SWSC continues Stage 3 restrictions

Salado Water Supply Corporation continues in Stage 3 of its Drought Contingency Policy, which allows outdoor watering one day a week (odd customers on Tuesday and even customers on Wednesday).

The Salado WSC Drought Contingency Plan allows for outdoor watering on those days from the hours of midnight-10 a.m. and 8 p.m.-midnight. Salado WSC Drought Contingency Plan states that outdoor watering between the hours of 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. is considered wasteful watering due to severe evaporation.

"Through these efforts, we have been able to reduce water usage by 25%," SWSC manager Rick Preston stated. "Violation notices are being sent to those members who have not complied to the Drought Contingency Policy and enforcement action will be taken immediately if those members avoid compliance."

Salado Water Supply receives about 40% of its water from Stillhouse Hollow Lake which is at an all time historical low level. The water intake structure to the treatment plant we receive water from, will be under repair beginning the week of Aug. 19 to drop the intake to a lower level to allow continued operation of the plant until recharge of the lake occurs.

"During the repair time, expected to take 1 week, signs will be posted in the affected areas where all outside water use will not be allowed while these repairs are being made," Preston said. "It will be critical to avoid all outside use of water to be sure enough is available to avoid an outage of water in this area and insure continuous service for your residences."

Salado Legends marks 30 years!

By JACKIE MILLS
SALADO LEGENDS
AUTHOR

It has been 30 years since we had the very first performance of Salado Legends!

Looking back, I am shocked at my confidence and appalled at my unmitigated gall in composing and writing Salado Legends. Taking over Tablerock in 1991 with $1.34 in the checkbook was pure madness! A year later after a few plays, our bank balance had increased to $3,000. My friends at the Institute of Outdoor Theater at the University of North Carolina cautioned me to wait until I had a million dollars in the bank before starting a play. But knowing I would be dead by then, I plunged onward. What was I thinking?

At last the show was meshing. Under the direction of Mike Doggett, the actors, teens and small, wild children were transforming the script into an outdoor musical. The local banks sold tickets for us, all of Mill Creek came out in force and we got rave reviews from local newspapers (and Fort Worth newspapers too... thanks to A.C. Green).

Village may limit construction traffic

Village of Salado aldermen at their 6:30 p.m. Aug. 3 will consider an ordinance to limit construction traffic on certain roads.

The Village will have two readings of the proposed ordinance before it can be adopted and go into effect. It carries a fine of up to $500.

Every year the money from the sale of tickets goes to buy lights, sound equipment, scholarships and to improve the facilities of this 501c3 (non-profit) organization. Salado Legends, our once a year event at Tablerock has expanded into several events a year. Originally written for 40 people, Legends has grown to 114 in the cast and crew. Our first scholarship of $250 has grown to over $10,000 in up to 14 scholarships a year making a total of over $200,000 given in scholarships from 1993 to 2023. Our college-bound cast and crew have earned degrees in accounting, education, nursing and more with Salado Legends scholarships. Many return every year as volunteers to help with Tablerock productions, and one family boasts three generations participating in Salado Legends.

Approximately 5,000 people a year have attended events at Tablerock. The economic impact of Salado Legends alone was over $227,424 in 2017 when it was last figured by Institute of Outdoor Drama guidelines.

- Budget for all abilities

Approximately 5,000 people a year have attended events at Tablerock. The economic impact of Salado Legends alone was over $227,424 in 2017 when it was last figured by Institute of Outdoor Drama guidelines.

Tablerock's Board of Directors, now under the direction of Thom Wilson, is a board of hard working volunteers. The board is supported by many generous donors. With help from Rolly Correa, we obtained a matching grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife to build a one-half-mile walking trail. Wayne Phillips, a local stone builder, bid the job and donated the stone tables and benches in the picnic area. Tablerock's original Greek-style amphitheater seating was upgraded with Fort Hood's donation of 422 used stadium seats. Tablerock's original seven acres has increased to 14 acres with volunteer built franchise fee for solid waste collection service.

- Consider levying a street improvement fee (workshop item)
- Discuss FY 2024 budget (workshop item)

Now, what role would you like in the next Tablerock production? Maybe you would like to make costumes? Control the spotlights? Sing or dance? We have a place for you and your family to volunteer your talents.

