, after rushing for 230 yards on 23 carries and scoring three touchdowns. He scored a fourth touchdown on a 40-yard interception return.

In five games, the 200-pound junior has rushed for 892 yards on 114 carries. He leads the team in scoring with 80 points, (13 TDs and a two-point conversion).

Linemen Dan Alcozer (eight tackles) and John Woolard (12-14 tackles) were named co-defensive players of the week.

"I wish I could name the whole defense," Mullins said.

8th grader beat Rosebud-Lott, JV, 7th graders lose to Cougars

The Salado junior varsity football team lost to Rosebud-Lott 30-25 Oct. 2 at their place.

The Eagles' JV (2-2-1) was led offensively by Michael Schoepf, who threw a 9-yard TD pass to Jeremy Whitacre and scored on a quarterback sneak. He also kicked two extra points.

Salado's other TDs came on a 3-yard run by Matt Fleck and a 27-yard run by Rory Oldham.

Offensive standouts were Fleck, Oldham and Matt Gunter. Defensive standouts were Brian McKee, Sam Daniels and Garland Hennig.

EIGHTH GRADE

The unbeaten Salado eighth-graders defeated Rose-bud-Lott 35-6 at their place Oct. 2.

Salado (4-0) led 14-6 at halftime before erupting with two third-place touchdowns.

Gordon Smale scored the first touchdown on a 15-yard run, and added a 7-yard TD run in the third quarter. John Kirk scored on a 10-yard run in the second quarter, and also scored on a 6-yarder in the fourth quarter. Edward Chavez added a 25-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Jeremy Grimm kicked all five point-after-touchdowns (PATs).

Offensive standouts were Grimm, Aaron Gonzales and Gordon Smale.

Defensive standouts were Andrew Henson, Matt Ward, David Matthews and Dillon Reichert.

SEVENTH GRADE

The Salado seventh-graders lost to Rosebud-Lott 42-14.

Salado (0-4) scored on a 5-yard run off tackle by fullback Evan Durham in the third quarter and a 45-yarder by Durham around right end in the fourth quarter.

Besides Durham, offensive standouts were tackle Darrel Clay and quarterback/receiver Roland Buckley. Defensive standouts were Lane Wolfe and Clay, who recovered a fumble.

line. But the Cougars could get no closer in four plays and Joe Barron broke up Luedke's endzone pass to Whitfield on fourth and 11.

The Eagles took the momentum and drove 75 yards in nine plays, the last of which was Hutton's 2-yard scoring dive. Lee's PAT kick gave Salado its final lead of 42-20.

Taylor Hutton led all runners with 219 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries.

Trent Taylor led the Rosebud-Lott running backs with 86 yards and one touchdown on 16 carries.

Matt Luedke led the Cougar passing attack with 142 yards on 6 of 14 passing, including one touchdown and two interceptions.

Sedric Whitfield led all receivers with two catches for 80

yards and a TD.

John Woolard led the defense with 12 tackles, followed by Dan Alcozer with 8 tackles.

The win improves Salado's record to 3-2. Rosebud-Lott drops to 3-2.

The Salado Eagles go on the road to open district against the Rogers Eagles 7:30 p.m. Oct. 10. The Rogers Eagles have been picked to win district.

SHS cheerleaders accept garage sale items

Donations are being accepted for the Salado Varsity Cheerleaders Garage Sale to be held Nov. 8 at Thomas Arnold Elementary School cafeteria.

Household items such as furniture and tools are needed. No clothes please. Deadline for donations is Nov. 5.

Donations may be dropped off at the old Texaco station across from the Salado Dairy Queen 6-8 p.m. Oct. 15. If this is not a convenient time for you to drop your donation off, call Linda Teer at 947-8360 to make other arrangements.

Methodists host
18 volunteers
to work in Jarrell

First Methodist Church of Salado is hosting 18 members of Volunteers in Mission from the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The volunteers are helping build barns in the Jarrell area that were destroyed or damaged during the May 27 tornado.

Rev. Bruce Baker, pastor of First Methodist Church of Salado, said the volunteers are staying at the church and using shower facilities at Salado High.

They will depart the area on the morning of Oct. 11.

UMC to dedicate
Rose Garden

The public is invited to a service of Dedication for the Antique Rose Garden 3 p.m. Oct. 12 at the United Methodist Church of Salado.

"The Memorial Rose Garden is the result of many hours of work by the Garden Guild of the Salado United Methodist Church, and the contributions from many individuals within the Salado community," said Rev. Bruce Baker, pastor of the church.

Prairie Dell slates
Homecoming Oct. 12

The Prairie Dell Baptist Church will hold its 19th Homecoming Oct. 12. Everyone is invited.

