

Commissioners certify Formation of BC ESD #1

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Bell County Commissioners on Nov. 16 canvassed and certified the Nov. 3 General Election results and issued an Order based on those results certifying the formation of Bell County Emergency Services District #1 and outlining its boundaries.

Bell County interim Election Administrator Matthew Dutton reported to commissioners that the County has conducted its partial manual recount that is required by the state. The tapes and early voting machines have been matched against the reports from the reporting software and “Everything matched up and looks good.”

Dutton reported that 58% of Bell County registered voters cast ballots in the Nov. 3 General Election. There are 217,149 registered voters, of which 128,035 cast ballots. Early voting was exceptionally heavy with 92,142 taking advantage of three weeks of early voting. On election day, only 23,330 cast ballots in Bell County. “It was very smooth on Election Day,” Dutton said.

The proposition for the formation of Bell County Emergency Services District #1 passed overwhelmingly, he reported. A total of 5,708 votes were cast in the proposition, with 4,108 voting for and 1,600 voting against.

Dutton reported that the county uses ES&S Election Services machines and software for the election. “Nothing is on-line” he told commissioners after Commissioner Bill Schumann asked him about election security. “They (hackers) would have to have physical access to the machines.”

After certifying the election, commissioners unanimously certified the formation of the Bell County Emergency Services District #1, including its boundaries. The next step for the BCEESD#1 will be appointment of a five-person board of directors. With the boundaries identified, the BCEESD#1 will be able to contract with the Bell County Tax Appraisal District to calculate taxable property values within the district for the purpose of proposing an operating budget and a property tax rate that cannot exceed $0.10 per $100 valuation.

The five-person board of directors will serve staggered terms and will be appointed by the Bell County Commissioners Court.

In other business, commissioners approved an inter local agreement with McLennan County to provide inmate space for $84 per inmate per day. Bell County Judge David Blackburn reported that the population in Bell County jail recently topped 1,000 inmates.

Commissioners also approved the re-appointments of Commissioner Bill Schumann and Kathryn Long to serve three-year terms on the Bell County Public Health District Board of Directors.

They also approved a final plat to combine two lots in Krueger Estates.

Gathering goes Virtual

The 59th Salado Scottish Gathering and Highland Games became an online video presentation last weekend of the sights and sounds of previous Gatherings ... the skirl of bagpipes, wearing of the tartan, tossing the caber, Kirkin' o' the Tartan, Highland dancing, Celtic music, and the largest gathering of Scottish Clans in Texas!

An official opening ceremony for the online Gathering was held on College Hill at noon on Saturday, the time the event normally takes place. The 2020 Gathering paid tribute to all the Scottish Clans, pipers, drummers, Highland dancers, singers, musicians, athletes, vendors, patrons, volunteers and supporters who made the past Gatherings possible.

For this year's event, the Honored Clan was Clan Leslie...their motto...GRIP FAST! And the Honored

Band was the Silver Thistle Pipes and Drums of Austin, Texas who are invaluable supporters of the museum.

The Salado Museum is a non-profit organization and the Scottish Gathering is our main fundraising event each year. The financial loss from the cancellation this year is a major challenge. Support the continuation of this annual tradition by donating in any amount at saladomuseum.org.

Terri Raines is battling stage 3 Ovarian cancer. In August of 2020, Terri underwent intense surgery where her doctors removed the primary cancer source, secondary tumors, and other organs that showed signs of cancer. After successfully completing a lengthy (approximately 5 weeks) surgical recovery at home, she will begin chemotherapy. The doctors believe her treatments will take a year to complete.

As a self-employed stylist, if she does not work, she simply does not get paid. The loss of an income for 12 months, or longer, is financially devastating.

That's why her friends have stepped up to help out this local family. Out-of-pocket expenses are expected to exceed the $100,000 figure.

Also, mark your calendar for New Year's Eve for Two-Steppin' with the Raines featuring members of George Strait's Ace in the Hole band at The View at Salado Creek.