The final performance of 2023 Salado Legends will be Aug. 5 at Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheater, 409 Royal St., Salado, TX, 76571. Dinner is at 7:15 p.m., and the performance begins at 8:15 p.m. Dinner tickets, which must be purchased 24 hours in advance, are $13.00. Salado Legends tickets are $25 for adults, $10 for students (with ID) and $5 for children 12 and under. Tickets can be purchased online at CentraTexasTickets.com.

can be purchased tax free online or by telephone, mail, custom order or any other means (including in-store purchases) when either:

Texas Sales Tax Holiday is Aug. 11-13

(AUSTIN) — Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar is reminding shoppers they can save money on clothes and school supplies during the state's sales tax holiday on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 11-13.

State law exempts sales tax on qualified items — such as clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks — priced below $100, saving shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend. The dates of the sales tax holiday and list of tax-exempt items are set by the Texas Legislature.

"As Texans prepare for the back-to-school bell, this is the perfect time to take advantage of the opportunity to save money on everything from blue jeans to ballpoint pens," Hegar said. "As the father of three, I know how these expenses can add up."

The Comptroller's office estimates that shoppers will save $136 million in state and local sales tax during this sales tax holiday.

Apparel and school supplies that may be purchased tax free are listed on the Comptroller's website at TexasTaxHoliday.org.

During the annual sales tax holiday, qualifying items can be purchased tax free online or by telephone, mail, custom order or any other means (including in-store purchases) when either:

- the item is both delivered to, and paid for by, the customer during the exemption period; or,
- the customer orders and pays for the item, and the seller accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period ends.

Texas' sales tax holiday weekend has been an annual event since 1999.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

Forecasters back off on predicting recession

The Markets

As it usually does, the S&P 500 Stock Index (SPX), our choice for an indicator of what is going on day to day in the U.S. Stock Market, dodged and weaved through the week, but wound up at 4582.23, a gain of 1.01%. To bring that gain into perspective, the SPX is now up about 105% from its bear market bottom back in March of 2020, up about 28% from mid-October of last year, and up about 19% so far this year. It remains down 4.4% from its high in January 2022, but is up almost 40% in the last three years, an annualized return of 11.8% per year. The other market index we follow, the CRSP US Mid Cap Value Index, went the other way, dropping 0.58% for the week 2471.07, but is up 5.62% this year and 4.86% lower than its record high set in January of 2022.

The benchmark 10-year U.S. Treasury note yield closed out the week at 3.96%, a rise of around 3% for the week but still within the trading range it has maintained for over a year. The Treasury yield curve was largely unchanged other than a rise in less than one-year maturities to a range around 5.5% following the Fed's announcement of a short-term rate increase to that level as it remained severely inverted. West Texas Intermediate crude oil rose nearly 5% to $80.65, probably in reaction to the unexpectedly high GDP numbers, as traders began to price in a more robust U.S. economy with fuel demand likely to rise.

The Economy

This was one of those weeks when an avalanche of economic data comes pouring out of government agencies, and just about all of it was good. The biggest chunk of that data and the biggest surprise to many pundits was the Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA)

Market & Economic Update

by Jeffrey W. McClure

first estimate of second quarter U.S. GDP at an annualized, inflation, and seasonally adjusted whopping 2.4%! As a reminder, during most of last year and even through the first half of this year, many commentators were warning that we were due and almost certain to see the beginning of a recession in that quarter. Some pundits went so far as to write as if a recession were already underway. Instead, we now see that the U.S. economy grew 2% in the first quarter and 2.4% in the second, clearly reflecting an acceleration in economic activity rather than a slowing. The leading element in that unanticipated growth appears to be business investment in durable goods and structures. Historically, businesses invest heavily in creating future capacity as we are coming out of a recession, not when we are about to enter one. The bottom line is that businesses, who have their eye on their customers' needs, see higher demand coming down the road.

That high GDP number could have been seen as bad news in that high business activity is often associated with rising inflation, but separately, the Labor Department's Bureau of labor Statistics, announced the employment cost index only increased 1% in the second quarter, the slowest advance since 2021. The BLS also announced that the Fed's preferred measure of what real inflation is doing, the personal consumption expenditures price index (PCE) rose only 3% in the last twelve months, also the lowest increase since 2021. The PCE also showed consumer spending, adjusted for inflation, rose in June the most we have seen since the beginning of this year.