The program will begin at 10 a.m., and the regular Sunday service will commence at 11 a.m., when the pastor, Bobby J. Ellis, will preside.

A covered dish luncheon will be served in the educational building before parishioners return to the sanctuary for the informal program. The program should be concluded by 2:30 p.m.

Glover-Carnahan engaged

Heidi Lee Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kattner of Salado, and the late Lawrence Glover, will marry Gregory Alan Carnahan, of Ann Arbor, Mich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benard Carnahan. The couple will marry Nov. 15 at the First United Methodist Church of Salado.

Chamber of Commerce sets
membership meeting Oct. 13

The general membership meeting of the Salado Chamber of Commerce will be 7 p.m. Oct. 13 in the Meadow's Auditorium of the Salado Civic Center.

After the membership approves the minutes of the previous general meeting in 1996, a slate of candidates will be presented for election to the board of directors.

In other business, the Chamber membership will consider changing the bylaws to reflect the name-change of the Merchants Committee to the Salado Business Association.

At presstime, there were no other business items on the agenda for the membership meeting, which will follow a 6 p.m. directors' meeting.

The six names presented Oct. 13, along with any other nominees presented by petition, will be placed on the ballot to be mailed to all Chamber members later in October.

Each member should vote for up to three of the six nominated. The top three vote-getters will be elected to three year terms on the board of directors.

Your lawn can't breathe!

We can help by aerating.
Aeration makes it easier to have a great lawn

You can improve the look of your lawn or turf, reduce watering requirements, and reduce the need for lawn chemicals with regular aeration. Aeration reduces soil compaction, the basic cause of many lawn and turf problems. Treatment is simple and affordable. We can help by aerating your lawn or turf once in the spring or early summer, and again in the fall. You'll see better fertilizer efficiency, reduced water needs, lusher greener grass, and reduced need for chemical pesticides. Call today to arrange aeration for your lawn or turf. Free estimates.

School architects to be in district Oct. 7-11 to meet with staff on planning new building

Now that $6.5 million in bonds have been authorized by Salado voters, the real work of building the middle school and renovating the elementary and high school begins.

Claycomb & Associates will be in Salado Oct. 7-10 for Design Workshop for construction of the new middle school and renovations to the existing campuses.

Kevin Smith, Larry Claycomb and Don Steer, from

Claycomb & Associates will be in the Superintendent's Office in the Salado Civic Center Oct. 7-10 to design the new Junior High and the Cafeteria conversion.

Faculty members who will be occupying the new facility are encouraged to drop by on their off periods as often as they like to help with the design process through their input.

"Board members are always welcome and encouraged to drop by often and observe and offer suggestions to the design team," stated Larry Claycomb.

Input from the bandmaster is important in the conversion of the cafeteria into a band hall, he added.

Claycomb & Associates presented the school district with a building program schedule (see adjacent graphic).

Local builders Gary Bartlett & Larry Lilly talk to Junior High Life Skills classes

Local builders Gary Bartlett and Larry Lilly spoke with Marilyn Salisbury's Salado Junior High Life Skills classes on building a home.

Each student was given a chance to read blueprints and discuss various problems a home buyer would encounter. The blueprints were of various homes that have been built in the area or are in the process of being built. The students were informed about the many steps a homeowner would need to know to successfully construct a home.

All students are required to draw floor plans, on scale, with the correct markings as on a blueprint. The students were given the chance to learn new vocabulary along with many math skills.

Salisbury expressed thanks to the two builders for giving their time and sharing their knowledge. "The Life Skills Classes were enriched by being able to see the real world of work," she said.

Salado resident Stallings says 'ja!' to German exchange student 'Tina'

by John Eubanks

Bynah Stallings was feeling lonely when her grandson moved to Dallas from her Salado home last year.

"I felt lost without him," she said.

When a co-worker suggested she take in a foreign exchange student, Bynah dismissed the idea.

"I couldn't do that," she told her friend, a nurse at the Bartlett nursing home where Bynah works part-time.

But the friend was insistent, so Bynah figured it couldn't hurt to look into it. So Bynah was contacted by a representative from Academic Year in America, an organization which matches exchange students with families.

When she opened a book of prospective exchange students, the first picture she saw was that of a smiling teen-ager with a sweet face.

"I'll take her!" Bynah said.

The young lady with the short blond hair was 17-year-old Christine Hochmuth of Zwickau, Germany.

Almost a year to the day that her grandson left, on "Aug. 21 at 10 o'clock at night," Christine arrived at the airport in Austin.

Needless to say, Bynah is thankful she took her co-worker's advice. "I'm so glad I did," Bynah said, during a recent visit to her home on Santa Clara Road.

"Very good decision," added a smiling Christine (pronounced Christina).

"We call her Tina," Bynah said, noting that her neighbors like Tina has much as she does.