Museum's "Classic Hickory" sets date for annual tournament

From Amarillo to Houston to Dallas-Fort Worth and beyond hickory golfers traveled to Salado, to participate in the Inaugural Pioneer Classic Hickory Golf Tournament November 7-8. The golfers gathered at the beautiful Mill Creek Golf Course in knickers, vests, ties and caps for the two-day, two-man team event, a fundraiser for the Salado Museum and College Park. They were greeted at the clubhouse by the skirl of bagpipes played by Pipe Major Doug Slauson who also sent them out onto the course from the first tee box with a stirring rendition of "Scotland the Brave".

2020 winners of the tournament were Gary Krupkin and Blair Philip with a team score of 136. The Salado Pioneer Classic joins the Hickory Golf Association of Texas tournament circuit as an annual event on the first weekend each November.

The tournament is scheduled the weekend prior to the museum's Scottish Gathering and Highland Games which celebrates its 60th year in 2021.

Tablerock's 28th Annual Performance of A Christmas Carol

Thom Wilson will direct Tablerock's 28th annual performance of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol at the Goodnight Amphitheater at 400 Royal Street in Salado. Dates for the production are Dec. 4, 5, 11, and 12. Gate is open to purchase tickets at 6:15 p.m., Curtain up at 7 p.m..

Thom Wilson is a retired Army veteran. He and his wife live in Temple, TX. He has directed A Christmas Carol for Tablerock several times and using his artistic talents has also designed and crafted many of the sets used in both A Christmas Carol and Salado Legends. Thom, his children and his grandchildren have performed in many of the Tablerock plays for the past 16 years.

Jackie Mills has been the Producer and creator of the events at Tablerock Amphitheater for the past 28 years. Jackie wrote Salado Legends, which was inducted into the Library of Congress in 2001.

The 7 acres of Tablerock land have increased to 14 acres and the $1.34 in the Tablerock check book 28 years ago has increased for college age actors to receive approximately $10,000.00 a year in college scholarships.

A Christmas Carol has a cast and crew of 63 people. Some are newcomers to the play and a handful who have been associated with the play since its inception 28 years ago. Dickens' A Christmas Carol was adapted to the Tablerock stage by the late Harry Sweet. Mr. Sweet, Director of Carol for 15 years and a retired ethics professor at Mary Hardin-Baylor said, "No one can improve Dickens' works."

Harry willed the stage script of A Christmas Carol to Tablerock with the instructions to "keep the play true to Dickens." And Thom Wilson does just that.

Members of the cast include: Salado residents Ben Wickert as Lamplighter, Dancer # 1, and Jonathan the Funeral Apprentice; Kim Leitner as Ebenezer Scrooge; Nathan Cahoon as Scrooge's nephew Fred; Jimbo Moore as Solicitor One, Mr. Fezziwig, Merchant One; Jennifer Graham as Solicitor Two, Mrs. Fezziwig, The Welsh Miner's Family; Ryleigh Zatopek as Want, Townsperson, Young Caroler, Pestering Scrooge; Drew Spencer as Young Caroler, Welsh Miner's Family, Townsperson; Lilly Sears as Pestering Scrooge, Lucy Crachit; Jack Farris as Traveler One, Boy Dancer 2, Peter Crachit; Sandy Feutz as Associate 2, Girl Dancer 2, Traveler 2; Robert Purtlebough as Traveler 3, Boy Dancer 4, John Crachit; Ally Ihler as Traveler Six, Girl Dancer 4, Martha Crachit; Olivia Farris as Girl Dancer 1, Belinda Crachit, Welsh Miners Family; Kambry Farris as Young Bell, The Welsh Miner's Family; Nelson Sears as Older Belle's Husband, Bert - Caroline's husband, Poulter; Alex Ihler as Ghost of Christmas Present, Laurie Cahoon as Mrs. Crachit; Parker Ihler as Tiny Tim Crachit; Isabella Sears as Ignorance, Townsperson; Corbin Spencer as The Ghost of Christmas Future; Trent Spencer as Merchant Two, Townsperson; Tonja Moore as Mrs. Dilber-Scrooge's Char Woman; Judy Hughes as Mrs. Pratt-Scrooges Laundress; Ivy Rochner as Townsperson; Katie Feutz as Ginger-Fred's wife; Alexandria Rogers as Little Fan; Alyssa Neagle as Little Fan (understudy), Young Girl shy dancer, Welsh Miner's Family; Ben Weichert as Traveler Five.