The members of the Federal Reserve Board voted unanimously to raise short term interbank interest rates from 5.25% to 5.5% as expected. The good news was that their press release and Chairman Powell's press conference indicated they would wait on more data before deciding whether to raise rates another 0.25%. Then came the data indicating that inflation continues to moderate, but the economy appears to be accelerating. From the perspective of economic theory those two data points appear to be in contradiction. In Europe, for example, their economies are slowing and have entered a recession after the European Central Bank and the Bank of England raised rates, and inflation, while still much higher than here, also slowed. Here in the U.S. where we have been historically described as having "American exceptionalism" we, once more appear to be the exception to the rule.

Meanwhile, signs of slowing growth continue to appear in data coming out of China. A part of that is the shift going on as American companies have largely stopped investing in China and are diligently working at creating sources of materials and production elsewhere. There are pluses and minuses to that trend. As we de-couple from the Chinese economy, China has less to lose from the sanctions that would follow an invasion of Taiwan. More, as the Chinese economy slows, it removes another drawback that would come from war. This bears watching.

Salado ISD is looking forward to a safe 2023-24 school year

We will be hosting a reception for our new Salado ISD Chief of Police Gary McHone, and our two new Salado ISD police officers, Heath Crum and Jennifer Latta, on Monday, August 21, from 5:15 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. at the Salado Civic Center, located at 601 North Main Street. Following the reception, all three of them will then ceremonially take their Oath of Office at the beginning of our school board meeting at 6:00 p.m. Bell County Justice of the Peace will swear in Chief of Police Gary McHone and Chief McHone will swear in Officer Crum and Officer Latta.

In addition to having a licensed police officer at each of our three schools, we will also have at least one School Marshal at each of our schools. These marshals are employees of our school district that have completed the School Marshal training through the Texas Commission On Law Enforcement (TCOLE). TCOLE is the same state organization that oversees police academies.

Our schools have threat assessment teams which are comprised of law enforcement, teachers, counselors,

Superintendent's Corner

by Dr. Michael Novotny

and administrators. These teams are another critical component of keeping our students and employees safe. Threat assessment team members receive training through the Texas School Safety Center to identify, assess, and manage threats. More information is available about this at the following website: <https://txssc.txstate.edu/tools/tam-toolkit/>

During this past (2022-2023) school year we had two students make a verbal threat. Our threat assessment teams promptly and thoroughly addressed these two situations and determined that the threats were not credible and that they did not endanger our students or employees. Unfortunately, false information regarding these two incidents was shared via social media, text, e-mail, and word of mouth, causing concern among our community. To prevent this from happening again, we have consulted with our attorneys to develop a plan that will allow us to share information regarding threats with parents and employees while still complying with the Family Educational Rights Privacy Act (FERPA). Thus, parents and employees will be notified of threats, even if the threat assessment team determines that the threat is not credible and there is no danger to our students or employees.

Everyone can help us maintain a safe environment by notifying us if you hear or see anything that could possibly be dangerous. These reports can be made by calling the school, contacting a school administrator or police officer, sending an e-mail to sisd.police@saladoisd.org or through our anonymous reporting system that is available at the following website: <https://saladoisd-tx.safeschoolsalert.com/>

We are looking forward to another outstanding – and safe – school year!

Salado Water Supply Members:

I would like to issue a very sincere thank you to all the members who stepped up to the latest request to adhere to our Stage 3 Drought Contingency Plan by reducing lawn watering to once per week.

Through these efforts, we have been able to reduce water usage by 25%. Violation notices are being sent to those members who have not complied to the Drought Contingency Policy and enforcement action will be taken immediately if those members avoid compliance.

Salado Water Supply receives about 40% of our water from Stillhouse Hollow Lake which is at an all time historical low level. The water intake structure to the treatment plant we receive water from, will be under repair beginning the week of August 19, 2023 to drop the intake to a lower level to allow continued operation of the plant until recharge of the lake occurs.