"They all fell in love with her," Bynah said. "They all think she's the greatest thing since sliced bread."

Tina is a senior at Salado High, where she's taking theatre arts, art, athletics, U.S. government, biology, English and a computer class.

Although she will graduate next spring with the Class of '98, Tina must repeat the 12th grade when she returns home. Since Germany requires 13 years of schooling, Tina actually has three years of school remaining, counting this year.

"She thought it would be worth it to go through the 12th grade again," Bynah said.

Tina attended an economics school in Germany, where schools concentrate on various fields of study, such as music and biology.

Asked the best thing about school here, she said, "I don't know. I like it all."

Adds Bynah, "It's so different from what she's used to." And her favorite class?

Bynah Stallings, left, poses with German exchange student Christine Hochmuth at Stallings Salado home. Stallings was reluctant to take in an exchange student until she saw the photo of Christine, a 17-year-old senior at Salado High. (photo by John Eubanks)

"I love theatre arts. It's very nice," Tina said. "I can't take this in Germany. We don't have such things."

Tina is not sure what profession she will enter after school in Germany, but it could be something that combines language with economics.

Students in Germany are taught English, so she speaks the language well. Her grandfather is also an English teacher in Germany.

Her parents, Dr. Christian and Helga Hochmuth, also have a son, Thomas. He turned 14 on Sept. 26, the day Tina was interviewed for this story.

"I'm not homesick, because all the people here are so nice," Tina said, moments after wishing Thomas a happy birthday on the telephone.

"I think about my family -- that's normal. But I'm not homesick."

She will see her family at Christmas, when they come to Salado for a week's visit.

"She never cries or pouts or locks herself up in the room like some teenagers," Bynah said. "She's always pleasant - the most pleasant teen-ager I've been around."

Tina's best friend is another exchange student at Salado High, Carol Almeida from Brazil, who lives with the Petro family.

"They were just like magnets (when they met)," Bynah said.

"Sometimes," Tina adds, "we have the same feelings, the same problems."

They both speak English, but there was this one occasion when Carol began speaking to Tina in Portuguese, the official language of Brazil.

"Carol!" Tina interrupted, before her friend realized what she was saying.

"Tina couldn't understand her," Bynah said, recalling the humorous moment.

Bynah doesn't speak German, but she does have a daughter-in-law who's German.

Bynah met her during a 1993 visit to Germany. Bynah brought home a piece of the Berlin Wall that had been dismantled prior to the reuniting of West Germany and Communist East Germany.

Tina's hometown of Zwickau, in what was once East Germany, is located west of Dresden and south of Leipzig.

Had the wall not fallen and Germany remained divided, it's unlikely that Tina would have come to America.

"At that time, I had no idea I would have Christine, no idea that she lived behind that dog-gone wall," Bynah said.

Reporter's notebook: Meeting Christine gave me a chance to use the German I studied in high school and college (not to mention what I picked up in a year-and-a-half of living in Germany while in junior high).

But of all the hours of German I took in school, I managed but three sentences.

"Wie gehts" (How are you)

"Wie heist du?" (What is your name), and ...

"Auf Wiedersehen" (Good bye).

As I told Christine and Bynah, the lone complex sentence I remember from all that German is this:

"Ich kann nur meine gumme shuhe nicht finden."

Which basically means, I can't find my rubber shoes.

The Living Room Theatre of Salado's next show is an adaptation of the book upon which Harry Wilmer's People Need People was based. First seen as a 1961 Alcoa Premiere television production hosted by Fred Astaire, People Need People starred Lee Marvin in a compelling performance with Arthur Kennedy portraying Navy Commander Harry Wilmer. Wilmer is director emeritus of the Institute for the Humanities at Salado and author of several books on the subjects of psychology & philosophy. The Salado version has been adapted by Raymond Carver, and performances will be held at 7 pm on dates indicated in the homes of the following Saladoans: Monday, October 13, Mary Catherine & Steve Ervin; Tuesday, October 14, Katie & Dave Hermann at

The Range at the Barton House; Wednesday, October 15, Blanche Kevlin; and Thursday, October 16, Jim Pringle.

One hundred fifty current subscribers have already received notification in advance of this public notice, allowing them first choice for dates and places. Beginning October 8, anyone (including guests of subscribers) may make reservations for so long as space exists by calling 947-0334, 24 hours daily. Please do not call hosts or LRTS board members for reservations.

LRTS shows are chosen for relevance to contemporary life, performance values, and authors' and performers' capabilities, and physical limitations. Last year and this year, a "Texas connection" has been selected to utilize the works of authors who have lived in Texas or written about Texas.

Future Plans for Living Room Theatre include performances in January, Profiles of Texans, monologs written and/or performed by Saladoans and others; March, short stories published by native or naturalized Texans, and May, scenes from plays by Pulitzer prize-winner Horton Foote.