Opening lead — ten of spades.

lead a diamond to dummy's queen.

All will be well if East cooperatively takes the ace. Regardless of what he returns, you can then establish the diamonds, losing a trick to East's jack along the way, and so make your game.

The trouble with this line of play is that East may not take the ace of diamonds when you play the queen from dummy. If that happens, the best you can possibly do is hold yourself to down one.

The way to prevent this is to lead a diamond at trick two and, regardless of what West plays, follow low from dummy instead of playing the queen! In the actual deal, East would win with the nine, but the defense could not then stop you from scoring nine tricks.

You must assume from the outset that the diamonds are divided 3-2. Once this is granted, the contract is virtually assured regardless of where the ace is located, provided the king or queen is not played at the first opportunity.

It is true that this method of play will cost you a trick if it turns out that West has the ace. However, that trick is relatively unimportant because it affects only the question of making three or four notrump, whereas if East has the ace, it affects the much more vital question of making the contract or going down.

Making the contract is always the primary consideration.

SHS earns Great Schools College Success award

Congratulations to our students, employees and parents for Salado High School earning the Great-Schools.org 2020 College Success Award! This award is earned by public high schools that do a superior job of preparing graduating seniors for postsecondary success.

We earned this award based on the following two statistics:

1. A high percentage of our graduates pursue college or vocational programs after high school.
2. A low percentage of our graduates need to take a basic or remedial course in college.

Only about 21 percent of high schools earned the

by Dr. Michael Novotny

College Success Award this year. Academy High School is the only other school in Bell County that earned this award. However, Salado High School is the only school in Bell County that earned this award two years in a row.

Our high school also earned a score of 10 out of a possible 10 for college readiness. This score was awarded based on the following statistics:

1. Our four year graduation rate is 100%.
2. 80% of our student take the SAT test.
3. Our average SAT score is 1109.

While these awards and scores are for Salado High School, our teachers at the elementary school and middle school also deserve credit for preparing our students for success at the high school level. Congratulations again to our students, employees, and parents for these recognitions!

CORRECTION

I would also like to apologize for a mistake in my column last week. I stated that Savannah Hennig just became the youngest person ever elected to the Salado ISD school board at 33 years of age. However, I now know there are two people that were even younger when they served as school board members in our school district. Savannah's uncle, Gary Bartlett, was 31 years old when he was elected to the school board in 1988. Tom Curb was even younger when he was elected to the school board at 30 years of age in 1971. Thank you again to all of the current and former Salado ISD school board members for their volunteer service to our students and community.

Eagles play Bellville Brahmas

For the Salado Eagles, the Area football contest may seem like looking in the mirror as they face the Bellville Brahmas at 7 p.m. Nov. 20 at University of Mary Hardin Baylor Crusader Stadium in Belton.

Both teams have a single mar on their record and both teams run the Slot T offense, although Bellville will go to the spread periodically to loosen up tight defenses.

"We're pretty much the same in a lot of ways," Coach Alan Haire says. "We both run a lot, but they will get in more gun sets than us and get into some spread." The Brahma rely more on one back in the Slot T, though, than Salado, which has three separate threats to pound out short runs of three to five yards or break a long one for the distance of the field when the defense breaks down or the O line clears the path.

Richard Reese, a junior fullback, is the central figure in the Bellville offense. As a sophomore he ran for 2000 yards and 21 TD. He is looking to go over 2,000 yards again this year.

Robert Briggs is the other junior running back and has carried for more than 800 yards for the Brahmas.

The Brahmas skunked Hardin-Jefferson 41-10 in the first round of the playoffs, while Salado took a forfeit win over Rusk due to COVID-19 cases.

Salado played Bellville in 2016 and 2017 playoffs. The Eagles beat Bellville 13-10 to face West Orange Stark in the Region III final, losing to the state-runners up. The Eagles lost to Bellville 34-14 in the Area round of the 2016 playoffs.