During the repair time, expected to take 1 week, signs will be posted in the affected areas where all outside water use will not be allowed while these repairs are being made. It will be critical to avoid all outside use of water to be sure enough is available to avoid an outage of water in this area and insure continuous service for your residences.

Teachers of the Year honored

Salado Masonic Lodge #296 presented the three Teachers of the Year with Mirabeau B. Lamar Medals of Excellence in Education during a barbecue luncheon July 29 at Salado Middle School.

Chris Fowler, Master of Salado Lodge, greeted the audience and told them that the presentation was particularly important to him because he is a native Saladoan who attended Salado schools starting with kindergarten at Thomas Arnold Elementary. "Thomas Arnold was Kindergarten through sixth grade and the old high school was seventh through 12th grades just across the way," he said, adding that his oldest grandson started Kindergarten at the same school where he did several years before. "He is walking the same halls that I did," he said. His younger grandson starts Pre-K there this year.

THOMAS ARNOLD ELEMENTARY

TEACHER OF THE YEAR ABBEY LARREMORE

Fowler presented Thomas Arnold Elementary's 2022-2023 Teacher of the Year Abbey Larremore with the Lamar Medal and a $500 check from Salado Lodge, following remarks about her from her principal Katie Mullins.

"From her earliest memories Mrs. Larremore can remember playing teacher," Mullins said. "It is something she just always knew she wanted to do. Her inspiration started with her mother, a passionate special education teacher and then high school counselor. Mrs. Larremore earned her Bachelor's Degree from Texas State University in 2004. Her teaching career began in her hometown teaching third grade for Wimberley ISD. When she and her husband, also an educator, started a family she made the choice to stay home with her two boys for several years. Her classroom now had only two little students and was filled with nature walks, story times, music classes, and field trips."

"A few years later, her husband's career in education led our family to Leander ISD where she re-entered the education world teaching fifth grade," Mullins said.

"In 2020 Mrs. Larremore's family landed in the best little village, Salado, Texas! She spent a year with Jarrell ISD teaching third grade to in-person and virtual students simultaneously during the pandemic," she said.

"The following year she moved over to Salado ISD and fell in love with Thomas Arnold Elementary teaching fourth grade," Mullins said. "She knows this will be home for a long time. Mrs. Larremore truly loves what she does and looks forward to teaching her students each day. She believes connecting with her students and their families is vital to a successful classroom."

"Keeping her students engaged and challenged requires creativity and hard work, and she loves it. She has explained that it never feels like just a job, it's a passion that continues to grow," Mullins added.

Mullins added that TAE staff, in nominating her, said that "She is a team player who never turns away a fellow staff member when they have a question. She will stay late to help answer questions, plan, and make sure not only her classroom and lessons are ready but also those of her teammates."

"She greets her students every morning with a smile, asks them about their life outside of school, and even attends their activities," Mullins said. "She doesn't only care about the students while they are here at school but honestly wants what is best for them in life. No matter what challenge may arise, she will work hard to find a solution to best serve her students."

SALADO MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHER OF THE YEAR ANGELA SITZ

Fowler presented Angela Sitz with the Lamar medal and a $500 check as the 2022-23 Salado Middle School Teacher of the Year.

Her principal, Ted Smith, said this about her: "A contagious laugh, a welcoming classroom, and an engaging experience are the first things students and coworkers mention about the Salado Middle School 2022-2023 teacher of the year, Mrs. Angela Sitz."

"Mrs. Sitz just completed her 15th year in education, with the last and best five being in Salado," Smith added. "Our school and students have been blessed each year by her caring and creative mind."

Sitz is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University. "She is a proud Bobcat and can still shout out the cheers she learned while attending San Marcos," Smith added.

A native central Texan, Angela now calls Salado home with her husband Mark, daughter Gloria, and son Otto.

Smith quoted other staff members opinions on Sitz for the audience:

"She is an amazing art teacher. She encourages her students to be creative. She is passionate about art, and it shows through her student's amazing projects. She is an amazing coworker who is kind and positive!"

Another fellow teacher wrote that Angela is "enthusiastic, builds relationships with her students, is flexible, is an excellent communicator, and is always cheerful and willing to help."