A Writing and Performing Workshop for anyone interested in developing writing and performance skills will be held November 16-20, producing work to be used in the "Profiles of Texans" program. Proceeds of the $25 per person registration fee will go toward development of LRTS original shows. For further information, please contact Dr. Raymond Carver at 947-3104.

Cheerleaders will bring whimsy & smiles with arts, crafts show

A casual stroll along the creek in downtown Salado on Oct. 11 will bring about an experience filled with whimsy and smiles. Artisans from all over Central Texas will display their finest and most fanciful wares for sale. Christmas will be in full bloom. Baked goods and refreshments will be sold by the Cheerleaders.

The event which will be sponsored by the Salado Varsity Cheerleaders will be held on the creek in the heart of the village from 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Oct. 11.

Money raised from the event will assist in funding the Hollywood trip for Salado Varsity Cheerleaders. After winning the Camp Championship at the UCA camp held at Mary Hardin Baylor University the girls are entitled to participate in the Hollywood Christmas Parade on November 30.

For more information about the event call 254-947-3217

Library Friends

Group begins membership drive

The Friends of the Library, a volunteer group which supports the Salado Public Library, is holding its fall membership drive.

Every household in the Salado community recently received by mail an invitation to become a Friend of the Library. Friends of the Library help to fund the library's activities for the year.

The library is a non-profit organization which receives no money from local or county taxes. Monies raised by various fund-raising activities such as the Membership Drive, the Art Fair Book Sale, as well as gifts, donations and memorials, supply the funds that enable the library to pay for reading materials such as books, video and audio tapes, computers and for operating expenses.

This year the library has expanded its hours and is open until 7 p.m. on Wednesday to provide access to the library to those who are unable to come to the library during the day.

As part of its emphasis on enriching children's education, more than 500 new children's books and various other materials are being added to the children's collection, and a Wednesday morning preschool children's program is available to any child in that age group.

Future needs include a CD Encyclopedia by the end of the year, additional shelves to house the expanding book collection and replacement of the current unreliable copier. (Copies are 10 cents apiece.)

The Salado Public Library officially opened for business on Nov. 7, 1986, at 500 Stagecoach Road, in Old Town Salado. It moved into its present location in the Old Red Brick School (in the Civic Center) on Main Street in November 1993.

"We've had a lot of support from the community," said B.J. McConnell, the new chairman of the Friends of the Library.

She said the volunteer group is planning a wine and cheese party for the friends (Nov. 7) in conjunction with a Nov. 8 book sale.

"We hope to initiate other things for the friends to show our appreciation," McConnell said.

She said the library received two grants from the Tucker Foundation in Dallas to automate the library and to buy books.

McConnell said the library receives new books every month as well as best-sellers. The library is also part of the Central Texas Library System, which can search for a book that Salado's library doesn't have.

The person requesting the book pays only the return postage on the book.

The library also offers public Internet access.

Library patrons with a late fine are on the honor system; there's a box where fines are paid.

Enrollment period in Texas Tomorrow Fund begins Oct. 14, runs through April 1, 1998

State Comptroller John Sharp announced that the Texas Tomorrow Fund's next enrollment period will begin Oct. 14.

The Texas Tomorrow Fund, proposed by Sharp and approved by state lawmakers during the 1995 legislative session, allows families to lock in the costs of their children's future college tuition and required fees for about what they would pay today.

The Texas Prepaid Higher Education Tuition Board, which Sharp chairs, determined that a prepaid tuition contract paid in a lump sum during the upcoming enrollment period for a Class of 2020 graduate will cost $10,904. The new rate, which is about 12 percent higher than last year's, reflects the rising costs of tuition and required fees at the state's public four-year universities. The Texas Tomorrow Fund covers up to 128 academic hours of tuition.

"The Texas Tomorrow Fund is the best school bargain this year. For as little as $92 a month, until that child graduates from high school, the parents of a newborn Texan can sign their baby up for four years of tuition and required fees at a public university," Sharp said.

The Texas Tomorrow Funds third sign-up period will run through April 1, 1998. During the program's first two enrollment periods, more than 65,000 families took advantage of the pay-now, learn-later program.

"Since our second enrollment period closed last spring, thousands of parents and grandparents have contacted us to see about enrolling their children or grandchildren in the program," Sharp said. "They will be receiving information pamphlets and application forms within the next few weeks -- in plenty of time for the next enrollment deadline."

The seven-member board that oversees the Texas Tomorrow Fund also approved an expanded marketing program with the Texas Association of Life Underwriters. For the first time, life insurance agents will be able to sell prepaid tuition contracts during this enrollment period.

Board member Dr. Roy McClung of Lubbock encourages Texas parents and grandparents to take advantage of the opportunity to invest in their children's and grandchildren's future.

"The Texas Tomorrow Fund program is practical -- it makes sense especially for families with preschool aged children," McClung said.

Member John C. Anderson of Plainview credits the prepaid tuition program with providing parents the option of systematically saving for their children's college years at current costs.

"The program allows parents to make long-term plans for their children's higher education costs that still fit into today's household budgets," Anderson said.

The current semester marks the second year that some 500 college freshman and sophomores are using their Texas Tomorrow Fund contracts at Texas universities and community colleges. Their top three public university choices are the University of Texas at Austin, Texas A&M University's main campus in College Station, and Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Sharp said nearly 83 percent of the prepaid contracts purchased during the two enrollment periods were for the senior college plan, which covers tuition and required fees for up to 128 credit hours at any public senior college or university in Texas. Another 10 percent were for the junior-senior college plan, covering two years at a public junior or technical college, plus two years at a public senior college or university.

Families interested in learning more about the Texas Tomorrow Fund can request information by calling toll-free 1-800-445-GRAD (4723).

Texans with a computer and modem can find out more about the Texas Tomorrow Fund on his electronic bulletin board by dialing 1-800-227-8392 toll-free or by accessing the Comptroller's Window on State Government on the World Wide Web at www.window.cpa.state.tx.us.

Harpist Buchanan to perform at First Baptist Church Oct. 16

First Baptist Church of Salado invites you to hear harpist Greg Buchanan in concert 7 p.m. Oct. 16 in the church sanctuary. The concert is free and open to the public.

Greg Buchanan is a world-class harpist whose aggressive style of playing usually redefines the listener's concept of performance on the harp. His superb musicianship combined with an enthusiastic attitude toward the Christian life make him one of the most sought-after Christian performers in America.

Greg readily gives God credit for everything he has today and for bringing him from the depths of worldly living to the triumphant life he now lives. At age 9, Greg began playing the harp. Naturally gifted, he excelled and progressed quickly. As a young man, he spent four years in the United States Naval Band stationed in Washington, D.C. Following the military, Greg entered the southern California music scene where he experienced the glamour of professional success. His personal life, however, was a dark paradox. The introduction to alcohol at age 13 thrust Greg's life into the downward spiral of alcoholism, drug abuse, dabbling in the occult and brief experiences with the law. In the fall of 1981, Greg left the music scene and entered college, determined to reconstruct the fibers of his life that had so quickly unraveled. During this time, a friend invited Greg to a Christian concert. Jesus Christ entered Greg's heart that night and the Holy Spirit began the process of repairing and healing the broken man who was so desperately searching for a new beginning.

Over the next several years, Greg would embark on a journey that he could not travel alone. God used an encouraging, married couple to help Greg through the process of becoming a mature believer. Greg's words describe their ministry to him best when he says, "They invited me to dinner and I stayed for 2 1/2 years". It was at a retreat with this couple that Greg accepted the call into the harp ministry. After the years of molding and refining, God was ready to use Greg Buchanan in a mighty way.

Part of God's provision, in Greg's life, was blessing him with a wonderful family who supports him, from their home in California. Greg's wife, Becky, is a kindred spirit when it comes to understanding dramatic life changes. She was also rescued from a destructive life-style and spent much time allowing God to carry the baggage she had accumulated. Becky keeps life going smoothly at home while Greg is traveling. As smooth as life can be with three children. Matthew, age 11; Erik, age 9 and beautiful Bree, at 5 years, keep their mother busy. Occasionally Becky and the children "brave the road" and travel with Greg. Both Becky and Greg are natives of California and enjoy returning home to be close to other family members.

Greg enjoys the very great privilege of being the first harpist in the world to own and play an electronic grand harp developed and hand-crafted by Lyon and Healy of Chicago. This newly introduced instrument has technical capabilities that take Greg's music into realms of expression heretofore unattainable. The instrument is a Saizedo Art Deco design that was personalized according to Greg's specific needs. During concert performances, Greg also performs on a Celtic (16th-folk) harp and a Kinnor (David's-lyre).

The uniqueness of Greg's stylized playing has made him a popular choice for international workshops. He works closely with Lyon and Healy in this regard and has enjoyed being the international spokesman for the company. Greg finds great fulfillment in being able to share not only his musical knowledge but also his personal walk of faith, thus offering great creative inspiration to those with whom he works.

Greg's contemporaries in the music world admire his talents, but the compliments seem incomplete when his dedication to the ministry is not acknowledged. In today's concert marketplace, the common location is that of a hall, theater or arena. Greg's heart continues to lead him to the churches. God has called Greg to a life of traveling to spread the Good News. Churches in large cities and small towns have invited Greg to their locales and each time God's spirit moves. The people endeavor themselves to Greg and he to them.