SALADO HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER OF THE YEAR

BRIAN OSBORNE

Fowler presented Brian Osborne with the Lamar medal and a $500 check as the 2022-23 Salado High School Teacher of the Year.

SHS principal Brandon Boyd said this about Osborne: "In my 27 years in education he is as devoted a teacher as I have seen. He puts the students and our campus above himself and is here every day working for our students. We are very fortunate to have Mr. Osborne here on the SHS campus, and I am very proud that he is our 2022-2023 SHS Teacher of the Year!"

Boyd added comments from fellow staffers, including these:

"Mr. Osborne does a great job; the student learn Math and enjoy his class"

"He is a hard worker and is willing to do what is needed to give our students the best chance to succeed"

"He goes above and beyond for his students"

Osborne became a teacher after serving a career in US Army. He began serving in the US Army Reserves while a Senior in High School, in St. Louis. After going to basic training at Fort Leonardwood, he attended Southwest Baptist University pursuing a BS in mathematics and a minor in Military Science. In 1994, he graduated and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant, and entered active duty as an Intelligence Officer. He served in South Korea and at Fort Hood Texas. In the summer of 2000, he completed his service to the country and began teaching three college level developmental mathematics courses at Central Texas

College. In 2001, he began teaching high school math at Shoemaker High School, and completed an alternative teaching certification. He has been teaching high school math for 21 years, at Shoemaker, five; Belton, two; Temple, six; and Salado, eight.

"The reason for getting into education, was first I have this habit of eating, that I like," Osborne said. "In all seriousness, I enjoy mathematics and enjoy helping students learn mathematics."

"Highlights of my educational career: When a former student is pursuing a PHD in rocketry, when a former student decides to become an actuary, when a student of mine decides not to take his life and when struggling students learn the discipline of learning math and become successful," he added.

Temple Commandery gives to 2 local charities that serve school children in need

Temple Commandery #41 Knights Templar made donations to two back-to-school drives last week as part of its community work. The Commandery has members from Salado, Belton, Temple, Killeen and other local Masonic lodges. Above, William Arnett and Brian Arnett deliver back-to-school clothing and shoes for three students as part of the Appletree Project, an annual clothing drive to serve students in need in Salado, Bartlett and Holland. Christine Hasha, board member and Appletree coordinator is shown accepting the donation. The Appletree Project served 60 students this year. Heart and Hands Ministries brings food to families in need twice a month. It is located in Salado Plaza, 213 Mill Creek Dr., Suite #125. To find out more, visit <https://heartandhandsministries.com>. Below, the Arnetts, on behalf of Temple Commandery, presented a check for $200 to JR Lett, President of Salado Family Relief Fund to adopt four students through Project Backpack. Salado Family Relief provides back-to-school supply kits and new backpacks to about 150 Salado ISD students in need each year. In addition, Salado Family Relief brings new toys to children in need each Christmas, serving about 150. To find out more, visit <https://saladofamilyrelief.com/>

Fire danger continues as hot, dry conditions persist

Texas A&M Forest Service warns of increased wildfire danger, as high temperatures and dry conditions continue to impact the state.

“Since mid-July, wildfire activity has increased substantially across Texas due to expanding drought conditions,” said Wes Moorehead, Texas A&M Forest Service Fire Chief. “Over the past two weeks, state and local firefighters have responded to 280 wildfires that burned almost 10,000 acres.”

Elevated fire weather, characterized by triple-digit temperatures, low humidity and increased wind speeds, will create an environment with high potential for wildfires that are difficult to control this week.

The threat of wildfires will be present for broad regions of the state, including along the I-35 corridor between Dallas, Waco, Austin and San Antonio, and extending west to Kerrville, Brady, Brownwood and Eastland.

Regions with increased risk also include areas east of I-45 and south of I-20, including communities near Jacksonville, Center, Lufkin, Crockett, Huntsville, Woodville, Cleveland, Kirbyville and Jasper.

Always obey local burn bans and outdoor burning restrictions. Wait to conduct any outdoor burning or light campfires until the burn ban has been lifted and weather conditions improve.

Stay wildfire aware. If a wildfire is spotted, immediately contact local authorities. A quick response can help save lives and property.

For more information about summer wildfire prevention, visit <https://tfsweb.tamu.edu/summerwildfires/>.