SHS Spanish Club to continue selling Spirit Links through Oct. 9 to raise funds

The SHS Spanish Club will continue selling Spirit Links through Oct. 9 to raise money for the Club scholarship given to a graduating senior member.

Funds raised will also help with the Spanish Club banquet in May.

Spanish Club members are selling the Spirit Links for 25¢ each. Each link will be joined together to form a Spirit Chain for the Rogers vs. Salado game.

Two links in the chain will be chosen with the first place winner receiving a CD player and the second place winner receiving a $25 gift certificate from Camelot Records.

Any individuals who would like to help with this fund raiser and have not been contacting to buy Spirit Links, can call sponsor Yvonne Harmon at the High School, 947-5429.

Saladoans enjoyed the First Taste of Salado held in Pace Park Sept. 29 which raised approximately $3,000 to benefit future construction of the Salado Community Service Center. According to Grace Jones, president of the Salado Community Service Center board of directors, "This fund-raiser was a success both for the Community Center and the restaurants involved. All board members were selling tickets, as well as other people in the village." She added that the Taste of Salado was Darrell Street's "baby.... He was the chairman of the event and worked very hard with the other committee members: Jean White, Mike Cameron, Darwin Britt and myself." Restaurants which served samples of their food to 200 attendees included Cathy's Boardwalk Cafe, Cowboy's Barbecue, Inn on the Creek, Lucye's Barbecue, Mill Creek Country Club, Robertson's Ham's, Salado Burger King, Salado Dairy Queen, Samm's Family Restaurant, Stagecoach Inn, The Gathering Place, The Pink Rose Tearoom, The Range at the Barton House and The Salado Mansion.

Salado writer collaborates on book about Texas women in healing arts

by John Eubanks

Salado writer Elizabeth Silverthorne has collaborated with Geneva Fulgham to write Women Pioneers in Texas Medicine, deemed the "first-ever book on Texas women who practice the healing arts and sciences."

Autographed copies of the book, published by Texas A&M Press, will be available beginning Oct. 8, at Fletcher's Books on Main Street in Salado.

Silverthorne and Fulgham, who are sisters, will also hold a book signing at Fletcher's Books 2-6 p.m. Dec. 6.

Tyler Fletcher, who will host the book signing, said a portion of each sale from the book signing, will go to the Children's Miracle Network, benefitting Scott & White Children's Health.

Silverthorne said the basic inspiration for the book came from her grandmother, Emily Smith Fletcher, who was a pioneer nurse.

"Looking back, we recognize our grandmother as one of a small, courageous band of women pioneers who learned to cope with medical problems through necessity and practical experience," the authors write in the book's preface. "Their care and nurturing made possible the survival and success of the early adventurers and settlers whose families they tended."

Silverthorne had started out to write a book on Claudia Potter, who has hired as the first female doctor at Scott & White Hospital in 1906. (The hiring of the first woman anesthesiologist in Texas prompted Dr. Raleigh White, who was on a trip to New York, to write the following line to his partner in Temple, Dr. A.C. Scott: "I will be home soon, for I know you have lost your mind if you have employed a woman doctor.")

In her research, however, Silverthorne discovered that very little had been written about Texas women in the medical field. So she and Fulgham set out to write the definitive book on the subject.

"The pioneering figures presented here (in the book) have forged new paths for women in fields ranging from nursing, pharmacy, public health and dentistry to general and hospital practice, hospice care, virology, surgery and psychiatry," according to information on the book's jacket.

"Their stories reveal the special obstacles they faced and overcame as women practicing in a demanding, traditionally all-male field.

"They also chronicle the history of medicine in the state generally since, although there

Peaceable Kingdom tourney Oct. 13

Registration is under way for the 12th Annual Daurice Bowmer Memorial Peaceable Kingdom Golf Classic sponsored by Temple Kiwanis Club and the First National Bank of Temple.

The event will be held Columbus Day Oct. 13 at Mill Creek Country Club in Salado.

All proceeds will benefit the Peaceable Kingdom Retreat, a riverside retreat that allows critically ill children to enjoy nature with the company of their family and medical caregivers.

The format of the golf tournament will be a two-person handicapped scramble starting at 1 p.m. A lunch will be served at the Mill Creek Dining Room 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. for those who come early. Prizes and gifts will again be offered, with shirts to all golfers, along with goodie bags and on-course contests.

A 1998 Ford Pickup will be given away by Johnson Brothers Ford for the first hole-in-one on a 130-yard hole.

For more information, call Dean Winkler at (254) 773-9921 or Bill Frankenberger at (254) 791-2747.

Salado Chamber auxiliary needs help with baking

The Salado Chamber Auxiliary needs everyone in the village to help bake for Christmas in October this week.

"Many of you have helped in the past and it is much appreciated," said chair LaFon Ditzler. "Many of you have already signed to help, but if you haven't, we need pies (no cream), cookies, cakes, breads and other baked goods for the Salado and extra cookies for the Refreshment Tables."

Bring the baked goods to the Salado Civic Center on Main St. Oct. 9. Also bring any items you may have for Granny's Pantry on Oct. 9.

Containers for baked good can be picked up at the Salado Civic Center.

If you are not signed for a shift to work and would like to volunteer your time, please call 947-5331. Workers are always needed.

"Your help will benefit all of Salado as all proceeds will be distributed back to the community by the Auxiliary through donations to our local Salado Volunteer Fire Department, Salado Public Library, Salado Civic Center, Citizens on Patrol and our scholarships to Salado High School seniors," Ditzler added.

Jamboree to meet

The regular monthly Country Western Jamboree will be held 7 p.m. Oct. 4 at the The Other Place in downtown Moffatt.

All musicians and listeners are invited to attend and participate in the program. Admission is free.

The concession stand will be open with all proceeds going to the upkeep of the building.

Thomas Arnold Elementary kids read up a storm

Students at Thomas Arnold Elementary are "reading up a storm" due to the emphasis on reading that is being encouraged in all grades. There were 244 students from grades two through six who received a special award for accomplishing goals with the Accelerated Reader Program.

This has been the largest group in the first six weeks of school to accomplish this goal.

Teachers want to encourage parents to read with their children and encourage reading in the home at least two to three times a week.

The awards included blowpops/bookmark, a large candy bar, an ice cream party, or the Super-Duper Surprise which is a trip to the movies including popcorn and a drink.

There were 50 students who accomplished that very difficult goal which is an outstanding number.

Those attending the movie were the following: Jonathan Kendall, Phillip Couchman, Blair Nye, Chris Bohardt, Chelsea Ervi, Brittany Gilchrest, Sunni Wells. Garrett

Salado's Bolick will moderate business forum Oct. 27 at UMHB

The Annual Business Forum, presented by the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor School of Business, will be held 10 a.m.-noon Oct. 27 and is free to the public. The location is the Shelton Theater in the Mabee Building on the UMHB campus.

The Business Forum will be a panel discussion moderated by Bruce A. Bolick, of Salado, who is professor of accounting at UMHB.

The four panel speakers include: Mike Brockway, Partner, Brockway, Gersbach and Niemeier, CPA's in Temple; Steve Bostick, Partner, Patillo, Brown & Hill, CPA's of Waco; Dick Dickson, Assistant Controller, Scott & White Hospital, and Kevin Koch, Vice President of Government Affairs and Taxation, McLane Company.

"The goal of the Business Forum is to help business students and professionals in the community alike understand current accounting issues such as property tax concerns," said Bolick.

The first hour will be questions from the moderator, Bruce Bolick.

Volleyballers beat Moody, tuning up for district play

The Salado High volleyball team tuned up for the start of district play by defeating Moody 13-15, 16-14, 15-11 Oct. 4 on the road.

The Lady Eagles (5-13) opened District 26-2A play Oct. 7 at home against Rogers. Results were not available by press time for this issue.

Salado led 5-1 in the first game against Moody, but an opposing server served nine straight points to shift the momentum. Salado cut the deficit to 14-13 before the same server served out the game.

The Lady Eagles trailed 8-4 in game two before Melissa Matthews served seven straight points, four of which were aces.

Salado led 14-10 before Moody tied it at 14-all. But Lori Matthews served out the game with two straight points.

In game three, Salado led from the start and never trailed. Melissa Matthews served the last two points.

"Lori Matthews probably played her best game this year," Coach John Black said. "She had about 10 kills and about four aces, and also did a good job, from the back line, of digging the ball."

Sarah Summers, who was moved to middle the counter Moody's top offensive player, responded with six blocks.

Sommer Wilson did a good job on defense, "keeping the ball alive with good effort," Black said.

"By far, it was an overall team effort, a boost that will hopefully lift us into our first district match."

Salado had lost to Moody in two games during the Florence Tournament Sept. 11-13.

The junior varsity lost to Moody 3-15, 10-15 to even its record at 5-5. Black said personnel losses from grades have forced him to combine the JV and freshman teams.

The varsity was coming off a 15-6, 15-5 home loss to Lexington Sept. 30.

"This was the worst, by far, we've played all year, and of course, that team can make you look bad," Black said of a talented team, under first-year Coach Patricia Rivers, that won its ninth game in 23 tries.

"If you've got a team that can hit the ball like that, you have a chance at success."

Black wanted the game to help his team prepare for district.

"They didn't communicate," he said, about his team, "and without communication, you had people in each other's zones."

The JV won 15-1, 15-6. "Everybody came out and did well," Black said. "Lauren Quirk had a good night spiking the ball and had about five kills."

Black also said that Paige Teer did a good job of picking up hits and free balls.

"What I was pleased with was after the first game, they didn't come out and think it would be easy. We built up a 13-2 lead, then they got four points, before we closed out the match."

The freshmen lost 15-8, 15-6 to close out their record at 2-3.

"They had their spurts and played well, but Lexington would get three, four, five points in a row. We'd get one," Black said. "But we played decently well and the girls hustled."

Writer recalls 'the most interesting woman' he ever met: the one and only Hallie Stillwell

by Tumbleweed Smith

When I met Hallie Stillwell she was a Justice of the Peace in Alpine. She was pretty much all business on that Saturday morning in 1970 when I first interviewed her in her office in the Brewster County court house. She discussed her duties as JP, the things she liked and disliked about the job. She talked about her writing.

I asked her about what she thought of mountains and she began to loosen up a bit. Sometime during the interview she mentioned having a ranch south of Marathon, that she would sometimes go there after work, tend to some ranch chores, then be back in her office bright and early the next morning.

The question that really made her relax and feel at ease was this one: "How did you get to be a ranch woman?" She at first told me people wouldn't believe some of the things she could tell me, but I asked her to go ahead and talk about some of those early ranch experiences.

She talked nonstop for nearly an hour.

I interviewed Hallie several times during the next twenty-seven years.

Each time she would talk into my microphone and tell of some adventure she had or was having at the time of the interview.

Hallie is probably the most fascinating woman I've interviewed. She was a waitress, teacher, columnist, author, rancher, wax camp operator, storyteller, chili queen, panther killer, county official, wife, mother and grandmother.

When she went to teach at Presidio, it was during Pancho Villa's raiding days and she was paid an extra ten dollars a month hazardous duty pay. She had a gun with her, but she never had to use it. "But people knew I could if I needed to," Hallie told me. "I was the best shot in the family."

When she married Roy Stillwell and went to his ranch to set up housekeeping, Hallie was not too popular with the cowboys. They had all been sleeping together in Roy's one room house. When Hallie came, they had to move out. Then she cleaned off all those pencil markings on the door frames, which turned out to be the official ranch records. She scoured the coffee pot, making the cowboys upset. They said they wouldn't have a decent cup of coffee for months.

Hallie, the matriarch of the mountains, died in August at the age of 99. Her obituary was printed in the New York Times. Her birthday party has always been a big annual shindig. Hallie's daughter Dadie is still going to have her mother's 100th birthday party at 4 PM on October 18th at the Post, near Marathon. A 45 minute cassette of Hallie's stories will be sold for $10 with all the proceeds going to the Hallie Stillwell Hall of Fame.

Hallie was a friend of mine. I donated the production of the cassette because I loved and respected her. If you don't get to the party, the cassettes will be sold at Hallie's Hall of Fame, HC 65 Box 430 Alpine, TX 79830, phone (915) 376-2244.

THE HOMEPLACE

Nestled on a tree-covered knoll in Salado's Historical District, THE HOMEPLACE represent the much sought-after lifestyle of yesteryear. A winding lane meanders around large live oaks to a dry creek crossing. Its character reflects a day in history where people shared time together on front porches. Only a short walk away is excellent shopping, art galleries and dining, giving a reflection of Salado's past.

THE HOMEPLACE will reflect proportions, detailing and simplicity of true classical architectural styles. "Something old, something new" literally comes to life as treasures from historic homes are blended in harmony with new construction. The best of yesterday . . . built better today.

Mondlock has consistently impressed listeners with his song writing, guitar playing and soft-spoken stage presence. After he was discovered by the legendary Guy Clark, Buddy Mondlock went on to win Kerrville's 1987 New Folk award, and Song of the Year for 1996. He has performed all across America and Europe, and his songs have been recorded by such noted artists as Peter, Paul & Mary, Janis Ian, Garth Brooks and Joan Baez.

The late Townes Van Zandt called him "a fine person and a fine artist," and Nanci Griffith, who recorded his song "Comin' Down in the Rain", said "Buddy Mondlock represents the best of the new generation of singer-song writers... He is one of my favorite new writers."

Buddy Mondlock has released two albums, including his 1994 release which featured guest appearances by Garth Brooks, Janis Ian and Shawn Colvin. He finished recording a third album in February of this year.

The concert will be held in the smoke-free, alcohol-free environment of the Fellowship Hall at First United Methodist Church of Belton, located at 205 East 3rd Avenue in Belton. The doors open at 7 p.m., and the $7 admission includes child-care for all pre-teens and refreshments throughout the evening. For information, call (254) 778-5440.
